WOMEN'S LIBERAL GIFT TO MISSIONS

Episcopalian Women's Auxiliray Offer $104,295.

Sessions of the Convention Devoted to Business.

The First Seven Articles Are Adopted. The Two Houses Are to Sit Together Today as the Board of

(By the Associated Press.)

San Francisco, Cal., Dct. 3.-In conjunction with the opening of the triennial convention of the Episcopal Church of America today a thanksgiving service was held in Grace Church, at which the missionary offering of the Women's Auxiliary, amounting to $104,295 was presented and was received with heartfelt expressions of thanks.

The sessions of the convention were devoted entirely to business. After the announcement of the standing com-mittees a discussion of the proposed amendments to the constitution was begun and continued with much earnestness until evening. The result of the day's work was the adoption of the first seven articles, which were proposed in the general convention of 1898. Largely attended meetings of the Women's Auxiliary and the Periodical Club completed the day's program.

Several resolutions were introduced in the House of Deputies and referred to the committee on the Prayer Book. They were in reference to a change in the title page of the Prayer Book by the Rev. B. R. W. Taylor, suggesting the insertion of the words: "Holy Catholic Church according to the use of," before the words "Protestant Epis-copal in the United States of America."

it was resolved to draw up suitable resolutions regarding the death of the late President McKinley, which shall be formally adopted by a rising vote. In accordance with Dr. Huntington's resolution the amendments to the constitution were then taken up. The first four resolutions were adopted.

Article V., providing for the erection of new dioceses from missionary juris-dictions by the division of existing dioceses, and by the junction of two or more is in giving greater facility in the formation of dioceses from Missionary jurisdictions. The further consideration of this article was postponed until next Wednesday, because its adoption now might work a hardship to one or two new dioceses, which are to ask for admission to union with the general convention at this session. Article VI., providing for the establishment of missionary districts, sim-ply makes constitutional law what before had been only canon law. It was adopted by a unanimous vote.

Dr. Edgar then moved the adoption of Article VII., which provides for the organizations of the provinces. There was no discussion upon this proposed new departure in the American church and it was adopted by an overwhelming

A message from the House of Bishops was received announcing that the report providing for marginal readings in the Old and New Testaments be allowed to be used by ministers of this church in reading lessons from holy scripture and morning and evening prayer. The secretary announced that the two Houses would sit together tomorrow as the Board of Missions. Adjournment until tomorrow was then taken.

(By the Associated Fress.) New Yor, Oct. 3.—By the bursting of a feed pipe the steamer La Grande Duchesse was disabled while returning from the yacht races this evening and the two thousand people on board did not get back to the city until 8 p. m. Treasurers Must Refund.

A number of county treasurers have been charging an excessive per cent in collecting school tax. The law allows a commission of two per cent to treasur-ers. One treasurer has charged five per cent and another 2½. The Superintendent of Public Instruction has written these officials notifying them that they must refund the excess charged.

SHEPARD NAMED FOR MAYOR.

THANKSGIVING SERVICE The Brooklyn Delegation Howls For Coler.

(By the Associated Press.) New York, Oct. 3.-Previous to the meeting tonight of the Democratic , City Convention the executive committee of Tammany Hall held a meeting and ratiselecting Edward M. Shepard, William J. Ladd, Jr., and Judge, George M. Van Hosen as the party candidates for Mayor, Comptroller and President of the Board of aldermen, respectively. The convention met tonight in the Grand Central Palace with George B. McClellan as chair-convention hall. On taking the chair, Mr. McClellan praised Mayor Van Wyck, said the party had no apologies to offer! declared partisanship could not be divorced from municipal government; asserted that on the success of this campaign depended the election of a Democratic Governor and a Democratic President, and attacked "so-called reform."

In preamble and resolution the convention placed upon record its abhorrence of the crime by which President McKinley was stricken down and its "detestation of the disgraceful and outrageous attack upon our institutions and our civilization and its respectful and sincere sympathy with the bereaved family."

When Assistant District Attorney Littleton, of Brooklyn, placed the name of Edward M. Shepard before the convention as the candidate for mayor, cheers for Bird S. Coler came from the gallery and egation was especially vehement for Coler. The Shepard nominating speeches were interrupted and the roll call was perforce abandoned. Chairman McClel- Bradford adherents, the vast majority lan finally announced the nomination of Mr. Shepard and many delegates arose seriously and when the ballots were and left the hall.

William J. Ladd, Jr., was then made the nominee for Comptroller and Judge George M. Van Hosen for President of the Board of Aldermen. The platform adopted by the convention declares for a Democratic administration of the city; charges the Republi-can party with a brutal indifference to ernment, thus minimizing home rule in

It denounces, "as a shame the pretense at reform which characterizes the combination made up of Republican partisans and so-called Democrats notorious for their greed for office and embitter- require." ed against the regular Democratic organization because of their failures and disappointments.'

It congratulates the people upon the results achieved under the Democratic administration of city affairs.

administrations merely promised to inaugurate.

It commits the Democratic party specially to the municipal ownership of all the water front in all the boroughs; the taking control and management as soon as the law and present contract will permit of the ferries between the various counties in the city; it demands that the new bridges ever East River be held and managed by the city and placed at the disposal of the railroad and other corporations only to the extent of granting them a right of way for adequate compensation.

It demands the enactment of an excise law conservative of the public morals and liberals in its provisions that shall place its administrations and revenue, so far as the city is concerned, within control of this municipality.

It urges, in conclusion, the passage of labor laws which will result in affording laboring men employed on city imate interests.

It declares that the Democratic party s friendly in the largest sense to capital and labor, recognizing that both should be considered and encouraged in the city. It was after 11 o'clock when the convention adjourned.

London, Oct. 4.—"The United States revenge upon every one concerned." says the Constantinople correspondent of the Daily Telegraph, "and if anything happens to Miss Stone it will not Resitate to ask permission to bring a fleet through the Dardanelles to get at Bulgarian ports on the Black Sea and to force the Bulgarian Government to act against the Macedonian committee." American representatives at Constantinople have secured evidence proving the complicity of members of the Macedonian Committee at Sofia in the kidnapping of the American missionary, Miss Helen H. Graduate Nurse, and President of Nurses' Associatio of Watertown, N.Y.,

Pulling Together For First Tells How Much Doctors Use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Has Yet To Hear of Its Failure To Cure.

It is not infrequent that information comes to our attention proving that the medical profession in general prescribe large quantities of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in their private practise.

It is a fact beyond dispute that nowhere is to be found a remedy so universally successful in curing female ills, and the broad-minded physician of to-day is quick to recognize his duty to his patient, and does not hesitate to prescribe the best medicine he can find,—the medicine that is surest and quickest to bring relief to his patient; for this very reason thousands of the very best physicians are prescribing in their treatment of female ills Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, while not in the original bottles perhaps, but in plain prescription bottles with their own or druggists' name.

It is our pleasure and our privilege to publish a letter from a graduate nurse whose reputation and prominence in her profession lends much weight to her opinions, and whose testimony goes to prove our statements in regard to the high esteem in which Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is held by our leading physicians and trained nurses.

MISS VIRGINIA GRANES.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: - Twelve years continuous service at the sick beds in some of our prominent hospitals, as well as at private homes, has given me varied experiences with the diseases of women. I have nursed some most distressing cases of inflammation and ulceration of the ovaries and womb. I have known that doctors used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound when everything else failed with their patients. I have advised my patients and friends to use it, and have vet to hear of its first failure to cure.

"Four years ago I had falling of the womb from straining in lifting a heavy patient, and knowing of the value of your Compound I began to use it at once, and in six weeks I was well once more, and have had no trouble since. I am most pleased to have had an opportunity to say a few words in praise of your Vegetable Compound, and shall take every occasion to recommend it."—Miss Virginia Granes, 444 So. Spring St., Los Angeles, Cal. [Present address.]

Be it, therefore, believed by all women who are ill that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the medicine they should take. It has stood the test of time, and it has hundreds of thousands of cures to its credit. It should, therefore, be considered unwise to experiment further.

Mrs. Pinkham, whose address is Lynn, Mass., will answer cheerfully and without cost all letters addressed to her by sick women.

REWARD.—We have deposited with the National City Bank of Lynn, $5000 which will be paid to any person who can find that the above testimonial letter is not genuine, or was published before obtaining the writer's special permission.
