

THE LARGEST CIRCULATION OF ANY NORTH CAROLINA DAILY.

END IN A LOVE FEAST

BUT QUAY HAD HIS OWN WAY COMPLETELY WITH THE CONVENTION.

HIS CANDIDATES ARE NOMINATED

And he Dictated the Platform which was Adopted Declaring Against the Free Coinage of Silver--He is now the Hero as well as the Idol of the Republican Politicians--Though the Factions have been Brought Together the Compromise may not Last.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Aug. 28.—The Republican State Convention met here today and unanimously agreed upon the following ticket:

State Chairman, M. S. Quay; State Treasurer, Benjamin J. Haywood, of Mercer; Superior Court Judges (six to be elected): James A. Beaver, of Centre court; E. N. Willard, of Lackawanna; C. E. Rice, of Luzerne; George B. Orland, of Huntington; John E. Wickham, Beaver; Howard Reeder, of Northampton.

To-night Senator Quay is the hero, as well as the idol of Pennsylvania Republican politicians of all degrees of prominence. His rooms at the Lochiel hotel, have been constantly besieged since the convention ended, by men anxious to pay homage to his leadership. The Senator takes all of the praise and congratulations that are being showered upon him with his usual stoicism and so far as outward appearances go, his demeanor is just the same as when the fight seemed to be going against him.

The Convention, which started out with every promise of being one of the most exciting ever known in the State, developed into a "love feast," and wound up about as tamely as any ever seen here.

The first battle between the factions came on the election of a temporary chairman. The Quay candidate won by a majority of thirty, and after this the Senator had his own way completely.

An incident of the day was the offering by Senator Quay of a resolution calling for the purification of politics and civil service in all branches of the public service, which was afterwards embodied in the platform.

Regarding this document there was much discussion in committee.

Because of the fear that the outside rabble might break in, it was deemed unwise to open the doors of the hall after all entitled to admission were inside, and it was necessary for the fifty platform makers to get in one corner and discuss their business. The anti-Quay minority, led by Congressman Dalzell, fought for a more definite expression in favor of "sound money," and being outvoted in committee, brought their fight to the convention floor, and here carried their point without much opposition. Senator Quay accepted their plank as an addition to the one in his platform. The resolutions were prepared by men opposed to Gov. Hastings, and the matter of endorsing his administration was very nearly overlooked, a thoughtful delegate offering the necessary plank a few minutes before final adjournment.

The day was the hottest of the season and for more than four hours the delegates, newspaper men and spectators were imprisoned in a sweltering atmosphere without either food or drink. With a few exceptions, every man sat in his shirt sleeves, Senator Quay being one of the ones to set the example.

The delegates who arrived early found over 125 men in the hall, guarding the entrance to prevent toughs and heeled from taking possession of the premises. They had been there all night and showed evidence of their long vigilance and marched out of the hall shortly before the hour for convening. Although there was an outward indication of harmony and forgiveness, it is said that this extends only to Gov. Hastings and his friends. Those on the platform observed that Senator Quay did not look at or speak to C. L. Magee, David Martin and Senator Porter, the men who have led the fight against him and it is predicted to-night that the wounds, now temporarily healed, will be reopened in a very short while.

The money plank of the platform is as follows:

"We accept unreservedly the determination enunciated by the Republican National Convention of 1892; that we demand the use of both gold and silver money with such restrictions and under such provisions, to be determined by legislation, as will secure the maintenance of the parity of values of the two metals so that the purchasing and debt-paying power of the dollar, whether of silver, gold or paper, shall at all times be equal.

"Faithful to the Republican party, and believing it to be the settled doctrine of the party, that the honor of the nation and the interests of its citizens require the maintenance of a national currency, every dollar of which, whether in gold, silver or notes, shall be of stable value and of equal purchasing power, we hereby declare our opposition to the debasement of the national currency by the admission of silver to free and unlimited coinage at the arbitrary rate of 16 to 1."

A Bridegroom Suicides.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Aug. 28.—W. J. Geige, who was married Sunday, committed suicide Tuesday night. His body was found not far from his home early this morning. He had taken four ounces of laudanum. He was an attendant at the asylum and lost his place on account of his marriage.

NEWS FRESH FROM MEXICO,

For the First Time in History the Republics are United by Wire.

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 28.—The leased wire system of the Associated Press, through the co-operation of the Western Union Telegraph Company, has been extended from San Antonio to Laredo, Texas, on the border of Mexico, which connection is made with the system of the Mexican National Railway Co.

To-night for the first time in the history of Mexico, the two republics are united by direct telegraphic news connections and the full report of the Associated Press will hereafter be sent direct to the capitol of Mexico where it will be published by the Herald, the leading paper of the republic. The Associated Press will also receive the news of Mexico direct, and it is contemplated to deliver this news in New York and San Francisco within ten minutes of its filing.

Will Be of the Greatest Value.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—Regarding the extension of the Associated Press Lines from San Antonio to Laredo, on the Mexican border, and from there to the City of Mexico, over the wires of the Mexican National Railway Company, Mr. Raoni, President of the Mexican National, said:

"Although I can not, at the moment, discuss the business transactions involved in the scheme to establish a news line direct from the United States to the center of Mexico, I can speak of the advantage such an enterprise would be to both the United States and Mexico. My intimate knowledge of the country, and the present facilities for obtaining news, either from or for Mexico, has caused me to give the matter my hearty approval because I believe the effort to be in the interest of the development of Mexico, and consequently, in the interest of the people of the United States, who have business relations with the sister Republic. Heretofore any person in Mexico, having an item of news, interesting or otherwise, true or false, has had the privilege of sending that item to the press of the United States with the effect that many erroneous ideas have been fastened in the minds of the people of the United States regarding Mexican affairs.

"Furthermore, the fact that news of a political nature should be transmitted from the City of Mexico to Washington or the reverse, with almost no delays, and that such news would be authentic and reliable, would be of the greatest value to both republics."

EX-CONSUL WALLER'S CASE.

Probable That No Further Action Will be Taken at Present.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 28.—It is probable that no further action will be taken in the case of ex-Consul Waller until his statement taken by Newton B. Eustis and Mr. Alexander is received and examined. It is stated that the case then will be a purely legal one, and that the action of the department will depend upon the lawfulness of the French military court and its actions and the legal status of Mr. Waller's contentions.

The statements of Mr. Waller are to be compared with the statements of Consul Wetter at Tamatave, who has made a report to the department of facts gathered by him in Madagascar. There is yet wanting a copy of the record of the arrest and conviction of Waller, which record the French government has promised. If it is not forthcoming, the case will be that much stronger against the French government. If it has not arrived by the time the department is prepared to act upon the case as presented by Consul Wetter and Mr. Waller, the probabilities are that the French government will be asked to release the consul at once, and to indemnify him for the wrongs he has suffered.

The French Think it Unimportant.

PARIS, Aug. 28.—The Figaro this morning declares that the Waller affair is unimportant; that Waller was only an American Consul through accident; that he never did well and that his consular colleagues, in addition to the natives, shunned him. The Figaro adds: "Nothing serious can result from the negotiations regarding his condemnation, for he is not worth the trouble. The Castine incident is more serious; but any formal complaints should come from France and not America, which is entirely in the wrong. Moreover, the American newspaper campaign in this connection is nothing but an engine of election warfare without importance for us, and aimed much more against President Cleveland and Mr. Eustis."

NO TRACE OF MR. INMAN.

Believed that the Wealthy Young Cotton Merchant Was Drowned.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—No trace has been found of Robert W. Inman, the wealthy young cotton merchant since his yacht was run down in the Narrows Monday evening. A street car conductor named Joseph Kramer has told of seeing a well-dressed young man at a Staten Island resort Tuesday evening, who seemed to have just emerged from the water, and whose head was badly cut; but thus far there is no confirmation of the story, which has in it many elements of improbability.

A Blasphemer Paralyzed.

ATHENS, Ga., Aug. 28.—William Hayward, while profaning on Monday at High Shoals, and declaring there was no God, to heaven and no hell, was stricken with paralysis of the tongue. The matter has caused a great sensation in that community.

KNIGHTS GET TO WORK

THE BUSINESS OF THE CON-CLAVE BEGUN IN EARNEST YESTERDAY.

GREAT GROWTH OF THE ORDER

There Has Been a Great Increase in Membership Within the Past Six Years, as Shown by the Report of Grand Recorder Isaacs--The Financial Report Also Shows Increased Receipts From Year to Year for the Past Eight Years.

BOSTON, Mass., Aug. 28.—The business of the 26th triennial convocation of Knights Templars was begun in earnest today by the Grand Encampment, while the round of pleasure was resumed by the great body of the Knights with lively enthusiasm. Sessions of the Grand Encampment were held both morning and afternoon at Masonic Temple; the Grand Competitive Drill of the crack commanderies of the United States, Columbia, of Washington, D. C., Apollo, Commandery drill corps, of Troy, N. Y., "the little commandery," from the Masonic Widows' and Orphans' Home, of Louisville, Ky.; St. Bernard, of Chicago; Minneapolis K. T. drill corps and Detroit, of Detroit, Mich., was held at the south end baseball grounds. Many of the grand and subordinate commanderies kept open house all day, while excursions almost without number to the various harbor resorts and historic points nearby attracted thousands.

The meeting of the Grand Encampment in the Masonic Temple was largely attended, over 200 members being present. After the roll call, devotional exercises were conducted by Grand Prelate Vice Eminent Sir Jos. M. McGrath, and then Grand Master Most Eminent Sir Hugh McCurdy delivered his triennial address.

Acting Recorder V. Eminent Sir Wm. B. Isaacs Jr., of Richmond, Va., submitted his report.

In the table of comparison in his report Grand Recorder Isaacs submitted the following concerning the growth of the Knights Templars:

There were 813 subordinate commanderies in 1889 under the Grand Commandery; 22 subordinate commanderies under the Grand Encampment; 16,877 Knights in Grand Commanderies; 964 Knights in subordinate commanderies. Total membership of commanderies 87,724.

In 1892 the number of subordinate commanderies under the Grand Commandery were 880, and 30 under the Grand Encampment; 19,864 Knighted in Grand Commanderies; 990 Knighted in subordinate commanderies; 92,782 total membership.

There was 961 subordinate commanderies under the Grand Commandery in 1895 and 36 under the Grand Encampment; 11,531 Knighted in Grand Commanderies; 789 Knighted in subordinate; total membership 106,770.

The financial reports give a comparative statement of eight years back. In 1887, $3,538.40 was received from the grand commanderies, which sum was supplemented each year until it reached $5,128.60 in 1895. There were $396 received from subordinate commanderies in 1887, which increased year by year, reaching $528 in 1895.

The afternoon session of the Grand Encampment was called to order at 2 o'clock. The matter of time and place for the next triennial convocation has been referred to a committee composed of the following members:

D. W. E. Carroll, Pennsylvania; H. H. Montgomery, Illinois; H. T. Whitney, Minnesota; A. H. Holt, Washington, D. C.; M. J. Houck; Ohio; E. S. Lippett, California; S. E. Duanel, Idaho; R. H. Thomson, Kentucky.

The principal business this afternoon was the discussion of the matter of time and place. Invitations have been received from Minneapolis and Pittsburgh and the Associated Press representative learned this afternoon from an authoritative source that a canvass of the grand encampment shows that the next triennial convocation will be held in Pittsburgh.

During the day the committees were appointed on credentials, charters and grievances. At to-morrow's session the election of officers will be held and if the balloting is completed in time the place for the next convocation will be decided upon.

THE PORT ROYAL DOCK.

The Contractor Notified That he Must Make Good the Defects.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 28.—The contractor of the Port Royal dock has been notified of the finding of the Board of Naval Engineers, which recently examined the dock and notified that he must make good the defects. If the order is not complied with, the Navy Department will do the work and withhold the contractor's pay for the cost. The Board found the dock gates especially defective in that they were not strong enough to withstand the hydrostatic pressure.

THE CHINESE RIOTERS

A CONSIDERABLE NUMBER OF THEM ALREADY TRIED AND CONVICTED.

BY THE KUTIEH COMMISSION

The Chinese Officials Are Lending Their Active Co-Operation to the Investigation and Matters are Progressing in the Most Satisfactory Manner--The Conduct of Liu Ping Chang, Late Viceroy of Szu-Chuan, Will Also be Investigated by China.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 28.—The Department has received cable advices from Minister Denby, dated August 27th in which he states that Mr. Hixson, our Consul at Foo Chow, started for Kutieh under orders from him to investigate the recent riots in the early part of the month. Mr. Hixson went with the consent of the Chinese government and under the protection of an escort furnished him by the Provincial authorities. He was accompanied by a naval officer of our fleet, the latter, as the department has been advised from other sources, being Commander Newell of the Detroit.

Mr. Hixson reported to Minister Denby that the work of the committee at Kutieh is proceeding smoothly and that the Chinese officials are lending their active co-operation. A considerable number of convictions have already been secured. As to the Szu-Chuan Commission, Mr. Denby states that it will begin its work as soon as the British Consul at Chung-King, who has been designated by his government to serve thereon, can leave his post, which, for the time being, he finds it impossible to do.

The late Viceroy of Szu Chuan, Liu Ping Chang, has not been appointed by the Pekin government on its commission for investigating either the June or August riots, but he has received orders from the Emperor to remain at his post at Cheng Tu until his conduct prior to and during the riots had been thoroughly investigated.

The first paragraph in the above statement furnished by the State Department, completely disposes of a story sent from Washington by the United Press a few days ago, to the effect that Consul Hixson had proceeded hastily and without authority. The whole statement also disposes of another baseless story that Minister Denby's course was unsatisfactory and that he was likely to be recalled.

It is stated at the department that matters are progressing in China in an entirely satisfactory manner.

AMERICANS NOW IN LONDON.

Speaker Crisp Makes Another Visit to Parliament.

LONDON, Aug. 28.—There was a good representation of American public men this evening in one of the carriages of the great wheel at Earl's Court. It included ex-Speaker Crisp, Richard Croker, J. A. Smith, of New Jersey; Congressman Tarsney and McClellan, E. W. Barrett, of Georgia; David McClure, of New York, and others, all of whom talked politics. Mr. Croker ventured the assertion that New York would go Democratic in the autumn, which, he added, with the return of prosperity would make the Democratic chances good for the Presidential election.

Mr. Crisp visited the House of Commons to-day as the guest of Speaker Gully and saw a division counted. He afterward said he preferred the method of voting in Congress.

The ex-speaker, who has just returned from Ireland, said that after witnessing the prosperous condition of England and France, he felt sad while in Ireland at the evident lack of prosperity. He saw much want there but thinks it a beautiful country, and was charmed with the people.

AN INDIAN AGENT MURDERED.

The Deed Probably Committed by Gamblers and Whiskey Peddlers.

EL RENO, O. T., Aug. 28.—It is reported here to-day that Captain Baldwin, United States Army, acting agent at the Kiowa, Comanche and Apache Agency, at Anadarko, was murdered last night by Indians.

The report lacks verification as yet, but Federal officers credit it, except that they believe the murder was committed by gamblers and whiskey peddlers against whom Capt. Baldwin has been waging a relentless war for some time past. The report has created considerable excitement here and a party of marshals is on the way to that country.

An American Vessel Ashore.

HOLMES STICKS TO HIS STORY.

News of the Finding of Howard Pitzel Has Little Effect on Him.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Aug. 28.—News from Indianapolis that the supposed body of young Howard Pitzel had been located in the chimney of a house in the suburbs of that city was conveyed to H. H. Holmes, in his cell at Moyamensing prison by his attorney this afternoon.

The attorney had a long conference with the notorious prisoner in relation to this new phase in the case and states that Holmes did not waver in his claim that Howard Pitzel had been left in the care of Hatch and Minnie Williams on October 10th, last. Holmes' counsel said that his client is so accustomed to hearing of startling developments in the famous case, and has been so frequently accused of crimes which it would have been physically impossible for him to commit, that a little matter of the finding of a few human bones has not the slightest effect upon him.

The Trunk Identified.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 28.—To make sure that the trunk found at Irvington yesterday belonged to the Pitzel family, detective Geyer last night telegraphed to Mrs. Pitzel at Calva, Ill., inquiring if the children's trunk had a strip of calico pasted over a crack on the bottom.

The reply received at a late hour was: "Yes, the trunk had strips of blue calico, white figure, pasted over the crack the entire length of the trunk." The portion of the trunk found included the top and the bottom, with about six inches of the sides from the bottom up, with a crack in the bottom, where a cleat had been nailed. Over this is pasted a narrow strip of blue calico goods, torn from an old dress or apron.

KNOCKED OUT IN FIRST ROUND.

New England's Champion Middle-Weight Whipped by Joe Walcott.

BOSTON, Aug. 28.—Dick O'Brien, of Lewiston, champion middle weight of New England, was knocked out in the first round of what was to be a 25-round bout by Joe Walcott, colored, of Boston, this evening. The fight was the feature of the second evening in the Garrigue Club's carnival at the West Newton Street Armory.

More than 3,000 spectators were present. The fighting was sharp from the start, O'Brien for a second off, landing his left on Walcott's jaw and his right on the stomach.

Walcott then straight countered and almost immediately landed a telling blow on O'Brien's jaw and the Lewiston man went down. He recovered quickly, however, and both men went at it again in a rapid manner, but Walcott again found an opening and floored O'Brien, who again recovered his feet for the second time, but the next instant, Walcott planted a left on the heart and a right on the jaw and O'Brien fell and lay on the floor. When eight seconds had been counted, the gong rang for the end of the round. As O'Brien then showed no evidence of being able to proceed, referee Capt. Bill Daly, gave the decision to Walcott.

The murderer escaped.

AUGSBURG, Bavaria, Aug. 28.—The German Trading Associations, now in conference here, adopted a resolution today in favor of a gold standard.

WENT OUT FOR A SAIL

VALKYRIE AND VIGILANT YESTERDAY TOOK ANOTHER EXPERIMENTAL SPIN.

THERE WAS NO TEST OF SPEED

Even in a Light Breeze Valkyrie Moved Along Very Rapidly and Though her Sails were not Full Passed good sized Vessels as Though they were at Anchor--Great Crowds Watched the two Famous Yachts Anxious to Witness a Test of their Speed.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—Valkyrie III and Vigilant went outside Sandy Hook early today. The first named yacht to take another experimental sail in the waters where she is to contest for the American cup ten days hence, and the American sloop to "get a line" on the Britisher and test her qualities for the benefit of the syndicate's yacht, Defender.

Soon after 10 o'clock Valkyrie moved under sail carrying mainsail, staysail, jib and club topsail. The wind had shifted to the west, was blowing about eight miles an hour and the air was still somewhat hazy.

In the light air Valkyrie moved along very rapidly and it was noticed that she passed the fleet of good-sized sloops and schooners as though they were at anchor, and this in spite of the fact that her sails did not seem to be set very well on account of the breeze being too light to fill them.

The wind gradually fell away until 11:30 a. m. There was hardly enough to give Valkyrie steerage way and she eventually became almost quiet and becalmed off Romer Beacon, and thereupon went about and headed up the Swash Channel again, evidently not being able to stem the flood-tide with the light air then blowing from about south southeast. While heading back up the bay Valkyrie took in her jib topsail and soon afterwards became wholly lost to sight in the mist. She was sighted again from the highlands of Navesink shortly before 1 o'clock. There was very little wind blowing and she was beating down the ship channel. There was just enough breeze to keep her sails full and she managed to make headway against the flood tide. Valkyrie had a baby-jib-top-sail set when beating down the lower bay. The wind, due south was only blowing at the rate of about five miles an hour; but the cup challenger felt it and lay over at quite an angle under it. She also felt the breeze in another way, for she glided ahead through the water in slick style.

The Dunraven yacht made a couple of tacks during the next ten minutes, and it was clearly apparent that she was allowed to go about easily; but the impression formed yesterday that she is wonderfully quick in stays, was fully confirmed.

Vigilant hoisted her newly bent mainsail as Valkyrie stood down past the Hook on the starboard tack. This was at about 1:30 p. m., and the wind had died away almost to a calm. The challenger then had the last of a strong flood tide to buck against, so she practically came to a halt and bobbed up and down on the ocean swell. But after clawing away over the tide until she got well beyond the point off where the Valkyrie took in her jib-top sail at 2:20 p. m., and hauled her sheets aft again, she pointed closer up into the wind. Vigilant at that hour still lay at anchor with her racing mainsail set and her gaff top sail aloft. Valkyrie, however, only went out as far as the outside bar and at 3 p. m. she lowered her club-top sail and jib-top-sail and put about apparently with the intention of passing into the Horse Shoe again. The wind was then south, light, and the sky was cloudy.

As Valkyrie headed in towards the Horse Shoe, Vigilant was just getting under way and it looked very much as if the cup challenger was likely to give her another slip and thus raise the test of speed between them which the crowds assembled hereabouts have been so long anxiously wishing for. Valkyrie at 3:30 p. m. had returned to her moorings, having, apparently done all the sailing her handlers proposed to give her to-day.
