

A GOLD BUG BOLTS

A DISAPPOINTED GUBERNATORIAL CANDIDATE TURNS TRAITOR.

KENTUCKY SITUATION MUDDLED

A Gold Bug Paper, in sending out the Telegram, Makes an Apology for the Bolter who Tried to get the Nomination for Governor, but the People Wouldn't Give him the Plum--Now he Tries to Elect a Republican Governor.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 22.—The Hon. Cassius M. Clay, Jr., of Paris, Ky., who made the race for nomination for Governor of Kentucky with Gen. P. Wat. Hardin, the Democratic candidate, and who was defeated in the convention by a small majority, came out to day in a letter to the Democratic campaign committee refusing to speak in behalf of Hardin, the free silver candidate on a sound money platform. He charges Hardin with repudiating the Democratic convention's platform and will not vote for him.

He also states in his letter that a change in the control of affairs at Frankfort, the abolishment of the State House ring, would be of great benefit to the State.

The card is not bitter in tone, but is the plain statement of a sound money candidate who objects to repudiation of the sound money platform by a free silver candidate.

[When a candidate for the nomination Mr. Clay refused to say where he stood on the money question. The "straddlers" are always extreme when they do get down off the fence.—Editor.]

Are the Cubans Going to Quit?

LONDON, Oct. 22.—A dispatch to the Globe from Madrid quotes a Havana dispatch to the Imparcial as saying that Rabi, the chief lieutenant of Maceo, the insurgent leader, has held a conference with his friends, the object of which was to point out that further resistance to the Spanish forces was hopeless and in order to study the means to be taken to end the war. The result of the conference was not known when the dispatch was sent.

Southern Kentucky Melee.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 22.—A special to the Times from Whitesburg, Ky., says:

Near the hamlet of Vest, Knott county, Andy Jack, a young mountain outlaw was shot and mortally wounded by James Hale, another outlaw, the result of a drunken brawl.

The report says another man, whose name could not be learned, was shot in the melee, from ambush, by unknown parties. Neither of the men can survive.

Salvation Preacher Kills His Man.

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 22.—The Times-Star special from Lexington, Ky., says: Rev. George Mills, Salvationist preacher, fatally shot Charles Clemens, a young farmer, near Chalybeate Springs. On Sunday Clemens accompanied the daughter of Mr. Mills to church. Mills took his daughter away from Clemens. When he met the latter on the highway yesterday he emptied his gun into Clemens. Mills was arrested.

Mr. Harrison Out of Politics.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—Ex-President Harrison left for the West to day. Before taking his departure he said to a reporter: "While here I have seen none of the statesmen except Mr. Platt, Senator Carter and Gen. Clarkson, and I met them in the dining-room of the hotel. I have absolutely nothing of public interest to say now. I may be back in the city again in November."

Col. Andrews's Name Leads.

RICHMOND, Oct. 22.—At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Southern Railway, held here this morning, the following directors were chosen for the ensuing year:

Alexander B. Andrews, Raleigh, N. C.; A. L. Boutwell, Richmond; Charles H. Coester, Harris O. Fahnestock, Thomas F. Ryan, Samuel Spencer, Anthony J. Thomas, Samuel Thomas, of New York; S. Wilmer, Baltimore.

The Preacher Who Wanted a Bribe Skips.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 22.—Rev. C. W. Hoefler, Greenville, O., Republican nominee for the Legislature, who was accused of soliciting $1,500, in case of his election, to vote for Calvin S. Brice for the United States Senate, is believed by the Republican State committee to have left the State and gone to Chicago.

Removal By Fire of an Old Landmark.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 22.—The old Seven Stars Tavern, in East Vincent Township, Chester county, together with the stables, was burned last night. The Seven Stars Tavern was one of the oldest landmarks in the country. It was built long before the revolutionary war and it was a famous stopping place for travellers going from Philadelphia to Baltimore. The old tavern was the scene of many stirring events during the revolution. Washington and his generals often stopped there and nearby is a monument that marks the graves of many soldiers of the revolution, who died in the old Pikeland Church, when it was used as a hospital.

A Sluiger Dies From Effects of a Blow.

PORTLAND, ORE., Oct. 22.—Jack Dempsey is dying. Within the past ten days he has been rapidly sinking, and it is announced that his hours are numbered. Dempsey realizes his condition, and says it is due to a blow received at the hands of Fitzsimmons four years ago, but his friends say it is consumption.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gundersman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist church at Rives Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at John Y. MacKae's drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

"It gives me great pleasure to state what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for me and my wife. She has been afflicted with neuralgia pains in her head for six years and it settled in her eyes. At times she would be totally blind and have to stay in a dark room for months. A short time ago we began using Hood's Sarsaparilla and today, thank God, she is able to attend to her household duties, which she had not previously done for years. My own case was somewhat similar, and since taking Hood's Sarsaparilla the inflammation has left my eyes and my nerves have become quieted. My health today is better than it has been for several years. I am gaining in strength and I feel like a new man." WILLIAM H. N. SAMAKER, Judsonia, Arkansas.
