They virtually conceded the election of Odell. representative of the Associated Press, Elliot Danforth said that the returns up to 10 o'clock were much more favorable to the Republicans. Secretary Mason, of the Democratic State Committee, said that while the outlook was worse for Coler, he was not ready to concede the election of Odell.

Shortly after 10 o'clock at Republican headquarters, three cheers were given for Odell as the next Governor of New

New York, Nov. 4 .- At Congressional headquarters, at 10 o'clock, Congressman Overstreet, of Indiana, secretary of the Congressional Republican Committee, said the big plurality for Coler in Greater New York had made it possible that Democrats would be elected by every one of the first nineteen Congressional districts of New York. This would mean a net loss of four Republicans in the

New York delegation. Mr. Overstreet said there was some chance of saving four districts out of these nineteen, namely, the First, Third, Sixth and Fifteenth, but the hopes rai of gaining the Thirteenth, Seventeeenth, Ninth and Ninteenth districts were destroyed by the big slump for Coler. The First district is that in which President Rocsevelt lived and is now represented by a Republican. When Mr. Roosevelt ran for Governor, the Republican plurality in this district
