

The News and Observer.

LEADS ALL NORTH CAROLINA DAILIES IN NEWS AND CIRCULATION.

REPUBLICANS WIN OUT IN OHIO

Jones Drew Largely From McLean in Some Counties.

BRYAN'S FORCES WIN IN NEBRASKA

In Kentucky the Result Still Hangs in the Balances.

MARYLAND CONCEDED TO THE DEMOCRATS

Mississippi and Virginia Are of Course in the Democratic Column. Mazet Defeated for Assembly in New York. Holcomb's Election Is Claimed by 15,000 in Nebraska.

The campaign of 1899 has been closed, and yesterday the jury of the people, in the States which held elections, returned their verdicts.

Elections were held in twelve States as follows:

Virginia—Legislature, full House and half of Senate.

Maryland—State officers.

Massachusetts—State officers.

Pennsylvania—Supreme court judge, Superior court judge and Treasurer.

New York—Legislature.

New Jersey—Legislature.

Ohio—State officers.

Iowa—State officers.

Kentucky—State officers.

Mississippi—State officers.

Nebraska—Supreme court judge and University regent.

South Dakota—Supreme court judge.

The result of yesterday's balloting up to the time this paper went to press, seemed, from the dispatches, to be as follows:

Virginia—Strongly Democratic. Vote light. The Legislature elected will choose a successor to United States Senator Thomas S. Martin, who is a candidate to succeed himself, and is opposed by Governor J. Hoge Tyler.

Maryland—Conceded by the Republicans to have gone Democratic by 10,000 majority. The Democratic ticket was: Governor, John Walter Smith; Comptroller, Dr. J. W. Hering; Attorney General, Isidor Raynor; for Baltimore city's representative of State Court of Appeals.

Massachusetts—Strongly Republican, with slight Democratic gains. Republican ticket elected is: Governor, W. Murray Crane; Lieutenant Governor, John L. Bates; Secretary of Commonwealth, William M. Olin; Treasurer and Receiver General, Edward S. Bradford; Auditor of Accounts, John N. Kimball; Attorney General, Hosea M. Knowlton.

Pennsylvania—Strongly Republican. Following is the ticket elected: Supreme Court, F. Hay Brown, (Rep.), and S. Leslie, (Dem.); Superior Court, Joseph R. Adams; State Treasurer, James E. Barnett.

New York—A slight loss to the Democrats in the number of Assemblymen. New York city Democratic by 50,000.

New Jersey—The Legislature is Republican by the usual majority.

Ohio—The vote close, Nash, (Rep.), getting the best of it in the cities and McLean, (Dem.), in the rural districts. Jones' (Ind.) vote was made up principally of Republicans who would otherwise have supported Nash. Most of the Jones supporters failed to vote for any candidate for other offices, hence the balance of the Republican ticket is certainly elected. At midnight Republicans were claiming Nash's election by 30,000. McLean declined to talk. The Republican ticket is as follows: Governor, George K. Nash; Lieutenant Governor, John A. Caldwell; Judge Supreme Court, William Z. Davis; Attorney General, John M. Sheets; Treasurer, Isaac B. Cameron; Auditor, Walter D. Gaillard; Member of Board of Public Works, Frank A. Huffman.

Iowa—Light vote cast, showing falling off in both parties as compared with 1897. Republican ticket elected as follows: Governor, Leslie M. Shaw; Lieutenant Governor, James C. Milliman; Judge Supreme Court, John C. Sherwin; Superintendent Public Instruction, Robert C. Barrett; Railroad Commissioner, Edwin A. Dawson.

Kentucky—In this State, as in Ohio, the vote is very close and it is at this hour impossible to say certainly who is elected, though the odds seem to be in favor of the Republican ticket here as in Ohio. The election in this State was a very exciting one. The militia was at the polls and several men were killed during the day. A Democratic paper which has been fighting Goebel, says he's beaten by 10,000. The Courier-Journal says the result is in doubt. The Republican ticket in this State was as follows: Governor, William S. Taylor; Secretary of State, Caleb Powers; Attorney General, Chifton J. Pratt; Treasurer, Walter R. Day; Auditor, John S. Sweeney; Commissioner of Agriculture, John W. Throckmorton; Superintendent of Public Instruction, John Burke.

Mississippi—Democratic by not less than 30,000. The ticket elected was: Governor, A. H. Logan; Lieutenant Governor, James T. Harrison; Secretary of State, J. L. Power; Treasurer, R. J. Stowers; Auditor, W. Q. Cole; Attorney General, Monroe McClure; Superintendent of Public Instruction, H.

L. Whitfield; Revenue Agent, Wirt Adams; Land Commissioner, E. H. Nall; Clerk Supreme Court, E. W. Brown; Railroad Commissioners, A. Q. May, J. D. McInnis, J. C. Kincannon.

Nebraska—Here again the vote is very close, with the chances in favor of the Fusion (Democrats and Silver men) ticket. Holcomb claims 12,000 majority. The Fusion ticket is: Judge Supreme Court, Silas A. Holcomb, (Pop.); Regent State University, J. L. Teeters, (Silver Rep.); Edison Rich, (Dem.).

South Dakota—Republican ticket elected as follows: Justice Supreme Court, Dighton Corson, Howard G. Fuller, Dick Haney.

LOUISVILLE REPUBLICAN.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 8.—Chairman Long gave out the following statement at 1 a. m. regarding the next Legislature: "The Republicans have elected ten Senators out of nineteen seats. Three more are believed to have been elected, but the returns are not complete while one is in doubt. There are two Republican hold-overs and six anti-Goebel hold-overs.

In the House the Republicans have elected 41 members certain, the Democrats 35 and the anti-Goebel Democrats five. The districts in doubt and not heard from number nineteen which include Campbell and Kenton counties and three districts in the city of Louisville. This insures a Fusion majority in the House against the Goebel law and probably a Republican majority.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 7.—By the combined effort of the Republicans and Anti-Goebels, Attorney General W. S. Taylor, Republican, has been elected Governor of Kentucky by a majority variously estimated from seven to fifteen thousand over Goebel, Democrat. Returns received up to midnight also indicate the election of the entire Republican ticket, while the complexion of the Legislature is in doubt.

The weather throughout the State was perfect, and more than an average vote was polled, the total falling but little short of the vote polled in the last Presidential election. Comparatively little disorder prevailed and, aside from several arrests for alleged violation of the election laws, the election was characterized by a remarkable degree of quiet.

Governor Bradley remained in Louisville during the day and had the Louisville Legion in readiness for marching orders. The militia was called out after the close of the polls to enforce an injunction granted by a local judge, but the presence of the militia was not needed, and the companies were soon ordered back to the armory.

Chairman Long, of the Republican Campaign Committee, said at midnight that Taylor's plurality would not be less than fifteen thousand. This estimate, he said, was based upon estimates received from a majority of the counties in the State. Governor Bradley estimates Taylor's plurality at about fifteen thousand to eighteen thousand.

At midnight there were still many missing precincts, but 181 out of 205 in the city of Louisville and Jefferson County gave Taylor a plurality of 3,862. With all the returns in and the present ratio of Republican gains maintained, Taylor's majority in the city will reach 4,000.

The Courier-Journal, from its figures, says the result is in doubt.

The Post, Democrat, which has opposed Goebel, claims Taylor's election by 10,000.

At midnight Chairman Long, of the Republican Campaign Committee, claimed that Taylor has carried the State by from 10,000 to 15,000 majority. He says that Taylor has carried the third, fourth, fifth, ninth and eleventh Congressional districts, while the eighth and tenth are close. The Republicans have made heavy gains in most of all the Democratic strongholds which were expected to give Goebel large majorities. Chairman Long claims the Republicans have carried the city of Louisville by from 3,000 to 5,000 majority.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 7.—Senator Blackburn and others at Goebel headquarters at midnight admitted the returns from many Democratic counties are disappointing, but claim this is partially offset by private dispatches from the eleventh district, indicating a falling off in the Republican vote. Blackburn now claims Goebel will win by 5,000. This is a reduction of 25,000 as compared with claims made two hours earlier.

Cincinnati, Nov. 7.—Early returns from Kenton county, Ken., indicate Goebel carried the county by 2,500. This is Goebel's home county.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 7.—Returns from this, Franklin county, show a Democratic loss of 200.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 7.—Goebel carries the city of Frankfort by from 150 to 175 and Franklin county by about 900 majority.

Bowling Green, Ky., Nov. 7.—The city of Bowling Green gives Taylor a majority of 235 over Goebel. This is a Republican gain of 125 over McKinley's vote. The Democrats concede the city to Taylor, but claim the county by 300.

Nearly complete returns from 12 counties out of 119 give Goebel majority of 1,330. These reports show a considerable Republican gain over Clerk of Court of Appeals race of 1897.

REPUBLICANS RAISE A ROW.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 7.—In one precinct in this city tonight, while the count was in progress, a body of armed men, said to have come from the Republican headquarters, attempted to enforce a fair count, as they claimed. Reaching the precinct they were met by a number of police and citizens. Firearms were brought into use and about a hundred shots were fired. A negro was wounded, not seriously. The attacking party fled, and no arrests have been made.

GOEBEL CLAIMS THE STATE.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 7.—A bullet in issued at 1 a. m. by Goebel Campaign Committee, says: "We have not enough information concerning the State to go into details, but we are confident we have won, though the majority is small."

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 7.—Former Senator Blackburn at 2 a. m. (Wednesday) sent the following telegram to W. J. Bryan: "We have carried Kentucky by a small but safe majority. Sincere congratulations upon your splendid victory in Nebraska."

THE LEGISLATURE.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 8.—Chairman Long gave out the following statement at 1 a. m. regarding the next Legislature: "The Republicans have elected ten Senators out of nineteen seats. Three more are believed to have been elected, but the returns are not complete while one is in doubt. There are two Republican hold-overs and six anti-Goebel hold-overs.

In the House the Republicans have elected 41 members certain, the Democrats 35 and the anti-Goebel Democrats five. The districts in doubt and not heard from number nineteen which include Campbell and Kenton counties and three districts in the city of Louisville. This insures a Fusion majority in the House against the Goebel law and probably a Republican majority.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 7.—By the combined effort of the Republicans and Anti-Goebels, Attorney General W. S. Taylor, Republican, has been elected Governor of Kentucky by a majority variously estimated from seven to fifteen thousand over Goebel, Democrat. Returns received up to midnight also indicate the election of the entire Republican ticket, while the complexion of the Legislature is in doubt.

The weather throughout the State was perfect, and more than an average vote was polled, the total falling but little short of the vote polled in the last Presidential election. Comparatively little disorder prevailed and, aside from several arrests for alleged violation of the election laws, the election was characterized by a remarkable degree of quiet.

Governor Bradley remained in Louisville during the day and had the Louisville Legion in readiness for marching orders. The militia was called out after the close of the polls to enforce an injunction granted by a local judge, but the presence of the militia was not needed, and the companies were soon ordered back to the armory.

Chairman Long, of the Republican Campaign Committee, said at midnight that Taylor's plurality would not be less than fifteen thousand. This estimate, he said, was based upon estimates received from a majority of the counties in the State. Governor Bradley estimates Taylor's plurality at about fifteen thousand to eighteen thousand.

At midnight there were still many missing precincts, but 181 out of 205 in the city of Louisville and Jefferson County gave Taylor a plurality of 3,862. With all the returns in and the present ratio of Republican gains maintained, Taylor's majority in the city will reach 4,000.

The Courier-Journal, from its figures, says the result is in doubt.

The Post, Democrat, which has opposed Goebel, claims Taylor's election by 10,000.

At midnight Chairman Long, of the Republican Campaign Committee, claimed that Taylor has carried the State by from 10,000 to 15,000 majority. He says that Taylor has carried the third, fourth, fifth, ninth and eleventh Congressional districts, while the eighth and tenth are close. The Republicans have made heavy gains in most of all the Democratic strongholds which were expected to give Goebel large majorities. Chairman Long claims the Republicans have carried the city of Louisville by from 3,000 to 5,000 majority.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 7.—Senator Blackburn and others at Goebel headquarters at midnight admitted the returns from many Democratic counties are disappointing, but claim this is partially offset by private dispatches from the eleventh district, indicating a falling off in the Republican vote. Blackburn now claims Goebel will win by 5,000. This is a reduction of 25,000 as compared with claims made two hours earlier.

Cincinnati, Nov. 7.—Early returns from Kenton county, Ken., indicate Goebel carried the county by 2,500. This is Goebel's home county.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 7.—Returns from this, Franklin county, show a Democratic loss of 200.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 7.—Goebel carries the city of Frankfort by from 150 to 175 and Franklin county by about 900 majority.

Bowling Green, Ky., Nov. 7.—The city of Bowling Green gives Taylor a majority of 235 over Goebel. This is a Republican gain of 125 over McKinley's vote. The Democrats concede the city to Taylor, but claim the county by 300.

Nearly complete returns from 12 precinct. If he gains 11 per precinct he will carry Franklin county.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 7.—Chairman Seward figuring on returns of 40 precincts outside of Hamilton, Cuyahoga and Lucas counties, claims McLean's election by 12,000, but Colonel W. A. Taylor, one of McLean's managers with the same figures makes Nash's plurality about 8,000.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 7.—At 11 o'clock tonight the State Journal claims the election of Judge Nash (Rep.), for Governor, by over 30,000.

Toledo, Ohio, Nov. 7.—Mayor Jones at 9 o'clock concedes his own defeat.

"If my race has contributed in any way," he said, "to the success of John R. McLean, and a rebuke to the infamous Philippine policy of the Administration, I feel that it has not been in vain."

Cincinnati, Ohio, Nov. 7.—One hundred and thirteen precincts out of 204 in Cincinnati, show total vote 36,149, of which McLean has plurality of 941. Jones' vote in these precincts, 5,000, indicating total vote in the city for him of nearly 10,000.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 7.—The bulletins giving 706 net republican gain in 90 precincts outside of Cincinnati, Cleveland and Toledo, include the heavy Republican gains at Nash's home in Franklin county, where the Republican gain is over 3,000. This county gave 1,300 Republican plurality two years ago, and up to 9:30 tonight was the banner Republican county of the State.

McLean likewise reversed a majority in Hamilton county, where his plurality was surprising.

Chillicothe, O., Nov. 7.—Nash carries this county by about a majority.

Springfield, O., Nov. 7.—McLean gets about 100 plurality in the city. Jones 700. Democratic gain of 800.

Canton, O., Nov. 7.—The vote in Canton City is, Nash 3,589; McLean, 3,037; Jones, 219.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 7.—The State Journal says: "Forty four precincts of 124 in Franklin county (Nash's home) give net average Republican gain of 26 to precinct. This will give Nash 2,006 in county, a gain of 3,300 compared with 1897."

Toledo, Ohio, Nov. 7.—The entire Republican county and legislative ticket, with one exception, is evidently elected by pluralities ranging from 1,000 to 3,000. Yost, (Dem.), Treasurer, is probably re-elected. At midnight 53 of the 110 precincts in the county were reported giving Nash 4,458; McLean, 3,322; Jones, 2,826. Jones out deeper into the Democratic vote than was expected and hampered the Republicans less than they feared.

JONES' COUNTY IN DOUBT.

Toledo, Ohio, Nov. 7.—Jones' precincts began coming in after midnight. Indications now are that Nash will hardly pull through, as all save three county precincts are in. Seventy-two out of 110 precincts give Nash 6,096; McLean, 4,557; Jones, 5,891. Nearly all remaining precincts are Democratic. It is impossible to tell at this time which candidate will carry Lucas county.

NEW YORK.

New York, Nov. 7.—The election in the four counties that make up the city of New York resulted in the election of every Democratic candidate on every county ticket, except Gray, Democratic candidate for register in Kings, who was beaten because of his refusal to put in an appearance before the Mazet investigating committee and answer charges against him. Democratic majorities were about normal. Senator Platt intimated late tonight that Mazet might be seated in the next Assembly, in which the Republicans have 32 majority. The Tammany Democrats openly denounce ex-Senator Hill, whom they blame for the reverses up the State. The Republicans in New York county elected only four Assemblymen, one of them a member of the Citizens' Union.

New York, Nov. 7.—The New York Assembly will stand: Republicans, 91; Democrats, 59; Republican plurality, 32; Republican gain 14.

New York, Nov. 7.—Tammany claims the election of its whole county ticket by 50,000 plurality, and the defeat of Assemblyman Mazet by 500.

New York, Nov. 7.—The Boroughs of Manhattan and Bronx, for sheriff, give O'Brien, (Rep.), 89,529; Groll, (Dem.), 139,129.

Elmira, N. Y., Nov. 7.—Indications point to a Republican landslide in Chenango county, the home of ex-Senator Hill. Charles H. Knapp, Republican, is elected to the assembly, a Democratic loss.

New York, Nov. 7.—Richard Coker claims 34 of the 37 Assemblymen districts in the Boroughs of Manhattan and the Bronx, a Democratic gain of six.

Syracuse, N. Y., Nov. 7.—Mayor Maguire, (Dem.), carries the city by nearly 2,000.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 7.—Albany county elects Republican Assemblymen in the First, Second and Fourth districts, and a Democrat in the Third.

Utica, N. Y., Nov. 7.—R. W. Sherman, (Dem.) is elected Mayor by 87. Balance of city ticket is Democratic by majorities ranging from 200 to 300. Two of three Assembly districts in Oneida county show no change.

Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 7.—Returns from 84 of 108 districts in the city indicate a landslide for the Republicans. Thomas Henney, (Rep.) for District Attorney, will probably have over 10,000 plurality.

Ithaca, N. Y., Nov. 7.—The city of Ithaca gives the Democratic candidate for County Treasurer a plurality of 157, and the Republican candidate for sheriff 190. The standard voting machine was used in this city and the result was known 17 minutes after the polls closed.

Rochester, N. Y., Nov. 7.—Rochester complete gives Carnohan, (Rep.) 2,353 plurality for mayor.

New York, Nov. 7.—Robert Mazet, (Rep.), candidate for Assemblyman in the Nineteenth district, admits that he is defeated. Collector George R. Bidwell, who managed Mazet's campaign, also concedes the defeat of Mazet.

New York, Nov. 7.—In 107 Assembly districts, including 28 in this city, 71 Republicans and 26 Democrats have been elected, a Democratic loss of 2.

New York, Nov. 7.—The Nineteenth Assembly district complete gives Mazet (Rep.), 4,271; Stewart, (Dem.), 4,667.

New York, Nov. 7.—Taking all the Assembly districts in the State, the Republican plurality is 35,800, according to the Tribune's returns as compared with Roosevelt's plurality of 17,786 last year.

Returns received up to 3 a. m. show the election of 90 Republican Assemblymen and sixty Democrats.

MARYLAND.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 7.—Returns from both the city and State have been very slow in coming to hand and at 2 o'clock this (Wednesday) morning the full vote from only 13 wards of Baltimore city had been received, while in the State not a single county is complete. The 13 complete wards in the city, with the balance estimated show a plurality for Smith (Dem.), for Governor, of 7,541, while in the balance of the State his plurality will probably be between 2,500 and 3,000.

The Democrats have carried the three legislative districts in Baltimore city and the probabilities are that they will have 75 members in the lower house of the General Assembly, while the Republicans appear to have elected but 16. The Senate will be very close with the chances slightly favoring the Democratic claim of a majority of two.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 7.—General Thomas J. Shroyck, Chairman of the Republican Central Committee at 10 o'clock tonight conceded the election of John Walter Smith, for Governor, by ten thousand majority.

VIRGINIA.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 7.—Out of a total registration of about 14,000, and 11,000 or 12,000 actual voters, 2,165 votes were cast today. Whittehead and Lyons, for the House of Delegates were elected without opposition.

Blair for the House carries Portsmouth by a big majority, and Newburne beats Rutter, Republican, out of sight in Norfolk county. Shands carries 32nd Senatorial district over Boykin, recognized by the State Democratic committee, by 900 majority.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 7.—Returns received up to 11:30 p. m. show that both branches of the Legislature will be overwhelmingly Democratic. The voting was exceedingly light, the principal contests between Democrats and Independents, and the warmest of these fights was in the Isle of Wight Senatorial district, where the Democrats lost. Another fight was in Shenandoah county for the House, the Independent candidate winning there also.

On the basis of present returns, it is figured that seven anti-Democrats are elected.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 7.—As to the Virginia election, there is nothing to discredit the forecast sent out last night. Returns that have come in so far indicate a small vote, and but little interest, with assured Democratic control of the General Assembly by a large majority.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 7.—The indications so far, as to Virginia, are that the result is overwhelmingly Democratic. In the most hotly contested Senatorial district, however, that made up of Isle of Wight, Southampton and Nansemond—Independent candidate is elected. The vote was generally light.

NEBRASKA.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 7.—Midnight.—Returns up to midnight continue to show the same Fusion gain as earlier reports and there is no longer the least doubt of the Fusion ticket's election.

Chairman Edmonston, of the Populist State Central Committee, said: "We have carried the State by 15,000 and have made gains in county officers."

Chairman Tefft, of the Republican Campaign, declined to make a statement, but one of his associates admitted defeat, though not conceding it by as large a majority as claimed by the Fusionists.

Asked at midnight for a statement, W. J. Bryan replied with laughter: "I concede the State of Nebraska to the Fusionists by 15,000."

This (Lincoln) county elects the entire Republican county ticket with the possible exception of sheriff.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 7.—10:45 p. m.—It is evident to both parties in today's fight that Nebraska has repudiated her allegiance to the Fusion standard. While Republicans are not willing to admit defeat, early figures point that way. There has been a steady falling off in the vote of both parties, but while the Fusionists have suffered but little the Republican loss has not been less than three to one. If the present ratio is maintained, ex-Governor Holcomb and the Fusion State ticket will be elected by not less than 10,000. Fusionists claim much more.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 7.—Twenty-one precincts outside of Omaha show a net Fusion gain of 31. Comparisons are made with a year ago when the Fusion majority was 2,700. There is a very slight falling off in the vote of both parties, but the per cent. of Republican loss is greatest.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 7.—Thirty precincts in Omaha give Reese, (Rep.), 2,978; Holcomb, (Fusionist), 2,957.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 7.—Returns from 210 precincts in Nebraska outside Douglas county give Holcomb (Fusion), 21,452; Reese (Rep.), 21,741.

STATEMENT BY BRYAN.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 7.—There is no longer any doubt as to the result in Nebraska. The returns continue to show steady Fusion gains, and the majority for Holcomb will not be less than 10,000.

W. J. Bryan gave out this statement at 1 o'clock Wednesday morning: "The campaign in Nebraska was (Continued on Second Page.)

BRADLEY ORDERS OUT THE MILITIA

The Louisville Legion Sent to the Polls.

THEY FIND ALL SERENE

ONLY DISQUIET THAT CAUSED BY THEIR PRESENCE.

NO OCCASION TO USE FIXED BAYONETS

At Some Precincts Brown and Republican Inspectors Were Refused Recognition, and a Statement to This Effect by Judge Toney Secured the Order.

Toney Secured the Order.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 7.—At six o'clock tonight Colonel C. C. Mengel received orders from Governor Bradley to send to the polls at once the Louisville Legion, which had been under arms at its armory all day in readiness for a call. Up to this time the election had been one of the quietest ever known here. A few arrests for alleged interference with voters were made, but there was less than the usual amount of friction between the workers of the respective candidates. When the polls closed at 4 o'clock, the inspectors representing the interests of the Brown ticket appeared and demanded admittance to watch the count. This was done under a mandatory injunction issued by Judge Toney, of the Circuit Court, shortly before noon, restraining the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with Brown inspectors. About the middle of the afternoon, the Republicans secured a similar order for their inspectors on representations that they were threatened with interference.

In a number of places, the inspectors were refused recognition and Governor Bradley's order for troops to go to the polls was made upon a statement by Judge Toney, reciting this state of affairs.

Judge Toney's letter to Governor Bradley follows:

"Sir: Two mandatory injunctions were today issued by me as one of the Judges of the Jefferson Circuit Court, requiring election officers at the election precincts to allow the inspectors for the Brown and Republican tickets entrance to the voting precincts to witness and inspect the count. It has been represented to me that these injunctions are being contemptuously ignored and violated. I have issued the decree or judgment of law. I am not a ministerial officer and cannot enforce it. I call your attention to this fact as Chief Executive of the State, that you may take such action to see that the laws are executed as you may deem proper under the circumstances."

The men were ready and in a few minutes began to form about the armory. Belts were loaded up with ball cartridges and every man had his bayonet fixed.

Colonel Mengel, who was in uniform for the first time since the regiment was placed in readiness for a call, assumed command. As soon as the order became known Sheriff Bell hastened to the armory and protested against the calling out of the troops on the ground that there had been no disturbance and no trouble and that there was no occasion for action by the State authorities; that Judge Toney had not made any representations to him, the sheriff, as peace officer of the county, and that there had not been any interference with his order.

Colonel Mengel replied that he was acting under instructions from Governor Bradley.

Shortly after 7 o'clock orders to march were given. Companies B, C, and D swung into Main Street and started on the double quick for the lower quarters of the city in the West End. They visited polling places en route and inquired into the treatment of the representatives of all the parties. Everything was found quiet, however, and the bluecoats were marched back to headquarters.

The only excitement noticeable was that occasioned by their presence. Meanwhile the count was proceeding in all the voting places of the city.

THE DAVIS MONUMENTS.

They Will be Unveiled in Richmond Thursday.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 7.—The monument to Miss Winnie Davis, erected by the Daughters of the Confederacy, was placed on the pedestal in the Davis' section in the new cemetery this afternoon.

The life size statue of President Davis will be put in place tomorrow. The tablet to Miss Winnie and that to the four sons of President and Mrs. Davis were placed in St. Paul's today. These will be unveiled tomorrow at noon with services.

The monuments in Hollywood to Miss Winnie, Mr. Davis and Jefferson Davis, Jr., will be unveiled Thursday afternoon.

General Fitzhugh Lee tonight accepted an invitation to ride at the head of the procession. Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Hayes, Miss Waller, Jefferson Hayes Davis