Trains Leave Raleigh Daily

Table with 2 columns: Going North, Going South, Going East, Going West. Lists train times for various routes.

THE WEATHER TO-DAY.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity to 8 p. m.: Rain early Wednesday, followed by clearing weather; cooler.

IN AND ABOUT THE CITY.

Rev. C. H. Williamson qualified yesterday as administrator for J. H. Townsend, deceased.

Mr. W. M. Butler has moved his residence from Boylan avenue to the corner of Jones and McDowell streets.

Mayor Powell yesterday fined two white men, J. D. Boyle and Thomas Lodgey $4.25 each for engaging in an affray on the streets.

Sportsmen report squirrels as being more plentiful this season than for several years. Birds are said to be rather scarce.

Mr. E. P. Maynard, referee in the Knights of Honor cases, began the hearing of testimony yesterday. It will probably be concluded today.

Superintendent of Public Instruction James Y. Joyner speaks today at the school in Mangum township, Durham, as a part of the N. C. Day exercises.

Rev. W. J. Crowson and family, of Elizabeth City, come to Raleigh today to make it their home. Mr. Crowson will be book-keeper in the Raleigh Hosiery Mills.

Mr. M. A. Moser, who has the contract for building the hospital at Washington, N. C., went there yesterday. He says the building will cost about $100,000, and will be a very creditable structure.

St. Augustine will play a game of football with Kittrell College on St. Augustine's grounds tomorrow (Thanksgiving Day) at 3:30 p. m. This is the first contest between these two colleges.

Rev. W. D. Hubbard will preach a special sermon to the Red Men of the city next Sunday morning. The Red Men will march from the hall in a body to the church. They meet at the hall at ten o'clock.

Sanitary Inspector Sale fears that he will have to warrant a large number for failing to pay the sanitary license tax. It is long past due and the city ordinance imposes a fine of $25 on those who fail to pay.

Justice-elect Platt D. Walker and G. T. Bason, of Charlotte; J. T. Perkins, J. T. Avery and S. J. Ervin, of Morganton; E. J. Justice and J. L. C. Bird, of Marion, and Sullivan Gallert, of Rutherfordton, arrived yesterday to attend Supreme court.

Nine convicts were added to the number in the State Prison yesterday. All were negroes, and they were brought here by Sheriff Wooten, of Lenoir; Sheriff Bond, of Bertie, and Deputy Sheriff Overman, of Pasquotank. Sheriff Wooten had six in charge.

A deed of trust was filed yesterday in the register of deeds' office by A. J. Honeycutt, of Neuse, conveying all his property to his creditors, and naming E. S. Dunn as assignee. The amount of liabilities is not mentioned, nor the creditors' names.

Dr. B. F. Dixon, the State Auditor, left yesterday morning for Elizabeth City, where he will speak today. North Carolina Day. In addition to the exercises for the day, the Junior Order of American Mechanics will present a flag to the graded school.

Rev. Tokio Kugimiyu, of Hiroshima, Japan, a student of Trinity College, Durham, was in Raleigh yesterday on his way to Durham from Monroe, where he attended the Western Methodist Conference, and made an address. After this year Mr. Kugimiyu will return to Japan and enter upon his work as a missionary among his own people.

Col. F. A. Olds, chairman of the Museum Committee of the State Literary and Historical Society, yesterday commenced placing exhibits in the Hall of History, a handsome room on the second floor of the State Museum, at the west end. It is the purpose of the society to illustrate all the periods of the State's history, thus making a true Hall of History.

Anway's Croup Syrup is pleasant to give baby; cures coughs, colds and croup. Guaranteed. The only remedy made for babies' coughs exclusively. Don't risk the ordinary cough cures; they are dangerous to give baby. Hicks sell Anway's.

Greensboro, N. C., Nov. 25.—The Southern Railway has decided to again put on No. 29, the 7:43 p. m. passenger train going South, which was discontinued November 2nd. The restoration occurs December 1st.

WHILE THE SHORT HAND of the clock travels twice around the dial Perry Davis' Painkiller will cure a cold; will ease the tightness across the chest and hence will banish the fear of pneumonia. "Just a little cold" does not become a misery that clings until roses bloom if you have recourse to this never-failing help. There is but one Painkiller, Perry Davis'.
