THE WEATHER TO-DAY.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity to 8 p. m.: Tuesday, rain.
Local data for Raleigh: Maximum temperature, 68; minimum temperature, 40; mean temperature, 54; rainfall, 0.

IN AND ABOUT THE CITY.

The newly elected city clerk, Mr. W. W. Willson, will take charge on the first of next month.

The mail boxes about the city are all to be repainted in a few days. A new card telling of the hour of collecting the mail will be placed on them.

On Wednesday afternoon the members of the Capital Club will enjoy a barbecue and Brunswick stew, invitations to the members having been issued by Mr. W. H. Broughton.

Commissioner of Agriculture S. L. Patterson, who spent Sunday in Salem with Mrs. Patterson, was here yesterday on his way to Elizabeth City to attend a meeting of farmers.

A new and improved set of books for the State Treasurer's office, just arranged by Captain Moody, of the department have been received and will be put in use at an early date.

A letter received from Mr. William S. Worrell, who is now on the transport Sheridan, which travels between San Francisco and Manila, says that in a few months he will receive his card as chief engineer. This is gratifying to his friends.

Mr. Hasten Poe, agent of the Southern Express Company here, who has been visiting various portions of the State, has returned. His health is much improved and with thirteen pounds more weight expects to resume his duties in about two weeks.

Among the attorneys in attendance on the Supreme Court, which is hearing appeals from the Fourteenth District this week are Judge A. C. Avery, of Morganton; Messrs. Locke Craig, A. S. Barnard and R. S. McCall, of Asheville, and W. Zachary, of Marshall.

The bull snake, lately captured under the stand used by an "Eat 'Em Alive" showman during Fair week on Fayetteville street, is still alive, and Curator Brimley has him as a pet in a room at the museum. His snakehood is fond of rats and goes for them with rapidity.
