

MAY 20TH., 1895.

ALL EYES ARE BURNED TO WARD RALEIGH FOR THE UNVEILING.

EVERYBODY AND HIS WIFE COMING

The Railroads are Making Arrangements to Handle an Unprecedented Crowd--The Citizens of Raleigh Called Upon to Raise a Fund for Entertainment--The City Will be a Mass of Bunting.

In less than one week the beautiful monument to the Confederate dead will be unveiled in Raleigh.

May 20th is the day and one p. m. is the hour. The grand daughter of the greatest soldier of the war, Miss Julia Jackson Christian will pull the cord that will permit the immense concourse of people to look with pride upon the noble shaft and the bronze figures of the ex-Confederate soldiers.

To the Citizens of Raleigh.

On Monday next, May 20th, the city of Raleigh will be filled with her guests; the honored veterans of the war between the States from every section of North Carolina and from our sister States; the gallant military and their guests, and our patriotic fellow-citizens throughout the Commonwealth.

It becomes the capital city to rise to the responsibilities of this great occasion. There is not an hour for delay. Our citizens are urged by every motive of honorable pride and generous public spirit, to contribute every dollar that is needed by Wednesday night, 15th. Our Committee on Hospitality needs all materials not later than Thursday, that two days may be devoted to proper preparations for the entertainment of the veterans and other guests. Let the Soliciting Committee be met with generous contributions. May this city, rich in her historic memories and now adorned by the work of the patriotic women, aided by the gift of the State, with this admirable monument, to be her pride forever crown the work of love by a welcome with open arms and the true hospitality of the glorious South.

C. B. DENSON, Chairman Com. of Arrangements.

Order of March of the Procession on May 20th.

The order of march of the procession May 20th, 1895, is now published for the information of citizens who may desire to decorate their places of business and private homes.

All are urged to exhibit, by some form of decoration, sympathy with the noble men to whose memory the day is sacred.

Assistant marshals will report promptly ready for duty at 9 a. m. to the chief marshal. Divisions will form on streets right and left of Fayetteville as the marshal will hereafter direct, near the Graded School, at 11 a. m. The procession will move at 12 m. sharp, in the order, to be hereafter announced, up Fayetteville street from South to Morgan, thence east to Wilmington, south to Martin, east to Blount, north to the Executive Mansion, where the Governor and the Executive guests will be received; thence north to Peace, west to Wilmington, south to Lane, west to Halifax, south to Jones, west to Harrington, south to Hillsboro, east to the Monument and Capitol Square.

O. J. CARROLL, Chief Marshal.

Finance Committee May 20th.

Messrs. T. T. Hay and J. E. Pogue, Messrs. T. T. Hay and J. E. Pogue, Chairman, G. W. Thompson, Treasurer; Julius Lewis, O. J. Carroll, Hal. W. Ayer, S. F. Telfair, G. M. Allen, R. E. Lumsden:

Will begin at once an active canvass of the city for funds, with which to meet the heavy expenses connected with the unveiling of the Confederate Monument, and the entertainment of the large number of veterans, military companies, bands and guests that will be present on the occasion.

The committee feel confident that the citizens will respond promptly, and liberally, and that ample funds will be provided with which to meet demands.

The above committee are requested to meet at 10 o'clock, in office 22 Pullen Building.

GEO. ALLEN, Secretary.

Platform and Seats.

The Platform Committee have been instructed to have erected a suitable platform for the speakers and officers, and also prepare seats around the platform to accommodate two thousand veterans and ladies. These seats will be under the splendid oaks, which so beautifully shade the Capitol Grounds.

In Charge of the Monument.

Captain B. F. Park, will have charge of the unveiling of the monument. The cord will be held by Miss Christian, the grand-daughter of the lamented Stonewall Jackson.

Excursion Trains for Everybody.

The Committee of Arrangements have been assured by the officers and managers of the various railroads in the State. That extra trains will be run on every road, and that they will be so run, as to land the passengers in Raleigh in ample time for the procession and unveiling ceremonies, which begin at 12 o'clock Monday, and are expected to be complete at about 3 p. m. Returning, the visitors can leave on any train, Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday.

Additional information can be obtained by applying to your nearest railroad agent.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed in the Spring, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. Only fifty cents per bottle at John Y. MacRae's drug store.

"She Will Tend the Grave."

NEWBERN, N. C., May 3.

To the Editor of the News and Observer.

In the issue of May 2, 1895 of your valued paper under the heading "She Will Tend the Grave," appears statements, which to say the least had their origin in the imagination of some fertile mind who, perhaps, would have more of a success in writing cheap and thrilling novels rather than chronicling the account of such a sad death as the one referred to therein.

It is not my desire to in any way speak lightly of the service rendered by the "old nurse," but simply to give a correct statement of the facts.

This "old nurse" lives and has lived in Newbern for many years, and I think all her life.

She had only been with Mrs. Hamilton for about three weeks prior to her death. The sad event occurred in Asheville on April 27, 1895.

About the first of April Mr. Hamilton wrote me to send this "old nurse" to Greenville, to be with his wife, if she would go, accordingly she left Newbern for Greenville and from thence to Asheville, about one week later.

As to Mr. Hamilton desiring to send the "old nurse" away to her brother it never entered his mind, as he never knew she had a brother.

He got her from Newbern, and never an idea of sending or taking her to any other place entered his mind. She has three daughters living here.

As to the "old nurse" not eating for two days and nights, I must state, that is not true. At Asheville she was provided with a lunch basket from which he ate regularly, and at Raleigh she was given money to obtain anything further she might need. As to her coming to Newbern to care for the grave of the "dead mistress," I presume that she will continue in the future as well as the past to live here, even unto her death. I have no doubt but that in her memory will live the fondest recollection of the one whose death all who knew her mourn, there are too many loving friends here but to allow the last existing place of the loved one to be other than cared for.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton were here from Massachusetts in 1890, and for one or two years after this the "old nurse" assisted from time to time, Mrs. Hamilton to nurse an invalid sister, who died in 1893. In March, 1894, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton moved to Greenville, N. C., where they have lived since, and the "old nurse" remained here until April, 1895.

It is with a feeling of deepest regret that I feel it my duty to write this explanation, but knowing all the facts as I do, and knowing how keenly the bereaved husband feels his loss, I could but state the facts, that a sympathizing public might feel for him who hath lost the brightest jewel on earth to him, and in justice to him, I hope you will publish this statement.

I do not presume, for one moment, that the writer of the article referred to had an idea of wounding the feelings of any one, but it does seem to me that before such an article should have appeared, that at least a careful examination of the facts should have been made, and not the hearsay statements of some gossiping servant, who, no doubt, added enough to picture one of her own race much above the ordinary human being. I hope that none of us fail to appreciate faithfulness in our fellow beings and I know that Mr. Hamilton has done his full duty by the "old nurse" and appreciates all she did for his loved ones during their lives, besides the pecuniary considerations paid her for all services rendered.

The statement made by the Raleigh correspondent of the Wilmington Messenger had no fact correctly stated in reference to this matter, and I know that it would be a satisfaction to Mr. Hamilton if the Messenger would copy this statement of facts and thereby do for him that which he so justly desires. No one knows Sam Hamilton who does not know him to be a faithful friend and a true man, and who was at all times a most faithful and devoted husband.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rives Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at John Y. MacRae's drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1.

A Bad State of Affairs.

The people of the South are being deceived in the purchase of imitation medicines. It's poor consolation to a sick man to be told that the medicine offered him certainly won't do him any harm. Wrong; it will do great harm. It allows the disease to progress instead of stopping it, and this is most dangerous, because the disease will soon be beyond cure. This is the best reason why you should be sure to get the right medicine. Don't risk your health in trying any of the many Liver Medicines which sprung up in the South to be sold in place of Simmons' Liver Regulator, put up by J. H. Zeilin & Co., with the Red Z on every package, this was the medicine of your fathers, and they lived long. Have nothing to do with anything else, or any druggist or dealer who would persuade you that the many imitations under different names are just as good. It's not true. The people who buy them heap up their miseries. Beware!

Chronic Nervousness

Could Not Sleep, Nervous Headaches.

Gentlemen:—I have been taking your Restorative Nervine for the past three months and I cannot say enough in its praise. It has Saved My Life, for I had almost given up hope of ever being well again.
