

RANSOM'S HARD LUCK

NOW CARLISLE'S DECISION IN REGARD TO HIS SALARY IS OVERRULED.

AND HIS DRAFT IS NOT HONORED

Minister Ransom Will Probably Give His Decision in the Dispute Between Mexico and Guatemala Next Week. He Has Also Succeeded in Dissuading the Missionaries from Their Crusade Against the Virgin of Guadalupe--Southern Railway Changes.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 24. Acting Comptroller of the Currency Bowers overrules Secretary Carlisle's decision and refuses to honor the draft drawn on the Treasury by Minister Ransom. He is waiting the return of Comptroller Bowler, who is taking recreation from the sugar bounty case.

Minister Ransom will probably give his decision next week in the dispute between Mexico and Guatemala, which he has been called upon to arbitrate. The dispute has been long and somewhat complicated, but the closing chapter will be written when Minister Ransom gives his decision.

The trouble arose from the expulsion of Mexican citizens from Guatemala more than a year ago.

It was the expulsion of these Mexicans by the Guatemalan authorities which led Mexico to begin active preparations for war against her Central American neighbor. The expulsion was the result of a controversy extending over a number of years as to the control of certain lands lying along the boundary between the two republics. The Mexicans claim several million dollars for damages while Guatemala thinks a few thousand is sufficient. The troubles have been finally settled by treaty, they agreeing to leave the matter with the American Minister to Mexico. It was at first decided to refer the matter to President Cleveland, but it was subsequently concluded that Minister Ransom would be equally acceptable.

It is understood here that Minister Ransom has succeeded in dissuading the missionaries in Mexico from their contemplated crusade against the Virgin of Guadalupe.

The marriage of Miss Mary Doon Reeve, of this city, to Mr. Sprinkle, of Charlotte, N. C., will take place quietly at the home of the bride next month.

Miss Patty Sanderlin, who has been visiting at the home of Postmaster General Wilson at Greenbrier, W. Va., has returned to Washington.

Among the changes of fourth-class postmasters-to-day are the following in North Carolina:

Charles H. Hough succeeds Thomas S. Downing at Bay, Tyrrell county; William H. May succeeds Sallie C. Edwards, at Hunt's, Nash county, and B. F. Parish succeeds William L. Nance, at Lytton, Randolph county. All of the retiring officers resigned.

Edwin J. House succeeds George A. McDonald (deceased) at Wade, Cumberland county, N. C.

Senator Sherman has been talking about the situation in Cuba, and here is what he says: "I have been, and am now, opposed to the annexation of outlying territory like that of Cuba, especially when it is well settled by a nation speaking a different language and with different institutions from ours. I think Congress would readily recognize the independence of Cuba if the insurgents would establish a de facto Republican government over the island. Further than that I do not believe the general sentiment of the people of the United States would be in favor of going."

It is stated here that the change in offices of the Southern, made in New York, will result in several well known and prominent officials withdrawing from the directory of Southern officials. It is probable that Sol Haas will withdraw.

TAKES LITTLE STOCK IN IT.

The Silver Convention Meets with Scant Favor in Winston. Special to the News and Observer.

WINSTON SALEM, N. C., Sept. 24. The Democrats and Republicans of Winston-Salem are taking very little stock in Mr. Smith's Silver Convention to be held in Raleigh to-morrow. The fact is I have not heard of a single man that expects to attend.

A series of meetings is in progress at Centenary church this week. The pastor is being assisted by Rev. W. M. Bagby, of Greensboro.

The Methodists are arranging to build a large and handsome church in West Winston. At an informal meeting of the stewards of Centenary Church Sunday, the pastor was authorized to invite Bishop Duncan, of South Carolina, to visit this city between now and the conference to set the ball in motion.

A fine rally meeting for the Winston-Salem Y. M. C. A. was held in the Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon. International Secretary Auner, of Atlanta, made an admirable address. Informal remarks were made by Messrs. Turrentine, Brown and Oldwell, Messrs. R. B. Glenn, J. M. Rogers and T. S. Sprinkle. The Twin-City Hospital will be opened on October 18. Miss Mollie Spang, of Salem, has been elected matron. She left last night for Northern cities to visit the hospitals and acquaint herself with the best methods for conducting them.

Calvin Eiler, the young man who killed Royal Latham several months ago in Ashe county, and who has been in jail here ever since the crime was committed, was sent home yesterday for trial.

Some of the prisoners in the jail here managed to saw one of the bars in a cell in two a few nights ago. They used an old knife blade, but their work was discovered in time to prevent any of them getting out.

Winston will send a good delegation to the Sam Jones' lecture in Greensboro on the 30th. The Winston train will be held at Greensboro until after Mr. Jones gets through talking. Evangelists Jones and Stuart received a check for $1,350 for their work here.

Rev. John A. Wray, who recently resigned the pastorate of Broad Street Baptist Church, left last night with his family for his new charge at Milledgeville, Ga.

AND IT'S STILL A-GETTING HOTTER.

The mocking birds are singing All the songs they used to sing. When the sky was new with summer And the air was fresh with spring. For the weather's getting warmer Than it ever was I know. Down here in old Carolina Where the flowers love to grow.

Now the sun is brighter, hotter, Than it was in May or June When the poppies were a budding And the bees were all in tune. The shadows all about me, But it wasn't hot like this.

Then the heat was most unbearable, And the sun was wont to kiss. The shadows all about me, But it wasn't hot like this.

With the broadest kind of palm leaf And a big palmetto that I'll see some shady streamlet, Where I've oft in summer sat, I'll fan and watch the floater As it disappears from sight. In the water just to tell me Where the fish is going to bite.

So early in the morning! When the lark is on the wing, While the mocking birds are singing All the songs they used to sing, I'll take some fishing tackle, And near the mossy creek I'll hide among the shadows, Where the air is fresh and sweet.

I'll forget my every trouble Like I've often done before, While fishing in the streamlet From the mossy, shady shore. I'll forget and watch the floater As it disappears from sight In the water just to tell me When a fish is going to bite.

IT IS STILL A MYSTERY.

All the Parties to the Affair of Maguire's Disappearance Indignant. Special to the News and Observer.

HICKORY, N. C., Sept. 24. Jacob Holler, who figured extensively some weeks ago in the story of John Maguire's disappearance has returned to Hickory. Holler positively denies that he ever made any statements whatever concerning Maguire's alleged murder, and declares that he has no knowledge concerning the matter. All parties said to have been concerned in the affair are indignant and demand a full investigation.

The Hickory Manufacturing Company has prepared a beautiful piece of wood carving to be sent to the Atlanta Exposition. It is an oak mantle piece, upon which is carved the Great Seal of North Carolina. The company does an extensive business and their work is shipped to all parts of the United States.

Mr. O. M. Royster, one of the most prominent business men of our town, is quite sick with inflammation of the lungs.

Prof. B. G. Edwards, who for some weeks has had charge of the Hickory Male Academy, has given up his school and returned to Vance county.

The erstwhile famous "Hickory Minstrel Troupe" has been re-organized, and will entertain next Friday night.

Miss Ada Schenck, of Brooklyn, and Miss Baker, of Asheville, are visiting Mrs. O. M. Royster.

Mr. Herbert Clouse, formerly a prominent merchant of this place, now of Birmingham, Ala., is in the city.

PROF. BOOKER T. WASHINGTON.

The Recent Raleigh Convention Passed Resolutions on his Speech.

RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 24. To the Editor of the News and Observer: As a Negro-American I am proud of the good thoughts expressed by one of our brothers of Alabama, Prof. B. T. Washington at Atlanta last week. I take pride in his fine taste and judgment and discretion.

But as a humble member of a recent conference of North Carolina colored citizens held in Raleigh on the 11th inst., I am happier still to remind the people that the resolutions passed by that conference seven days previous to brother Washington's speech, entitled "North Carolina negroes to the right of claiming the front rank along the wise line of 'Casting down the Bucket where we are.'" As North Carolina patriots at Mecklenburg on May 20, 1775, sent forth the first declaration of independence from British tyranny, so did North Carolina negro citizens on the 11th of Sept., 120 years later, lead the world in declaring for peace and friendship without sacrifice of manhood with all of our surroundings here at our Southern homes. So did we cast our lot with our native section of our great country.

Very truly,

N. C. BRUCE, Shaw University.

NEGRO KILLED NEAR AURORA.

He was Thrown From a Lumber Car and Both of his Legs Cut Off. Special to the News and Observer.

AURORA, N. C., Sept. 24. Stephen Peed, colored, who left this place a few weeks ago to work at the Broadus Mill in Craven county, after having finished up his work and was returning home on the lumber railroad and was by some accident thrown from the car, which passed over both thighs, severing them from the body. He only lived a short while.

This is the second man who has lost his life on this road in the last three weeks.

Dr. R. L. Gattis, of Belvoir, Chatham county, has located in Aurora, N. C., to practice his profession.

Mr. J. W. Chapin is just recovering from a two weeks' attack of typho malaria.

COLD WAVE IN KANSAS.

The Weather the Coldest for September Ever Recorded.

EMPORIA, Kan., Sept. 23.—The greatest change in the weather ever experienced here, occurred within the past 24 hours, the mercury dropping from 90 in the forenoon to the freezing point at night, nearly 60 degrees difference. A heavy frost fell last night.

At Coffeyville, the mercury fell forty degrees in two hours. At Wichita, the fall was fifty degrees and the weather is the coldest for September ever recorded there. Material injury to crops will follow if the cold spell continues.

At Ardmore, I. T., a severe thunder storm came up this afternoon, accompanied by a light rain and a very high wind. The storm was followed by a cold wave, a fall of forty degrees occurring in a few hours.

The Snow in Colorado. DENVER, Col., Sept. 23.—F. H. Brandenburg, local observer, reports that the snow fall in Denver Saturday night amounted to 11.4 inches, leaving all previous September records far behind. The nearest approach to it was on September 20, 1875, when two and one-half inches of snow fell.

Beyond Description

Intense Suffering With Muscular Rheumatism.

"I hereby certify that for seven years I was troubled with my knee. I used prescriptions and liniments but all to no purpose. The trouble kept growing worse and the joints began to enlarge. My knee became almost stiff and pained me so I could not rest day and night. I had to use

Crutches at times and often it would seem as if I would have to have my leg amputated as the pain became almost unendurable. I suffered beyond description. Finally, hearing of Hood's Sarsaparilla I concluded to try it. After I had taken one bottle I felt much better and after taking several bottles can truthfully say I am well.

My Knee Has Been Cured and that I can walk and go around as well as any one of my age. I am 63 years old and work my farm, and my ability to do so I attribute to the beneficial effects of Hood's Sarsaparilla. I advise all who are afflicted with rheumatism in any form to take Hood's Sarsaparilla." EZRA BENE-DICT, Sr., St. Louis, Mo.

RALEIGH, N. C., Aug. 27, 1895. Mr. Cary J. Hunter, Supt. Union Central Life Insurance Co., for Va. and N. C.; Raleigh, N. C. Our mother held policy No. 98,865 for $3,000 in your most excellent company. The profits of her death left here this week and had to go to Cincinnati before the check could be sent, and it usually requires a week to get a reply back, but we are to day in receipt of the Company's check in full settlement of the claim, this being Saturday of the same week.

We have known a great deal of your Company for several years and we regard it as being the best managed company in this country. We have known personally of the advantages the company gives the insured and earnestly advise the insuring public to examine the advantageous guarantee of the Union Central's policy contract.
