

COL. IKE HILL'S VIEWS HE BELIEVES THE DEMOCRATS ARE GOING TO SWEEP THE BUCKEYE STATE. HE IS WILLING TO BET ON BRICE

He Tells How the Gold Men Managed to Outwit Him and the Other Silver Men in the Ohio State Convention-- Foraker is a Buzz-saw--John Sherman has no Love for Him--McKinley Flying Kites at the Clouds--Campbell's Chances for Carrying the State

Washington Post. "Ohio? On the level I have hopes Jim Campbell will carry the State. He's the most popular Democrat we've ever had. And John Sherman and the abolition crowd have got possession of the Republican party out there this trip; that helps us.

"Campbell's not only a good man, but he's on a good platform. It straddles about just right and ought to suit most people. We've recognized the better element and conceded all it could reasonably ask, and as I look it over I don't see where anybody's right to kick comes in.

"Oh, yes; it's a gold platform, Brice took care of that.

"I've always had a haymow full of respect for Brice; but since the Springfield convention I venerate him. Brice came there in his private car and went over that convention like you'd carry a horse. Never missed a lick with brush or currycomb from ears to fetlock. When he got through the party shone like a bottle. If he didn't carry the speed out of it we're O. K.

"But, as I stated, I think we will win with Campbell this time. This duck Bushnell is simply a stoutheaded bottle--nothing to him personally--and Campbell ought to go over him like a cat over a shed roof.

"Brice ought to come back to the Senate, too. The country needs him in its business, and he needs the country in his; so it's a stand-off as far as interest goes.

"Then again, I don't believe John Sherman wants Foraker or any other Republican from Ohio dividing the pot with him in the Senate. He's never had one there, and I don't guess he wants one. Another thing, Foraker's the man who charged John Sherman with election frauds; and it couldn't be he'd want Foraker anyway. Yet, with McKinley flying kites at the clouds, searching for a spark of White House lightning, Foraker's the only one left to go. He's the last chicken on the roost, the last egg in the nest, the last shirt on the line.

"The way the cards are laid in the box, it's bound to come either Brice or Foraker to win. And your Uncle Isaac, as his prophecy, will call the turn Brice--Foraker. If anybody prefers to call it 'Foraker--Brice' they can do so; but I'll make a side bet of my pile, that if he does he'll lose."

DROWNED NEAR LOUISBURG. A Negro Attacked by Cramp While Bathing in the River. Special to the News and Observer. LOUISBURG, N. C., Sept. 23. Quite an unfortunate accident took place here yesterday. A number of colored men went bathing in the river above the town. After all but two had come out, one of these, Randolph Collins, was suddenly seized with an attack of cramp. The boy near him heard him call out, and then somewhat raising himself in the water he fell backward and was not seen again. The accident happened between 12 and 1 o'clock and his body was not recovered until nearly 4 o'clock.

The water was nearly 15 feet deep. Collins was about 22 years old and was from Ridgeway. He had been here for about 3 or 4 weeks, and was a laborer on the new hotel building.

A Household Treasure. D. W. Fuller, of Canajoharie, N. C., says that he always keeps Dr. King's New Discovery in the house and his family has always found the very best results follow its use; that he would not be without it, if procurable. G. A. Dykeman, Druggist, Catskill, N. Y., says that Dr. King's New Discovery is undoubtedly the best cough remedy; that he has used it in his family for eight years, and it has never failed to do all that is claimed for it. Why not try a remedy so long tried and tested. Trial bottles free at John Y. MacRae's Drug Store. Regular size 50c., and $1.00.

Excuse me for living. "I knew they'd got us right there. And then after I'd listened to a few of the speeches I saw the silver jig was up.

"I'm sure Brice will succeed himself. We can carry the Legislature like hanging out a washing. The left of the fight will be in Hamilton county. If we get the fourteen votes of Hamilton we've got 'em on a limb. All we've got to do then is shake it or saw it off. They are our meat. We break even with 'em out in the country districts, and with Hamilton county's fourteen it's a cinch.

"That's Foraker's stamping-ground. Hamilton county is, and that will call for a little extra exertion on our part."

"Is Foraker a hard man to beat? Well, I should observe he was. He's a stem-winder.

"I knew that as far back as when Hoadly ran against him for Governor. Hoadly wired me up in old Licking to come to Columbus. I went down, and he told me he wanted me to take a bundle of the long green and head off Foraker. The scheme was this:

"Hoadly wanted to drive Foraker into challenging him to a joint debate. He told me to get to the towns ahead of Foraker where he was going to speak and pick out some Republican and organize him, so he'd get up in meetin' and ask Foraker a list of questions calculated to drive him into challenging Hoadly. I had my route all laid out for me. I was to go first to New 15, then Sandusky, then over to the Black Swamp, and then headwards out through the Big Elm woods. I was to keep going and plugging my Republicans with this list of questions until Foraker challenged Hoadly. Then they'd wire me to come in. "I was willing to go; but I doubted the sagacity of the deal.

"George," said I to Hoadly, "I wouldn't fool with this sucker a minute. He'll kill you as sure as you do. This Foraker's a buzz saw, and if you run ag'inst him he'll leave you on both sides of the saw mill. He'll cut you into fence boards, George, as sure as you monkey with him."

"But Hoadly wouldn't listen. So I jumped for Norwalk and fetched him the first crack out of the box. These questions were as wicked as a pair of those drop-socket gaffs they use in chicken fights, and when my Republican got up and set 'em into Foraker he challenged Hoadly to debate before ever he sat down.

"I wore them and wore 'em till at last they were soiled. Then he sent them to the laundry to have them well boiled; but he had them aden with many a fear. That with shrinkage in value they would reappear.

"I was hardly an hour since they had gone with his collars. When he thought in the pocket were fifty-one dollars. He flew to the laundry. "My trousers! My trousers! My trousers! My friend? Why, we've put them in the sack!"

Like some other ducklets, who seek little rills, They had gone to the water, to liquidate bills; Go get them, I beg, and O, do be quick, The thought of the money has made me most sick."

The "solution of money" he jerked from its place. Made 'em run on the bank at a very quick pace. "My money redeem in something, I pray, That won't by water be, washed quite away."

"Folks may talk against silver and then But I am for both, he spoke out so bold; You may give some of either, just fresh from your till, But don't, I beg of you, give one single bill."

And now a search warrant, this truth will provide. Ere his ducks to the laundry-man he will confide; He will turn both the pockets with the strong side out. And know they are empty beyond any doubt.

Or hold up the Washington Monument on the pit of your stomach--in a dream? Did you ever wake up in a cold sweat caused by some horrid phantasy? If so, the wisest thing that you could have done to renew your slumber undisturbed by the nightmare, would have been to take some Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which would have tranquilized you and relieved the indigestion, which was, perhaps, the author of your hideous dream. Insomnia, nightmare, indigestion are easily remedied by the Bitters. Resort to it, also, if you are troubled with chills and fever, liver or kidney trouble, constipation, neuralgia or rheumatism. If you have lost your appetite don't go to the expense of advertising for it, but take the Bitters. Then will "good digestion wait on appetite and health on both." Just before retiring is a very suitable time to swallow a wineglassful.

FOR THE NEWS AND OBSERVER. THE SOLUTION OF MONEY.

A young society swell both trim and neat, Thought in duck trousers he'd look very smart; So he bought him a pair very large and quite long, And injured girls hearts till 'twas really most wrong.

Strength and Vigor

Given by Hood's Sarsaparilla

Abscess, Varicose, Veins, and Other Troubles.

"I wish to testify in behalf of Hood's Sarsaparilla. Different physicians and my friends had given me up. I was treated for spinal disease, consumption and varicose, and an abscess on my left hip. I was simply awful and I could not walk for many months. I had to be carried and handled like a child. I became reduced in weight from 132 to 70 pounds. At last a friend persuaded me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla and I have Gained in Several Ways and now weigh 125 pounds. The abscess on my hip is almost well and I have gained strength and vigor. I gladly recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla to other sufferers." MRS. ELLA BRILLHART, Abilene, Kansas.

RALEIGH, N. C., Aug. 27, 1895. Mr. Cary J. Hunter, Supt. Union Central Life Insurance Co., for Va. and N. C.; Raleigh, N. C. Our mother held policy No. 98,865 for $3,000 in your most excellent company. The proofs of her death left here this week and had to go to Cincinnati before the check could be sent, and it usually requires a week to get a reply back, but we are today in receipt of the Company's check in full settlement of the claim, this being Saturday of the same week. We have known a great deal of your Company for several years and we regard it as being the best managed company in this country. It gives the insured the benefits of the highest interest and lowest death rate, as the records have shown for years. We have known per orality of the advantage the company gives the insured and earnestly advise the insuring public to examine the advantageous guarantee of the Union Central's policy contract. We believe it has to equal and can have no superior. For several years four members of our family have had policies in the Union Central. [Signed] CHAS. B. WALTON, JOHN E. WALTON.
