BOTH HOUSES REPEAL LAW LET- TING OUT TO LOWEST BIDDER.

COMMITTEES ANNOUNCED.

The Fusionists Try to Elect President Pro Tem of Senate--Mr. Ewart and The News and Observer's Criticism of "Indecent Haste"--The Work of Amending Town Charters Begun--The First Disagreement Between Populists and Republicans.

The Senate convened at 11 o'clock. Prayer by R. V. Father Marion, of the Catholic church.

The journal of Friday was read and approved.

Bills and Resolutions.

Mr. Paddison, of Pender, to amend chapter 733, of the Code, relative to costs in criminal actions; Mr. Grant, of Wayne, to amend charter of the city of Goldsboro (abolishing wards and electing officers by the people); Mr. Starbuck, of Guilford, to instruct Senators and Representatives in Congress to use every honorable means to secure a repeal of the 10 per cent. tax on State banks; also a resolution recommending that our Congressmen endeavor to secure a repeal of certain objectionable features of the internal revenue law (placed on the calendar); Mr. Taylor of Harnett, to relieve W. J. Sutton, late sheriff of Bladen county.

On motion of Mr. Adams, Messrs. Mitchell and Mercer were added to the committee on Insane Asylums.

Leave of Absence Granted.—Senators Mercer, Hamrick and Westmoreland were granted leave of absence.

Public Printing.—Mr. Abell inquired if the bill repealing the law relative to State Printing had been sent to the House. He was informed that it had. Mr. Abell moved that the bill be recalled, and referred to the Committee on Public Printing, as he thought there was some misunderstanding among Senators in regard to the bill at the time of its passage.

On the question of recalling the bill there was considerable discussion. Mr. Mowborne explained his reason for introducing the bill to be prevention in making contract until the General Assembly had time to consider.

Mr. Starbuck favored recalling it, and didn't want to do what he had blamed Democrats for doing, in refusing to bid printing to the lowest responsible bidder.

Mr. Dowd said the Senate could not afford to take the public printing from the lowest bidder.

Mr. Moody asked if the Secretary of State, or the Committee on Public Printing, determined the responsibility of bidders. He was informed by Mr. Dowd that the committee was vested with that power.

Mr. Cook stated that he saw no reason for repealing a law to let printing to lowest bidder, when it would be necessary to re enact the same kind of a law.

Mr. Carver favored recalling the bill. Mr. Fowler stated that he was not present at the introduction of the bill and wanted to go on record against it. He wanted the lowest responsible bidder to have the printing whether he be a Populist, a Republican, or a Democrat.

Mr. Hoover thought the Senator from Lenoir (who introduced the bill) had been misunderstood.

Mr. Moody explained that the intention of the supporters of the bill was to get rid of the statute requiring bids to be received by Secretary of State by the second Wednesday in January.

Mr. Sharp, of Yadkin, wanted a law with less loop holes.

Mr. Franck, of Onslow, said the controversy could be ended by recalling the bill and referring it to the proper committee.

Mr. Candler, of Jackson, moved that resolution to recall the bill be tabled.

Mr. Adams demanded the yeas and nays.

The resolution to recall was tabled by a vote of 30 to 14.

A message was received from the House announcing the concurrence of that body in sundry bills and resolutions; and transmitting sundry bills to the Senate.

Mr. Franck Makes a Break.—Mr. Franck, of Onslow, inquired if the Governor's message ought not to be embodied in the statutes. The presiding officer informed him that it was not customary to embody the Governor's message in the statutes, but that it usually appeared in the journal.

Resolutions.—Mr. Norris offered a resolution that some minister of Wake county be invited to offer prayer in the Senate.

Mr. Rice moved that the Senate proceed to the election of a President pro tem.

Mr. Dowd believed such election at this time to be unconstitutional.

Mr. Rice stated that he was no lawyer, but that he did not think it unconstitutional; that there was a precedent in the election of a Speaker pro tem of the United States Senate.

Mr. Adams adhered to the opinion he had previously expressed, that the election of a presiding officer of the Senate except in the absence of the Lieutenant-Governor, or in case of his promotion to the office of Governor, would be a plain violation of the Constitution.

that the President of the Senate was going to abscond, and that they partook of the nature of an obituary.

Mr. Fortune, of Cleveland, thought the Senate only wanted to get in shape to do business.

Mr. Hoover saw no necessity for electing, for the term of two years, an officer which the Senate might never need.

Mr. Lindsay asked if a Speaker pro tem was elected for two years.

Mr. Moody believed it contrary to the constitution to elect a presiding officer pro tem at this time.

Mr. Starbuck suggested that if a presiding officer were elected unconstitutionally, all laws enacted while he presided might be declared unconstitutional and void.

Mr. Carver endorsed Mr. Starbuck's views from the bottom of his heart.

Mr. Rice stated that if it was unconstitutional to elect now, he would be willing to have two elections.

Mr. Starbuck said that would be child's play.

Mr. Cook re-affirmed his belief that the election could be legally and properly occur now, but that the president pro tem could only preside in the absence of the Lieutenant Governor.

Mr. Marshall enlightened the Senate with the information that the best way to do a thing was as good as any. He agreed with Mr. Moody.

Mr. Moody, addressing himself to the Fusion Senators, asked if we elect a presiding officer, and the Supreme Court declares laws made under his presidency unconstitutional, where will our boasted reform be?

Mr. Ammons thought the Senate safe inside the limits of the Constitution and moved to table the motion.

The motion was tabled by a vote of thirty six to six, the six voting may be Messrs. Black, Cook, Dula, Rice, Shaw and White of Alamance—all Re-publicans except Mr. Shaw. The Populists voting, save Mr. Shaw, were recorded as voting with the Democrats.

Mr. Carver Gets Out of Order.—By unanimous consent, Mr. Carver offered a resolution instructing Mr. Frank to hold himself in readiness to be President pro tem of the Senate.

Mr. Cook made a point of order, and Mr. Carver was declared out of order.

Having a Little Fun.—Mr. Moody offered the following humorous resolution: Resolved, That the City of Raleigh and the town of Waynesville be no longer considered as suburbs of the city of Hatteras, N. C., as it appears from the act incorporating said city of Hatteras that its corporate limits shall extend one thousand miles in each direction.

Referred to Committee on Penal Institutions.—Mr. Forbes moved that the Senate adjourn to meet at 11 o'clock Monday a. m.

Mr. Cook asked Mr. Forbes to change the time of meeting to 3 p. m. This was done, and the Senate adjourned at 1 o'clock.

It was announced that a joint caucus of Republicans would be held at the Capitol at 8 p. m. to nominate a United States Senator.

A Populist joint caucus was announced to be held at the Capitol at 2 p. m.

HOUSE.—Opened with prayer by Rev. L. L. Smith, member from Cleveland.

Mr. Ewart Tosses his Mine.—The journal was read and approved. Mr. Ewart, R. p., Henderson, rising to a question of personal privilege, sent to the clerk's desk and had read the following editorial extract from the NEWS AND OBSERVER of yesterday:

"Mr. Ewart, chairman of the Committee on Privileges and Elections, left the House yesterday during a discussion that showed that he and his committee, in their haste to try contested seats, had actually set for trial cases which had never been referred to the committee. On the case statements of contestants, the cases were taken up and dates set for hearing. Even Mr. Sempor Virgilus Lusk protested against such indecent and illegal haste."

Said Mr. Ewart: "Ordinarily I do not answer newspaper charges, as newspaper men have the last word, but this state seat is so unfair and so false that I deem it my duty to say that the statement that I left the House is not true. I never left the House, but was only absent a few moments in the speaker's room looking up some acts and other needed information. Now, Mr. Speaker, I do not think any man on this floor will deny that these election cases should be settled as soon as possible, and that there should be no wasteful or unjust waste of the money of the people incurred by delay. Both contestant and contestant are paid per diem and mileage, and this is not just to the taxpayers of the State. The taxpayers should see to it that no man should have per diem and mileage unless he is a member of the House of Representatives. The charge made by the editorial is that there has been indecent haste. As to indecent haste in the Jones county case, the statement was made by the contestant and his lawyer that papers had been filed with the clerk and that the contestant did not intend to come here. We declined to hear the letters written to certain parties that contestant did not intend to come, and stating, moreover, that he had qualified as chairman of the County Commissioners. We notified the contestant that we would continue the case so as to give him full opportunity to appear in his own behalf. In other words, those whom this communication charged with indecent haste offered to give a second hearing to the contestants. Is that indecent haste? I leave it to any gentleman to say whether there was any basis for the charge made by the Editor of the NEWS AND OBSERVER, or the Editor who wrote that editorial. Now, gentlemen, if after this statement any fair-minded man can say that there was indecent haste, I have nothing more to say."

Mr. French, R., New Hanover: Sent up memorial in contested election case of R. M. Croom vs. A. C. Ward, of Pender.

Mr. Peables, Dem., Northampton: "When I introduced that resolution yesterday concerning contested election cases I thought the committee was acting with undue haste and thought it was intentional, but after seeing the committee yesterday, I say that it was my impression that it was not rushing through the cases with undue haste."

Mr. Payne, Dem., Robeson: "I do not believe that there was any intentional haste on the part of the committee."

Bills Introduced.

Mr. M. Lean, Pop., Richmond, to form a new county from a part of Richmond county; Mr. French, Rep., New Hanover, to incorporate Wampoon Cotton Mills of New Hanover county; Mr. Ewart, Rep., Henderson, to repeal chapter 287, Laws 1889, and to secure to the people of this State a simple, pure elective system. (Mr. Ewart asked that 500 copies be printed, which was consented to);

Mr. Cox, Rep., Pitt, resolutions to instruct North Carolina Senators and Representatives in Congress to use their influence for an early settlement of the policy of the United States to prevent another issue of interest bearing bonds; Mr. Lusk, Rep., Buncombe: "Mr. Speaker, has the committee of fifteen been appointed on the election law?"

Speaker: "It will be appointed to-day."

Speaker: "The Chair lays before the House papers in the case of R. M. Croom vs. A. C. Ward, of Pender."

Bills Introduced.

Mr. Payne, D., Robeson: Resolution instructing our Senators and requesting our Representatives in Congress to secure an appropriation by Congress to aid in the support and maintenance of the Normal school for Croatan Indians in Robeson county; Mr. Hileman, P., Cabarrus (by request), act to amend chapter 147, Laws 1887; also, act to amend chapter 390, Laws 1885; Mr. Lusk, R., Buncombe, to incorporate Intra-Montana Railroad; Mr. Hunter, R., Madison, to provide for the establishment of a criminal court circuit, composed of the counties of Buncombe and Madison; Mr. Smith, D., Gates, to amend sec. 30 of the Code; Mr. Monroe, D., Wayne, act to provide for the appointment of three commissioners to codify the laws of North Carolina, to define the duties and powers of said commissioners, to fix their compensation and for other purposes;

Mr. Drew, P., Brunswick, to change the dividing line between the counties of Columbus and Brunswick; also act to repeal the charter of the Brunswick Bridge and Ferry Company; Mr. Lusk, R., Buncombe, to incorporate the town of South Biltmore; Mr. Franck, P., Rutherford, act to repeal an act creating an additional justice of the peace in High Shoals township, in Rutherford county;

Mr. Nelson, D., Caldwell, change the title terms of the Superior Court of the Tenth Judicial District.

Mr. Howard, D., Edgecombe, to repeal chapter 129 of the Public Laws of 1893; Mr. Pool, R., Pasquotank, act to rep at the present charter of Elizabeth city; Mr. Young, P., Wake, to provide for the better drainage of Walnut creek; Mr. Taylor, P., Cumberland, to regulate the number and time of addresses by counsel in the several courts of North Carolina; Mr. Rascoe, D., Bertie, to change the time for electing municipal officers in Windsor, Bertie county; Mr. Peace, R., Vance, act to protect persons holding first class tickets traveling on rail-roads and steamboats;

Mr. Reynolds, P., Montgomery: to allow John L. Stuart to peddle without license; Mr. Higgins, D., Yancey, for the relief of J. M. Woody, sheriff of Yancey county.

The Public Printing.—Message from the Senate: Senate bill number 6, entitled an act in regard to the public printing.

This bill is as follows: "that chapter 351 Laws 1893 be and is hereby repealed."

The endorsement by the new Senate Clerk H. E. King on the bill began as follows: "Concurred in 'proposition' to print, &c." (From the original spelling).

Mr. Young, R., Wake, moved a suspension of the rules and that the bill be put upon its passage.

Mr. Payne, D., Robeson, called for the yeas and nays on the question of suspension but as he said on the passage of the bill.

The vote on the motion to suspend was taken standing and resulted as follows: yeas 42; noes 46.

Mr. Ray, D., Macon, moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Printing.

Mr. Young, R., Wake, began a speech in which he said, "I see no reason why we should be deprived of the public patronage that there is in it."

Mr. Hileman, P., Cabarrus, asked the House not to refer the bill, and was followed by Mr. Lineback, R., Forsyth, who made a disastrous descent upon Raleigh and the wicked Democrats. Said Mr. Lineback, with his specs on and his book open at the act now in force: "This act was ratified the 6th of March, 1893, in order to give the printers in Raleigh a monopoly; it reads that the contract shall not be given to such a distance as to cause inconvenience." "which he construed as a vile conspiracy to confine the contract to Raleigh parties. 'This bill,' he continued, "was simply passed on account of the quarreling over the speils among the Democrats."

"I rise to a point of order," said Mr. Ray, D., of Macon. "On this motion to refer, I don't think it is in order to discuss the merits of the bill."

The point was sustained.

"Well I have got in what I wanted to say, anyhow," said Mr. Lineback. (Much laughter.)

Mr. Turner, R., Polk, moved to reconsider, but was ruled out of order.

Mr. Ewart, R., Henderson, moved to lay on the table the motion of the gentleman from Macon, who in turn called for the yeas and nays.

Mr. French reminded Mr. Ewart that a two thirds vote would be necessary to take it up when tabled, and amid the amusement of the House, Mr. Ewart withdrew his motion.

Mr. Monroe, D., Wayne, referring to the remarks of Mr. Lineback, said that if the Democrats had passed the bill on account of dissensions, he was glad, for he believed in peace-makers, for whom the good Book had a blessed promise.

Mr. Franck, P., Rutherford, rose to a point of order that the gentleman was not confining himself to the motion for reference.

Mr. French moved to postpone the discussion until Monday at twelve o'clock, then to be made the Special Order Carried.

The resolution of Mr. Peables coming up as undisturbed business, Mr. Peables asked that it be passed over informally, which was done.

Committees Announced.

Adjourned to meet Monday at 10.

Theatrical people suffer greatly from chapped faces, produced by the daily application of paints. Nothing is so effective in curing chapped hands or faces as Quatrol Face Wash. It is used by members of the "Fencing Master" opera company, "Robin Hood" opera company, Gorton's Famous New Orleans Minstrels and many others.

A New Danger.

A great danger threatens the people of the South. An evil that is steadily growing, and unless checked will cause great misery and suffering. Liver medicines, called by all sorts of names, are being sold to the druggists to be handed to the people when they call for Simmon's Liver Regulator. Beware!

There never has been more than one Simmon's Liver Regulator on the market. Take nothing else. The person who tries to persuade you that anything else is just the same is not to be relied upon, nor is the dealer to be trusted who tries to sell you another article in its stead. You know what Simmon's Liver Regulator is, because it has done you good. No; don't be deceived into trying anything else. Wait until the old friend, Simmon's Liver Regulator has failed you, then will be time enough to try something else. Remember, Simmon's Liver Regulator is what you want. It is put up only by J. H. Zeilin & Co., and a Red Z is on every package.

A Racking Cough cured by Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Dear thirty years ago, I remember my father describe the wonderful curative effects of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. During a recent attack of La Grippe, which assumed the form of a racking cough, accompanied by an aggravated cough, I procured some of these medicines partially cured the coughing during the day, and the refreshing action of the lungs which I had felt the moment I attempted to breathe again. After ten or twelve days' use, I was cured.
