IN AND ABOUT THE CITY.

New Year's day passed off very quietly in Raleigh.

The trains have another late spell on, and all trains are now marked up late.

Many new trees are to be set out on Nash square. The holes have been dug.

The holidays are over and the business of the new year has begun in earnest.

Solicitor Armistead Jones, of this district, was sworn in yesterday by Clerk of the Court Russ.

A special sermon was preached by Rev. R. S. Stephenson Wednesday night at the West Raleigh Baptist church.

Jones & Powell have received a car of coal that was shipped from the Kanawha district, W. Va., November 28th.

The Register of Deeds has made a had start for the new year. Not a single marriage license was issued yesterday—the first of the year.

Wake Forest students are passing through Raleigh every day on their return from their homes, where they have been to spend the holidays.

The Red Men's voting contest is now on in earnest. Hon. Jas. H. Pou is still in the lead as the most popular candidate for the United States Senate.

Work is going on in erecting the lamps, lately removed from the base of the Confederate monument in Capitol Square, on the walk approaching the Governor's Mansion.

The many friends of Mr. J. B. Batchelor will regret to know that he is quite feeble and is confined to his home. He has moved his law library from his office to his residence.

Two preachers from Asia Minor came to Raleigh yesterday and began soliciting in this city. They claim they have been grossly persecuted at home by the Kurds and have testimonials from Washington.

Business Changes.

With the New Year their have come a number of changes in the business circles of Raleigh.

The clothing firm of S. & D. Berwanger is announced as about to dissolve. Mr. D. Berwanger, who is now touring in Europe, will retire on the first of March. The firm is a well known one and has been in existence for eleven years. Mr. Sam Berwanger has not yet announced the personnel of the new firm, which will continue at the present location.

Mr. Virgil O. Parker, brother of Mr. C. J. Parker, becomes book-keeper for the real estate firm of J. M. Broughton & Company, succeeding Mr. Victor Moore, who has resigned his position.

At the Academy.

Commencing next Monday night, for a week's engagement, the arris Parkinson Big Stock Company, headed by the young Southern romantic actor, Robt. H. Harris, will open at the Academy of Music in a big scenic production of the late New York success, "Lost In Egypt," a play abounding in sensational climaxes and full of up-to-date specialties. The company comes to Raleigh with the recommendations of the press and public at every place they have appeared.

On Monday night ladies are admitted free provided they are accompanied by a gentleman holding a paid 30 cent ticket, purchased before 6 p. m. Monday. Seats go on sale Friday morning at 9 a. m., at Bobbitt-Wynne Drug Company.

—THIS STORE BEGINS ITS—

Big Inventory Sale!

THURSDAY MORNING, JANUARY 1st.

WHAT THIS SALE MEANS TO YOU.

In the first place it means money saving. Such money saving as is impossible at any other time or season of the year. There's a plain business reason for it. Soon after the close of this sale we take our annual inventory. It is imperative that the stock should be at its lowest ebb. It is also necessary that this stock reduction should be made in the shortest possible time. Now, as there is nothing in this world that will reduce stock quicker than reduced prices, we have made these reductions. Every department has been gone through, and such liberal price concessions made that you cannot fail to be impressed with the importance of this event.

As this store is progressive, its aim this time is to put in the shade all previous records. With your co-operation, we shall accomplish our object.

Sweeping Price Reductions in Dress Goods.

If you've a dress goods need or liable to have a dress goods need in the near future we would strongly advise you to take advantage of this chance. Ten pieces of 4-4 Knickerbocker Wool Skirtings and Camels Hair Suitings in the newest mixtures and colorings, reduced from 50c to 37 1-2c per yard.

Price Cutting in the Garment Room.

If you've an outer garment or suit to buy, now is the time to buy it. Profits in many instances completely wiped out. Elderdown Sacques and Ladies' House Wrappers of Soft Flannelettes, were 75, 98c., $1.25 and $1.50, marked down to 60, 75c., $1.00 and $1.25. The Sale in the Women's Furnishing Section.

Silk, wool and heavy cotton waists. These stocks must be reduced before inventory. You'll find prices here that will do it. Silk Waists—black and all colors—reduced from $4.00, $5.00, $6.00 and $7.50 to $3.00, $3.75, $4.50 and $5.62. Wool Waists in new winter shades, few blacks, worth $1.25, $1.50, $2.00 and $3.75, reduced to 98c., $1.12, $1.50 and $2.89. Heavy Cotton Flannel Waists, regular price, 50c., for this sale 39c.

Half Price and Under.

A Chance at Warm Winter Underwear.

And such a chance as you can ill afford to slight. Buy underwear during this sale and you save money. Ladies' All-Wool Ribbed Underwear and Partly Wool out on the bargain counter at just half price. Were 75c., $1.00 and $1.50—now 38c., 50c. and 75c. Men's Fine Camels Hair and Australian Wool and Cotton Underwear at less than half prices. Values: 29, $1.00 and $2.00 to go for 15, 49 and 98c.

Prints, Gingham and Wash Goods.

Printed and cotton fabrics of all kinds go into this sale at lower prices than like goods can be bought for at any other time. Pay you to be among the first. 1 case 36-inch Percales, standard spring styles, worth 12 1/2c.—now 10c. 1 case Percales, fall and winter styles, regular price 10c.—now to go at 7 1/2c. 1 case Eclipse Flannelettes, 12 1/2c. values—to close 8 1-3c. 1 case Panno Velvet Flannels, sold for 15c.—now 8 1/2c.
