

GOOD MORNING!

Have you read the News and Observer?
It gets all the news; and faith, it prints it. Now that the campaign is about to open, suppose you have it sent to your address for the next three months.

First Edition, 1.30 A. M. Democrats Will Win.

JUDGE RUSSELL DOESN'T THINK MUCH OF THE FUSION TICKET AND ITS PROSPECT.

He is of the opinion that Dockery will Withdraw in the Sixth and that Shaw will be Elected in the Third—Says Democrats Don't have Elections, they just Name their Man and Count Him in—Has Doubts About Settle Being Returned—He Declared that the Democrats would Capture Everything—Commodore Kirkland, of North Carolina to take Charge of the European Squadron about the First of October.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 10.
Special to the News and Observer.
Commodore Kirkland of Hillsboro, who was recently promoted to the command of the European squadron, and who will take charge about the first of October, is now making his arrangements to leave the South American squadron for his new field. Admiral Ramsay of the Navy Department gives the following career of Mr. Kirkland: "William A. Kirkland was appointed in the navy on July 2d, 1850. In 1855 he was attached to the sloop "Portsmouth" and frigate "St. Lawrence." In 1854 he was in the Pacific Squadron, and in the Naval Academy, 1856. On June 20th, 1856, he was promoted and passed midship-man. In 1857 he was connected with the Brazil squadron on frigate St. Lawrence.
In 1857-9 he was connected with the sloop "Falmouth" of the same squadron.
On March 18th, 1858, he was commissioned as lieutenant. He changed his position again in the Brazil squadron in 1860 to the sloop ship "Release," then to the frigate "Congress" and in 1861-2 was connected with steamer "Wyoming" on the coast of Brazil. On July 16, 1862, he was commissioned as lieutenant commander and was transferred to the "Jamestown" of the China station, but in 1863-4 made another change and was connected with the steam sloop "Wyoming" of the East India Squadron. He commanded the iron clad "Winnebago" in 1864-5 in the Western Gulf Blockading Squadron. He served under Acting Rear-Admiral Thacker in the combined movements of the military and naval forces against the forces of the city of Mobile, which resulted in the capture of that place and the surrender of the Confederate fleet. He was commissioned as commander in 1864, and commanded store ship "Guard" in a special service of 1873. The next year he was commanding the "Wasp" in the South Atlantic Squadron. In April, 1880, he was promoted as captain. In 1883-4, he was commanding the receiving ship "Colorado." He was in command of the Navy Yard, New York, 1885-6. In 1890 he was Supervisor of the Harbor of New York.

Mrs. R. C. McNeill, of Little River Academy, who has been visiting here, has returned home.
Judge J. C. L. Gidger, of the Treasury Department, left last night for North Carolina where he will spend two or three weeks.

Mr. D. H. Graves, of the Interior Department, has gone to Buncombe county for a short vacation.

Correspondence News and Observer.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.
Judge D. L. Russell, of Wilmington, who passed through this city Saturday on his way to New York, spoke in a tone concerning the Republicans and Populists which was not very encouraging as to their success in the coming elections.
A few of his remarks were telegraphed Saturday but his conversation is here given in full. His first words concerning the coming campaign was, "The Democrats will capture everything they can get—yes, every county. In my district Dockery, I think, will withdraw since the Populists have brought out their man. I was offered the nomination for Congress myself by the Republicans and Populists, but I would not have accepted even if I had been certain of election, because I have too much business to attend to and I could not neglect it to enter the campaign fully." Concerning the work in the third district Judge Russell said: "Shaw will be elected—I don't think there is any doubt of it. The fact is the Democrats will carry everything. They couldn't though if they would have elected their man and put him in office. They won't count the votes. If they did, they wouldn't count every twenty counties. No, not even twenty. They might carry Cleveland, but they wouldn't fall altogether in Catawba. They might carry one or two beyond the mountains, and one or two isolated here and there but the members would be few, I tell you. There is Duplin; they used to carry it with fair elections by about 700 or 800 majority. If a fair election would be held there today they would fall by about the same majority. In the eastern part of the State where the Populists and Republicans are in confusion the Democrats will be able to carry more counties than I think for by buying up the floating negro, who doesn't know where he is or what he is going to do." Judge Russell then was silent for some time. He was silent for while, but the allegation of Democrats, failing to count the legal votes was uppermost all the time in his mind and in

ENGLISHMAN'S GOVERNOR DEFIES ENGLISH EXAMINATION INTO LYNCHING IN THE SOUTH.

The Game Cock of the Shenandoah Throws Out His Gaffs at the British Lion, But Shows by the Law Which He Has Enforced Ever With the Aid of the Military.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 10.—Governor O'Ferrall received last night the following telegram from the New York World.
NEW YORK, Sept. 9.
To Governor Charles T. O'Ferrall, Richmond, Va.
An English committee has been sent here to investigate and denounce Southern lynchings. Will you please telegraph us what you think of English meddling with our affairs?
THE WORLD.

The Governor's reply:
COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA,
Richmond, Va., Sept. 9.
The World, New York:
"Things have come to a pretty pass in this country when we are to have a lot of English moralists sticking their noses into our internal affairs. It is the question of brass and impudence. They are talking about and writing the great North Carolina State Fair. Many business men of Raleigh are talking about it in letters to their correspondents.
The manufacturing enterprises of the city are going into it on a broad scale.
Mr. J. S. Myers, of Raleigh, and Mr. Cotton Mills, has promised to make a better exhibit than he had at the exposition. The Pilot Cotton Mills some time since said they would be in it. Caraleigh was on hand last year and will possibly outdo itself this year. The Tuckers have engaged one whole side of Floral hall and part of the centre. The Julius Lewis hardware company have preempted a large space. The Berwangers have set a model drug store. The North Carolina Car Company declares its purpose to enter sweep in front of their own doors before they regulate us. We might as well investigate English affairs in India, her White Chapel murders, her Jack the Ripper slashings, the Maybrick trial, and her alleged injustice to this woman; her rapaciousness in the colonial policy in Africa, and the degrading effects upon the Chinese resulting from her opium war.
What do they propose to do in case they find that the law is not administered here according to their idea? Declare control and us open the vials of their wrath upon our heads?
What information do they seek? Do they want to know that the white people in the South have lynched negroes whose miserable lusts led them to the commission of the black crime of rape upon white women? If so they need not investigate, for such in the fact. Do they desire to know that this has been done by inferior communities for the protection of their white women and to save the victims of the humiliation of testifying in courts? If so this is the fact.
Do they want to know whether there was any doubt as to the guilt of the men if so, for the satisfaction of their yearning souls; they could have ascertained without encountering the perils of a sea trip that their guilt was clear in every instance.
If they had desired to learn whether lynchings were permitted or condoned by the civil authorities, they could have learned through the regular channels of correspondence that every case the civil authorities were either without knowledge or were overpowered in Virginia, the authorities in every case have asserted all their power to suppress the lynching spirit, and without violence with military, at heavy expense to the State, three negroes who were charged with outraging a white woman. They had fair trials, were convicted and executed. While Lynch law is to be condemned and every effort
in the South, without the aid of these would-be philanthropists who have taken so much themselves, lynchings will survive as much as the crime of rape ceases.
These sympathetic Englishmen might find missionary work among the negroes of the South, but they are not the consequences of the forcible gratification of their devilish lusts.
CHARLES T. O'FERRALL,
Governor of Virginia.

WHAT DO YOU TAKE MEDICINE FOR?
Because you are sick, and want to get well, of course.
Then remember that Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures.
All that we ask is, that in taking Hood's Sarsaparilla you will do so with perseverance, and without approaching the tenacity with which your complaint has clung to you. It takes time and care to eradicate old and deep-seated maladies, particularly when they have been so long hidden in the system that they have become chronic. Remember that all permanent and positive cures are brought about with reasonable moderation. Hood's Sarsaparilla attacks disease vigorously and never leaves the field until it has conquered.

JARVIS AT GOLDSBORO.

The Senator at his Best—Black-and-Tan-Butter Cook to his Heels.
Special to the News and Observer.
GOLDSBORO, N. C., Sept. 10.—At 2 o'clock to-day a large crowd gathered, estimated from eight hundred to twelve hundred; a good many Third party-ites. Governor Jarvis spoke for over two hours on the platform on the court yard square. Good order and the best of attention was given him; no enthusiastic applause or demonstrations, but the crowd rather impressed your correspondent with the idea that they came to listen and to learn.
Mr. B. F. Aycock presented the speaker to the crowd.
The Governor began by saying "it is with some little embarrassment that I arise to address you to-day. I have been in every campaign since the war, except the years that I was out of the country." He lay down the premises that this country was not as it is in England and other foreign countries, but that the people of this country were the power and the officers were the servants of the people; that when he advocated the election of a United States Senator by the people at the polls he did not mean or intend anything but good for the Democratic party, and that when he advocated the primary he did not mean to raise himself in power, but that it was the interest of the party that he was in favor of a separate ballot box for the people to vote at the polls for U. S. Senator. He then discussed the three great questions, economy of the government, the tariff and the money question. He showed under the Democratic administration that the expenses of the government had been reduced. He spoke of the bounty paid to the sugar producer of 2 cents, per pound, that this was a law made under the Republican administration, that this was an intrenchment on the part of the Republicans, but that the Democrats had taken this 2 cents a pound bounty off, and that the tax was now now 40 per cent. He discussed freely the tariff question and showed how much cheaper to the consumer the necessities of life would be under the new law, passed, than under the McKinley Republican law.
He advised the people not to buy any of their woolen and worsted goods until after December 1st, as they would then see the biggest tumble in such goods that they ever before saw, as the new law would go into effect next January. He said that the Republican platform at Raleigh denounced the reduction of the tariff for the benefit of the people, and that the Third party people were asked to vote with them on such a platform; asked if it would be on the free list.
The Governor said that he was here to tell the truth, as he believed it to be; told how, under the new law, salt was free, while under the old McKinley law there was a tax of 12 cents per hundred pounds for all used by the people of this country, and that while the pork packers in Chicago paid a duty of 8 cents per one hundred pounds on salt for meat shipped out of this country, that under the McKinley law they got it back from the government. The Governor had samples of good pork from foreign countries, and showed them to the crowd, and told them how much would be saved to the consumer under the new law. A larger per cent of the crowd was from the country; and the Governor gave them much food for thought to carry home with them. He said he stood squarely on the State platform in regard to the money question, free and unlimited coinage of silver, at a ratio of 16 to 1. He said that of all the questions, that this country was interested in the money question, in his belief was the greatest, that while he believed Mr. Cleveland in regard to it has any man, that he did not believe that he would sign any law that would reduce the gold standard, pass, on this question; but that Democrats would stand firm together and not divide, we would be bound to win the fight, and would have a President that would agree with a Democratic Congress on the money question after awhile.
In conclusion, he said, that it did not make any difference to the people what a man was named that would represent them in the United States Senate. The question was, what he thought for the good of the people. He said "I don't know whether or not it will give you pleasure to send me or not, and if you please I will be false to my trust, see to it I don't go. It matters not to me, so much as you might suppose whether I go or not. I have a good law practice in Greenville that I can return to. That not for all the offices in the world, or for any gift in the power of the people to bestow would he concede his honest opinions or go against the interest of the people. That he was in this fight to stay.

At the Meeting of the Democratic Clubs on the 20th, Hon. Hoke Smith, Hon. Charles H. Mansur, Hon.
Charles F. Blinn, Lawrence Gardner and Senators Ransom and Jarvis Will Speak.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 10.—Hon.
Charles H. Mansur, Second Comptroller of the Treasury, has accepted President Julius S. Carr's invitation to speak at Caleigh September 20th. It is the occasion of the State Convention of Democratic Clubs, and is to be made a great occasion. The other speakers will be Hon. Hoke Smith, Secretary of the Interior; Chancery F. Black, President and Lawrence Gardner, Secretary National Association of Clubs; and Senators Ransom and Jarvis.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Sept. 10.—Leaders and a drizzling downpour that started the colors of the elaborate street decorations a running and gaving them temporarily demoralized appearance, ushered in the opening day of the Twenty-eighth National Encampment of the Grand Army Republic. It was not a very appreciative greeting for the veterans who were up and around with break of day, although the jolly ex-Tar-sars composed the feet of the Naval Veterans Association rubbed their hands as they promenade the decks of their vessels on the Monongahela, and declared that a seaman's land parade without a watery accompaniment, would hardly be considered in proper form. Jupiter Pluvius, however, evidently gave the latter a second thought for after breakfast the clouds cleared away and the sun shone brightly until the Tars had considered their route.
Then the intermission showers made a re-appearance. Nearly a thousand and six-seaman, representing some eight thousand members, scattered over the entire grounds, through the principal annual parade of the National Association of Naval Veterans. It was the largest turnout, and the finest in point of appearance in the history of the organization. The firing of an admiral salute at the various associations to form in line for inspection. It was half past nine when the head of the column received the signal to move. Along the line of march, which extended from the Smithfield street bridge through the principal streets of the city to Cedar avenue in Allegheny, a distance of over three miles. The sidewalks were packed with spectators and the ex-sailors were given repeated ovations.

Speakers Appointed by Chairman Pon for the State Canvass.
The following list comprises a part of the speakers who have been appointed by Chairman James H. Pon for service during the campaign.
The dates and places also are given and the chairman will be obliged if State and county papers would copy for the information of those interested.
H. O. MILLER, Salisbury.
"I will have an exhibit. I will do all I can to interest others."
W. R. CARMARTHEN, Avoca.
"I am doing what I can in a quiet way to insure the success of our State Fair, and expect to insert an article in our county paper, writing it up. I also propose, D. V. to make an exhibit and to myself the best of the clear and being on hand when it comes off. Its get up and come off has my entire sympathy and hearty best wishes."
WHARTON J. GREEN, "Tokay," N. C.
"I have been taking fair all along the line with good prospects for a large attendance from this section. Several of my neighbors are anxious to exhibit mules, horses, etc."
D. RIDG PARKER, Trinity College, N. C.
"I expect to have on exhibition grades of fine tobacco. Whenever an opportunity affords itself, I shall not be found wanting to speak a good word for the fair."
W. C. JACKSON, Wm. W. C. C.
"I have talked fair all the way on my visit to the mountains, and done what I could to get up some interest, and feel that my efforts have not been in vain.
Yes, sir, we are going to have a "rouser"
if all signs don't fail."
J. W. CRENSHAW, Wake Forest, N. C.
"I am glad to see the active work you are doing to push the fair to the front; new stables, whitewashing, &c. If we have a fair week we will have a big fair."
J. S. WINSTON, Cuningham, P. O., N. C.
"I will do anything I can to assist you."
FRED KIDDER, Wilmington, N. C.
"Success to the fair. I will exhibit fowls."
R. L. SIMMONS, Shelby, N. C.
"I want to exhibit five or six coops of pit games."
W. L. SAUNDERS, Durham.
"I assure you that I fully appreciate your work, and whenever I can be of service to you, you have but to command
me. Will let you hear as to entries soon, as Mr. Scott will be here in a few days."
GREENSBORO, N. C.
H. B. BATTLE, Director.
"We are pleased to know that you look to us for some help in making the Fair a success. We will exhibit articles manufactured by this company."
W. E. ASHLEY, N. C. Car Co., Raleigh.
"I am talking "Fair" all I can, and am going to make an exhibit."
D. H. MASSEY, Director.
"I will do all in my power to further the interests of the fair. I shall take a trip through Eastern Carolina in its special interest."
J. C. MEEKINS, Jr., Norfolk, Va.

THE GREAT STATE FAIR.

Grand Time in the Air—Interest Spreading and Increasing—Every- body Working and Coming.

There's a suspicion in the air that the coming fair, October 23-24, will be the most notable one in the history of the State. People feel it everywhere. It's a conviction that prevails all over North Carolina. Influential citizens in all sections are helping to make it a great success. Raleigh people are taking hold of it with vigor, enthusiasm and liberality never before noted. The opinion that a grand time is coming has broken over land and sea, and people in other States
North Carolina State Fair. Many business men of Raleigh are talking about
it in letters to their correspondents.
The manufacturing enterprises of the
city are going into it on a broad scale.
Mr. J. S. Myers, of Raleigh, and Mr. Cotton
Mills, has promised to make a better exhibit than he had at the exposition. The Pilot Cotton Mills some time since said

in India, her White Chapel murders,

from her opium war.
What do they propose to do in case
wrath upon our heads?
they want to know that the white people
in courts? If so this is the fact.
Do they want to know whether there was
any doubt as to the guilt of the men
if so, for the satisfaction of their
yearning souls; they could have ascer-
in every instance.
If they had desired to learn whether
condoned by the civil authorities,
law is to be condemned and every effort
so much themselves, lynchings will survive as much as the crime of rape ceases.
These sympathetic Englishmen might
consequences of the forcible gratification
of their devilish lusts.

Governor of Virginia.

WARRENTON, N. C.
"I hope for quite a success, and that crops are now good and the people of all classes will to that account be inclined to take a trip for pleasure and improvement."
J. S. MYERS, Charlotte.
"I hope I shall be able to send something this fall. I shall also be pleased to have any influence I may have to induce any of my neighbors to send exhibits."
THOS. A. COX, Cullowhee, Jackson Co., N. C.
"I shall have published in our local paper the names of a number of Confederate and Union veterans, and in the and in the same endeavor to arouse an interest on the part of our people in behalf of our exhibits." H. C. HALL, Hickory, N. C.
"I have done what I could to arouse interest in our State Fair and will continue to do so as well as I can."
H. O. MILLER, Salisbury.
I can to interest others."
W. R. CARMARTHEN, Avoca.
"I am doing what I can in a quiet way
to insure the success of our State Fair,
being on hand when it comes off. Its
pathy and hearty best wishes."
WHARTON J. GREEN, "Tokay," N. C.
line with good prospects for a large attendance from this section. Several of
mules, horses, etc."
D. RIDG PARKER, Trinity College, N. C.
"I expect to have on exhibition grades
of fine tobacco. Whenever an oppor-
wanting to speak a good word for the fair."
W. C. JACKSON, Wm. W. C. C.
that my efforts have not been in vain.
Yes, sir, we are going to have a "rouser"
if all signs don't fail."
J. W. CRENSHAW, Wake Forest, N. C.
J. S. WINSTON, Cuningham, P. O., N. C.
you."
FRED KIDDER, Wilmington, N. C.
fowls."
R. L. SIMMONS, Shelby, N. C.
"I want to exhibit five or six coops of
pit games."
W. L. SAUNDERS, Durham.
me. Will let you hear as to entries soon,
as Mr. Scott will be here in a few days."
GREENSBORO, N. C.
H. B. BATTLE, Director.
manufactured by this company."
W. E. ASHLEY, N. C. Car Co., Raleigh.
D. H. MASSEY, Director.
special interest."
