CONSTIPATION

"I have gone 14 days at a time without a movement of the bowels, not being able to move them except by using hot water injections. Chronic constipation for seven years placed me in this terrible condition; during that time I did everything I heard of but never found any relief, such was my case until I began using CASCARETS. I now have from one to three passages a day, and I was rich I would give $1000 for each movement. It is such a relief."

WOMAN'S AND SOCIETY

"Let down thy tresses, love!" I sang Beneath her latticed casement, "And I will woo thee, gentle dove, With kisses soft and words of love. Let down thy strands of golden hair, My starry-eyed Rapunzel!" She heard my love impassioned cry, And, leaning from her window high, Said, while the silvery moonbeams kissed her, "Great Scott! I'm not a Sutherland Sister!"

Song Recital.

An evening of great pleasure may be looked forward to by music lovers, when Mr. D'Arnal appears here Thursday evening. A clipping from an Illinois paper says of him:

"Mr. Vernon D'Arnal proved himself to be an artist of the first order, a really God-given singer. In possession of a wonderfully beautiful baritone voice, of great range and splendid schooling, it was easy for this singer to completely captivate the hearers by the first song." Tickets will be on sale today at W. H.

King's drug store. General admission 50 cents and reserved seats 75 cents.

BOBBITT-BOISSEAU.

A Wedding Celebrated Yesterday Afternoon at the Hotel Dorsett.

Mr. B. Boisseau Bobbitt was united in matrimony yesterday afternoon in the parlors of Hotel Dorsett. Rev. W. D. Hubbard, of the Tabernacle Baptist church, officiated. The bride is a daughter of Mr. P. H. Boisseau, of Danville, Va., a graduate of Salem Academy and the Randolph-Macon Institute. Mr. Bobbitt is an alumnus of the University of North Carolina and a young journalist, well-known in Virginia and North Carolina. He has been connected in important capacities with leading papers in each of these States, and was at one time editor of the Danville (Va.) Free Press.

Dr. Hume in Wilson.

Wilson, N. C., Nov. 17.—(Special.)—The members of the Wilson Book Club enjoyed a great treat in Dr. Hume's charming lecture on Hamlet. He was introduced by Mrs. Rawlings, president of the club. The club was entertained at this meeting by Mrs. John F. Bruton in an elegant manner.

Battle-Clark.

Wilmington, N. C., Nov. 17.—(Special.)—Tomorrow at the home of the bride's father, Captain Clark, Mr. Edward S. Battle, son of Hon. R. H. Battle, of Raleigh, and a prominent young attorney, will be married to Miss Della Clark, a beautiful and cultured young woman of this city, a graduate of St. Mary's, at Raleigh. Miss Rosa Battle, the groom-elect's sister, has arrived here from Raleigh, and his father will come tomorrow.

Was Not Satisfied.

Kinston, N. C., Nov. 17.—(Special.)—Miss Caroline Bryant, of this city, by the aid of a matrimonial bureau began a correspondence with Dr. Fred Morris, of Burlington, Vt. Things went easy and Dr. Morris came, a wedding being in view. He spent a day, was not pleased, and he has gone without the wedding.
