THE WEATHER TO-DAY.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity to 8 p. m.: Unsettled weather, probably light rain or snow flurries.

IN AND ABOUT THE CITY.

Peace Institute will open again today after having had two weeks for the holidays. Mr. R. B. Rancy has presented to the Hall of History a collection of autographs of Confederate officers and Secretary of State Grimes has given another of State Confederate officers.

Mr. Fabius H. Busbee, of Raleigh, counsel for the Southern Railroad, has taken his son, Mr. Phillip Busbee, a graduate of the State University and licensed last year to practice law, in as a partner.

Next Thursday evening in the lecture room of the First Baptist church a public reception will be tendered to Rev. Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Tyree. All the members of the church and Sunday School, their friends and people of Raleigh are invited to attend.

Mr. Joseph D. Boushall left yesterday for Hartford, Conn., headquarters of the Aetna Life Insurance Company, of which Mr. Boushall is manager for North Carolina. Mr. Boushall reports the last year as the best insurance year on record.

E. A. Johnson, colored, assistant to District Attorney Skinner, has received a letter from President Roosevelt, thanking the colored people of Raleigh for the resolution of endorsement passed at the emancipation celebration last Thursday.

Among the conveniences arranged for members of the Legislature a long distance telephone booth will be placed in the capitol today by the Bell Telephone Company. The booth will be situated on the Senate Chamber floor and convenient to both branches of the Legislature.

W. H. Heck of Raleigh, who is now with the General Educational Board and recently transferred to New York City, has been promoted, and in the place of President Nicholas Murray Butler, Mr. Heck has supervision and direction of the entire work.

Prof. M. C. S. Noble was in the city yesterday on his way to the University, returning from Wilmington, where he has been visiting since his treatment in Rex Hospital. Prof. Noble is improving and speaks in the highest terms of the attention shown him in the hospital here.

The State office of the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company was yesterday moved from Raleigh to Winston. Mr. J. J. Rogers is State agent, and he has associated with him Mr. S. J. Hinesdale, hence Mr. Hinesdale's headquarters will now be Winston. His friends regret his departure from Raleigh, but as he will be on the road they hope much of his time will be spent here.

INVENTORY SALE AND CLEAN SWEEP SALE!

TWO BIG SALES IN ONE!

To last just one week. Closes on next Saturday night. Be sure you get your share. Some of the best things are selling for half price and less. You know the danger of waiting too long. The best always go first. The palm is to her who acts quickly. Not near enough to satisfy the demand sure to follow when the sale becomes generally noised about. Plenty to please and gratify all that heed this fair warning. Don't blame us if you come too late; pay you to be among the first.

The sweeping price reductions, Price-cutting in the Garment Room, the sale in the Woman's Furnishing Section, the half price Millinery, the outing flannels for Wrappers, Waists and Kimonos, a chance at the warm winter Woolen Underwear, the special half-price sale of Gent's Furnishings, the Notion end of the sale, the Down Quilts and Elkin Blankets on special sale, are all worthy of the careful consideration of the economic buyer that wishes to make a dollar do double duty.

Tables loaded down all over the store with goods marked at half price. Some a little more, some a little less; and thus the Clean Sweep Sale goes on. The inventory commences immediately after this sale. What others wait until spring to do, we do now. There is good merchandising sense in giving you this buying benefit. This is a sale never to be forgotten.

On Tables left aisle front half price cards beckon you where the prices all lean your way.

THE ANNUAL SALE OF WHITE COTTONS

COMES WITH THE NEW YEAR

Greater, broader, better, more complete in variety—most potent in its power of price saving. In fact a whole year stronger than its predecessors comes Boylan, Pearce & Co's sale of White Cottons for 1903. Less than ever in price comes these White Cottons, because we have placed our orders for larger quantities than heretofore. This stock is complete in all its details. The best styles selected from home and foreign manufacturers. These are the pick from the first looms, made of combed yarns, void of flaws and imperfections and are far superior in every respect to similar goods manufactured later while the rush is on. The entire line is now ready for inspection. Remember many novelties will not be duplicated.

TO OUR FRIENDS AND PATRONS:

We have served you for eleven years or more honestly, faithfully. Our word has been our bond. Every Garment that has left our store had to be as represented. This holds good today, tomorrow and every day that we breathe the breath of life.

ONE THIRD OFF ON ALL CLOTHING.

When we say "One-third Off" of all Clothing it means a SLAUGHTER, for most of the Clothing is of the choicest Creation, of this season, New Stylish, and in every way up to the "Berwanger Standard," and marked at a figure lower than the same goods could be bought elsewhere. And from these low figures take one-third Off and you will get the greatest bargains of your lives. Not an article remarked, everything marked as for original sale, and from this you now get One-Third Off.

Suits and Overcoats.

THE LATEST, THE NEWEST

Table with 2 columns: Price (e.g., $10, $12, $15) and Now (e.g., $6.56, $8.00, $10.00).

Boys' Suits and Overcoats go at one-third of regular prices. Won't they fly out? One-quarter off on all Furnishings and Hats. Everything every Garment, every article must be sold. The opportunity of a lifetime. Come at once before it is too late. NOTICE—All parties indebted to this firm will please settle. All bills due to others will be paid on presentation. Positively no goods charged or sent out on approval. All mail orders must be accompanied by the cash in order to receive attention.
