The News and Observer.

VOL. XLVII. NO. 46.

RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA, SATURDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 4, 1899.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

NORTH CAROLINA DAILIES LEADS ALL

JIM JEFFRIES IS STILL CHAMPION

Fought Sharkey Twenty-Five Fierce Rounds.

NO KNOCKOUT BLOW GIVEN

AND FIGHT WENT TO JEFFRIES UNDER THE RULES.

WERE WELL MATCHED

And Throughout the Slugging Contest the Advantage was First With One and Then With the Other. Sharkey Did Most of Aggresive Work

New York, Nov. 3 .- Jim Jeffries and Coney Island tonight, Referee Siler declaring Jeffries the winner at the end of the 25th round under the Queensbury rules as there was no knock out Jeffries fought at 210, and Sharkey at 185 pounds. Every seat in the house was occupied and the betting was heavy at odds of 10 to 7 on Jeffries. The fight by rounds follows:

Ringside, Coney Island Sporting Club, N. Y., Nov. 3.—James J. Jeffries retains the championship of the world, Referee George Siler giving him the decision at the end of the twenty-fifth round over Sailor Tom Sharkey, at the Coney Island Sporting Club tonight. It was one of the most marvelous battles that has ever taken place, and the greatest crowd that ever gathered in the Coney Island Club house witnessed the desperate struggle for supremacy.

In five rounds Jeffries had the better of the fight, in the first two and in the last three. During the other twent; Sharkey forced the issue, and like a bull terrier was at his man with both hands unceasingly. In those twenty rounds Jeffries' great weight and brawn helped him to hold off the sailor, and in the twenty-second round he swung in a couple of vicious uppercuts that made Sharkey groggy. Tom came back again in the twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth, but he was weakened greatly by Jeffries' vicious blows. One minute before the gong sounded to end the fight Jefner; an American flag was The crowd on the opposite and in Sharkey's corner, yelled for Sharkey, and the men were led back to their dressing

Ten thousand spectators were banked forty feet high in the building, the place being packed from rings'de to rafters, and the aisles around the ring were lined. The tremendous crowd sweated under the glare of 400 arc lights 15 feet or less from the canvas of the squared circle. The heat was in-The fighters were almost ex harsted, and the spectators shrieked themselves hoarse.

It seemed at first as though it would be short fight, for in the second round Jeffries put the sailor to the ropes with a left on the jaw, and the referee be gan to call off the seconds as Sharkey kneeled on the floor. But from the third round on, Sharkey, with his vicious swing to the ribs and the jaw, kept the erowd on its feet waiting for a knock-

Jeffries stood the terrific punishment, and with his eye, nose and ear split, came back just as viciously in the last three rounds and almost retrieved him-Then came, the unfortunate and unsatisfactory ending, Jeffries' glove flying off, bringing the fight to an end, although the crowd urged Sharkey to rush in and end it. This he tried to do. but Jeffries fought him back, and Referee Siler rushed to the rescue. It was noticeable that Jeffries used his weight to its best advantage, throwing himself all over the sailor, but the latter did his share of the hugging, too, and both were warned repeatedly.

A preliminary event of ten rounds at 128 pounds preceded the big event and Kid Goulette, of Rochester, who looked a great deal like Jeffries on a small scale, was beaten by Tommy Moran, of Brooklyn.

Then, after half an hour's delay, Tom Sharkey could be seen making his way through the crowds. He was well re ceived, but Jeffries was cheered to the Jeffries weighed 210 pounds and Sharkey 25 pounds less, but the latter looked left eye, both were fairly fresh when to be in better condition, the Californian being sallow and having staring eyes. and giving other evidences of not being in the best condition. The betting at the was 100 to 70 on Jeffries.

It looked them as though Sharkey was clearly cutclassed in the second round. O'Rourke, nowever, gave the sailor a talking, and to the amazement of all, Sharkew swung home on Jeffries' til's and jaw almost at will and there was a wild audience. As the fight went along, round by round, the sailor fought his After they broke away Sharkey rushed way into the hearts of those who marvehed at Jeffries' capacity for punish-

Sharkey's victions puniches began to tell, and at the close of the seventh, it seemed as though Jeffries could hardly walk to his corner, and it seemed certain there would be a new champion. Sharkey's ear was split in the eighth, and it made him like a bull. He rushed, swinging lefts and rights and throwing himself all over the sailor.

No one could say who would get in the knockout blow and neither seemed able to put force enough into the blow to drep his man. In the most of the twenty-fifth round, nearly one minute before the close, Jeffries' glove flew across the ring and Siler ran to help him on with it. Sharkey held back unti-friends yelled at him not to stop and it was a three-cornered fight for a few minutes. The referee got Jeffries' glove and tried to draw it on. This was difficult to do, and then Sharkey rushed. Jeffries threw up his gloved and un-gloved hand, and with the former uppercut Sharkey. Siler ram between them and made a second attempt to assist Jeffries. The sailor waited a moment, but wildly excited by * ~ surieks of the spectators, he rushed again. Siler dragged Jeffries away and the gong rang.

The referee pointed to Jeffries corner, and his seconds and friends cheered

The majority of those at the ringside hardly thought Sharkey would get worse than a draw, for the sailor fought viciously, always after his man, with good judgment, and outpointed the champion. On the other hand Jeffries, while he had the better, by long odds, of the last three rounds, did very little leading in the other twenty-two, and when he led he was either too high or too low, getting in but few good punches.

Although the decision was against

Tom Sharkey fought 25 hot rounds at him, he said Sharkey would not give up, but would seek another match, and the next time the result would be different.

"But I don't think that this fellow will want to tackle Tom again," O'Rourke, "I'll keep after him, though, until he agrees to another meeting or make him crawl."

Round 1 .- Sharkey rushed in swinging his left and landed on Jeffries' jaw They broke away and sparred cautio wy until Tom rushed again with a left swing but Jeffries sent him back with a left jab to the face. Sharkey after some sparring essayed a left swing and follow-ed it up with a right which landed back of the head. Then in another rush he forced Jeffries to the ropes without do-ing any damlage, but a moment later he sent his right to Jeffries' cheek and Jeffries clinched. They came to the center of the ring and Jeffries feinted with his left. Sharkey broke ground but came right back only to get a stiff left hook from Jeffries which landed on the face. Jeffries seemed a trifle slow while Sharkey was all action and Jeffries sent his right to the neck and Tom, his to riband his right across the body, but failed to land. They went to a clinch from which they were separated by the goug. Round 2.—They met in the center of the ring with Sharkey doing the rushing, swinging his right for the head, but Jef fries got inside of it. Sharkey rushed again, but at close quarters, got his left to the face. Jeffries returned the blow landing his left squarely on the chin and fries' left glove came off, and practically the contest was over.

Tom went down in a neutral corner where he laid for six seconds. Sharkey the champion's shoulders and the crowd He was up again with another rush, on outside and in the arena cheered wildly. By to be driven back with a right jolt in the body. Jeffries got in another right jolt and in the breakaway from a clinch which followed, Tom hooked his right over to the head. Sharkey rushed once more and landed right and left on the face in the breakaway. Jeffries then ed Sharkey to the latter's corner and Tom slipped to the floor in dodging a swing; when he got up they clinches and were hooked together when the bell

Siler walked over and cautioned Shar key for holding.

Round 3 .- They came together and Tom sent a left swing which went around the back of Jeffries' head. They came to a clinch and Sharkey was again cautioned for holding. Sharkey again rushed but Jim met him with a right jolt on the Tom's next attempt was more successful, as he landed a left on the ear. Jeffries drove him back with left and right to the body. After a little sparring Jeffries stepped in with a right jolt under Tom's heart.

Round 3.-Jeffries then led a left which fell short and Sharkey rushed in with a right to the head, but he was driven back with a hard right on the body Twice more was Sharkey repulsed with similar blows and the round ended with both men interlocked, their arms for right hooks.

Round 4.-Jeffries came out in crouching attitude with Sharkey standing erect. Tom tried left and right for the head, but each blow was blocked. They clinched as they broke, exchanging right jolts on the body. Sharkey rushed sending left for the chest, but Jim blocked him neatly. Jeffries stepped in with two rights on the body and was cautioned for using the same blow while holding a moment later. Sharkey kept up his rushing but was met every time with Jeffries' right to the ribs. The referee separated them from a hard neither man wanting to let go. Jeffries swung his left lightly and a moment later got his right to the chest, Sharkey countering lightly on the head, Jeffries jabbed his left straight to Tom's they returned to their corners. Round 5-Sharkey was the quicker on his feet and sent his left to the face, following with two rights to the head at close quarters. Jeffries clinched, and as they broke sent his right hard to the wind. Sharkey rushed again, but Jim met him with another hard right on the short ribs. Jeffries landed again in the same place with a powerful right and Sharkey clinched and they wrestled for a moment in the centre of the ring. in with a terrific left on the body, but missed on his next try and got a left in the face. Both men exchanged very hard lefts in the face and cross-counter ed each other hard over the heart. Sharkey began rushing like a demon and shot his left to the face. Jeffries sent back his right to the body and the bell found them in close quarters. Rounds 6-Sharkey was the quicker, coming like a flash with a hard left on when they broke Sharkey stuck his tongue out at Jeffries. After another clinch Sharkey hooked his left hard to the neck and drove his right with fearful force to the kidneys, forcing Jeffries to another clinch. In the clinch both men held with their lefts and delivered two hard right body blows. Sharkey let his left go for all it was worth or Jeffries' chest and the big fellow's frame was jarred from the blow. Jeffries shot his left to the wind and rushed to the elinch, Sharkey bringing his right with a hard jolt over the heart.

Both fought fiercely without a let up, Sharkey having the better of the fight-Jeffries sent his left to the body and Sharkey countered with left on the mouth, cutting Jeffries' sore lip. This was Sharkey's round

Round 7.—Sharkey was first to land with his right on the neck, Jeffries throwing his left on the head and to the chest. A spell of sparring ensued until Jeffries stepped in with a right on the body, and as they came to a clinch Jeffries uppercut Tom with a right on the chest. Tom sent back a left on the head and they clinched. Sharkey is fighting fast, while Jeffries seems slow in comparison. Jeffries sent his left to the body and Sharkey sent a hard left hook on the neck. After another hard right on the body Tom swung his left to the head and jarred the boilermaker to his heels. Sharkey rushed and swung his left to Jeffries' head. Jeffries clinched hard and lay over on his man with such force that the referee had to keep Sharkey from falling. In the breakaway Sharkey got his left to the face. This is another round for Sharkey. Round 8.—Jeffries assumed the defensive near the ropes near his corner, and Tom went to him with a left which went around the neck, but he shot his right hard to Jeffries' ribs. Jeffries returned with a right on the ribs and they ame to a rough mixup, with honors even. They clinched and from this Tom landed a straight left on the head and landed another a few seconds later with telling force. Jeffries clinched again and seemed to be unwilling to break. Jeffries threw his entire weight on Sharkey and then they got into a close wrangle in which Jeffries hooked his left on Tom's ear, bleeding it. They mixed things up with fearful force. Both lauding heavy on the neck and body. Jeffries seemed tired, but met Sharkey's next rush with right and left jolts to the body; both men were fighting as if for their lives and dealt blow after blow in a clinch in which Jeffries rushed Tom to the ropes and almost threw him over. The bell found them ocked on the ropes.

Round 9.-Tom rushed again with Jeifries on the defensive and Jeffries tripped with his left on the ropes, steadied himself and met Sharkey's rush the heavy bombardment General Cronje with a left hook on the ear. Tom rush-ed again and Jeffries met him with a Barrien-Powell was askep when the terrific right drive under the neart. Tom messenger arrived, but, on being awakwhere he laid for six seconds. Sharkey hooked his left to the jaw and at close canded again, but Jeffries stepped and quarters each sent rights to the wind. They clinched and the refer e forced when we have that enough." them apart, both sent lefts to the head. but they were glancing blows. Jeffries drove his right to the body and Sharkey jaw, then they got to close quarters in Jeffries rushed Sharkey to the ropes but the latter came back with a right on the wind as the bell rang. Sharkey retired to his corner laughing

Round 10.—They got to close quarters without either landing. Tom stepped in after the break and Jeffries met him with a left on the face. Sharkey jugged aster. the left eye, which bled profusely and the use of Lyddite. they mixed it up very roug's till the bell sent them to their corners.

Round 11-Sharkey was the aggressor but Jim met him with a left on the ear. Jeffries then took a turn at rushing and sent his left to the body and his right over to the injured eye. Tom then rushed, sending his left to the face, but he was forced back with a hard right under the heart. Jeffries swung left to the body, and Tom got into close quar ters, hooking his right to the ribs. They came together with Sharkey swinging his left, but Jeffries blocked it cleverly and then they exchanged rights on the body, following with a clinch. After break away Jeffries shot his left at short range up to Tom's chin and Tom rushed again, Jeffries meeting him and forced him to the Californian's corner, where Tom slipped on a wet spot, and Jeffries let his right to Tom's chest, Tom slipping on the floor on one knee. There was some sparring when the bell rang.

Round 12-They came to a clinch with Jeffries jolting his right to the body. After the break Sharkey tried his right to the body but Jeffries blocked him Then Tom tried a left swing for the body, but Jeffries ducked nicely and a clinch followed. Both missed left for the head and again clinched. Jeffries swung his left on the ribs and met Tom's next rush with a right under the heart. Jeffries was now on the aggressixe, but at a signal from O'Rourke Sharkey rushed in and landed his left and right on Jeffries' head. He swung his left three times on Jeffries ear. Jerfries then looked at his seconds and winked knowingly and stepping in ripped left and right to Tom's body. They clinched and after they broke away Tom swung a left which landed full on Jim's Every blow in this round seemed heavy enough to fell an ox, but both men went to their corners singing. Round 13.-As usual Sharkey was the

quicker on his feet. They made a clinch (Continued on Second Page.)

MORE HEAVY GUNS

Out of Ladysmith.

KIMBERLY REPORTED SAFE

NO CASUALTIES SAID TO HAVE OCCURRED AMONG BRITISH.

WAR OFFI ERS IN DARK TO BOERS' MOVES

A Detailed Statement of the Losees in the Disaster at Farguhar's Farm Show That it Was a Close Call For General White. Joube t Protests Against Lyddite Shells.

London, Nov. 4.—The Daily Mail pub shes the following dispatch from Ladysmith, dated Wednesday morning:

'Matters today are quiet. The Boers are apparently mounting more heavy guns to the north and northeast, which are likely to give us trouble. A Boer contingent, 1,500 strong, and clearly visible from the camp, is coming away to the south. The inhabitants of Lady-smith continue to leave the town."

ADD BOERS ..6..6.. 6..6....66. London, Nov. 3.—The War Office this afternoon, replying to inquiries, said no information had been received there of fresh Boer movements at Colenso or sewhere, and it was added the officials were not aware if the railroad to Ladysmith was in the act or not.

MOBILIZING THE MILITIA. London, Nov. 3.-An army order is sued this evening instructs the proper authorities to mobilize 35 battalions of militia at their erspective headquarters on various dates after November 20th. KIMBERLEY SAFE.

Orange River, Cape Colony, Nov 2.— (Delayed in Transmission.)—Kemberley is still safe and the wounded are doing

NO CASUALTIES AT MAFEKING. Cape Town, Nov. 2.—(Delayed in Transaission.)—The Cape Times says it has reliable information that there have been no casualties among the British at Mafeking since October 13th.

BRITISH LOSSES.

London, Nov. 3.-4:05 a. m.-There is clinched and hung on. After the break very little fresh intelligence today, but Tom hooked two beautiful lefts to the it is believed that the Delagoa Bay route, if not already restored, speedily will be, which they had a wrestling match, each thus giving quicker communication with trying to land a telling blow on the the Cape. The situation, is still hopeful. The accounts that continue to arrive regarding the fighting on Farquar's

Farm only confirm its serious nature and the narrow escape of General Whie It now appears as if it were only the Tom stepped arrival of the naval contingent from the Powerful which prevented a worse dis-

Jeffries around the neck and the latter Delayed dispatches from the British hoved Tom to the ropes, Sharkey still camp in Ladysmith, Natal, add little in holding. The referee after separating formation regarding Monday's fight, exthem cautioned Sharkey. Sharkey hook-ed his left on Jeffries' head. He tried which are now said to be 95 killed and this as second time but Jeffries ducked 200 wounded, mostly victims of the ar safely and both exchanged hard rights tillery shells, which have wrought such on the body at close quarters. Jeffries great havoc that it is said General Joastepped in with a hard left on the face bert, the Boer commander-in-chief, has and Sharkey crossed him with a right written a letter to General White, the on the jaw. Jeffries swung his right to British commander, protesting against

> The following is a detailed revised report of the total British casualties among the rank and file at Farquhar's Farm: Artillery—4 killed; 29 wounded; 85

Cavalry-2 killed; 9 wounded; none missing. First Kings Rifles-1 killed; 32 wounded; 21 missing. Second Kings Rifles-8 killed; 29 wounded; 16 missing. Leicester Regiment-2 killed; 18 ounded; 4 missing.

Dublin Fusiliers-None killed; ounded: 16 missing. Manchester Regiment-None killed; 6 ounded; 1 missing. Irish Fusiliers—10 killed; 41 wounded; missing unknown. Gloucester Regiment-30 killed: 53 ounded; 330 missing. Engineers and Naval and Colonial 'orces-None killed; 7 wounded; none

Revised Total-57 killed; 227 wounded: 473 missing, the last mentioned not including the Irish Fusiliers,

A significant fact indicating the hasty character of General White's retreat to Ladysmith is the number of men captured, apart from the members of the Gloucester and Irish Fusiliers taken Bank Clearing.

New York, Nov. 3.—The total bank clearings in the United States for the week were $1,922,525,093; per cent .n-Exclusive of New York $682,091,345; per cent increase 17.1.

On Monday evening November 6th, 1899, the Old Farmer Hopkins Comedy Company will appear at the Academy of Music. The company has been enlarged since its last visit south. They carry a fine band and orchestra. A grand street parade at 11:45 a. m.

MRS. JACKSON NOT IN NE

Nor is She Blind as the Report

Charlotte, N. C., Nov. 3.—A rumor having gone abroad over the country that Mrs. Stonewall Jackson, widow of the distinguished Confederate general, is absolutely penniless, in want and hopelessly ill and blind, Mrs. Jackson said Inhabitants Continue to Get today to a representative of the Associated Press that these statements are very much exaggerated. It is true that she is not in affluent circumstances. but she has a competency and has always been above want. Her health is omewhat improved and she is not blind, though still suffering from a painful disease, facial neuralgia. Appeals having been made all over the South for her relief, Mrs. Jackson is anxious that the true state of the case should be known, as she is unwilling to accept any dona-tions except those offered as testimonials of love and admiration for her hus

A. A. POWELL MURDERED.

A North Carolinian's Mysterious Death at Macon Ga.

Macon, Ga., Nov. 3d.-A. A. Powell well known oil merchant of this city. was found early this morning unconcious with his skull crushed into jelly. He died shortly after he was found without having gained consciousness. Mr. Powell lived by himself in a room over his store and had been mordered apparently while he slept. The cause of the killing is shrouded in mystery. The victim was a quiet, inoffensive man. with no known enemy. The fact that a considedable amount of money was the theory of robbery. The police up to this time appear to be completely baffled. Mr. Powell came to Georgia several years ago from North Carolina. He has a sister and several brothers in

SAVED BY PILOT HOUSE.

Crew of Wrecked Steamer Catherine Whiting Floated Ashore.

Wilmington, N. C., Nov. 3.—The steamer Catherine Whiting, 890 tons, Captain F. C. Miller, from Satilla River, Georgia, to New York, laden with a cargo of 350,000 feet of lumber belonging to the Hilton-Dodge Lumber Company went ashore Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock, twenty miles south of Frying Pan Shoals. She is a total loss, having been dashed to pieces and is valued at $20,000. The captain and crew of 18 men drifted ashore on the pilot house of the Whiting and were all saved. The coasting steamer Seabright picked them up near Little River, S. C. and brought them safely to this port.

WILL DISFRANCHISE THE NEGRO Georgia to Adopt an Amendment to

Its Constitution. Atlanta, Ga. Nov. 3 .- The Committee on Constitutional Amendment of the Georgia House of Representatives today recommended the passage of Repesentative Hardwick's bill disfranchis ing the negro. The bill imposes an educational qualification on the negro voter, and Mr. Hardwick stated plainly that its object was to rid the State of the illiterate and purchasable negro vote. It is believed the passage of the bill by the House is assured.

The Ohio Situation.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 3.-Chairman Dick, of the Republican State Committee, tonight gave out the following forecast of the result in Ohio;

"The result is satisfactory from a Republican standpoint. The largest vote ever polled in a State campusn will be cast, approximating 950,000. Conceding Mr. Jones 75,000 to 109,600 votes, Judge Nash's plurality will not be less than 50,000 in the State. The Legis lature will be Republican in both Chairman Seward, of the branches." Democratic Committee, has so far de clined to make any statement.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS.

General Otis cables the usual uniusportant skirmishes in the Philippines.

The State quarantine restrictions of Alabama will be removed after noon to-

The breaking of a ferry landing at Antwerp drowned 35 people and injured

The municipal council of Paris has adopted a resolution of sympathy with the Boers.

Richard Croker appeared before the Mazet committee yesterday and denied charges made by Mazet on the stump.

It is stated that negotiations are off and no further attempt will be made to form the United States and Havana cigar syndicate.

The official trial trip of the first class battleship Kentucky will take place off the Massachusetts coast on November

It is asserted in Washington that the United States has demanded of France Germany and Russia written assurances of the maintenance of an "open door in China.

Lieutenant Albion C. Hodgson, navigator of the Brooklyn in the battle of Santiago, has been ordered to report for duty at Newport, R. I., where he will be put in superintendence of the manufacture of smokeless powder at the tor-

GALLANT ADMIRAL

Schley's Journey a Constant Ovation.

CROWD AT GREENSBORO

ADMIRAL'S MODEST BUT SIGNIF-ICANT SPEECH.

IF WE HAVE WAR WITH ANOTHER NATION

'They Will Likewise go Down Before us Unless They Have Better Men and Better Guns--And I Don't Think You Will Find

Better Men in the World." Greensboro, N. C., Nov. 3.—(Speciai) -An immense crowd assembled at the Southern depot at 7:24 tonight to see the hero of Santiago, Schley, pass through the city. The train was late and it was after eight when it pulled in. The Gate City band opened up with a lively sir and the yells of the crowd brought the Admiral out on the rear plate ma before found in his pocket tends to discre7dit the train stopped. The erow1 immediately called for a speech, but it was fully five minutes before it was quiet enough to hear. Then Admiral Schley said in substance that he thanked the people assembled for the handsome honor done him, but that he considered it not as personal, for the men behind the gins and the furnaces divided the honor. Continuing he said if we ever have trouble with another nation they will have to have better men and better guns than we have or they will likewise go down be-fore us. Here the Admiral added: "And I don't think you will find better men than ours in the world."

During the speech the crowd punctulated it with frequent and vociferous ap-

As usual Schley was exceedingly modest in his utterances about himself, giving all the praise to his men. BIG CROWD AT LYNCHBURG.

Lynchburg, Va., Nov. 3.—A big crowd of people assembled at the Union Station and waited for the train bearing Admiral Schley, which came half an hour late. A reception committee of prominent citizens, including Mayor and Senator Daniel, welcomed the Admiral, and the city council was present in a body. Senator Daniel introuced the Admiral to the large gather ing, and the distinguished sailor was enthusiastically cheered. He made a speech of a few words, in which he said he was bound to Lynchburg "by a very sweet tie," alluding to the fact that his daughter-in-law-, the wife of Lieutenant T .F. Schley, was Miss Langhorne, of this city. The Admiral was presented with a handsome bouquet by the reception committee. He was kept busy shaking hands during the few minutes the train stopped here.

JOINED BY THE COMMITTEE. Danville, Va., Nov. 3.—Rear Admiral Schley was greeted by a crowd of several hundred persons here this afternoon as he passed through going to Atlanta. He was joined here by the Atlanta committee on which were Mayor Woodward, Mr. W. A. Hemphill and others. The Admiral was introduced by Mayor Wooding, of Danville, and spoke briefly from the rear platform acknowledging

CHARLOTTE'S HANDSHAKING ... Charlotte, Nov. 3d.—The train bearing Admiral Schley arrived at Charlotte at 10:35 o'clock. A crowd of several hundred people greeted him. As the train stopped and he appeared on the platform someone cried out: "Hurrah for the hero of Santiago," whereupon the crowd cheered lustily and the Admiral made a graceful bow in acknowledgement. There were many ladies in the gathering, notising which the Adm'ral remarked: "I wish it were daylight." There was almost a stampede of the

the train pulled out. REACHED ATLANTA AT 5:10. Atlanta, Nov. 3d.—Rear Admiral Schley and Mrs. Schley and their guests, Miss Letterman, General Agnus people to shake hands with him before and Mr. Louis Garthe, of Baltimore and the Atlanta escort will arrive in Atlanta at 5:10 o'clock tomorrow morning. At 10 o'clock the reception committee will meet the distinguished guests and the ceremonies of the day will begin. The Crew of the Pondo Saved.

Newport News, Va., Nov. 3.—The British steamer Pondo, Captain Brewis, from Pensacola to Antwerp, arrived here this morning having on board eleven of the crew of the Italian bark Colombo, including the Captain and mate, picked up 300 miles south of Hatteras in latitude 32.6 n., longitude 77 w. For four days prior to the rescue, on November 1st, according to the captain, they had nothing cooked to eat.

Hobart Has a Good Day.

Paterson, N. J., Nov. 3.-The Vice-President has had a favorable day. His pulse is strong, and he is suffering in no

The most desirable watch charm is the owner's ability to pawn it.

The great trouble with funny stories ise they are seldom true.