

WOMAN: : : AND Society.

What is the real good? I asked in musing mood. Order, said the law court; Knowledge, said the school; Truth, said the wise man; Pleasure, said the fool; Love, said the maiden; Beauty, said the page; Freedom, said the dreamer; Home, said the sage; Fame, said the soldier; Equity, the seer;— Spake my heart full sadly: The answer is not here. Then within my bosom softly this I heard: "Each heart holds the secret; Kindness is the world." —JOHN BOYLE O'REILLY. —Mrs. J. S. Last Wednesday afternoon there was a wedding in Richmond which is of much interest to North Carolinians, for the bride has relatives here and the groom at one time lived in Raleigh. The bride was Miss Annie Laurie Gorman and Mrs. W. A. Slater, of Durham, and the happy groom is Mr. Clarence H. Pratt, of Louisville, Ky., formerly with the Southern Railway offices here. Speaking of the wedding, which took place at the Seventh Street Christian church, the Richmond Times says: "Miss Gorman is one of the most popular young ladies of Manchester, and is a favorite in the social world. Miss Colie Lowell, of this city, was the maid of honor and Mr. George D. Pratt, of Washington, the best man. Miss Gladys Gorman, little niece of the bride, was the ring-bearer. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. Patrick H. Gorman, of New York. Mr. Jesse Pratt, of Washington, and Mr. Henry D. Wilkerson, of Richmond, and Mr. Garfield B. Gorman, of Manchester, were ushers. "Miss Gorman was handsomely gowned in a blue broadcloth suit with a picture hat of blue velvet, and carried a shower of bride's roses. Just before entrance of the bride party, Miss Moselle Gregory sang "On Perfect Love" and during the ceremony "Annie Laurie" was rendered. Mr. Evert Cosby was at the organ. The church was artistically decorated in palms and potted plants with beautiful shaded lamps. The couple left for Washington and will go to Asheville, N. C., where they will be the recipients of a reception by Dr. and Mrs. Gorman. They will be at home after December 1 at No. 1942 Fourth avenue, Louisville, Ky. Kirkman-Burkhead. The following invitation has been received by friends: Captain E. E. Gayle, Artillery Corps, U. S. A., Invites You to Be Present At the Marriage of His Niece, Grace Kearns Burkhead, to First Lieutenant Hugonene Kirkman, Eighth Cavalry, U. S. A., Fort Sill, Oklahoma, On Wednesday, December Third, 1902. Miss Burkhead is the daughter of the late Mr. W. G. Burkhead, of Whiteville, N. C., and is a most beautiful and accomplished young woman. She has a number of relatives in this city. Lieutenant Kirkman is a popular young officer, who volunteered in the War with Spain, served in the Philippines and has since been appointed to his present office in the regular army. The church was artistically decorated with palms and mammoth growing chrysanthemums bearing gorgeous rainbow-tinted blooms. Miss Emma W. Averett presided at the organ, rendering Mendelssohn's wedding March as the bridal party entered the church. The ushers marched up the three aisles in pairs as follows: Messrs. C. A. Lewis and John E. Pinner, of Suffolk, Va.; J. T. Alderman and Col. W. H. S. Burgwyn, of Weldon; J. H. Bridgers and A. C. Zollhoefer. Miss Charlotte Young, of Raleigh, first bridesmaid, and Mr. John Horton, of Petersburg, Va., then entered from opposite aisles. The other bridesmaids entered in pairs, two groomsmen entering from the opposite aisle, and in front of the altar they crossed over and joined their respective partners, passing to the sides of the altar. The bridesmaids' gowns were lovely creations of white organdie. Each carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The gentlemen were in regulation full dress, with pink carnations boutonnières. They were as follows: Mr. John Patterson, of Roanoke Rapids, N. C., and Miss Lila Tucker; Mr. Henry Thorpe, of Rocky Mount, N. C., and Miss Birdie Watson; Dr. Blackwood Pierce, of Roanoke Rapids, and Miss Lois Wright, of Portsmouth, Va.; Mr. Robert Davis, of Petersburg, Va., and Miss Maud Jones, of Farmville, Va.; Mr. Richard Wortham and Miss Margie Urquhart, of Lewiston, Va.; Mr. Wilson Mullen, of Roanoke Rapids, N. C., and Miss Amy Butler. Little Miss Katherine Pinner, fairy-like, in pink silk and lace, was flower girl, and Master Rives Manning, in picturesque costume, bore the wedding ring in a small silver tray. The bride, who was handsomely gowned in white silk tissue, accordin pleated, over white satin, with pearl trimmings, and whose beauty was enhanced by the delicate flowing bridal veil and shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and maiden-hair fern, entered with her maid of honor, Miss Minna Dunlop, of Baltimore, Md. Miss Dunlop wore white silk and lace and carried pink carnations. The groom and his best man, Mr. David Traynham, of South Boston, Va., joined the bride and her maid of honor at the altar. Immediately after the ceremony a handsome reception was tendered at the home of the bride's parents. This was quite an elaborate social function, as over 300 cards of invitation had been issued. To Entertain at Airle. Wilmington, N. C., Nov. 22.—(Special.)—Mr. and Mrs. Pembroke Jones, of New York, arrived yesterday at their handsome country estate, "Airle," on Wrightsville Sound, and are having their winter home placed in readiness for the coming of a party of distinguished New York society folk, whom they will entertain next week. In the party will be Mr. George W. Vanderbilt. Mr. Jones will entertain his gentlemen friends one night next week in an old-fashioned con hunt on the Sound. A pair of fine hounds arrived yesterday from Mr. Vanderbilt's kennel at Biltmore, N. C., and will be used in the hunt. L'Agile Club German. Wilmington, N. C., Nov. 22.—The opening gorm of the season last night by L'Agile Cottillon Club was highly successful in every respect. C.; Miss Zedie Kenly, Baltimore, and Miss Heilig, of Salisbury. NEAVE-BERNHARDT. A Wedding in Which all Salisbury Took a Deep Interest. Salisbury, N. C., Nov. 22.—(Special.)—The marriage of Miss Annie Eliza Neave and Mr. James William Neave in St. Luke's Episcopal church on Wednesday night was a most happy social event. The couple are very popular and the entire community felt a deep interest in the wedding. The church was handsomely decorated and the wedding music was rendered by Miss Hattie Crawford. The wedding pledges were given by Rev. F. J. Murdock. The maid of honor was Miss Annie Neave, and the groom's best man Mr. J. M. McCormick. The ushers were Messrs. E. H. Bean and T. P. Klutz, Jr., James Bernhardt and E. B. Neave, Jr., Barton Craig and Lin Bernhardt. The bride entered on the arm of her father, by whom she was given away. She was handsomely gowned in white satin, with chiffon and lace trimmings, and carried a large cluster of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. A delightful wedding reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Bernhardt, where the splendid wedding gifts were admired. The happy couple have gone North on a bridal tour. Mrs. Neave is a most charming and lovely woman. Mr. Neave is one of our most popular young men, active in business and superintendent of the city water works. Green-Holt Bridal Reception. Burlington, N. C., Nov. 22.—(Special.)—The handsome home of Mr. and Mrs. James N. Williamson was a scene of beauty tonight, where a most brilliant reception was tendered the bridal party which is to take part in the marriage of Miss Daisy Holt and Mr. Walter Guerry Green, of Charlotte, on Tuesday. There were about sixty guests present and the evening was one of rare delight. Miss Daisy Holt is one of Alamance's most charming daughters, and this before wedding reception is but a precursor of the brilliant events of next week. The menu of the supper was a most delightful one, and was prepared and served under the personal supervision of Dughi, Raleigh's celebrated caterer, who excelled himself. The menu consisted of Lynn Haven Bay oysters, served in block of ice, decorated with flowers; chicken patties, beaten biscuit and saltines, Roman punch frozen, champagne wafers, celery and almond salads served in req apples, ice cream and cakes, both in wedding bell and heart shapes, bonbons, salted almonds, olives and coffee. A BRILLIANT SOCIAL EVENT. The Approaching Marriage of Miss Daisy Holt and Mr. Walter Guerry Green. Burlington, N. C., Nov. 22.—(Special.)—The social event of next week in all this section is the marriage of Miss Daisy Holt, of this place, to Mr. Walter Guerry Green, of Charlotte, S. C. The wedding will take place at the home of the bride on Tuesday afternoon at half-past three o'clock, and will be one of the most brilliant events that has ever taken place in Burlington. There will be present many of the State's most prominent people and the reception after the wedding will be one of extraordinary moment. Miss Daisy Holt is one of Alamance's most lovely and charming daughters. She is a member of one of the oldest and most distinguished families of the any poor sick woman, even though she live outside the city limits, may get the benefit of it. It is a very worthy charity and the forthcoming Musicales should be largely patronized, and doubtless it will be. A Floral Party. Rocky Mount, N. C., Nov. 22.—(Special.)—Miss Pearle Taylor entertained at a delightful floral party on Friday evening the entire house was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns and cut flowers and brilliantly lighted with various colored electric lights. The evening was spent in music, dancing and a "Floral Wedding," after which an elegant collation was served. Among those present were: Misses Annie Davis, Helene Battle, Claude Bassett, Lucy Lyon, Mary Ricks, Ina Winstead, Fanny Talleferro, Florence Chalk, Rosa Winstead and Messrs. Willingham, Hamilton, Bob Davis, Lee Station, Turner Winn, Rob. Cooper, Harry Abram, George Wilkinson, Baldy Thorpe, Will Avera. The Carolina Club gives its Thanksgiving german at Gayety Hall on next Friday evening. This is the club's opening dance, and the members are endeavoring to make it the event of the season. Great Organ in Charlotte. Charlotte, N. C., Nov. 22.—(Special.)—An organ recital, which will probably be one of the greatest musical treats of the year here, will be given next week at the Presbyterian Woman's College, in this city. Work was completed today, installing in the spacious auditorium what is said to be the largest organ in the South. It is the organ which received such favorable comment at the Charleston Exposition, where it was admired by thousands. President Bridgers and his faculty will entertain the friends of the college at this recital. Beautiful China Wedding. Mount Airy, N. C., Nov. 22.—(Special.)—The celebration of the 20th anniversary of the marriage of Mr. Edgar H. Wrenn and Miss Dora Patterson on Saturday evening was one of the most elegant and enjoyable social events of the season. The hospitable home wore its brightest aspect. The hall was decorated with rhododendron and clematis, the parlor in ferns and potted plants with white cut flowers, the sitting-room in galax and laurel, the dining room in clematis and white and yellow chrysanthemums. In the hall Mr. John E. Albright bade the guests cordial welcome, while Mr. and Mrs. George O. Graves stood at the upper landing and directed to the reception rooms. Mrs. D. D. Shelton greeted the guests at the parlor door and ushered them to the receiving party. Mr. and Mrs. Wrenn stood amid a gathering of lovely white flowers and received the warm congratulations and good wishes of their friends. Mrs. Wrenn handsomely attired and wearing orange blossoms, in her freshness and beauty, looked more the blushing bride of a day than of twenty years. While Father Time had not altogether so gently dealt with Mr. Wrenn, he stood erect and in health, gladder and younger than we have seen him in the half of twenty years. The orange blossoms Mrs. Wrenn wore were cut from a tree which had been given Mr. and Mrs. Wrenn by Mr. Wrenn's mother on their wedding day. Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Galloway assisted in receiving in the parlor, while in the sitting room Miss Kate Smith and Mrs. Ursula Simliff, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Trotter dispensed delicious fruit-ade. At nine o'clock the guests were invited into the dining room where dinner was served in five courses. Mrs. D. D. Shelton and Mrs. R. J. Galloway showing the honors of direction. The table was inviting in a wealth of yellow light from variously colored candles, pyramids of fruits and flowers and quaint and beautiful china. Delightful music rendered by a string band concealed from sight, added to the enjoyment. The presents were many and beautiful and came from friends everywhere. The souvenirs were delicate china pin trays, hand painted, and bore the following: "1882-1902, November 16th." The Book Club Entertained. Louisburg, N. C., Nov. 22.—(Special.)—Mr. H. E. Biggs, of Raleigh, very delightfully entertained the Book Club at the Hotel Camp one afternoon this week. There was a full attendance of the members and Mr. Biggs proved himself a delightful host. The "spread for the occasion was sumptuous. THE WYCHE-JORDAN WEDDING A BRILLIANT SOCIAL EVENT. At the Presbyterian Church in Henderson a Popular Young Couple are Wedded. Henderson, N. C., Nov. 22.—(Special.)—One of the most brilliant marriages that has taken place in Henderson for years was celebrated at the Presbyterian church at 9 o'clock Thursday night, the Rev. J. H. Henderlite officiating, in the presence of a great throng of friends. The contracting parties were Mr. Clarence Adolphus Wyche, of Roanoke Rapids, and Miss Lemme McKenzie Jordan, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thaddeus R. Manning, and one of Henderson's most beautiful and accomplished young women. The church was artistically decorated with palms and mammoth growing chrysanthemums bearing gorgeous rainbow-tinted blooms. Miss Emma W. Averett presided at the organ, rendering Mendelssohn's wedding March as the bridal party entered the church. The ushers marched up the three aisles in pairs as follows: Messrs. C. A. Miss Daisy Holt is one of Alamance's most lovely and charming daughters. She is a member of one of the oldest and most distinguished families of the State, one of its most popular young ladies and has those grand traits that so make womanhood noble. She is a general favorite with all who know her, and a leader in social circles. Mr. Green, the fortunate groom-elect, is a prominent citizen of Charlotte, S. C., and he is to be congratulated upon his success in winning the hand of a favorite daughter of Alamance. Mr. and Mrs. Green will reside in Charlotte, S. C. A ROMANTIC MARRIAGE. Two Former Residents of Connelly Springs, This State, Elope and Wed. (Special to News and Observer.) Knoxville, Tenn., Nov. 22.—A romantic marriage was consummated here tonight in which Miss Arbury Webb, the beautiful 18-year-old daughter of Zebulon Vance Webb, after evading her father's wishes, was united in wedlock to J. P. Setzer, now of Rayville, Louisiana. Rev. M. W. Egerton, of the First Baptist church, performed the ceremony at the home of F. E. Thralls, a wealthy contractor of Knoxville, by whom Setzer was employed. Setzer and his bride are both natives of Connelly Springs, N. C., but five years ago Setzer went to Louisiana. Later the Webbs moved to Townsend, Blount county, where a large farm was bought. Setzer went to Blount county to execute a contract for his employer, and the meeting awakened the old love, which tonight resulted in marriage. The couple tonight for the home of A. G. Setzer at Connelly Springs tonight on their honeymoon. Capt Faison Visiting His Old Home. (Duplin Journal.) Capt. S. L. Faison, of the U. S. Army, is at home visiting his family and friends. He is now stationed at Angel's Island, near San Francisco, where he has been since his return from the Philippines four months ago, where he was in active service for the last three years. Although he thinks the Philippine climate very rough yet he looks as well as usual and talks most interestingly of the people, the country and of his campaign. He had several very narrow escapes and thinks that had the Filipinos been as good shots as the Boers he as well as many American soldiers would have been on the other side of Jordan. Captain Faison saw and talked with Aguinaldo several times whom he thinks quite an insignificant character and simply a chance leader of his people who did not show any special military genius. He will have a vacation of three months, when he will return to California. Educational Campaign in Harnett. Prof. J. R. Baggett, of Buie's Creek Academy, who was in Raleigh yesterday, says that the Teachers' Campaign Association of Harnett county, is prosecuting an earnest educational campaign. They are using their chief endeavors to interest the people in the rural districts in education, so that they will send their children to school. On Saturday of last week in Hector's Creek township, Baptist Grove, to a large audience. After the speaking, the people by a rising vote passed resolutions pledging themselves to educate their children. Prof. Baggett says the educational spirit in Harnett is full of encouragement and hope. Yesterday another meeting was held at Angier. The speakers were Representative W. A. Stewart and Prof. J. P. Canady, principal of Benson High school. It is the plan of the organization to hold a meeting every Saturday in some township until every neighborhood in Harnett county is reached. Just Middlin'. Gittin' close Thanksgiving, Ef you axed him on that day, Ef he wuzn't feelin' thankful, He'd auzn't sigh, an' say:—"Jes middlin'!" The fields jest white with cotton, The meadows heaped with hay, He had the same old answer, When you passed the time o' day:—"Jes middlin'!" An' when it come to leavin' Of this world, the preacher said: "How's the prospect over yonder?" An' he sighed an' shook his head:—"Jes middlin'!" —F. L. STANTON. Trust the Children. Trust the children. Never doubt them, Build a wall of love about them; After sowing seeds of duty, Trust them for the flowers of beauty, Trust the children just as He did Who for "such" once sweetly pleaded, Trust and guide, but never doubt them, Build a wall of love about them. —New York Ledger. The sunshine of thine eyes, (O still, celestial beam!) Whatever it touches it fills With the life of its lambent gleam, The sunshine of thine eyes, O let it fall on me! Though I be but a mote of the air, I could turn to gold for thee. —George Parsons Lathrop. FOR Asthma use CHE-NEY'S EXPECTORANT.

At the hour of 1 p. m. on Dec. 15th, 1902, I will sell to the highest bidder for cash, six lots in the town of Wake Forest. Three of these are on main business street, not far from depot, adjoining each other and each containing seven-eighths (7/8) of an acre. All lie well. One lot of one-fourth (1/4) of an acre, with a two room tenement house, on east side of railroad. One lot on west side of railroad, containing one acre; very level. One lot in western part of town, containing one and five-eighths acres, (1 5/8) with tenement house. Place of sale, near W. C. Brewer & Co.'s store. At the same time and place I will sell to the highest bidder, on easy terms, to be made known on day of sale, four hundred and forty-four (444) acres of farm lands divided as follows: One farm of 165 acres near the town of Wake Forest, a small portion in the corporation, known as the Abernathy tract. Lies well, has clay subsoil, easily made rich and easily kept so. Two convenient houses. One farm in Wake Forest township, one and one-half miles southeast of Wyatt's Station of R. G. R. R., containing one hundred and one (101) acres. Lies well, easily cultivated and productive. Fine tobacco land. Known as Brick House Tract No. 1. Brick House Tract No. 2 joins No. 1, and contains one hundred and seventy-eight (178) acres. It lies between No. 1 and Wyatt's station, and is on the north bank of Neuse River. Soil gray loam, very productive and lies well. Excellent for tobacco. Extra fine grass pasture on Smith's Creek. Brick dwelling from which it takes its name. Fine fruit orchard. For plots and information call on or write to F. M. Purdy, agent for Legatees of Mrs. E. E. Johnson, deceased. Wake Forest, N. C., November 19, 1902. 11-23-3t sun.
