DECLARE FOR CLARK

Eight More Counties Heard From Yesterday.

FRUM MURPHYTO MANTEO

The Vote for Associate Justices is Divided.

IN THREE COUNTIES CONNOR LEADS

In Three Brown is the Favorite. The Others Take no Action. A Warm Disoussion in the Cumberland County

Convention. (Special to the News and Observer.)

Fayetteville, N. C., July 5.-Hon. H. L. Cook, chairman of the county executive committee, called to orier a very large County Democratic Convention in the court room today to nominate delegates to the Judicial, Congressional and State conventions. On permanent organization J. H. Myrover was made president of the convention and E. R. Mc-Keathan and L. B. Hale secretaries. The convention voted as a unit by townships, and Bellamy's friends made a plucky fight but the convention instructed for Hale, and finally left it to the president of the convention to name delegates to the Congressional convenon. The convention, by acclamation, endorsel Clark for Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, and also by acclamation, on motion of Major Hate, endersed Lyon for Solicitor of this Judicial district. In the vote by baitot Connor led Walker next, Brown third. No instructions for Corporation Commissioners. H. L. Cook was unanimously re-elected chairman of the executive committee.

A Hot Discussion.

(Special to the News and Observer.) Wilmington, N. C., July 5 .- A special to the Star says there was a hot discussion in the Cumberland County Democratic Convention today between Hale and anti-Hale elements over the question of minority representation in the Congressional convention, the former contending that each county could adopt its own rules, while the latter insisted that the State plan of organization should govern the appointment of uelegates to the Congressional convention. On a test vote the convention decided in favor of the Hale proposition by 90 to 30. N. A. Sinclair offered a resolution instructing for Hale. L. A. Williamson moved as a substitute that the convention ballot for candidates for Congress and placed in nomination John D. Bellamy. This was lost by 70 to 30 and the resolution to instruct for Hale adopted by the same vote. The minority filed protests and gave notice of a cent-st before the Congressional convention.

CUMBERLAND FOR HALE.

Clark For Chief Justice, While Connor Leads Brown In Convention.

(Special to the News and Observer.) Fayetteville, N. C., July 5.-The Cumberland convention was a large one. Maor Hale was endorsed for Congress, C. C. Lyon for Solicitor and Judge Walter Clark for Chief Justice.

For Associate Justices from the east Connor received 85 votes, Brewn 65; from the west Walker 70.

Wilmington is Disbanded.

(Special to the News and Observer.) Wilmington, N. C., July 5 .- Wilmington urrendered its baseball franchise tonight after the players had been paid in full and the team was taken by Manager Mace under instructions from President Busbee, of the League, who forwards transportation for the Raleigh games next week. The team has been losing money as well as games ever since it was re-organized and the local association did not dem it practicable to con tinue under such a state of affairs. Mc-Ginnis, of the Wilmington team, signed with New Bern and Fisher and Dommel leave tomorrow morning for Lancaster, Pa. Catcher Daum has been loaned to Mace by New Bern and the team will go to Raleigh with a chance to win with a strengthened pitching staff. There is the best of feeling here for the success of the League.

Gull's Defeated in a Slow Game.

For some time it has been realized that Wilmington could not hold its place in the league and preparations have been made for the contingency, which arose yesterday. The Wilmington people has shown great pluck, but finally ad to drop a continually losing club. The Wilmington Club will be brought to Raleigh and strengthened. The entire league, will stand for its continuance and it will be located in either Tarboro or Geldsboro; both towns being reported as ready and willing to take a team. Goldsboro is regarded as the possible relection on account of its position, and the saving in expense is against the
