THE DEBATE IN THE HOUSE YESTERDAY ANYTHING BUT A LOVE FEAST.

PITT COUNTY'S SHERIFF-ELECT.

The Bond Question Precipitates a Warm Fight Along Party Lines, and the Fusionists Lose Their Heads-The Question Still Unsettled and Before the Committee-Election of Enrolling Clerk-Uninteresting Day in the Senate.

The Senate was called to order at 11 o'clock by Lieutenant Governor Doughton.

Prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. Daniel, of the First Presbyterian church. The journal of Tuesday was read and approved. Mr. Fortune, R., of Cleveland, was granted leave of absence.

"That article fourteen of the Constitution of the State of North Carolina be amended so that monopolies and trusts shall never be allowed in this State, and no incorporated company, co-partnership or association of persons in this State should directly or indirectly combine or make any contract with any other incorporated company, foreign or domestic, through their stockholders or the trustees or assigns of such stockholders, or with any co-partnership or association of persons, or in any manuer whatever for the purpose of fixing the prices or limiting the production or regulating the transportation of any product

Mr. Hamrick, P., offered an amendment to include the county of Rutherford.

It was stated by Senators advocating the bill that the people of these counties were dependent mainly upon the sale of stock for money. The stock market was just opening, and they had not had the money as yet to pay their taxes. The amendments were accepted, and the bill passed its second and third readings.

The Senate Takes a Recess.

Mr. Franck, P., moved the Senate take a recess until 12 o'clock, the hour of electing Enrolling Clerk.

Recess was taken. The Senate re-assembled at 12, and proceeded to vote for Enrolling Clerk. Mr. Dalby, P., of Granville, nominated W. Brown, P., of Granville county.

Mr. Brown received forty votes and Mr. Cullberson five.

Mr. Rice, R, of New Hanover. offered a resolution requiring a black-board to be placed in the Senate Chamber for convenience in publishing times and places of committee meetings. Mr. White, P., of Alexander, saw no use for black-boards, as they had not been used in the past.

Mr. Starbuck, R., thought a board might cost four or five dollars and was not in favor of going to so much apparently unnecessary expense. Mr. Wicker, P., of Chatham, didn't think the need of the board would justify the expense.

Mr. Carver, R., of Cumberland. hoped that the Senators would not forget that this was an age of progress.

Mr. Long, P., of Columbus, said he believed in economy and would vote against this expense. Mr. Fowler, P., said the discussion over this small matter had cost the State in waste of time more than a blackboard would cost. He favored having one.

Mr Candler R., moved to refer the resolution to the Committee on Finance. His motion was lost. The vote recurring on the resolution, it passed its second and third readings.

To Protect Terrapins.

A bill was introduced by Mr. Rice, R., of New Hanover, to amend chapter 156, Laws of 1889, regulating the time when terrapins may be caught in Brunswick county

House Vote Announced.

Mr. Paddison announced the following By Mr. McCaskey, P., of Martin, bill to vote of the House for enrolling clerk: Brown, P., 112, Culberson, D., 45, Mr. little flakes of saliva flew upon the hands Brown having received on joint ballot, 152 and Mr. Culberson 50.

> on motion of Mr. Cook, came forward and took the oath of office. The Senate then adjourned to meet at 11 o'clock to-day.

HOUSE.

To finger around with the tweezers, and pick up the most interesting thing done in the House yesterday would probably result in holding up to view House bill 135, introduced by Mr. Phillips, (Rop ,) of Pitt, which, in substance was for the purpose of reducing the official

Monroe that fire companies were exempted from the tax.

Mr. Walker, P., Rockingham, asked that H. B. 71 regarding the election of United States Senators be put upon its second reading, but on motion of Mr. French, the resolution was referred to the Committee on Federal Relations.

Senate Bill 40 was sent in and took its place upon the calendar, namely: to re-duce the official bond of the sheriff of Pitt county and asking for currency.

Mr. Julian's resolution to fix the opening and closing time of the House respectively at 11 and 1, and was referred to committee on the suggestion of Mr. French, who thought such a matter should be left to the House each day.

H R 73, to forbid smoking in Commons Hall, was adopted, after some patching up to include the time of the ession of the House and one-half hour before

H. B. 75, to amend sec. 80, chap. 307. laws of 1891, to revise the charter of the city of Winston, was explained by Mr. Lineback and passed.

Leave of absence was granted to Mr. Mitchell, of Franklin.

H. B. 78, to abolish all laws on print ing, was withdrawn, amended and referred to committee. A resolution was passed seating Mr. Henry Frank Brown, the contestee from tree, Morrow, Phillips of Randolph, Jones county, and he was duly sworn in. H. B. 84, to appoint cotton weighers in the town of Wilson was put back on the calendar. Now came up the Pitt county matter, above referred to, hot from the Senate. After Mr. Smith's objection, Mr. Philips waxed warmer, and told how the bad Democratic Commissioners would, when a bondsman would state his money worth look up the tax list to see whether everything was right. Mr. Julian: "Are not the collections larger than last year ?" Mr. Phillips: "Not according to my in-ormation." In fact there seemed to be formation."

a general lack of information by all those who advocated the bill. Mr. Cox, the young colleague of Mr.

Phillips, now lit in as if he was making the hair fly from Mr. Smith, of Gates, who is referred to by many members, as the "gentleman under the clock."

Mr. Cox said the bill was public because the people were interested and private because sheriff elect of Pitt county W. H. Harrington was interested. After this exquisite bit of analysis, the member from Pitt rose higher still. "2600 men." quoth he, "says that they are willing to trust W. H. Harrington. Then are we to say that five men are more powerful than 2600 !" This was in the nature of a Jim-dandy, and even father Lusk pricked up his ears at the tintinnabulation of the promising young man.

Lack of space forbids more detailed mention of the tirade that followed. The ground of legal remedy was firmly held by Ray and Smith. Mr. Phillips made another dive into the subject, and of the reporter, who was tak-ing notes. Mr. Lusk did a thing Mr. Brown was declared elected, and or two in the same line, and at the end went into a peroration that was as different from his begining as a warm place in a mill -pond is from a cold streak.

Listen! "Draco who wrote his law in blood-human blood (horrors,) would blush with shame upon the doing's of some of these commissioners.

There was a "rarring and pitching," Smith finally getting in another request to know the facts. "We don't want no facts," muttered Special to the News and Observer. Henderson of Wilkes to a member sitting by. But let it go. There will be more of it running through the session away and the trains are again running

H. B. 127, to amend Chapter 296, Laws GIFT TO WAKE FOREST COLLEGE 1893; H B. 128. to reduce poll tax of Cherokee county; H B. 129, to regulate suits in the Superior court of Cherokee county; H. B. 130, to reduce the cost of marriage licenses. Mr. Pool, R., Pasquotank, H. B. 181 to amend the usury law. Mr. Leary, P., Chowan, H. B. 132, for the relief of Miss Marian Skinner, of Chowan. Mr. King, D., Graham, H. B. 133, to relieve the sheriff of Graham county. Mr. Young, R., Wake, joint resolution 134, directing Secretary of State to en; dorse back and deliver to the bidders for the public printing and binding the checks deposited by them with him. Mr. Phillips (Senate bill 40), H. B. 135, to reduce the official bond of Pitt county. Mr. Ellis, R., Davie, H. R., 136, to seat Henry Frank Brown, contestant from Jones county. Adopted.

Message from Senate (Senate Res. 66) H. B. 127: to procure black-board for use of both Houses to be placed in Senate Chamber for the posting of the as cook in the family of the late Rev. meeting times, &c., of the several committees. Calendar.

WAKE FOREST, N. C., Jan. 16.

The Spring term of the college opened yesterday. New students arriving have so far carried forward the total registration of the session to 217. Others are expected in the next few days. The will of Miss Angeline White was probated in Raleigh Saturday. The es-tate will amount to $1,000. The will provides that the interest of this money shall be paid during their life to the surviving two sisters and brother, who are about fifty years of age, and upon their death the principal shall pass into th hands of the trustees of Wake Forest College, who shall apply the interest arising from it to the education of young ministers. This bequest is of special interest on account of the fact that it is the savings of thirty-six years of service James S. Purefoy, of Wake Forest. "Miss Angie,"as she was familiarly known here, was always a firm friend of the college, and especially of the cause of ministerial education. For the last six years of her life she resided at her own home some six miles away. She was about seventy years ef age.

The Literary Club met Friday evening last at Prof. Carlyle's house. Robert Browning continues to be the course of study. "The Death in the Desert," Rabbi Ben Ezra," "By the Fireside "Prospice" and "The Guardian Angel" were read. The January meeting of the Scientific

Society, postponed on account of exami-nations, was held last night. Prof. J

H. Gorrell, Ph. D., read a paper on the Science of Language, which so delighted the Society that it was requested for publication in the Student. Mr. J. D.

The chair announced the receipt of the report of the State Librarian. The report was read and referred to the committee on education.

The Calendar Taken up.

Senate resolution, No. 33, requiring the Secretary of State to furnish information relative to insurance companies doing business in the State, passed its second and third readings.

The Public Printing Again.

Senate bill, No. 54, authorizing joint committee of the Senate and House to call upon the Secretary of State and award contract for public printing was taken up. This bill pro-vides that the public printing shall be let out to the lowest responsible bid-der; that no bids from outside the State shall be considered; that contract shall be awarded only to a practical printer, who shall be required to give a good and sufficient bond for the faithful execution of the work.

On motion of Mr. Cook, R., the bill was ordered referred to the Committee on Public Printing as soon as that com- the Democrats, put in nomination Mr. mittee was announced.

Enrolling Clerk.

A message from the House was re- vote. ceived asking the Senate's concurrence in a proposition to elect an enrolling clerk at 12 o'clock. The proposition was agreed to, and the Chair appointed Messrs. Mitchell and Paddison tellers on the part of the Senate.

Mr. Carver, R., stated that there was need of more towels for the use of Senators. He was directed to call the door keeper's attention to this fact. Mr. Herbert, P., of Clay, asked that the bill to extend time for Clay, Cherokee, Graham and Macon to settle their State taxes, be taken from the calendar.

Mr. Candler, R., offered an amendment to include the county of Jackson.

bond of the sheriff of Pitt county, so ceed $72 000.

The bond was lately by the Commissioners of Pitt county increased to $90,-000. The scond reading was asked for. This bill came up near the end of the proceedings, and fired one of the Popcrackers, when the whole pack of Pubs and 'Pubs went off with a rat-tat-tat which recalled Fourth of July fustian, or, to speak more exactly, the sweep of a stick down a picket fence.

The man who applied the live coal tothe first cracker was L. L. Smith, D. Gates, who very quietly arose after the sitting down of Mr. Phillips and suggested, as he read his authority from section 2,861, vol. II of the Code that a private bill must be accompanied by an affidavit of 30 days before its second reading.

Then the other side coughed up their little venom-sacks, and there was a glittering out and in of sharp tongues sheenful with poision.

But more of this presently; meanwhile, I shall follow the proceedings in order. The House was called to order at 11 o'elock by Speaker Walser, with prayer by Rev. John S. Woodard, Democratic member from Swain, and the journal was read and approved.

Mr. Peebles D., Northampton, handed the State. up an answer to be filed with the papers Mr. Lee. in the contested election case of Crews against Lyon, contestee, of Granville.

Bills and resolutions were introduced as per the list below, in the midst of which a message came from the Senate, stating that at noon to-day it would proceed to ballot on the election of an enrothing clerk.

Mr. Young, R., Wake moved that the House send the Senate a message that at 12 o'elock it, also, would be ready to go into the election of Enrolling Clerk. At the appointed time Mr. Hileman, P., Cabarras, nominated Mr. John W. Brown, of Granville, which nomination was seconded by Mr. Turner, R., of Mitchell, "with great pleasure."

Mr. McKenzie, Rowan, on behalf of J. K. Culberson, of Rowan. Mr. Brown was chosen by a strict Fusion Boss-whip

Mr. Smith, D., Gates, offered a resolation that a committee be appointed to examine the bids for the public printing and report them.

Just before adjournment Mr. Smith asked for the passage of the resolution, but was sawed off by French and Young, the former holding out for tomorrow and the latter "bucking" against the committee feature.

Mr. Alexander, D., Mecklenburg, porate the Carolina Mutual Fire Insur-ance Company of Charlotte, because it was not accompanied by a treasurer's re-ceipt, but did not, on being told by Mr. (Campbell, R., Cherokee, H. B. 126, to amend Chapter 296, Laws 1893; John Y. MacRae, Raleigh, N. C.
