CASTRO AWAITING ATTACK.

Forces. Desertions From Castro's Army.

(By the Associated Press.) Willemstad, Island of Curacoa, Oct. 2.

News has reached here from Venezuela that the Venezuelan revolutionary forces under General Matos have effected a junction with the command of the revolutionary general, Mendoza, near Camatagua, in the State of Miranda, fifty miles south of Caracas. The combined forces of Generals Matos and Mendoza now total 6,500 men.

Last Wednesday the revolutionists were at San Juan de los Moros, near Villa de Cura. At this point the government forces under President Castro amounting to 4,000 men, retreated precipitately before the vanguard of the revolutionists. There have been many desertions from President Castro's army, President Castro is now at Los Teques very strong strategical position, but a few hours' ride from Caracas and which is considered nearly impregnable. The cause of the rash act is said to have been melancholy.

The deceased was interested in several cotton mill ventures and was wealthy.

Negroes Prosperous in Mississippi.

(Special to News and Observer.) Greensboro, N. C., Oct. 2 .- An intelligent coloredman named Madkins, who has lived in azoo City, Miss., for over thirty years, was in the city yesterday on a return from a visit to his former owners in Caswell county, where he'was most kindly received. Madkins says the negroes of Mississippi are in better shape financially than they have ever been before. They are rapidly acquiring property in the State and live in perfect harmony with the white people. Of course he referred to the bettel class of negroes, and not the "low-flung niggers," as he termed the others. Negro labor in Mississippi is contented, he says, very few people having left the State in recent years to seek their fortunes in the North. Some have found it a costly experiment.

He further declared that freetrade England had more trusts than America: that only twelve per cent, of manufactured articles were made, by trusts and declared that we had better "endure the ills we have than fly to others we knew nothing of." He offered no remedy for the evil, but claimed that the Republican party had suppressed and broken up several unlawful combinations failing, however, to say what they were. He further charged that J.
