A Resume of Correspondence Furnished the House.

ROOSEVELT ENDORSED ROOT'S ACTION

The Correspondence Shows That Any Plan Devised by Miles is Likely to Meet With a Hostile Reception by Administration.

(By the Associated Press.) Washington, March 29 .- In response to a resolution adopted by the House of Representatives the President today forwarded to that body the full text of the correspondence between Lieutenant General Nelson A. Miles, commanding the army, and Secretary Root, concerning a plan outlined by the former to bring about a cessation of hostilities in the Philippines. A resume of the correspondence, together with the endorsement upon it of President Roosevelt follows:

"Under date of February 17, 1902, General Miles transmitted a memorandum to the Secretary of War outlining his plan to secure a cessation of hostilities in the Philippines, with a request that it be forwarded to the President. After directing attention to the situation in the Philippines and to the enormous expenditure of ney and lives in the islands, he says t during the past century Indian wars have been averted by consultation with chiefs of the various tribes. Our friendly relations with the people of Cuba and Porto Rico, also had been promoted by the same means. "He requests therefore, that he be au- hit the ball defeated Clemson. On his return to the United States he desires to bring such representative Filipinos as he may think advisable in order that they may realize the advantages this government offers them, and at the same time afford them. opportunity to consult with the officials of this government. He is confident that such measures would be beneficial to the Filipinos and bighly creditable to this government. In conclusion he says: " 'Should this request be approved 1 am confident it would result in a better condition of our military forces in that division, in the cessation of hostilities within a reasonable time, thereby permitting the return of a large number of our troops from those remote and unhealthful states, and I should hope, in an amicable adjustment of affairs in those islands which would be satisfactory to the inhabitants thereof as well as to the people of the United States.''

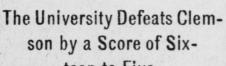

ago to go to the Philippines and his projected visit had the approval of President McKinley. He adds, in conclusion that since his proposition to take a delegation of Cubans and Porto Rican's to the Philippines and to bring back to the United States a delegation of Filipinos does not seem advisable, he asks for it no further consideration. When he goes to the Philippines, he says, he will devote his attention to the condition and requirements of the troops in that division.

ROOT'S REMARKS THEREON. Secretary Root's comments upon Gen March 25. He says the apparent purpose of the memorandum was to show that the action taken on the first was wiong. He then adds:

"Without commenting upon the pro priety of a military officer undertaking to review the action of the President, I again submit the paper for such reconsideration as the President may think advisable.

Concerning the audience given mem vention by President McKinley, Secretary Root says the President's consent to receive the committee was asked for by Gen. Wood, through the Secretary of War, "and was communicated to Gen. Wood by the Secretary of War, who never heard Gen. Miles' name mentiened in connection with the transac-

MacArthur had reported that not a single regiment could be spared from the Philippines, yet Gen. Miles accompanied his appli-(Continued on Page Five.)

COMMENT BY ROOT.

Secretary Root forwarded to the President General Miles' memorandum under date of March 5 with his disapproval of the recommendations. He says the conduct of affairs in the Philippines has been able and successful. More rapid progress has been made toward the acceptance of American sovereignty, the restoration of peace, and the establishment of civil government than was to have been expected The adoption of General Miles' plan, he thinks, would be an unfortunate interference with the present satisfactory progress. Long continued consultations already had been held with prominent members of the insurrectionary government any many prominent Filipinos are now occupying positions under the civil government of the islands. Concerning the proposal to bring official delegates from the Philippines to the United States, the Secretary says "it would be very difficult to keep such a proceeding free from spectacular and sensational features, which would be injurious."

In conclusion the Secretary says:

"It is not the fact that the warfare in the Philippines has been conducted with he probably will be heard on Tuesday. marked severity; on the contrary, the warfare has been conducted with marked humanity and magnamity on the part of the United States army."

MILES' SECOND LETTER.

In a subsequent letter submitted to the Secretary of War on March 24, Gen. Miles regrets that the Secretary should have considered his proposition, promoted in the interest of humanity, as in any way "spectacular and sensational." such result from its adoption. He calls lution limiting debate for and against all attention to the fact that when 'n Cuba last year he advised members of the Constitutional Convention to make an appeal direct to President McKinley, which they did. The President granted the Cubans' request for an audience, made through him, and the result of Sykes of Wake Forest College, delivered the delegation's visit to Washington a magnicent and scholarly address in was most gratifying.
