Holiday Party at Morehead City.
Morehead City, N. C., Jan. 3.—(Special.)—One of the most enjoyable features of the holidays at the summer capital by the sea was the party given by Miss Eva M. Hardesty at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Arendell, Tuesday evening, December 30th. The young people began to arrive at seven o'clock and at half past ten Miss Hardesty, assisted by Miss Bettie Davis had each of her guests draw a slip of paper on which was written the name of some hero or heroine of a work of fiction. Those who were unfortunate enough did not succeed in drawing a character to match one previously drawn were compelled to take their refreshments alone with the laughter of the others.

Among those present were: Messrs. Cecil Arthur, Daniel Bell, Ben Royall, Duffy Wade, J. O. Wallace, Jr., R. Swindell, Chas. Webb, Harry Webb, Paul Webb, R. T. Willis, J. B. Davis and J. T. Willis. Misses: Lillie Webb, Bettie Davis, Lillie Willis, Maggie Stryon, Adelaide Willis, Eula Stryon, Alberta Mann and Eudora Wallace.

The Knights Banquet.
1.—THE KNIGHTS' CONV. nr. pp. B1 Di Asheville, N. C., Jan. 3.—(Special.)—The annual K. of P. banquet was held last night at the Central Hotel. There were about thirty couples present, although it was a cold and rainy evening. Music and games added to the pleasure of the guests until supper was announced. Never did knights of old lead to festivities a finer crowd of ladies than those present last night. Knights and wives and knights and sweethearts joined in making merry. The lodge here is in a fine condition.

At Baptist Female University.
Prof. Walter G. Sackett, of the University faculty will lecture in the chapel of the Baptist Female University on Monday night at 7:30. His subject will be "The Weather Bureau." The public invited.

Delightful Christmas Dances.
Wilmington, N. C., Jan. 3.—(Special.)—A series of delightful Christmas dances that has marked the holidays in Wilmington this season came to a close last night with two brilliant germanias of an impromptu nature. The first was in Germania Hall and was given by Miss Cammie Lord in compliment to her night class in dancing and a number of young men who are at home from college for the holidays. It was led by Mr. H. G. Smallbones, Jr., and about forty couples participated. The second was in the Masonic Temple ball-room and was led by Mr. Geo. P. James, assisted by Messrs. Charles Elliot and Mr. Clayton Giles, Jr.

Gardener-Doughty.
Hamilton, N. C., Jan. 2.—On Wednesday, Dec. 31st, Charles E. Gardener, of Grifton, a young man prominent in railroad circles, led to Hymen's altar, one of Hamilton's most talented young ladies, Miss Mary Harvey Doughty. The nuptial rites were celebrated in the Baptist church, which was decorated for the occasion by the ladies of the town.

As the beautiful strains of Mendelssohn's march pealed through the church the ushers came slowly down the aisles followed by four beautiful little girls each of whom had a gallant escort. Behind these came the contracting parties. As they halted under the arch the Rev. Mr. Rose, of Plymouth, implored the divine blessings upon the young people now entering into the most sacred ties known to our race.

Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom left among many congratulations and well wishes for Tampa, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Gardener will make their future home in Grifton, N. C.

Complimentary Dances.
Scotland Neck, N. C., Jan. 1.—(Special.)—A most delightful dance was given in this place last Monday night, complimentary to the young ladies of the town and their charming visitors. Music was furnished by the Italian band of Wilson. The german was gracefully led by Mr. Will Fenner and Miss Anna Baker, of Tarboro.

Girl Typesetters.
A few months ago the Reflector engaged two young ladies to learn type setting and the experiment has been a very satisfactory one. They find it agreeable work, and we are so well pleased with them as to decide to engage one more.—Greenville Reflector.

A Brilliant Reception at High Point.
High Point, N. C., Jan. 2.—(Special.)—The crowning social event of the season was the annual reception and dance of the Chattawka Club Wednesday evening, December 31st. Though scarcely a year old the thirteen members would have done honor to a club many years its senior. The beautiful club rooms—card room, reading room and ball room, were artistically decorated in Chattawka colors—old gold and purple, with a bright blending of holly and mistletoe.

The orchestra from Washington rendered continuous music suited to the various features of the evening.

At ten-thirty o'clock refreshments were served.

At eleven-thirty the sound of the german whistle intensified the pleasure of those who followed Mr. Albion Mills and Miss Constance Charles, the graceful leaders. The figures were many and beautiful, particularly the one forming the letter "C." (for Chattawka.)

Just as the old year merged into the new, a scene of chivalric beauty was presented as the following members with the grace of the knights of old transferred their handsome and elaborate rosettes to the ladies as follows: Mr. Albion Mills to Miss Constance Charles, Mr. Howard Paylor to Miss Elma Shipplet, of Richmond, Va.; Mr. Ward Eshelman to Miss Rhett Leach, Mr. Ed. Mills to Miss Lillian Hastings, Mr. C. A. Ring to Miss Lambeth, of Thomasville, N. C.; Mr. Ray Newby to Miss Edna McCrary, of Lexington, N. C.; Mr. R. J. Fale to Miss Anna Kirkman, Mr. L. H. Cartland to Miss Clara Kirkman, Mr. H. E. Field to Miss Sara Webster, Mr. C. M. Crawford to Miss Lizzie Gurley, Mr. Bascom Haskins to Miss Stella Scroggs, of Greensboro, N. C.

The midnight hour was a thing of the past long before the festivities ended and the occasion will long be remembered by the guests and the members of the Chattawka Club.

Social Events at Reidsville.
Reidsville, N. C., an. 3.—(Special.)—Miss Maude Cobb gave a Euchre Party at her home on Main street last night in honor of Miss Ellen Underwood, of Fayetteville, who is a guest of Miss Kate Haigh. Those who enjoyed Miss Cobb's hospitality at this delightful function were: Miss Susie Gordon, of New Orleans, and Mr. C. A. Penn, Miss Kate Haigh, Mr. John Boyd, Miss Underwood, Mr. R. L. Watt, Miss Pearl Penn, Mr. Staples Fuller, of New York; Miss Mary Balsly, Mr. Harrison Penn, Miss Anita Penn, and Mr. Will Pannell.

Miss Pearl Penn won the ladies' prize, a pretty powder box and puff, and to Mr. John Boyd was awarded the gentlemen's prize, a pair of cuff buttons.

The Thursday Afternoon Euchre Club met with Misses Pearl and Anita Penn yesterday afternoon. The first prize, a lovely white fan, was won by Miss Bessie Withers and Miss Ellen Underwood received the second prize, a pretty cut glass vase. The booty, a German mug, was given to Mrs. James Webb.

A Sacred Concert.
Statesville, N. C., Jan. 3.—(Special.)—The sacred concert at the First Methodist church last night was very much enjoyed by the large crowd present. About $40 was realized for the organ fund. It was under the management of Mrs. J. C. Duke. The male quartette and the singing of Mrs. Wm. Wallace were especially good.

The holiday season is over and the marriages during those days were too numerous to mention.

Masquerad at Asheville.
Asheboro, N. C., an. 3.—(Special.)—One of the most delightful entertainments of the season was given last night by Misses Agnes and Edith Moring. The young people were out in full force and immediately after arriving at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Moring, the ladies were ushered into one room and the gentlemen into another, where they donned the masquerade costumes prepared for the occasion. The party was then led into the large and beautifully decorated reception halls and parlors to engage in the festivities of the evening. After much promenading, skipping and talking each person raised his mask to disclose his identity. The result was most interesting as it was shown how completely some were mistaken in the person of their partners.

Partners were again formed according to numbers given, then began an interesting observation and guessing contest. Next came a description of the dress of each young lady, written by her escort. These descriptions were read aloud by Mr. Sidney Robins, when each person was entitled to guess the party described.

Refreshments of several courses were then served by the hostess to the delight of the guests.

The vocal solos by Mrs. Moring, Misses May McAllister and Nannie Bulla and Miss Anderson were well selected and charmingly rendered. The instrumental solos by Miss Blanche Wood could not have been excelled. Everyone present declared the entertainment a great success and went away rejoicing over the good time given.

Apex Comedy Company.
Apex, N. C., Jan. 3.—(Special.)—The Apex Comedy Company successfully presented Miss Plutcher's entertainment and Miss Priscilla's engagement to a good audience at the Academy last Thursday night. The proceeds go to the Apex Baptist church.

Thomas-Prince.
Friends have received this invitation: "Mr. and Mrs. William G. Thomas request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Ethel Masie, to Mr. Robert Early Prince, Wednesday afternoon, January fourteenth, nineteen hundred and three, three o'clock, Central Methodist church, Raleigh, North Carolina."

Complimentary to Dr. Ruffin.
Wilson, N. C., Jan. 3.—(Special.)—Dr. Sterling Ruffin, formerly of this city, now one of the first physicians of Washington city, is visiting his father here. Last night Dr. and Mrs. Albert Anderson gave a dinner in his honor. The guests were: Hon. H. G. Connor, Hon. F. A. Woodard and Dr. Dickenson, W. S. Anderson. The occasion was a most pleasant one.

Beautiful Wedding at Tomahawk.
The Wilmington Messenger, says that at the elegant home of Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Murphy, at Tomahawk, at noon Thursday, their daughter, Miss Charlotte Pearl, was married to Mr. Robert Herring Wright. The Rev. R. M. Mann, of Clinton officiated.

The attendants were Miss Florence Alderman Murphy, sister of the bride, maid of honor; Dr. John B. Wright, of Granite Falls, brother of the groom, best man; Miss Penelope Bryan Wright of Lenoir, and Dr. W. B. Murphy, Jr., of Richmond, Va., bridesmaid and groomsmen.

The near relatives and a few friends of both parties were present. Those from a distance were Misses Florence Alderman, Em West, Eva and Sallie Murphy and Messrs. Wright and Paul Murphy of Wilmington, D. C., Mr. and Mrs. Thos. J. Murphy, of Greensboro; Messrs. Fred B. Johnson, John Lamb and Thos. L. Wright, Esq., of Clinton; Miss Eliza Murphy, of Atkinson, and Messrs. Robert Herring, of Mississippi, and Isaac Wright, of Chapel Hill.

The wedding march was beautifully rendered by Miss Mary Wright, of Coharie, sister of the groom.

A delicious luncheon was served from one until three o'clock, after which the bride and groom left on the evening train for Baltimore their future home.

The bride is one of the most popular and accomplished young ladies in eastern North Carolina, and the groom is an eminently worthy young North Carolinian and well known in his profession. He now occupies the chair of history in the Baltimore city college.

The presents were numerous and handsome, attesting the high esteem in which the happy couple are held by their host of friends.

Mr. Cutler and Miss Hanks Wed at New Bern.
New Bern, N. C., Jan. 2.—(Special.)—One of the most beautiful and impressive weddings that have occurred in this city for many months, took place Wednesday evening at the Centenary Methodist church, when Mr. Lycurgus H. Cutler, and Miss Sadie Hanks were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was witnessed by a large number of relatives and friends of both contracting parties.

The church was beautifully decorated with plants and climbing vines. The pulpit alcove being entirely filled with verdure and lighted with candles.

The strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march announced the arrival of the bride party. The family of the bride and groom proceeding them by a few minutes. The party was led to the altar by the ushers, Messrs. A. H. Bangert and Alex Justice; George Henderson, Jr., and Mark Stevenson, Jr. The maid of honor, Miss Brownie Hanks, and the bride leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. Hanks, who gave her away. They were met at the altar by the bridegroom and the best man, Mr. Lillie Tolson.

Rev. R. F. Bumpas officiated in the ceremony which was that generally used in weddings of the Episcopal Methodist church.

The bride and groom left on the steamer Neuse and will visit northern cities and return to New Bern to make their home.

NEW YEAR AT WELDON.
Weldon, N. C., Jan. 3.—(Special.)—On New Year's afternoon, at their home on Elm Street, Mrs. William Alexander Pierce and Miss Annie Pierce entertained a number of friends from 4 to 6 in honor of their guests, Miss Mary Allyn Watkins, of Virginia, Miss Margaret Hadley, of Wilson, and Miss Summerell. The hall and drawing room were bright in Christmas colors. In the beginning of the afternoon the time was delightfully passed in the progressive game of Black Beauty, in which Miss Watkins won the prize—a dainty ring-stand of hand-painted china.

Later the guests were ushered into the dining room and here was the perfection of taste. The arrangements of crimson and green was displayed in delightful harmony, the glow of crimson tapers in cut glass candelabra lending a charming effect to the wealth of silver and cut glass.

In the serving of the courses was a most attractive following of the thought of the afternoon, that of crimson and green.

Those present were: Misses Watkins, Hadley, Summerell, Kean, of Lynchburg; Cohen, Travis, Garrett, McIlchampe, Edwards, Zollicoff, Stainback, Laura and Della Weller.

In the evening, from 9 to 11, they received their gentlemen friends: Messrs. W. M. Cohen, R. T. Daniel, C. G. Evans, Jones, of Fayetteville; J. L. Patterson, Drs. McKeethan and Pierce, of Roanoke Rapids.

On Friday evening Miss Pierce and her guests were entertained at dinner by Drs. McKeethan and Pierce and Mr. John L. Patterson at their bachelor apartments at Roanoke Rapids.
