

TO HIDE IS THE NATURE OF SIN

To Search For a Sinner, the Nature of God.

STUART'S FINE SERMON

Edenton Street Church Was Filled to the Utmost Last Night.

THE EVANGELIST DRAWS GREAT CROWDS

"God Pity a Poor Fellow Who Joins a Club."

He Speaks of the First Sinner, First Sin and Gods First Search For a Sinner.

One of the forces by which Mr. Stuart draws such congregations daily to hear him is his uniqueness.

At yesterday morning's service, he said: "I will not call upon any one to lead in prayer this morning."

Then "pray for the repentance of the backslider."

"Now pray for those who came forward last night."

"And for the unsaved boys and girls in the Sunday School."

The church was so crowded last night that chairs had to be placed in the aisles, and that every bench was filled, many were standing up at each floor and on the stairs and in the galleries.

When the congregation had knelt, the evangelist said: "First let's ask God to bless this meeting."

Then "pray for the repentance of the backslider."

"Now pray for those who came forward last night."

"And for the unsaved boys and girls in the Sunday School."

boys normal state) and who saw a pie in the cupboard. "I am sorry for any man who hasn't a memory of his mother's pie. He may talk about them until he marries, and then if he is wise he will stop."

"Here you have all the characteristics of sin. Why did Adam hide? It was just natural. It is the nature of sin to hide. What made God search for him? It is the nature of God to search for a sinner."

Mr. Stuart said he was preaching a pictorial sermon, and he illustrated the phases of his text by telling stories that made clear his point, and the illustrations that he illustrated too. He told of a meeting at a famous detective, and the great help in capturing criminals.

"Why, when I go back home, I can tell the girls that have been dancing while I was gone. They'll cross the street to keep from speaking to me. It's the nature of sin to hide."

"It's also the nature of God to seek. God follows us all through every moment of our lives. He knocks at the door by his providence. Old mother is called to her reward. It's God calling for us. A wife, a child is taken away. It means God is following us and knocking at the door of our hearts and calling. 'O, prodigal child, come home!' It's banking on Heaven that makes us rich."

Speaking of a young man who had joined a club and engaged in worldly amusement, the evangelist said: "God pity a poor fellow that joins a club."

"There's nothing but sorrow in sin; there's nothing but trouble in sin. Nothing ever hurt anybody but sin."

THE PARSONS WING ADJOURNS.

Parsons Re-elected Master Workman. The Hayes Faction Issues a Statement.

(By the Associated Press.) Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 15.—At this morning's session of the Knights of Labor, Parsons wing, the following officers were elected: Master Workman, John N. Parsons, of New York; Worthy Foreman, J. J. Donnelly, Boston; Secretary and Treasurer, Emory Burley, Winton, Ohio.

Members of the Executive Board, A. J. O'Keefe, Birmingham, Ala.; J. A. Conner, Pittsburg, and W. A. Carr, of Washington, D. C.

All these are the old officers with the exception of Carr, who takes the place of Boston, of Muncie, Ind.

A. J. O'Keefe was elected editor of the National Journal, published at Washington, D. C.; Henry A. Hicks, of New York, was expelled from the order by special resolution on the allegation that he filled places of striking electricians in New York with non-union men.

The Hayes faction spent the morning in the discussion of the Chinese exclusion act.

The Parsons faction adjourned this afternoon to meet in Washington at the call of the grand master workman.

The Hayes faction at the afternoon session authorized a letter to the public setting forth their claims and denouncing the Parsons faction in severe terms.

The letter is signed by every delegate present but does not go into the merits of trouble which caused the split. It is believed that the Hayes people will adjourn tomorrow in view of the fact that Parsons has returned to Washington, where the books are said to be.

ADDRESS TO THE DAUGHTERS.

Mrs. Wood Speaks of the Growth of the Association.

(By the Associated Press.) Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 15.—At today's session of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, Mrs. Wood delivered the president's annual address. She spoke of the growth of the association from its first organization and especially since the last meeting at Richmond. There are now 20,000 members, she said, and 400 chapters, "the result of the faithful work of the women of the South," said the President. She continued:

"As long as time endures Southern women will stand first in their devotion to the cause of the South and to the glorious past."

Mrs. Wood called upon those present to educate their children as true Southerners in the full knowledge of the war and the causes that led to it. "They should be taught," she said, "that their fathers gave up everything, even life itself for the principles involved."

Closing Day at Aqueduct.

(By the Associated Press.) New York, Nov. 15.—Three favorites, one second choice and two outsiders at comparatively short prices, was the record for the closing day of the meeting at Aqueduct today. Summary: First, about 7 furlongs, selling—Hutj-ziochpohl, 9 to 2; w. Buffon, 5 to 1, and 8 to 5; second; Spurs, 30 to 1, third. Time 1:28 2-5.

J. P. MORGAN'S DAUGHTER WEDS.

Ehe Marries H. L. Satterlee, a New York Lawyer. Wedded at St. George's Church.

(By the Associated Press.) New York, Nov. 15.—Miss Louise Pierpont Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Pierpont Morgan, was married at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon in St. George's church, Stuyvesant Square, to Herbert Livingston Satterlee, a lawyer of this city.

The invitations for the ceremony numbered 2,500, much beyond the seating capacity of the church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Rainford, rector of St. George's. The service was fully choral.

The bride, who was accompanied by her father, wore a superb wedding gown of white peau de serpe, almost entirely covered with exquisite point d'Ancien. The veil was of tulle, and the bouquet was of white orchids, lilies of the valley and white roses.

The bridesmaids were Miss Anne Tracy Morgan, the bride's sister; Miss Caroline Morgan, Miss Ursula Morgan and Miss Frances Street Happin, her cousins; Miss Marion Satterlee, sister of the groom, and Miss Mary Sturgess.

The floral decorations in the church and house were of an unusually elaborate character. The Morgan residence, where the reception was held, was also handsomely decorated with a profusion of roses, chrysanthemums and palms.

The couple received in the drawing room, standing in front of a mass of flowers. A buffet luncheon was served under a large temporary structure erected in the yard adjoining the house.

The bride received from her father a superb pair of ears, set with diamonds and a brooch of diamonds, and, it is said, Mr. Morgan has set aside for her bonds of great value.

PROFESSOR ROSS RESIGNS.

His Teaching on Sociological Subjects Displeased Mrs. Stanford.

(By the Associated Press.) Stanford University, Cal., Nov. 15.—Dr. Edward Ross, head professor in the Department of Economics and Sociology at Stanford University, has resigned. The resignation caused a sensation in University circles where Dr. Ross was extremely popular. In his formal letter of resignation he intimated that he was being forced out of the University by Mrs. Stanford, who had taken exception to statements made by him in his public addresses on sociological and economic questions. He further said that Mrs. Stanford was prompted by certain powerful persons and commercial interests in San Francisco. Several of the faculty have taken sides with Dr. Ross.

Dr. Jordan, president of the University, says there is no evidence that he is a "martyr of freedom of speech."

Supplementing his former utterances upon the subject of Professor Ross' dismissal, Dr. Howard today addressed his class in history upon the matter. The entire hour of class was given up to the discussion of "Free speech." Dr. Howard arraigned the influence that brought about the dismissal of the Professor.

Professor Howard concluded his speech with this sensational utterance: "I do not bow down to Saint Mark's Street. I do not doff my hat to the six companies; neither am I afraid of the Standard Oil Company."

OVER EMBANKMENT TO DEATH.

French Express Derailed and Thirteen People Killed.

(By the Associated Press.) Bayonne, France, Nov. 15.—The Southern Express was derailed at noon today between St. Georges and Saubusse, about thirty-five miles northeast of Bayonne. The restaurant car was precipitated over an embankment. Thirteen persons were killed and twenty others injured, seven seriously. Fifty passengers are missing. The list of killed includes Senator J. F. Ganevaro, Peruvian Minister to France, and an attaché of the Peruvian Legation in Madrid.

The section of the line where the accident occurred is under repair and the derailment is attributed to the great speed of the express.

The engineer says that the ground gave way under the locomotive which sank into the ballast. The restaurant car came into terrible collision with the tender and alone rolled down the embankment. It was luncheon hour and out of 34 passengers in the train thirty were mangled. One of the butlers of the restaurant car who was slightly injured, suddenly became insane and walked to and fro among the wreckage singing at the top of his voice.

The engineer and stoker, who were thrown into a field, had miraculous escapes.

BISHOP MORRISON PRESIDES.

Methodist Orphanage to be Dedicated Thanksgiving Day.

Rev. J. W. Jenkins has received a letter from Bishop H. C. Morrison, of the Southern Methodist church, accepting an invitation to preside at the dedicatory exercises of the Methodist Orphanage.

This will take place on Thanksgiving Day, November 29th and will occur at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Bishop Morrison will also preach in the city on Thanksgiving Day.

TAXWAY ON THE WAR TAXES.

Thinks Stamp Tax on Instruments of Conveyance Will be Removed First.

(By the Associated Press.) Winona, Minn., Nov. 15.—Congressman James A. Tawney, of the Ways and Means committee, speaking of the meeting to be held in Washington November 20th, says:

"The object is to consider the extent to which the war revenue taxes can be removed. The problem as to what taxes shall be removed will be a perplexing one. I think, however, that the stamp tax upon instruments of conveyance, such as notes, deeds and mortgages will be removed; possibly the taxes upon proprietary medicines and some others; but this will probably have to be done gradually so as to avoid sailing too close to the danger of a deficit."

THE CENSORSHIP REMOVED.

Nevertheless MacArthur Must See All Press Dispatches Sent From Manila.

(By the Associated Press.) Manila, Nov. 15.—The censorship was removed today. General MacArthur, however, has issued directions to the cable companies ordering them to furnish him with a copy of all press dispatches.

A DAVIDSON REUNION.

Mr. Ed. Chambers Smith Entertains Visiting Alumni at The Yarbore.

The alumni of Davidson College attending the North Carolina Synod now in session had a re-union banquet in the dining room of the Yarbore Hotel yesterday at half past one o'clock. Between fifty and sixty were present, and a fine time was had.

After the covers had been removed, Mr. Ed. Chambers Smith, in a very informal way, introduced Mr. Ed. Chambers Smith, the host of the occasion. Amid much applause Mr. Smith made a short but extremely happy address of welcome. Prof. Henry Louis Smith was called upon for a response, which he made in his usual delightful style. He was followed by Rev. A. T. Graham and Rev. William Davis, who indulged in some very amusing reminiscences of their college life that set the table in a roar.

A list of the diners follows: Among those at the banquet were the following: John M. Rose, '66, Laurinburg. Robert S. Arrowood, '77, Woodleaf. E. D. Brown, '92, Kinston. John Wakefield, '92, Spencer. RECEPTION TO THE MINISTERS.

The Ladies of the First Presbyterian Church Receive Members of the Synod.

The reception given the members of the North Carolina Synod by the ladies of the First Presbyterian church took place yesterday evening between the hours of 5 and 6:30 in the Sunday school room of the church. It was a notable and a beautiful occasion. The rooms had been tastefully decorated for the occasion and presented a very handsome appearance.

The gathering was a very large one. All of the visiting ministers and elders were present, as well as a number of other guests, including some of Raleigh's most representative citizens.

Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Daniel, Dr. Morton, the moderator, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas of Wilson, and the elders of the First church, with their wives, received the guests.

Delightful refreshments were served by a number of Raleigh's most attractive and charming young ladies.

Altogether, the affair was one of the notable events of the season, and one that will long remain in the memories of those who were present.

ELIIS-DORSETT.

A Pretty Home Wedding in West Raleigh Yesterday.

A pretty home wedding took place yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the residence of Mr. A. J. Ellis, in West Raleigh, when his daughter, Miss Aylmer E. Ellis was united in marriage to Mr. William L. Dorsett. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. A. A. Marshall, of the First Baptist church. Miss Mattie Ellis, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Miss Ellen Stewart Watson was bridesmaid. Mr. W. W. Newman, of this city, was best man. The rooms were beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums. There were a great many present, the number of friends present attested the popularity of the young couple. The groom is one of the proprietors of the Yarborehouse in this city. The bride is a charming young woman with a host of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Dorsett left by the afternoon train for Southern Pines, where they will spend a short time before returning to Raleigh.

A CIRCUS SUEED.

It is Charged With Enticing Off a Raleigh Boy.

A very novel case was tried recently before Justice Marcom. It was a case brought against Sun Brothers by Mr. H. W. Warren, who charges that the defendant enticed away and harbored his infant son, Robert Warren.

The evidence showed that last April the circus showed here and when they left the boy went with them. In letters to Mr. H. W. Warren, Mr. Sun denied that the boy was with the circus, but the company's books when produced showed his name on the payroll.

The plaintiff, who was represented by Douglas & Sims, was awarded $50. The defendant was represented by Mr. J. C. L. Harris.

It's a poor picture that attracts less attention than the frame.
