

Mrs. J. M. Powell

KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI.

Lieutenant-Commander of the Ladies of the Maccabees Lodge.

633 Troost Ave., Kansas City, Mo., March 28, 1902.

In my official capacity it is to my interest to see that members of our society are in the best possible physical health. Having had occasion to use Wine of Cardui myself and having found it a remedy of no ordinary merit but far above anything I have ever known, and being especially adapted to cure all the ills to which women are subject, I have often taken occasion to recommend it and I have never yet had any reason to regret it, for in every instance I have found it most helpful. It not only effects a quick cure, but those who have taken a thorough treatment of this very meritorious medicine seem to be renewed from head to foot, so that they are particularly immune from catching diseases and colds, which are really the beginning of the majority of them. Since I have used Wine of Cardui myself I feel in excellent physical condition and have no need of doctors or other medicine. I consider it a most desirable family remedy and as I have observed for the last three years the very satisfactory results obtained, it is with great pleasure I give public endorsement to Wine of Cardui, as I have many times done privately.

Mrs. J. M. Powell

THE Ladies of the Maccabees is one of the largest fraternal insurance organizations in the country and sickness and death among its members call for benefits to be paid out of the treasury of the order. The great organization is entirely in the hands of women who have so successfully conducted its affairs that among the secret orders for women the Ladies of the Maccabees is regarded as a model. Among the leaders of this great order is Mrs. J. M. Powell of Kansas City, Mo. She is a lady of high intelligence and as lieutenant-commander of the Kansas City lodge has the welfare of the organization more or less in her keeping. She says: "In my official capacity it is to my interest to see that members of our society are in the best possible physical health." Clear judgment prompts her to recommend Wine of Cardui to the members of her organization.

Wine of Cardui has benefited every woman who has taken it. Such a remedy is worthy every woman's confidence in the time of sickness when doctors fail and other medicines do not bring the sufferer relief. Wine of Cardui will cure any complicated cases of irregular periods and bearing down pains. It is valuable during pregnancy, at childbirth and during the change of life. It is not a strong medicine but it quickly relieves female troubles in an easy and natural way. It strengthens the nervous system, acts directly on the genital organs and is the finest tonic for women known to the medical science. If Mrs. Powell was cured by Wine of Cardui and recommends it to thousands of her lodge members, don't you think it is worth a trial in your home? All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

FOR SWEET CHARITY.

A Musicales to Aid in Maintaining a Cot in Rex Hospital.

The Ladies Hospital Aid Association, of Raleigh, has for three years maintained a memorial cot in Rex Hospital, which enables the poor outside of Raleigh to receive treatment in the hospital. There are many needy and pitiful cases that could not have been received in the hospital, because they did not live in Raleigh, but for this cot. The ladies who have so nobly supported this splendid charity are now anxious to raise more money for it, as funds are necessary. They are now arranging for a concert to be given next week, in which members of the faculty of the various educational institutions here will participate. The ladies have not yet decided positively on what evening it will be given, but it will be an event that should attract a great audience.

What Company is it?

It is reported that a popular and well known commander of a prominent company in the State Guard is shortly to be married. It is further reported that his good example has stirred the other officers, even to the non-coms, and that at least three are trying to follow suit. Public service and patriotism seem to be coming in for their reward.

R. S. V. P.

There will be a meeting of the R. S. V. P. Club this afternoon at four o'clock at Miss Lucy Haywood's.

THE DAY NURSERY

The Day Nursery, the headquarters of which are on South Salisbury street, just above Hargett, was formally opened yesterday.

It is splendidly arranged and well equipped for a beginning. There is a neat reception room where an air of home comfort prevails. In the home room are cots and bed-room equipments, with toys for the little ones, while adjoining is the bath room and its appurtenances. Another room is fixed as the dining room and back of this is the kitchen.

Mrs. W. H. Williamson and the other ladies who have made this Day Nursery deserve every aid. The institution is capable of being made of great value to working mothers and will prove a boon to them.

A reception was held yesterday afternoon and all who attended were delighted with the arrangement. A trained nurse is in charge and visitors are welcome. Once the scope of the work is seen contributions will come in to further equip the neat little home for children.

Delightful Evening.

The entertainment given last night at Mrs. J. J. Bernards was an event that was greatly enjoyed.

The purpose of it was charitable and there were present many who aided in this good work and at the same time spent an evening of much pleasure.

An informal but most pleasant program was presented, and the guests were served with ice cream and cake.

Green-Harter.

Durham, N. C., Nov. 21.—(Special).—Mr. W. R. Harton and Miss Flora Green were united in marriage last night at 8:20 o'clock, on Mangum street. Rev. W. C. Norman, pastor of Trinity Methodist church, officiated. The flower girls were Misses Emma Harton and Daisy Herndon. There were no other attendants. After the ceremony the bridal party were entertained at supper by Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Bennett.

Wednesday afternoon of next week at Schley, Orange county, Mr. D. A. Bordeaux, of West Durham, will wed Miss Lizzie Miller, daughter of Mr. J. W. Miller. Invitations have been issued announcing the marriage of Mr. C. A. Owen, of Durham, and Miss Mattie B. Payne, which will be solemnized at Warrenton, Va., on the 27th of December.

NO LICENSE STOPS WEDDING.

Groom Was Late Also but a Way out of Difficulty Was Found.

Last Wednesday this paper told of an application being made to the Register of Deeds here for a marriage license by a young man who was not twenty-one, and who did not get the license because he did not have his father's consent, and was unable to reach him by telegraph or telephone.

But he has been wedded, though not in Wake. On Wednesday evening in Louisville Miss Maggie Daniels, of Wakefield, and Mr. E. S. Jenkins, of Granville county, were married at 7 o'clock by Rev. E. H. Purnell.

The groom is grumpy, and though he did not secure a license here he hurried at once to Wakefield, where on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock he was to have been wedded. Ten o'clock came but the groom was absent, while bride and friends and preacher were all ready in the handsomely decorated home where an elegant dinner had been prepared.

At eleven o'clock the belated groom arrived, and while all was in readiness and the wedding march was sounding, he told of his failure to get a license in Wake county. The disappointment of all was great, but the bride-elect's father solved the problem.

He suggested that the couple go to Louisville at once and secure the license and if they failed there he would soon expect their return and they would have to postpone their wedding for several months. They never returned, and a telegram from Louisville announced that they had been married and were on their journey to the groom's home, near Henderson.

PARSLEY-McNEILL.

A Charming Young Woman of Fayetteville is Wedded.

Fayetteville, N. C., Nov. 21.—(Special).—The Episcopal church was the scene of a brilliant event last night when Miss Maggie McNeill, the charming daughter of Capt. James D. McNeill, was married to Mr. H. N. Parsley, of Goldsboro.

The church was handsomely decorated and the ceremony was performed by Rev. I. N. Hughes. The bride was given away by her father. The best man was Mr. R. A. Parsley, brother of the groom, and the ushers were Messrs. N. H. McGeachy, James D. McNeill, Jr., A. S. Rose and J. H. Hill, Jr.

A reception was given the bride and groom after the marriage at Capt. McNeill's residence, after which Mr. and Mrs. Parsley left for a visit to New York and other points North.

WHITE-POMEROY.

The Beautiful Wedding That was Celebrated at Graham.

Graham, N. C., Nov. 21.—(Special).—On Tuesday afternoon in the Presbyterian church here Miss Grace Pomeroy, a beautiful young woman, the only daughter of Mrs. James V. Pomeroy, was united in marriage to Mr. J. Harvey White, one of our most progressive young business men.

The church was beautifully decorated in palms, ferns and smilax, while the lights from many candles made brilliant the scene. The wedding music was rendered by Miss Katie Albright, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. E. C. Murray, the pastor, and the bride entered on the arm of her brother, Mr. Jas. V. Pomeroy, preceded by her dame of honor, Mrs. J. V. Pomeroy, Jr., a bride of only a few weeks. She was becomingly gowned in gray crepe de chine, trimmed with real lace and wore a beautiful brooch of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, and carried bride's roses.

The groom's best man was his brother, Mr. Will White, and the ushers were Messrs. Will Holt, of Lexington; L. Banks Williamson, L. B. Williamson and Erwin Holt, of Burlington. As the party entered Mendelssohn's wedding march was rendered, "In the Shade of the Palms," while the ceremony was being performed, and Tannhauser as the party left. After the ceremony there was a reception at the home of the bride. Amid congratulations the young couple left to spend their honeymoon in the East.

Jordan-Wyche.

Henderson, N. C., Nov. 21.—(Special).—Mr. Clarence Adolphus Wyche and Miss Lemme McKenzie Jordan were married in the Presbyterian church at 9 o'clock last night. The Rev. J. H. Hendler officiated.

YOU KNOW WHAT YOU ARE TAKING when you take Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic, because the formula is plainly printed on every bottle showing that it is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. No cure. No pay, 50c.

"The Royal Elastic."

There are other cotton mattresses besides the "Royal"—giving more or less satisfaction—mostly less, because in none of them has the most important feature received proper attention—i. e., that the raw material used in making the filling shall be of the best staple cotton procurable.

In no other way can a felting be obtained that will stand the test of continued use and retain through a lifetime its first elasticity.

In all other cotton mattresses except the Royal, this "keystone" feature has been overlooked.
