UPROAR FOLLOWS SUNDAY'S RIOTING

A Wild Scene in the French Chamber of Deputies.

SITTING WAS SUSPENDED

WHILE THE SOLDIERS ENTERED THE ROOM AND EXPELLED A MEMBER.

ATTACK ON PRES. LOUBET THE CAUSE

Foyalists Charged the President With Cowardice and the Premier Retorted that the Royalists Hid Behind Women When Attack Occurred.

Paris, June 5.—There were violent scenes in the Chamber of Deputies this afternoon, owing to Royalist denunciations of President Loubet, and the soldiers on duty had to expel the chief anti-Loubet speaker, M. Rious de Largentaye.

The Chamber of Deputies met at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The public galleries were crowded with fashionable people, including many ladies in pretty toilettes who used their fans vigorously on account of the heat.

The galleries of the Senators and Diplomats were also full. There was a large and early attendance of Deputies, who animatedly discussed the incidents of yesterday. Premier Dupuy and the Minister of Justice, M. Lebreton, sat on the Ministerial bench.

M. Laloze, who moved the interpellation, rose at 2:25 p. m., and said the hour of action had struck. (Cheers from the Leftists and murmurs from the Rightists and a babel of cries in which M. Cassagnac and Lasies, Anti-Semite, participated.)

M. Laloze asked the Premier if he had been warned before hand of yesterday's demonstration. He then endorsed President Loubet, who, he said, underwent the Presidency in a time of stress. (Loud applause.)

M. Rious de Largentaye, Conservative, representing the Second Division of Dinan, Cotes-Du-Nord, shouted: "Loubet is not honest. He is a Panamaist."

These statements called forth violent protests and shouts of "Order," but M. De Largentaye persisted in spite of the uproar and hooting, in declaring honest men were arrested yesterday. This was followed with shouts of "Down with Loubet," and a scene of wild excitement ensued. The Leftists shouted at the top of their voices:

"Censure with temporary exclusion." President Deschanel ordered M. De Largentaye to withdraw but the latter refused and the session was suspended, the deputies being required to withdraw in order that M. De Largentaye be expelled.

M. LARGENTAYE EXPELLED. The commanding officer on duty at the Palais Bourbon then entered the Chamber of Deputies with a squad of soldiers and requested M. De Largentaye to withdraw. The latter waited until many of his colleagues had left the house and then rose and walked out escorted by the soldiers.

There was cheering and counter cheering when M. De Largentaye appeared in the corridors.

The sitting was then resumed. M. Laloze asked what measures the Government intended to take in the future and the Premier replied that after yesterday's incidents his first step was to address a respectful greeting to the Nation's Elect, and to "the firm citizen who was and who remains the guaranty of republican communion." (Cheers.)

PREMIER SCORES REACTIONISTS. Continuing, the Premier said that yesterday at Autenil the "advance guard of the reactionary party protested against him and called for his resignation," and proceeded to enlarge upon the coarseness of such a demonstration against an invited guest. (Cheers.)

The Premier then said: "The representatives of elegance and good taste have given us an idea of what France may expect from their idleness and indolence. We knew secret meetings had taken place and that preparations were made for demonstrations. We took measures for the President's protection in driving to and from the race course and nothing occurred on the way." Here a Royalist Deputy cried: "You hid him."

M. Dupuy retorted: "No but your friends hid behind the women." Protests from the Rightists followed and M. Lasies, Anti-Semite, cried: "Loubet and Deschanel (the Minister of Foreign Affairs) hid behind policemen."

This statement was followed by an uproar lasting several minutes. When comparative quiet had been restored M. Dupuy said: "We stationed the police at the paddock with orders to intervene immediately in a case of demonstration and they did so, though they met with much opposition and protests, I assume all responsibility."

"You have the evil eye," cried M. Lasies, a remark which caused laughter.

WILL CLOSE THE CLUBS. M. Dupuy continued: "All the police did their duty and an individual threw himself on the President of the Republic, who remained calm. The proceedings at Autenil were all the more disgusting, because they occurred in the presence of foreign representatives. The persons who have been arrested will be examined by a magistrate, who will decide whether there was a conspiracy. We are satisfied the accused are members of clubs which the government has decided to close. Yesterday's demonstrations pretend to represent France in the army, but the public was against them. We are supporters of the Republic and Republicans do not mix with those who have only borrowed her name in order to better destroy her. You have given us a counter-suggestion we intend to uphold. If you give us your confidence we shall know how to defend our institutions from those who attack them." (Applause.)

SICK OF THE REPUBLIC. Here M. De Cassagnac, Conservative, interjected:

"The country is sick of the Republic. As to the affair which has divided the nation and families, it will yet weigh heavily against you. The stories current in regard to measures which you propose against the generals—

"A certain amount of courage," exclaimed the Premier, "is required to do what we propose."

"To drag before a high court," retorted M. Cassagnac (the former Minister of War), "your former colleagues. You have cause to close the clubs. The nation is awaking and is only waiting the right man." (Applause.)

After further debate, M. Meilne and his supporters moved the order of the day, approving the Government's action. It was carried without a division after the first part had been adopted by a vote of 513 to 32 and the second part had been voted by 325 to 173.

The Chamber by 269 to 238 votes decided to adjourn the appointment of a commission to inquire into the conduct (Continued on Second Page.)

KAUZ ON HIS WAY HOME WILL REACH SAN FRANCISCO ABOUT JUNE THE 25TH.

Is Now Probably at Honolulu. Both Factions at Samoa are Laying Down Their Arms.

Washington, June 5.—The Navy Department has received the following cablegram from Admiral Kautz, telegraphed from San Francisco, Cal., June 3rd: "The Department cable of the 13th instant received. Will instruct the commander of the Badger to send the Britus to Honolulu as soon as she can be spared. Expect to sail from here on the 21st with the remains of Lieutenant Lansdale and Eusign Monaghan. Will probably reach San Francisco, June 25th."

This despatch was evidently brought into San Francisco by steamer and is therefore about three weeks old. According to Admiral Kautz's program he is probably now at Honolulu. The run from Honolulu to San Francisco is about eight days, so that he will evidently be there for some time before sailing for San Francisco, as he makes his date of arrival there June 25th.

FACTIONS DISARMING. Apia, Samoa, May 31.—(Via Auckland, N. Z., June 5.)—Both native factions, the Matioans and the Matafa's, are disarming. Matafa has surrendered 1,800 guns.

DR. GREEN DECLINES. The Presidency of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Baltimore, Md., June 5.—Dr. J. P. Green, president of the William Jewell College, at Liberty, Mo., who was asked to accept the presidency of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, at Louisville, Ky., has declined the office. He was selected by the board of trustees to fill the office vacated on May 11th by Dr. Whitsett, and it was thought, as he was himself a member of the board, and the action of the board calling him was unanimous, that he would accept the position.

Hon. Joshua Levering, president of the board, received today the following communication. He will call a meeting of the board of trustees in the near future to act upon the letter:

"Liberty, Mo., June 2nd, 1899. "Hon. Joshua Levering, President of the Board of Trustees, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. "Dear Brother: During the last hours of the last day of May, I came to a decision concerning the call to the presidency of the seminary. So far as my poor soul is able to discern the leadings of the Lord, it is my duty to remain with William Jewell College. I have considered both sides of the question. The peace of Southern Baptists seems to depend on my accepting the call, and the welfare of this institution seems to depend on my remaining here. I cannot go into details in this note, but will simply say that this college is so deeply rooted in my heart and its future so dependent on my devotion to it that I cannot believe God wants me to leave it.

"You and all the members of the board appreciate my trying position. I have passed through one of the greatest struggles of my life. But now my duty seems clear and I go forward with unflinching faith in God, believing that He will provide for our beloved seminary.

"Allow me, through you, to thank the brethren of the board for their confidence in me, and to assure them that my duty to remain here is the only thing that moves me to decline this hearty and unanimous call. I love them and the dear institution which God has committed to their care.

"Sincerely yours, "J. P. GREEN."

SHELLED THE ENEMY FROM HIS TRENCHES

Americans Capture the Town of Morong.

AFTER A SHARP SCRIMAGE

KILLED NINE FILIPINOS AND WOUNDED FIVE.

ENEMY FIRED ON GUNBOATS FROM SHORE

But Took to the Hills When the Americans Landed. Otis Cables the Department that the Oregon Regiment Leaves for Home.

Manila, June 5.—1:40 p. m.—Two battalions of the Washington troops under Colonel Wolley on board cascos, were towed from Pasig to Morong on Sunday and landed under cover of a well directed fire from the "tin-clad" army gunboats Napidan and Cavadonga.

The rebels, who were entrenched in the outskirts of the town, reserved their fire until the troops were ashore, and in the open. The American artillery opened fire on the insurgents and drove them from their positions, killing nine of them and wounding five.

The Washington troops then took the town, the rebels fleeing to the hills. While the Americans were on their way to Morong, the insurgents opened fire from a shore battery at Ancon, their first shot striking the Cavadonga awning at a range of 3,500 yards. The Napidan also was fired at.

A MIDNIGHT CONFERENCE.

Cabinet has Something up Its Sleeve on the Philippine Situation.

Washington, June 5.—Secretary Hay was a party to a midnight conference at the White House last night, a fact not generally known last night. It is believed that advices were received from President Schurman of the Philippine Commission. The conference prepared some instructions to govern the conduct of the officers in the Philippines, in accordance with the suggestions contained in the cable advices, and these were promptly cabled to Manila. The fact that the Secretary of State was called into the conference by the President is taken as an indication that the subjects discussed were not purely military in character, but related in some manner to large questions of policy connected with the Philippines; perhaps relating again to some fresh overtures from the insurgents. The matter is said to be in such shape that publication at this time would defeat the object in view.

SHOT HER ASSAILANT.

A Georgia Woman Applies Governor Northern's Remedy.

Atlanta, Ga., June 5.—A special from Columbus, Ga., says: "An unknown negro made an attempt yesterday to assault Mrs. David Ward, who lives three miles west of Girard. Mrs. Ward defended herself with a pistol and sent two bullets after the frightened wretch."

While a posse was scouring the woods today to find the negro, leaving Mrs. Ward alone, her husband joining in the chase, the same negro with remarkable nerve entered the Ward home again and made the second attempt at assault. This time he tore the clothes from Mrs. Ward, but she managed to secure her pistol and shot the negro four times.

Mrs. Ward says she saw the negro fall several times while running from the house. Blood hounds from Opelika have been telegraphed for. If not already dead from the wounds, it is expected the negro will be lynched.

ESTERHAZY'S CHARGE.

Paris, June 5.—The Matin today publishes an interview with Major Count Esterhazy, in which Esterhazy accuses Lieutenant Colonel Du Paty De Clam of having, for safety, placed in his mother-in-law's house at Brussels extraordinary documents which protect them both, notably a long report by General Gouze, discussing the plan to be followed in order to screen Esterhazy.

The Matin's correspondent at Brussels confirms the statement that Du Paty De Clam left documents in the possession of the D'Ursel family. Du Paty De Clam's wife is a daughter of the Duchesse D'Ursel, Grand Mistress of the Queen's Household.

The Minister of War, M. Kautz, has ordered proceedings to be taken against Esterhazy for obtaining and using documents connected with the so-called "Secret Dossier" and the Minister has also issued instructions that proceedings be taken against General Pelleux in the manner in which he conducted the Esterhazy case.

The Minister of Justice, M. Lebreton, has written to the President of the Chamber of Deputies, M. Deschanel, calling his attention to the reference in the decision of the Court of Cassation to General Mercier's showing documents connected with the Dreyfus court martial in order that the Chamber may decide whether Mercier is to be proceeded against for an unlawful act committed while he was Minister of War.

A KENTUCKY TRIAL.

Troops Guard the Court House But the Shooting Has Not Begun.

London, Ky., June 5.—The Baker murder trial began at Manchester today. Troops sent to guard the court house are camped near the building, ready for action. Sentinels are on guard to keep the Howards, Whites and Bakers out of town. The Whites and Howards also put out guards to pick off the Bakers if they attempt to enter the town.

The Bakers are camped down on Bear Creek, 100 strong. There are fully 100 of the Whites and Howards. Colonel Williams has only 100 soldiers. All the parties are heavily armed. There has been no shooting so far.

AN ANTI-TRUST CONVENTION.

Governors and Attorneys General of Southern States Asked to Cooperate.

Austin, Tex., June 5.—Governor Sayres today telegraphed all the Governors and Attorneys General of the Southern States a call for an anti-trust convention to meet in St. Louis, September 20th for the purpose of securing concerted action against trusts.

BATTLE WITH OUTLAWS.

Who Dynamited the Union Pacific Train at Wilcox.

Omaha, Neb., June 5.—A special to the Bee from Cheyenne, Wyo., says: A courier has just reached Casper with news of a battle between a Union Pacific posse and the outlaws who dynamited the company's train at Wilcox. The three outlaws were captured without loss of life and will be brought to Casper.

DEWEY SAYS FAREWELL

OLYMPIA SAILS FROM HONG KONG AT 4 P. M. TO DAY.

Dewey's Health Better but he Declines all Functions Stops to be Made at Singapore and Colombo.

Hong Kong, June 5.—Admiral Dewey left the Peak Hotel and returned to the Olympia yesterday. This morning he paid farewell calls to the Governor, General Cascoigne and the commanders of the warships in the harbor.

Admiral Dewey's health has been considerably benefited by his residence at the Peak. He has refused all social invitations and has taken a perfect rest. He appears somewhat haggard from the effects of the continual strain he has been under and of the climate.

The Olympia will sail at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, but Admiral Dewey will not give a farewell dinner, nor will he accept one.

It is hoped that the quiet change and the voyage will quite restore him to health by the time he reaches New York. The details of the ports at which he will call are still undecided, but it is probable that stops will be made at Singapore and Colombo. The Admiral seems anxious to avoid all displays and merely to seek rest. His officers and crew are elated at the prospect of a return home.

CONFEDERATE GRAVES.

A Committee Complains of Neglect at Arlington Cemetery.

Washington, June 5.—A committee of Chas. B. Roush, Camp of Confederate Veterans Union, headed by Dr. S. E. Lewis, of this city, today called upon the President and presented a memorial complaining of the condition of the Confederate graves in Arlington cemetery and the records pertaining to the same. There are 141 Confederate graves at Arlington, scattered about the cemetery.

The President promised to look into the matter. The committee desires that these graves be relocated in a separate plot in the cemetery and their headstones appropriately marked.

RAPIST GETS TWENTY YEARS.

Vienna, Ga., June 5.—John Hammon, who attempted to outrage the little daughter of N. L. Christmas, plead guilty in the special session of the county court here today. He was given the limit of the law, and was sentenced to twenty years by Judge Litchjohn. Two hours later he was on his way to Macon, where he will be kept until assigned to a convict camp.

A NEW DISPENSARY DECISION.

Columbia, S. C., June 5.—The Superior Court has reversed the decision of the lower court in an important case affecting the dispensary law. The decision gives a citizen the right to drive over into North Carolina or across the bridge to Augusta, Ga., or send his team over with an agent, buy whiskey for his own use and return with it.

TOLBERT RETURNS.

Columbia, S. C., June 5.—A dispatch from Greenwood, S. C., announces that R. R. Tolbert, who was made to leave there six months ago, has returned without molestation. A publication of his views on politics a month ago in a Greenwood paper is supposed to have caused change of feeling among his neighbors.

Ambassador Choate presented the medal of the American Geographical Society to Sir John Murray at the meeting of the Royal Geographical Society last night.

Chauncey Depew and his son leave London for Paris today where the Senator goes to study conditions in France. He says McKinley and Hobart will be renominated without opposition and that if the Democrats met now they would nominate Mr. Bryan. He adds that by the time the convention meets they will be ready for a deal and "will bargain to buy off free silver by giving up the demand for a big army and navy and will go before the country on an anti-imperialism, anti-corporations, socialist and labor party basis. If this occurs, there will be another tremendous fight; but the Republicans will win. Such a platform would mean the nomination of Mr. Gorman."

ROBBED THE POST OFFICE

WORK OF PROFESSIONAL CRACKSMEN AT ELIZABETH CITY.

Blew the Door of the Safe Off and Secured $130 Besides Several Registered Packages.

Norfolk, Va., June 5.—The postoffice at Elizabeth City, N. C., was broken into by safe crackers last night, the safe drilled and dynamite inserted. The explosion blew the door entirely off, throwing it across the room. People residing several blocks away heard the noise. The burglars secured one hundred and thirty dollars in money order funds, several registered letters and a small amount of money belonging to Postmistress Pool. Everything points to professional work. The thieves left no clue to their identity.

NEGROES KILL A WOMAN.

A Search Party is Out and a Lynching May Follow.

Birmingham, Ala., June 5.—Mrs. R. H. Hubbard was shot and instantly killed by two negroes at Edline station on the Memphis and Charleston Railroad in Bibb county today. Mr. Hubbard is a farmer and had in his employ Alexander Hill and Bud Hargrave. The negroes were discharged for indolence, and some dispute arose over the amount due them. They went to the house and called for Mr. Hubbard, who was ill in bed.

One report says that Hubbard came to the door and was fired upon, one ball striking his wife, and the other is that Mrs. Hubbard went to the door and was shot down. Mr. Hubbard, hearing the shot, came to the door and was seriously wounded.

Armed bodies are scouring the woods, and a second Sam Hose affair is threatened. It is said Hill fired the fatal shot.

A GUN FOR EACH STATE.

The Artillery Captured From Spain to be Turned Over to the Governors.

Washington, June 5.—The War Department has solved the question as to the disposition of the artillery captured from Spain in Cuba and Porto Rico by turning the whole matter over to the Governors of the States.

The law under which these guns can be distributed provides that they may go only to the Soldiers' Monument Associations, G. A. R. posts and municipal corporations. One gun will be allotted to each State.

WILL WAIT FOR THE LAW.

Atlanta, Ga., June 5.—A special to the Constitution from Blaxey, Ga., says:

Will Ayles, a negro today assaulted Mrs. Vicky Edgerton, a young white married woman living near here. A posse pursued and captured him and he is now in jail. It is believed the law will be allowed to take its course.

THE REGULATORS REGULATED.
