CERTAIN REFLECTIONS ON THE ARMY

Amateur Experts in Handwriting Testify That the Fac-Simile Was Exact Reproduction of Major Esterhazy's Handwriting--

Caused Sensation in the Court.

Paris, Feb. 15.—The arrival of M. Emile Zola, M. Perreux and others at the Assizes court of the Seine to-day, the eighth day of the trial of the novelist and the publisher of the Aurore was not marked by any incident.

At the opening of the proceedings the presiding judge, M. Delegrange, disallowed the request of counsel for M. Zola that the experts heard at the Esterhazy court martial should be called to testify.

M. Chepueux Janin, a handwriting expert, strenuously denied that he had attempted to bribe M. Teyssonnières to modify his reports of the Dreyfus bordereau.

M. Teyssonnières, M. Crepueux Janin added, had declared that it was on his Teyssonnières report alone and not on M. Bertillon's on which Dreyfus was convicted.

M. Janin added that it was because M. Teyssonnières was angry with the witness for not sharing his opinion in regard to the Dreyfus case that he tried to compromise the matter.

Director Meyer of the French Record Office declared that the published facsimiles of the bordereau were as exact as possible and he thought that General Pellieux's contention that the facsimiles looked like forgeries was an exaggeration.

M. Meyer concluded with saying that the handwriting of Major Esterhazy resembled that of the bordereau.

Professor Ernest Moulouin, of the College of France, testified that Major Esterhazy's handwriting absolutely resembled that of the bordereau. M. Clemenceau, counsel for the Aurore, read letters from Madame De Deboulancy, admitting the possession of letters which Major Esterhazy wrote her between 1881 and 1894 and containing serious animadversions of France and the French army.

M. Clemenceau urged the court to appoint a magistrate to ask Mme Deboulancy, if among the letters there was not one containing the following expressions:

Firstly—"General Sausier (then the Commander in Chief of the French army and Military Governor of Paris) is a clown. In our country the Germans would not show him in a circus." (Uproar in court.)

Secondly—"If the Russians got as far as Lyons they might throw away their guns and keep only their riding whips to drive the French in front of them." (Prolonged sensation.)

Three amateur experts in handwriting testified that the fac simile was an exact reproduction of Major Esterhazy's handwriting, statements which caused further sensations in court.

M. Felix Frank, a lawyer of Brussels, said:

"The majority of the experts started on the false idea that the writer of the bordereau had disguised his handwriting. The bordereau, however, was written naturally and in a running hand which is identical with that of Major Esterhazy."

The latter (Major Esterhazy), continued the witness, had recognized the bordereau as being his own handwriting, but had declared it had been traced by a forger.

M. Frank proceeded to technically demonstrate the improbability of this explanation.

M. Frank affirmed that the bordereau was written by one person alone and added that that person was Major Esterhazy.

The witness concluded with predicting that some day it would be recognized that the bordereau was not written by Dreyfus, which remark was greeted with murmurs.

Professor Havert, of the College of France, said he examined, as an expert, the bordereau, and the letters of Major Esterhazy and Dr. Ritus, as well as a letter written by Dreyfus since his condemnation. The latter, the witness continued, was devoid of resemblance to the bordereau, of which he was convinced Major Esterhazy was the author.

Court was then adjourned. The crowd made no demonstration and the officers, including Major Esterhazy and General Pellieux, left amid silence.

COAL MINERS' CONVENTION.

To Place the Eastern on the Same Footing With the Western Mines.

Altoona, Pa., Feb. 15.—The convention of Coal Miners, representing the Central Pennsylvania District, was called to order this morning by President Dolan, of Pittsburg. One hundred and four delegates were present, a number being from the anthracite district. President Dolan said the object of the meeting was to place the miners of Central Pennsylvania in a position to enjoy the Chicago settlement, an advance of 10 cents a ton in rate of mining, and eight hours for a day's work, which would only mean putting all operators on an equal footing, and which would be fair to operators and men alike. Committees were appointed, after which National President Hatchford made a two hour's address urging the men to organize and obtain by April 1st for the two Virginias, Maryland and Central Pennsylvania, what the Chicago conference gave to the miners of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Western Pennsylvania. The Committee on Credentials reported and the convention adjourned until tomorrow. The convention will probably be in session till Thursday evening.

The Methodists of this place have finished paying for their lot opposite the Episcopal church, purchased some time ago for the new church, and will now commence hauling bricks for the new building.

Mr. Louis De LaCroix has issued a pamphlet in a remarkably neat and attractive style, entitled "All About Oxford," emphasizing the advantages of the place to those desirous of locating in a very healthy and thriving town.

BUTLER REACHES MINNEAPOLIS

Says Purpose is Not Fusion but "Honorable Co-operation"—Conference Opens To-day.

Minneapolis, Minn., Feb. 15.—Senator Marion Butler and ex-Senator Dubois arrived to-day to attend the Populist conference that begins to-morrow. Senator Butler said the purpose was to bring about not fusion, but "honorable co-operation." He did not think the so-called "mid-roader," who was only one in a thousand, would stand out against it. The situation in Minnesota is so similar to that in many other Western States that the decision of the State conference will be looked upon as forming a precedent for action.

VISITING JAIL BIRDS.

Five of Them Left Franklin Jail to Spend a Night With Friends.

Louisburg, N. C., Feb. 15.—(Special.)—From appearances it would seem that jail life in the Louisburg jail only lacks a few improvements to make it a very desirable life. About dark last night six negro men broke jail. This morning five of them were back, one of them having hired a team to bring him back. They said they only wanted to visit their homes for a short while. Perhaps the other one will come in later.

BIG PRICE FOR A BROKEN HEART.

Not long since a Danville, Ill., jury ordered the male defendant in a breach of promise case to pay the decidedly competent sum of $54,333.33 to the afflicted fair one. This was thought to be the largest amount ever awarded by a jury in a similar action. Though it is a pretty high estimate of blighted affection, there is another estimate which if not in dollars and cents exactly as high, yet in general consideration of excellence reaches as lofty an altitude. That is the estimate of the people in their general verdict as to the efficacy of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as a remedy for constipation. The action of this gentle, but effective, laxative is never accompanied by the gripping and other abdominal disturbance which precedes or accompanies the operation of a gripping cathartic. Moreover, it is an incomparable remedy for and preventive of malarial, rheumatic and kidney complaints, a never failing means of invigorating the stomach and nervous system, and a promoter of appetite and sleep. Persistence in its use is strongly advisable.

TO SILVER MEN GREETING

Advocates of gold and monopoly were largely outnumbered by their opponents and where, nevertheless, by a failure to unite and act together, friends of the gold standard have been successful. Thus, as the result of a personal or partisan wrangle, the cause of truth and justice has been overshadowed, the interests of humanity ignored and the greatest good to the government subordinated to an ignoble strife. If we are in earnest we must have harmony amongst ourselves. If there should be those who would divide us, let them be summarily and emphatically rebuked by the people, who have none but high and patriotic motives.

As to the bold declaration of the administration in favor of the gold standard, no sincere bimetalist can ever again, by his vote or influence, give aid or encouragement to the Republican party.

The issue is joined; we cannot avoid it if we would. Either the friends of bimetalism or the advocates of the gold standard, trusts and monopolies must succeed. Who is not for us is against us. We are asking no man to abandon his party or change his politics; we ask no one to yield any principle; but in this great contest we do appeal to all good men to stand solidly together for liberty and humanity, and strike down for ever this conspiracy of gold and monopoly.

(Signed.) JAMES K. JONES, Chairman Democratic National Committee.

THE POPULIST ADDRESS.

The Populist address is as follows: The conspiracy of gold and monopoly is nearing its culmination. Every advance it has made during the last twenty-five years has been by adroit and stealthy processes. These would have been impossible if it had not had its agents and confederates holding positions of public trust in the legislative, executive and judicial branches of the government. Neither the beneficiaries nor the tools of this conspiracy have any particular politics. In name the last administration was Democratic. The present administration is called Republican, but it has vigorously practiced and defended the perfidious policy of its predecessor.

At length the selfish and brutal interests behind this conspiracy deem themselves strong enough to dispense with the caution and duplicity hitherto necessary to their success. The administration boldly avows its endorsement of their scheme against the liberty and prosperity of the people. Within a few weeks it has formulated and sent to Congress a bill the leading purpose of which is, in the words of the Secretary of the Treasury, "to commit the country more thoroughly to the gold standard."

This country has during the past twenty-four years suffered enough of the blighting effects of the gold standard, so far as fraudulent legislation and executive usurpation have been able to establish it. It is now boldly proposed to legalize what has been done in defiance of law and to use the power secured by false pretenses for a long suffering and too trustful people to put upon this infamous design the stamp of alleged popular authorization.

In the pursuit of this purpose of committing more thoroughly to the gold standard, the plan of this administration, as of the last, is to retire, the greenbacks and other non-interest bearing issue of the government, and to increase the powers, privileges and profits of national banks. This achievement would turn over the duty of supplying this money, the very life blood of business, to a selfish, heartless and irresponsible foreign gold syndicate and its American agents and allies.

It must be remembered also that this foreign gold syndicate and its allies have, with the connivance, if not the assistance, of our government, captured and to-day control every instrument of commerce in the nation. In framing the Constitution our patriotic forefathers, with zealous care and with prophetic wisdom, provided that commerce should be regulated by Congress, but this tremendous power has been abdicated by Congress in the issue of the gold trust and the banking ring. Money is the first great instrument of commerce, but the gold ring, not satisfied with controlling our financial system, has captured the other instrument of commerce to enable it to keep the gold standard yoke upon our necks and "to more thoroughly" subjugate our people and dominate our government.

All history teaches that those who have controlled the instruments of Commerce in any country have not only controlled the commerce of that nation, but have also controlled and dominated that government. Thus the gold syndicate and its allied monopolies in our country, having seized the great instruments of commerce, have used this tremendous power to discriminate against sections and individuals to destroy competition, to breed business stagnation and to create "hard times" in the midst of plenty.

Thus the organization and maintenance of great industrial trusts have been promoted, which operate to aggravate the evil conditions which gave them birth. Thus they are making millions of patients to create a few millionaires. The inevitable result must be to convert our government into an oligarchy of sordid wealth.

In the accomplishment of this end, evil influence must shackle opinion and muzzle discussion. They not only subsidize the press and attempt to seat their well paid attorneys in our legislative halls, on our benches of justice, and in all other departments of government; but wherever college faculties are susceptible to pretended generosity or inverted philanthropy they carefully maneuver for either service or silence.

The divine right of kings is to be succeeded by the divine right of millionaires, who propose to run everything, not only the instruments of commerce and our industrial system but also as far as possible the pen of the editor and the voice, if not the intellect, of the university professor. Having succeeded in this the conspirators will not only completely dominate the legislative, executive and judicial branches of our government, but will be solidly entrenched against resistance and retribution.

Briefly stated this is a part of the outrageous scheme. We do not arraign any political party on partisan grounds.

What pleasure is there in life with a headache, constipation or biliousness? Thousands experience them who could become perfectly healthy by using De Witt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. Heart & Heart's drug store.

We arraign a system and denounce a conspiracy. We condemn individuals and organizations that support this system and aid the conspiracy. A party that is the mouthpiece and agent of this conspiracy is just as dangerous under one name as under another.

In every campaign the gold syndicate and all the allied trusts and monopolies combine. They select the conventions, they desire to control; they elect the candidates that they have selected. Therefore, those who are not their agents and who would not submit to their tyrannous spoliation should strenuously oppose the allied combination of gold and monopoly.

The only hope of the enemy is to divide us. Therefore, let us be more united and harmonious than ever, and further let us organize in every State and Congressional district, county and precinct.

There are but two sides to this mighty and portentous conflict. All of those of whatever party who favor the conspiracy of gold and monopoly, who favor industrial slavery, widespread poverty and national destruction, should be on one side; and all of those of whatever party who oppose this deadly design, who love truth and right, who love their country, who love their homes and firesides, and who believe in the sacred principles declared by Jefferson and reasserted by Jackson and Lincoln, should be on the other side. On this side we solidly stand. Then let us, maintaining at all times party integrity, invite the harmonious co-operation of all seeking the same end.

The obvious dangers (intended) of the institutions of the republic make this the highest duty. The line of battle is clearly drawn. We cannot avoid the conflict if we would. Therefore let us appeal to all citizens and to all organizations and parties that oppose this conspiracy—that oppose a government of the trusts, by the trusts and for the trusts, that oppose and will not submit to the despotism of sordid wealth—to come to the rescue. Patriotism and manhood are not dead. A large part of the American people realize the wrongs and comprehend the dangers, and are ready and anxious to fight this system to the end.

The spirit of '76 is abroad in the land and the friends of liberty everywhere are awaiting the patriotic call to fight a common battle against a common foe. Let this be done and we can crush every traitor as did the men of the American revolution; let this be done and we shall drive every Tory to ignominious defeat. Let this be done and we shall re-establish what is almost overthrown. A government of the people, by the people, and for the people.

(Signed) Marion Butler, and twenty five Senators and Representatives of the Populist party.

REPUBLICAN ADDRESS.

The paper of the Silver Republicans is as follows: The continuing plans of the beneficiaries of the gold standard, and the advocates of monopoly are fast nearing completion. They need but to win one more victory to become supreme, and to be able to defy the sovereignty of the people for generations. The policy of the Republican administration is a plain confession that the secret authors of the St. Louis platform of 1896, are in absolute control of that party. Power thus secured by false pretenses is to be ruthlessly used to carry out the ulterior designs of the conspirators. The slow processes of twenty-five years are rapidly advancing to their goal, the near approach to which now seems to warrant dispensing with the caution and deceit that have hitherto been the necessary preliminaries of success.

But this openness of purpose is the opportunity of patriotism. Honest men should hesitate no longer if opposed to the establishment of the old standard in all its rigor, if opposed to the retirement of government currency, if opposed to the erection of a great association of banks of issue as the all-dominating power in the nation, if opposed to every kind of trust and monopoly, the offspring and adjunct of the money power.

Before this awful and imminent peril to the institutions of our country every personal ambition must melt away and every merely partisan contention must be stilled. While the issue remains unsettled, Democrat, Populist and Silver Republican must stand shoulder to shoulder in a common cause. United we can save the republic, the last refuge of self government, the one remaining hope of liberty to succeeding centuries. The power of our foes is to divide us that they may conquer us. Let not self-interest, pride, carelessness or folly afford them hope that we shall furnish arms against ourselves. In every State and Congressional district in the Union the closest co-operation should be our watchword. After full counsel together we should, wherever there is a contest, choose a strong champion of the common cause, and to him should be given the true allegiance and earnest support of every opponent of the party of gold and monopoly.

The man or organization that in this grave crisis becomes responsible for discordant councils or divided energies, does not deserve the blessings we are all striving to preserve.

Patriots and citizens: We call upon you to unite in this great common service of citizenship and patriotism. No man need surrender his party convictions. No existing organization need be abandoned. While striving to overthrow a common enemy, no good purpose is served by emphasizing points on which we differ. But until this final assault of the enemy upon the last remnants of our industrial and social independence is repelled, until the control of the money system of the country is rescued from the hands of special interests and assured to the whole people, the means of the great armies of political reform in every part of the United States should be act in mutual justice and harmonious co-operation for the general welfare. To this object, thus agreed upon our friends everywhere, we hereby pledge, jointly and severally, our earnest and constant endeavor.

(Signed.) CHARLES A. TOWNE, Chairman National Committee of the Silver Republican party, eight Silver Republican Senators and Representatives and Fre. T. Dubois, Congressman Nevada, of Nevada, representing the Silver party, concurs in recommending the unification of the silver forces in the coming campaign.

De LOME SAILS TO-DAY

LARGE DELEGATION FROM DIPLOMATIC CORPS GIVE HEARTY AU REVOIR.

No Further Communication From Minister Woodford—Mr. Du. Bose Will Proceed With the Treaty Negotiations.

Washington, Feb. 15.—The late Spanish Minister, Senor Dupuy De Lome, accompanied by Mme. De Lome, their two sons, and a Spanish valet, left Washington at 4 o'clock this afternoon for New York, whence they sail to-morrow for Liverpool. A large delegation from the diplomatic corps, accompanied by their wives, gave a hearty au revoir at the station to their late associate.

The entire staff of the Spanish legation, headed by Senor Du Bose, the Charge D' Affaires, were present. Quite a number of outsiders were attracted by the gathering, but further than that the Minister's departure was entirely quiet and unobtrusive.

Senor Du Bose, was busy at the legation office to-day with extended communications just received from Madrid. These did not relate to the recent incident. The legation is now turning its attention to other subjects, mainly to the new commercial treaty between Spain and the United States. The instructions now received will permit Mr. Du Bose to proceed with the negotiations on that subject, and it is hoped that these will proceed rapidly toward completion.

Up to a late hour to-night the State Department had no additional word from Minister Woodford. While there had been an impression all day that a despatch might be received at any hour, the absence of a message was not looked upon as an indication of any change in the status of the incident which is now considered practically closed. As matters stand, the only further action to be expected from Spain is a disavowal of the sentiments expressed by Dupuy De Lome concerning President McKinley, but this, if made, will come as a voluntary courtesy. A definite announcement that this has or has not been made is in the ordinary course of events the next news received from Madrid.

Suspicious were aroused to-night by the presence at the White House of several members of the Cabinet, among them Secretaries Long, Gary and Wilson, Attorney General Griggs and Assistant Secretary of State Day. The gathering was purely a social affair, however, the President at the Cabinet meeting to-day having asked such members as were at liberty to meet his guests Mr. and Mrs. Herrick at dinner.
