PRESENT BANKRUPCY LAW

Minority in House Make Futile Effort to Repeal It.

THE SPOONER BILL FOR RECIPROCITY

-publican Members of the Senate Committee en Cuban Relations Accept It. Resolution as to Money Paid to Thurber Favorably Reported.

(By the Associated Press.) Washington, June 17 .- Throughtout today's session of the Senate the Isthmian Canal question was under consideration. Speeches were delivered by Messrs. Perkins, of California; Gallinger, of New Hampshire; Stewart, of Nevada, and Morgan, of Alabama. All advocated the adoption of the Nicaragua route, except Mr. Gallinger, who made a forceful argument in support of the Panama route, and who said his investigations convinced him that the Panama route was the more healthful of the two.

The arguments of the Senators in support of the Nicaragua route were made especially on the ground of feasibility and business wisdom. Mr. Stewart and Mr. Morgan both contended that the health conditions in Nicaragua were superior to those in Panama. Mr. Morgan said there had been raised no "false cry" about the health conditions in Panama. It had been shown by the experience of "all mankind" that Lanama was one of the most unhealthful places on the face of the globe.

A remark made by Mr. Morgan was regarded as significant, as possibly foreshadowing the result of the vote on Thursday. Referring to the alleged wrong doing by the Panama Canal Company, he said:

"The people believe it now; and when this substitute is passed they will

Bills by the Judiciary Committee.

(By the Associated Press.) Washington, June 17 .- The House spent the day considering bills reported from the Judiciary Committee. By far the most important measure was that to amend the existing bankruptcy law. The minority made a vigorous effort to repeal the present law in toto but were overwhelmingly defeated-65 to 137. The bill passed amends the law in fifteen particulars to meet defects which experience has proven. The most important amendment is one to define preference to meet the Supreme Court decision in the case of Pirie vs. The Chicago Title and Trust Company. Four additional grounds for refusing to discharge in bankruptcy also are added: First, obtaining property on credit on materially false amendments; second, making a fraudulent transfer of property; third, having been granted or denied a discharge in bankruptcy within six years, and fourth, having refused to obey the order of the court or refusal to answer material questions approved by the court. Messrs. Clayton (Ala.) and DeArmond (Mo.) opposed the bill, the former in the calling the present bankruptcy law a drastic and oppressive measure. An evening session was held for the consideration of bills reported from the Indian Committee.

ABRIVAL OF MR RYAN.

Genera, assenger Agent of the Seaboard Air

(Special to the eNws and Observer.) Portsmouth, Va., June 17 .- Mr. Chas. B. Ryan yesterday became the general passenger agent of the Seaboard Air Line Railway, with headquarters at the general office building in this city.

It is extremely important that his coming will be followed by any general shake-up in the passenger department. It is understood that such a policy is opposed by Mr. Ryan.

Mr. Ryan is known as a gentleman who combines business and tact in that rare degree that makes for the largest measure of success.

Great pressure was brought to bear upon him to induce him to remain with tional Government for mere love of any D. Watts. J. A. Hartness was unanithe Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, but the opening with the Seaboard Air Line Railway was one that he could not in justice to himself neglect.

Charles B. Ryan was born May 16, 1856. educated at Marysville Seminary. He entered railway service in 1880 as a clerk on the Richmond and Petersburg Railroad, since which he was consecutively until 1881 ticket agent of the same road. Eighteen and eighty-one to 1883 ticket stock clerk, Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, 1883 to 1886 advertising clerk, 1886 to 1891 chief clerk, general passenger department; 1891 to July, 1892, division passenger agent, and July 1892, assistant general passenger agent, same road.

The general freight department of the Seaboard Air Line Railway has issued a circular appointing Mr. P. S. Awtry traveling freight agent of the system at Jacksonville, Fla., in place of Mr. J. S. Nichols, who has resigned to enter other business.

A Shaft to be Erected at Hendersonville. Contributions Solicited.

(Special to the News and Observer.) Henderson, N. C., June 17 .- The Watt Bryson Camp of United Conefderate Veterans have ordered the erection, at an early date, of a Confederate monument on the public square in Hendersonville, N. C. This site is 2,250 feet above the sea level, the greatest altitude of any similar shaft in the world, and will be to the memory of every Confederate soldier from Maine to Texas, living or dead. Every one interested in the Confederate soldier is invited to contribute any amount, the contributions will be acknowledged in the local papers of Hendersonville, giving the amount and name of each contributor. The list will be preserved and deposited at the unveiling, in the pedestal of the monument. S. V. Pickens is treasurer and the following compose the committee: S. V. Pickens, J. M. Shepherd, J. P. Rickman, A. F. P. King, J. W. Wofford.

(By the Associated Press.) Chicago, Ills., June 17.—Charles Francis Adams, of Boston, delivered the oration before the Phi Beta Kappa Society of the University of Chicago, today, his subject being "Shall Cromwell have a Statue?"

The changes in England's attitude toward Oliver Cromwell were described by the speaker as introductory to his ancalled his text: "Shall Robert E. Lee have a statue?"

In developing his argument the speaker referred to a principle which, he said, for generations Lee and his people had believed. In this connection authority was quoted to show that "The Union originally was compact, dissoluble, perhaps most of them would have said, at pleasure. Dissoluble certainly on breach of the articles of the Union." A description of the steps by which Made Until the Ninth inning. Smithson Jumps His Contract.

It was nip and tuck at both ball games in Raleigh yesterday.

As a result Raleigh won the nip, while Greensboro took the tuck, the first by a score of one to nothing, while Greensboro's share of the double-header game was by a score of four against two.

Both games of ball were corkers and were enough to liven up baseball enthusiasm. The only off-time was the first inning of the second game, when, because of a base on balls, an unexpected bound of the ball from Soffle, a stepladder pitch by Roy and a hit that Treager added to by an error in which Hook later assisted, Greensboro corralled three runs.

There was no disagreeable kicking. Umpire McNamara proved the best of the umpires seen here. He knows the game and its rules and delighted the spectators yesterday.

Leonard, for Raleigh, and Sugg, for Greensboro, were the slab artists in the first stanza of the two verse poem, both were in fine form. McTeer was dead-headed to first and Kelly batted hot to Soffle, when the ball went askew to right field, and before it got home McTeer had scorel. Fox went out, pitcher to first, while Roy pitched wild high up in the air and let Kelly score. Sullivan singled in left but Treager let the ball slip by, while Sullivan shot around for third. The ball was fired there to Hook but it went astray on Hook's error and Sullivan scored. Cook made a slow hit but the next two went in Raleigh's half, with two down Rollins hit in centre and Hook reached first when the guardian of that sack dropped the ball Pitcher Coureen threw him. Hook lead off in a steal to second, made it, and Rollins scored, after which Treagar fanned out.

Raleigh's next and last run was in the third. Rollins reached first on an error at second, and advanced on Hook's bunt. Soffle was running the bases for Rollins and stole third. Treagar walked scored for Rollins, after which Philbin flew out to the pitcher.

For inning after inning it was three up and three down, but no scoring. Then came Greensboro's eighth with a run. Corbett fanned and Courneen smashed a three-bagger in right, chasing himself home on McTeer's fly in right, while Kelly retired the side by a fly to Trea-

The game was a good one, but for the nightmare during the first inning, and in this Raleigh lost the game. Roy, a little wild during the opening innings, did fine work and Courreen did likewise, each yielding but four hits.
