CAROLINA BEATEN IN A TORRID GAME

Georgetown Wins by a Score of 5 to 12.

A GREAT KICK BY GRAVES

From the Thirty-five Yard Line he Sends the Ball Whirling Between the Goal Posts---All Scoring Done in First Half.

(Special to News and Observer.) Norfolk, Va., Nov. 15 .- Carolina 5 Georgetown 12.

This was the score at the end of the first half of the Georgetown-Carolina game played today in Norfolk. And that was the score when the referee's whistle sent the tired, dirty warriors hobbling off the field at the end of a hard fought tattle.

Dashing rups, daring plunges, strategy and pluck marked the game from start to finish. It was played under a cloudless sky, although the sun rays beat down with summer's force. The colors among the thirty-five hundred spectators

At first Carolina seemed to get the jump on Georgetown and twice rushed the ball to Georgetown's 5 yard line, but were unable to score, except by a beautiful drop kick of Graves from the 35 yard line. Georgetown won the toss and Donnelly, for North Carolina, kicked off. After a few plunges on a fumble Carolina secured the ball and rushed it to the Georgetown 5 yard line. But here they lost it as the Georgetown line seemed impregnable.

Georgetown kicked and again Carolina pushed the ball to within 5 yards of Georgetown's goal, but again were held on downs and again Georgetown kicked out of danger. Graves secured the ball and advanced 10 yards. With the ball on Georgetown's 35 yard line Graves dropped a beautiful goal, scoring Carolina's only

The first half was soon over and the second half had little or nothing of interest, consisting only in beautiful defensive work of both teams.

The defensive work of Holt and Jones was admirable, while Foust played a star offensive game. The line bucking of Hardisty for Georgetown was superb. Rourke's 40 yard run and Berkley's run of 20 yards were the only long gains.

Oldham, R. H.; Engle, L. H.; Fisher, R. E., were substituted in the line up, as Brawn and Weight Won.

(By the Associated Press.)

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 15 .- Georgetown defeated the University of North Carolina here this afternoon in a contest of brawn and weight against open playing, by a score of twelve to five.

Carolina made her only score in the first half on a goal from the field by Graves. Georgetown had lost the bail on downs near the centre of the field and Carolina made a wonderful spurt in plunging through the blue and gray line. This, aided by two penalties for off side play on Georgetown's part, brought the ball to the twenty-yard line and from that point Graves sent it whirling between the goal posts.

Georgetown played a stiff game of tackle back formation and made her first touch-down in this manner, Hardisty being shoved over the line after the ball had been taken inch by inch from Georgetown's 25 yard line. Thirteen minutes later, Rourke broke through the Carolina line in the centre of the field and sprinted for a touchdown. Mahoney kicked goal in both instances.

Five thousand people saw the game which marked the opening of Lafayette field, pronounced to be the finest in the Virginia Beats the Techs.

(By the Associated Press.) Charlottesville, Va., Nov. 15.—University of Virginia defeated Virginia Polytechnic Institute on the University's grounds today by a score of 6 to 0. In the game Virginia outplayed Virginia Polytechnic on the offensive, and would have scored another touchdown but for fumbles. On defensive work, the teams were well matched. In the early part of the game Virginia Polytechnic seemed very strong, but Virginia soon mastered their style of play and Johnson and Council broke through the Virginia Polytechnic Institute line repeatedly.

The Federation of Labor While Apparently Approving the Construction of an Isthmian Canal Lays the Subject on the Table.

(By the Associated Press.) New Orleans, Nov. 15 .- "Resolved, that we declare our unfaltering fealty to the trade labor movement of our country, devoting our best efforts to the uplifting THE CAPTURE OF CORD of the wage earners of our country, giving them hope and encouragement, and appealing to them to unite with organized workers so that the fraternity of man throughout the world may be accomplished at the earliest possible date."

This is the message sent out by the American Federation of Labor on the 21st anniversary of its birth, to the laboring men throughout the world.

President Gompers made a brief address, saying that of all the delegates present at the formation of the organization in Pittsburg in 1881, he was the only man present. He was appointed a committee of one to frame an appropriate resolution and the message given above it the result.

During the day there were two animated debates, the first over the resolution declaring against the Ship Subsidy Bill, and the second over that declaring against the construction of an Isthmian

James O'Connell, president of the International Association of Machinists, delivered a vehement address declaring that no greater combine existed in the United States than that of the great yards, and that union labor had no more relentless foe.

On the final vote the report of the Committee on Resolutions was adopted, Mr. Gilthorpe casting the sole negative vote.

The resolution declaring against the Nicaragua or Panama canal came next, and on this the Resolution Committee reported adversely and a motion to adopt gate Fureseth, of San Francisco, who the American navy was inferior and not necessary. D. A. Hayes, president of the Glass was meddling too much in extraneous but considered it wise for the Federation to let the subject alone.

After several other speeches, the entire subject was tabled. A movement was inaugurated today by Delegate Charles Sherman, of the Sheet Metal Workers having for its object the holding of a special convention within one month or six weeks of representatives of all iron workers engaged in the building trades, the object of the convention being to determine accurately the lines of jurisdiction belonging to various bodies.

The prisoner, who appeared weak-minded, said his only reason for the shooting was exasperation at seeing "so many tired-looking personages occupying such grand coaches." A fuller investigation satisfied the police that Rubino fired a ball cartridge, the bullet of which smashed the window of Comte D'Oultremont's carriage and grazed the Grand Marshal's face.

When rescued from the mob, Rubino was placed in a cab and infuriated mobs of people immediately surrounded it and attacked the vehicle with knives and sticks. The police had great difficulty in forcing a way to the police station through he crowd, which shouted alternately "Kill him," and "Long live the Rockingham Anglo-Saxon, King!" The cab was badly hacked with knives.

A search of the prisoner revealed a between him and His Majesty. Rubino also is reported to have said he was employed in the Italian Secret Service in London and came to Brussels a fortnight ago with the intention of assassinating King Leopold.

The news of the outrage spread rapidly throughout the city and the greatest excitement prevailed. The people thronged the streets, eagerly discussing the attempt on the life of the King and large crowds gathered in front of the various bulletin boards. The newspapers issued frequent editions and these were eagerly | bought. General abhorrence was expressed by the people at the apparently deliberate attempt to assassinate the sov-

TO FIGHT TOBACCO TRUST.

Southern Tobacco Journal. A circular letter, signed by Mr. Wm. H. Butler, who was one of the original organizers of the American Tobacco Company, and its first vice-president and secretary, has sent out to independent tobacco and cigar manufacturers, asking them to take "some concerted action for the protection of their business against the methods of the tobacco trust," as Mr. Butler puts it. Mr. Butler suggests in his letter that the independent manufacturers hold a convention at some central point, like Chicago, at an early date, when the subject can be discussed, and if necessary acted upon. Signatures to a petition to this effect are asked for.

The attitude of Roosevelt on the "lily white" movement brings to mind the aptness of the joke used by Settle Dockery in the campaign.
