How Can Little Miss Cuba Walk In It?

HAS TO BORROW MONEY

About to Trip in First Step Taken to Get It.

WILL YOUR REVENUES JUSTIFY IT?

Thus Creaks That Tight Platt Shoe Little Miss Cuba is Forced to Wear? What Will Uncle Sam Do About It.

(By the Associated Press.) Washington D. C., Aug. 4.-The State Department has received the following cablegram from Minister Squiers, dated

Havana, August 4: "The House has passed a bill authorizing a loan of thirty-five millions; minimum rate of issue 90 per cent. Maximum interest 5 per cent, redeemable in forty

Under the Platt amendment the United States is bound to take cognizance of every action of the Cuban Government relating to loans. Article 2 of that amendment provides:

"That said government shall not assume or contract any public debt to pay the interest upon which, and to make reasonable sinking fund provision for the ultimate discharge of which the ordinary revenues of the island of Cuba, after defraying the current expenses of the government shall be inadequate."

No computation has been made to ascertain whether or not the loan provided for in the bill which Minister Squiers refers to trespasses upon the provision of the Platt amendment, but it is presumed that the Cuban revenues can pay the interest and provide a sinking fund beside defraying the ordinary expenses of the government, as provided in the amendment.

Outbreak in Hayti Over.

(By the Associated Press.) Washington, August 4.-Captain Mc Rea, of the gunboat Machias, today cabled the Navy Department that the outbreak in Hayti is practically over. The cablegram, which is dated Cape Haytien. August 4, is as follows: Haytien, August 4, is as follows:

"After interviewing authorities aspect of affairs appears more satisfactory. Nationales are well armed. Rebels enthusiasm. No further danger of se rious disturbances."

Captain McRea requested permission to go to San Juan, Porto Rico for coal This was granted him and the Machias probably will come north unless there is another outbreak in Hayti.

THE GEORGIA CENTRAL.

Report That the St. L. and S. F. is to Buy it Made and Denied.

(By the Associated Press.) New York, Aug. 4.- The Evening Post

"Very positive statements were made today that negotiations are pending for the acquisition of the Georgia Central system by the St. Louis and San Francisco, which, last week, secured the Chicago and Eastern Illinois and which during the last year has made notable progress in expansion. There reports were practically confirmed, so far as regards the statement that negotiations with this purpose have been under way. They are not, however, completed.

"From the same authority, a denial was obtained of the reports of a grand merger of all Southern railroads."

Reports that the St. Louis and San Francisco road is negotiating for control of the Georgia Central system are scouted by a leading representative of the last named property. "This is the first I have heard of any such plan," said this director. There is nothing to justify it, and all talk that the Southern Railway controls the Georgia Central is utter nonsense. The Southern has no direct or indirect interest in that property, which is owned by the landholders, who, in turn, are represented by the voting trustees."

President Yoakum, of the St. Louis and San Francisco road, declined to affirm or deny the report or discuss it in any way. The St. Louis and San Francisco has, it is understood, secured control of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois and it is to begin branching out in other

A Farmer Brutally Lashed.

(By the Associated Press.) Owensboro, Ky., August 4.-William Dodwell, a farmer living near Yelvington, in this county, was taken from his home at midnight last night, bound to a tree and beaten with a black snake whip until he was almost unconscious from loss of blood. Over seventy-five lashes were administered and there are more than fifty wounds from two inches to a foot long on his face and body. The bark was torn from the tree where the ropes which bound the unfortunante man touched it and the whip left marks on the tree as if it had been cut with a knife. Dodwell's wife and daughter attempted to go to his rescue, but were prevented by the members of the mob. The cause for the whipping is not known.

Leads the Way Toward This Mans

(Special to News and Observer.) Washington, N. C., Aug. 4.-Strong suspicion rests upon a white man by the name of William Ange for an attempt to wreck the Washington and Plymouth passenger train on Saturday morning. While he has not been arrested for the crime he is constantly watched for fear he might make an attempt to escape.

"Hurricane" Branch, the sheriff of Suffolk, with his bloodhound "Tiger," arrived at the scene Saturday night. There were two rails gone and the dog was taken to where the south rail was missing and placed upon the trail. The animal caught trail without trouble and ran to where the rail had been secreted. From until Ange's field was reached when the dog was called off and taken back to the place where the wreckage occurred.

He was again placed on the trail and went directly this time to Ange's house, keeping the trail hot from first to last. Ange was not at home but was visiting at his brother's. He resides about two miles from the wreck. Ange has had trouble with the railroad for years, a long time before it was extended to Washington, in the way of law suits, etc. He had a cow killed by the log train and it was not settled to his satisfaction. This, it is thought, aroused his anger to such a pitch that he sought revenge by wrecking the train. He is said to be a man of bad character. He has a large

This on the surface does not indicate anything, yet there was a feeling of uneasiness which caused the commanding officers to increase their vigilance and hold the soldiers in a state of preparedness. The greater part of this vigilance was lue to the fact that the funeral of Joseph Baddall, who died as a result of injuries received on Wednesday night's riot, took place today. There were many rumors afloat that they would be attacked. These stories reached brigade headquarters and General Gobin decided to take every precaution possible to prevent any untoward incidents while the funeral was being held, without too great a display of the military force.
