INDIAN "SISTERS" HATED.

Baltimore, Md., March 14.-Five Sis ers of the American Order of the Sac red Heart, according to a dispatch from Pinar del Rio, have been ordered away from Cuba by Archbishop Chapelle, the Papal representative recently appoint ed to investigate the affairs of the Cath olic church in that island.

The news was received by cable in this city by General James R. O'Bierne of New York, who is registered at th Hotel Rennert. The message came from Rev. J. M. Craft, an Indian Mis sionary priest, who founded the Ameri can order of the Sisters, and went to Cu ba last November with the five nuns who are all the daughters of Indian The cablegram, which is in Latin, was thus translated by General O'Bierne: "Archbishop Chapelle orders us to g away from here, on account of the old hatred against the (Indian) Sisters. have written you about it."

"Father Craft's reference to the 'old hatred' against the Indian sisters means just this," said the General. 'The or der is purely American and was enlist ed near Fort Pierre, on the Dakota bor der, about six years ago. The Cahensley element in the church, or those who are in favor of the European idea in the management of orders and church af fairs, antagonized Father Craft's work in establishing this new order, and he met with much opposition. He went bravely on with his undertaking, however, and when the war with Spain broke out, offered the services of a num ber of the young Indian Sisters to the Government "As an old friend of the missionary priest, I went to the Secretary of War and succeeded in getting the Sisters sent to nurse in the hospitals at Tampa and Huntsville. Later on, owing to the excellent work they did, and the fact that they were considered immune from yellow fever, five of the sisters were sent to Cuba, and were located with the first division hospital of the Seventh Army Corps at Pinar del Rio. All through the yellow fever epidemics in Cuban camps the Sisters worked admirably, and, to my own knowledge were complimented by the Department for their excellent work. They were all the time under the direction of Fathr Craft, who accompanied them. He had met with considerable hostility from the un-American element in the church, and the opposition to this new American order of Sisters became very marked. Nothing like the present move was, how-ever, expected."
