IN AND ABOUT THE CITY.

The Harbinger, Raleigh's labor organ, has enlarged to a six-column folio. It was formerly five-columns.

The work of cleaning up the Hall of Representatives and the Senate Chamber for the approaching session of the Legislature is progressing rapidly.

Rev. Dr. W. H. Moore, presiding elder of this district, was in the city yesterday. He will continue to reside in Pittsboro for some time and Rev. Dr. J. T. Gibbs, now presiding elder of the Durham district, will reside here for some time.

Col. George L. Morton, of Wilmington, Representative-elect from New Hanover county, was in the city yesterday. Col. Morton is a candidate for the Speakership of the House and thinks his chances very bright for the place.

The ordinance of baptism will be administered at the Tabernacle Baptist church tonight and all those who have joined the church and have not been baptized are requested to present themselves for baptism.

Rev. Elias Gregory, the Armenian missionary, who came to this city a few days ago for the purpose of collecting funds for the Caidian church in Turkey, left yesterday morning for Durham.

Judge Funnell yesterday heard the bankruptcy case of Mitchell and Hoyt from Washington which came up for final hearing. He referred it to Victor H. Boyden, Esq., as Special Master, to state the accounts which the referee had failed to do.

The Capital Club will give an "Old Year Out and New Year In" reception and dance on the night of December 31st to the members of the club and their immediate families. The reception will last from nine until twelve o'clock.

In a letter written by Mr. C. C. Jordan, formerly of this city, now of New Bern, he tells of a great hunt in Craven county with some friends. The three days out the party killed five deer, three fine turkeys and over 80 birds. The second hunt resulted in bagging 127 ducks, 7 geese and one deer. Mr. Jordan says that on this trip he killed the largest doe ever killed in that county.
