

NIGHT SESSIONS BEGIN IN THE HOUSE

Many Local Bills Ground Out Yesterday.

ANOTHER DEAD FEE BILL

BUT IT WILL SURELY RISE
AGAIN.

ARE THE DIVORCE LAWS TOO STRINGENT

The Western Union Telegraph Company Will no Longer have a Monopoly of the Right of Way Along Railroad Lines.

These be days when the wheels of legislation begin to revolve rapidly. And well they may. Time is growing precious. Just three more weeks from tomorrow and the day of adjournment is here—that is if the Legislature lives up to the mark made for it by the caucus. There is yet much to be done: School Law, Election Law, Charitable Institutions, State Schools, Railroad Commission, Constitutional Amendment, Revenue Act and many other scarcely less important measures have received little or no attention. Then there is a great big calendar to dispose of, with local bills still pouring in at the rate of a score or more a day. And no sign of a drying up of the spring from which they come. It is for these reasons that the House last night, after a hearty supper, dragged itself back to the weary guns of duty and banged away for two hours on local legislation. Mighty good marksmanship they displayed, too—the members of the House. I counted the shots, and out of just exactly thirty bills ten went in a dead flutter to the table. Save for the fatal cracking of another fee bill over the head, and a vain attempt to loosen slightly the matrimonial bonds, the day session was without incident, and the night session was like unto it, only more so. It was the dead dullness of routine business unrelieved by even an attempt on the part of the House Fly to get gay and hinder proceedings.

ANOTHER DEAD FEE BILL.

Harrowing Tales of Poverty Among the County Officers.

The fee bill came up as a special order at 1 o'clock. The bills had been set for a hearing at that hour—Mr. Winston's bill, making a cut of about 25 per cent in the fees of all officers, and Mr. McNeill's bill making a 50 per cent reduction in the fees of the registers of deeds. Both met with the most determined and violent opposition and were butchered before they could so much as get a decent hearing. As soon as the special order was called Mr. Winston took the floor in behalf of his bill. He explained that the cut in fees was such as he thought right and proper and was in keeping with the reduction in the price of cotton and other farm products. "It will be noticed," he said, "that the cut is made in such matters as touch the business interests, and not the criminal law. I don't propose to make such a reduction in these latter fees as will make it easier for criminals to escape. It will be noticed that the reduction is largest in the matter of recording deeds and for recording crop liens." Mr. Winston went over his bill carefully item by item, pointing out the justice of the proposed reduction. "This bill is a blow at every county officer in the State," was the broadside with which Mr. Robinson, of Cumberland, opened up on it. "It is without reason. There is no call for it, and it ought not to pass." Then he depicted the poverty-stricken condition of the county officers. "Not a sheriff in Cumberland county for the past ten years has made a living." As he spoke one could almost see the wolf at the door of these patriots. "This bill is not only unjust, it is bad public policy. It destroys the office of register of deeds, and makes it impossible to get a competent man to fill it." I was wondering how an advertisement from some county for a competent register of deeds would look in the want column of a newspaper, when Mr. Kennett, of Guilford, rudely remarked that he had not heard of any of the county officers resigning anywhere since these fee-reduction bills had been introduced, or before. Mr. Council, chairman of the Committee on Salaries and Fees, explained that the committee was preparing a bill for a reduction of salaries and fees; that the Democratic party was pledged to such a measure and he favored it, but he thought Mr. Winston's bill set rather digging. Mr. Robinson moved to table the bill. On this Mr. Winston called the ayes and noes. The call being sustained, the roll-call resulted: Ayes, 45; noes, 34. The bill went to the table, and Mr. McNeill's bill was about to suffer the same fate when Mr. Council asked that it be sent back to the Committee on Salaries and Fees in course of preparation. The bill was so referred. This done the vote by which Mr. Winston's bill was tabled was reconsidered and that bill also was referred to the committee.

THE LAW ON DIVORCE.

Should One Year's Abandonment be Cause for Divorce. The divorce bill was to make one year's abandonment cause for divorce.

This bill was introduced by Mr. Leatherwood, of Swain, who urged its passage on the ground that there was necessity for it and that it could do no harm. Such a law was passed by the Legislature of 1897 effective only January 1, 1898, and Mr. Leatherwood's proposition is simply to make this bill the law for all time. Mr. Rountree opposed the bill. "In about two more Legislatures I don't think anybody need go to South Dakota to get a divorce. They can come to North Carolina. It seems to me we are moving very rapidly in the wrong direction. The law in North Carolina up to fifteen or twenty years ago was about the best that could be enacted. It was founded on The Book." Mr. Stevens, of Union, agreed with Mr. Rountree. He considered the bill a very bad one—a dangerous one. Mr. Leatherwood couldn't see any harm the bill could do. It had, he said, restored peace and happiness to many a home. After some further discussion the bill was referred to the Judiciary committee.

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS.

All Telegraph Companies Look Alike to the Solons. The House was opened with prayer by Rev. Dr. J. W. Carter, of the First Baptist church. Reading of Saturday's Journal was dispensed with. Reports of Standing Committees were made as follows: Judiciary—By Winston, of Bertie; Boushall, of Wake; Patterson, of Robeson; Hartsell, of Cabarrus; Stevens, of Union. Education—By Clarkson, of Mecklenburg. Health—By Reeves, of Ashe. Rules—By Moore, of Jackson. Engrossed Bills—By Whitfield, of Person. Corporations—By Justice, of McDowell; Leak, of Anson; Koushee, of Durham; Bryan, of Granville. Counties, Cities and Towns—By McIntosh, of Alexander. Pensions—By Hampton, of Surry. The petitions and new bills introduced showed a decided falling off, in number. Only four petitions were presented and twenty new bills were introduced. Among important bills introduced was one by Mr. Brown, of Johnston, to allow owners of dogs to list them at sheriff's office for taxation, at any time, and thus make them property. Mr. Rountree, of New Hanover, introduced a Terrapin Bill. It restores section 3377 of the Code in regard to diamond-back terrapin, except that it makes a slight change as to the time of catching them. The Code makes it unlawful to take them terrapins between April 15th and August 15th. Later amendments extended this from March 1st to November 15th. Now Mr. Rountree proposes to repeal these amendments and amend the Code so as to make it unlawful to allow diamond-back terrapin to be caught from April 1st to August 1st. A bill of great importance, and also one that should become law, was that by Mr. Council, of Watauga, to provide for the partition of land where there is an intervening estate. The bill amends chapter 214, Laws of 1897, so as to give tenants in common the right to partitions in real estate, during the existence of an outstanding life estate. The Laws of 1897 provided for the sale of such interest, but failed to allow partition of the same and the present amendment is intended to give this relief. Mr. Winston, of Bertie, introduced a separate car law. It makes it the duty of all railroads carrying passengers for compensation to have separate but equal accommodations for the white and colored races; the duty of regulating and prescribing the rules for such separation is made obligatory on the Railroad Commissioners; who are made indictable if they fail to adopt and enforce such rules. Penalties and indictments are provided for a failure of railroads and the officers thereof to comply with the rules of the Commission. Passengers are also indictable who refuse to comply with the act. Among the bills passed were the following:

- To amend chapter 71, Private Laws of 1889, incorporating the Aberdeen and West End Railroad.
- To repeal chapter 171, Laws of 1895, to compel those setting large steel traps to put up signs indicating their presence.
- To amend chapter 77, Private Laws of 1883.
- To supply Hyde county with certain missing Supreme court reports.
- To amend chapter 49 of the Code.
- To amend chapter 114, Laws of 1895 appointing special tax collectors for Northampton and Robeson counties.
- To provide for cross-indexing wills.
- To amend the charter of St. Peter's Home in Charlotte.
- To amend the charter of the Bank of Reidsville.
- To incorporate the town of Mint Hill, Mecklenburg county.
- To amend chapter 15, Laws of 1895, in regard to shooting deer in Bladen county.
- To pay W. L. Norwood $588.18 back salary.
- To amend the charter of Albemarle.
- To authorize the commissioners of Alexander to levy special tax.
- To establish the Vance Textile school. (Substitute.)
- To incorporate the North Carolina Mutual and Provident Association.
- To extend the time for building the Albemarle and Fayetteville Railroad.
- To make the Scotland county bill special order for Thursday after expiration of the morning hour.
- To extend the time for organizing the American Trust and Savings Bank.
- The following bills were unfavorably reported.
- To authorize mortgagees to buy at their own sale.
- To repeal chapter 461, Public Laws of 1893.
- To authorize Wilmington to deed the old court house to the Naval Reserves.
- To punish persons who sell spirituous liquors in local option territory.
- To amend section 1,246, so as to allow proof of deeds in counties where land is situated.
- To punish trespass upon the lands of another. (Amended to apply to Wake county only.)

BREASTING THE TIDE.

From every hamlet comes the same story of the up-hill fight against catarrh.

One local treatment after another is tried without result for good. Dr. Hartman has made this fight easier. His great prescription, Pe-ru-na, cures every phase of catarrh and leaves grateful, healthy people like those whose letters are printed here.

Mrs. Jane Eldred, Max Creek, Mo., writes:
Pe-ru-na Medicine Co., Columbus, O.

DEAR SIR:—I was under the treatment of several doctors and tried all the medicines I could hear of for catarrh, but got continually worse. I am now entirely well, thanks to Dr. Hartman and Pe-ru-na. I recommend Pe-ru-na to all afflicted with catarrh. I think it has added years to my life.

Mr. W. E. Shelton, Lone Grove, I. T., says:
"I am grateful for this opportunity to say to those who may be suffering from catarrh that Pe-ru-na is what they need. I had for years been afflicted with this dreaded disease. Seeing Dr. Hartman's Pe-ru-na recommended so highly, I decided to give it a trial, and after having used only two bottles, I am happy to state I am rapidly traversing the road to health. Pe-ru-na is more than all drugs."

All druggists sell Pe-ru-na.

THE ANTI-TRUST BILL.
Further Consideration of it To-morrow Afternoon.
Mr. Stevens' anti-trust bill was considered yesterday afternoon by the House Judiciary committee. It is evident, notwithstanding the pledges of the Democratic party on this question, that several of the members of the committee will not support this or any other bill of the kind if they can help it. Whether a majority will be with them or not remains to be seen. Of the members of the committee yesterday, Mr. Stevens spoke in favor of the bill and Mr. Rountree and Mr. Winston against it. "I am entirely opposed to the bill," said Mr. Rountree. "I have never read it. I don't know, therefore, exactly what it is. I'm just simply opposed to that sort of legislation." Mr. Winston expressed himself in favor of anti-trust legislation, but he didn't like the provisions of this particular bill. Mr. Jas. H. Poin appeared before the committee in opposition to the bill. He expressed a fear that it would cripple the Cone Export Company and thereby hurt the cotton mills of the State. He painted the beauties and advantages of the Cone organization in glowing colors, though he appeared only, he said, in his own behalf as an owner of cotton mill stock and for a few other persons for whom he had bought stock. Mr. E. L. Harris, a jobber of this city, said the bill would compel him to either quit business in North Carolina or to establish a nominal office in Norfolk or elsewhere outside of the State. Mr. Julian, of Rowan, as a business man, endorsed the contentions of Mr. Harris. He considered the bill in premium on dishonesty. Replying to these arguments Mr. Stevens said he was not wedded to his bill. He was for a good and effective anti-trust bill and this was the best he had seen. He was willing to take a better one, if somebody would supply it. Until they did he would stand by this bill. The Democratic party had promised and he for one proposed to do his best to fulfill the promise. "Some people consider it all right to promise, but in bad faith to legislate against trusts. I don't know that this bill will prevent trusts, but I do know it registers the will of the people." Mr. Robinson—"Don't you think these trusts are the outgrowth of tariff legislation?" Mr. Stevens—"No. They are the outgrowth of greed and avarice." "He read from the last report of Attorney General Osborne asking for a more stringent and effective anti-trust law, and recommending one of this very kind. Mr. Stevens also pointed out the fact that the Supreme court of the United States has decided this law constitutional." Mr. Rountree—"What good will it do to pass an anti-trust law?" Mr. Stevens—"You ought to have gone into the State Convention and asked that question." "The trust goes to Congress and says, 'Leave this matter to the States to regulate.' To the State Legislatures it says, 'Let Congress pass a national anti-trust law.'" "The streets of Jerusalem were kept clean by every man sweeping in front of his door." "If the Democratic party ignores its pledges in this respect then the people are going to be disappointed." Mr. Rountree—"Don't you know 95 per cent of the persons who go into business fail?" Mr. Craig—"The trusts crush them out." Mr. Stevens—"Trusts are being formed daily. You can scarcely pick up a paper but you see something of a new trust. But I'm not here to discuss trusts. That's to be done by the Democratic party in its platform. By that I stand." "It's whispered that perhaps we'd better go slow here; that we'd better touch corporate interests lightly; else these interests will withdraw their influence from the Democratic party in North Carolina." "Now I acknowledge that the business interests of the State have done much for its best interests politically, but if the time has come when they are going to play the roll of political high-woman I say let them go, and joy go with them. They leave peace behind them." Further consideration will be given this bill in committee to-morrow afternoon.
