

BISHOP HANDY SAYS

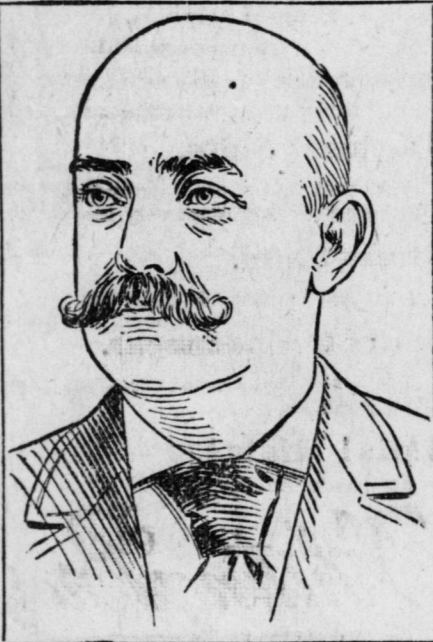

"I take great pleasure in acknowledging the curative effects of Peruna. At the solicitation of a friend I used your remedy and cheerfully recommend your Peruna to all who want a good tonic and a safe cure for catarrh."—JAMES A. HANDY.

Prominent members of the clergy are giving Peruna their unqualified endorsement. These men find Peruna especially adapted to preserve them from catarrh of the vocal organs which has always been the bane of public speakers, and general catarrhal debility incident to the sedentary life of the clergyman. Among the recent utterances of noted clergymen on the curative virtues of Peruna is the above one from Bishop James A. Handy, D. D., of Baltimore.

OTHER NOTABLE CURES.

A Husband Escaped the Pangs of Catarrh of the Lungs.

Most Cases of Incipient Consumption are Catarrh.

Edward Stevens.

Mrs. Edward Stevens of Carthage, N. Y., writes as follows:

"I now take pleasure in notifying you that my husband has entirely recovered from catarrh. He is a well man today, thanks to you and Peruna. He took six bottles of your medicine as directed, and it proved to be just the thing for him. His appetite is good and every thing he eats seems to agree with him. His cough has left him and he is gaining in flesh, and seems to be well every way."—MRS. EDWARD STEVENS.

Any internal remedy that will cure catarrh in one location will cure it in any other location. This is why Peruna has become so justly famous in the cure of catarrhal diseases. It cures catarrh wherever located. Its cures remain. Peruna does not palliate; it cures.

Mrs. Frederick Williams, President of the South Side Ladies' Aid Society of Chicago, Ill., writes the following words of praise for Peruna from 973 Cuyler avenue, Chicago, Ill.:

"My home is never without Peruna, for I have found during the past six years that there is no remedy that will at once alleviate suffering and actually cure, as Peruna does. Four bottles completely cured me of catarrh of the head of several years' standing, and if my husband feels badly, or either of us catch cold, we at once take Peruna, and in a day or two it has thrown the sickness out of the system."—Mrs. Frederick Williams.

Mrs. W. A. Allison, of 750 Sheffield avenue, Chicago, Ill., is the Assistant Matron of the People's Hospital. She has the following to say about Peruna:

"I have had frequent opportunities to observe the wonderful curative effects of Peruna especially on persons suffering with a congested condition of the head, lungs, and stomach, generally called catarrh. It alleviates pain and soreness, increases the appetite and so tones up the entire system that the patient quickly regains strength and health."—Mrs. W. A. Allison.

Mrs. W. A. Allison.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

FIRE INTO A CAR

A Bullet out of Darkness at West Durham.

Daniel Horton Fined One Hundred Dollars and all Cos's for Assaulting Sergeant W. G. Crabtree.

(Special to News and Observer.) Durham, N. C., Jan. 7.—At a late hour last night a street car was fired into near West Durham, the ball passing immediately over the heads of two passengers and narrowly missing others who were on the car. Broken glass was scattered over the two passengers nearest the window, through which the ball came.

The shot was from the direction of a negro locality and a police officer, who was in that section heard a shot in that direction. The car was immediately stopped and every effort made to ascertain and apprehend the man who did the act. This was without success.

Since starting the cars a few rocks have been thrown through the windows, but this is the first time that one has been shot into.

In the Superior court room this afternoon Daniel Horton, the young white man who assaulted Sergeant W. G. Crabtree with knucks, was fined $100 and all costs in the case.

There were two charges against Horton, one for secret assault and the other for carrying a concealed weapon. The grand jury failed to find a true bill for secret assault, and then a second bill was sent, charging assault with a deadly weapon. Pleas of guilty were entered in both cases. Quite a number of speeches were made by the counsel in the case, for and against the defendant, and it was after 2 o'clock this afternoon when sentence was passed.

The case has been the talk of the town since the assault was made on Christmas night, and even now there is a great division of sentiment as to what should have been done.

HOTEL KEEPERS CONVENTION.

They Want Laws Enacted to Protect Them Against Dead Beats.

(Special to News and Observer.) Southern Pines, N. C., Jan. 7.—A hotel men's convention, to which all the hotel men of North Carolina have been invited, will meet at the Carolina Hotel, Pinehurst, Tuesday, January 20th. The hotel men want laws enacted which will protect them from dead beats. They also propose to compare prices on fuel, lights, ice, water, etc., and other matters which are to their mutual advantage.

New Laws Needed

To the Editor: A law is needed requiring all government distilleries to be operated in incorporated towns or cities, where they can be under strict police control. Operated as they now are in remote county places, the law is constantly violated and all kinds of crime is the result.

2. A law should be enacted forbidding Town or County Commissioners, or city aldermen from issuing license to sell intoxicating liquors, unless the petition is signed by a majority of the voters of the town, ward or community where a saloon is proposed to be opened.

3. A law should be passed forbidding drug stores from being converted into fog-shops in communities where prohibition is established by law. Some druggists have shamefully abused their privilege of selling liquors strictly for medicinal purposes.

4. A strict law should be enacted, restricting doctors in giving prescriptions to nearly all persons who want to buy liquors. Thousands of people will pretend to be sick to get liquor, and doctors know they are not sick. I do not say that all doctors will violate the law, but many have done it. They should not be allowed to give prescriptions for more than is really needed for medical purposes. A person should be allowed to continue to buy all the liquor he wants under one prescription. Everybody called Doctor ought not to be allowed to give prescriptions.

5. A law should be passed allowing any town or community to establish a dispensary, or prohibition, whenever a majority of the voters call for it.

6. A law should be passed requiring every county to make better public roads. This is an absolute necessity. There can never be any real prosperity without it. Money should be provided for this purpose, either by direct taxation, or the issuing of bonds. The legislators that do this may be unpopular for a while, but when people realize the benefit of good roads, then such law makers will be popular.

The stock law was very unpopular at first, but is only needed a few years to make it the most popular and beneficial law the State ever had.

J. A. STRADLEY, Oxford, N. C.

Is This Religious Persecution?

(Statesville Landmark.) Messrs. Bishop and Saunders, two Seventh Day Adventist preachers, are "up against it" at Rock Cut, about nine miles west of Statesville.

About three months ago a band of Seventh Day Adventists located at Rock Cut and have since been holding services under canvas. They are preparing to erect a school house and church at that place. Several Sundays ago two of the men engaged in carpenter work on their new buildings. Thereupon Mr. R. J. Plot complained to Squire J. A. Ingram that the men were guilty of breaking the Sabbath. A warrant was issued for the Adventists and was served last Saturday by Sheriff Summers. The Adventists were given a hearing before Squire Ingram yesterday. The result of the trial has not yet been learned here.

As is generally known, the Seventh Day Adventist holds and teaches that the seventh and not the first day of the week is the true Sabbath. He therefore observes Saturday for Sunday and Sunday as a secular day.

THE NEW TOWN OF LINDLEY.

Is to be Established in Moore and Named for Mr. J. Van Lindley.

(Special to News and Observer.)

Southern Pines, N. C., Jan. 7.—Mr. H. M. Holleman, of Boston, who is interested in the new town of Lakeview, near Vass, and which is located about six or seven miles from Southern Pines, was here for a day or two this week, and talked with your correspondent concerning the developments of the new town of Lindley, one mile west of the town, which takes its name from J. Van Lindley of the Van Lindley Orchard near Vass.

His said that if the land owners adjacent to the Lakeview town do not cooperate with Mr. Holleman's plans looking to the development of the proposed new town, Mr. Holleman has many other places offering special inducements, and will develop elsewhere if he does not secure the hearty co-operation of those near the land he has on hand.

Gen. Carr for Senator.

To the Editor: The Senatorial candidates will have pitched their camps in Raleigh and are lining up their forces for the final battle to be fought out in Democratic caucuses. All kinds of estimates have been made, none of which has any particular value. It is generally thought that on the first ballot Overman or atson will lead, Carr will be third, Craig fourth and so on. By the third ballot the caucus will get down to business. All the complimentary votes will have been cast and the casting about for the best man to unite on will begin. It will not be necessary to go outside of the seven or eight avowed candidates to fix upon this man. As long as there is any sort of a chance of making a selection from among the declared candidates a dark horse will not be considered, as the general sentiment is in favor of giving the prize to some one who has made the entire race. Conservative public opinion indicates General Carr as the winner. Overman and Watson will develop their full strength on the first two ballots, which will still leave them far short of the goal.

When the friends of these gentlemen realize that they will not be nominated, who will they look to? There is but one logical, ethical candidate and that is General Carr. His claims as a representative North Carolinian of national prominence will appear. His claims as a Civil War veteran will appear. His claims as a friend in need to his fellow comrades will appear. His innumerable benefactions to worthy institutions and individuals—to public and private charities—will appear. His munificent and long continued contributions to his party's needful expenses will appear. His public spirit and State pride will appear. His constructive record as a self-made man of business will appear. His broad, cultured, progressive, statesmanlike ideas will appear. The fact will also appear that in return for the unstinted aid he has lent the party, he has been promised time and again by its leaders anything within its gift he wanted. And the further fact will appear that if the Democracy would purge itself of ingratitude it will not again turn down its benefactor for the only thing he has asked at its hands. This is but the barest statement of some of the claims upon which General Carr's candidacy rests. And they are claims that no Democratic legislator, having at heart the well-being of his party, can decline to consider.

We have already in the Senate a man of commanding conspicuous ability as a lawyer and politician. We need as his colleague a man of equally commanding ability in business—a man of affairs and activities—a captain of industry who will be the fitting exponent of our industrial progress and aspirations at this era. Every formidable candidate in this fight is a lawyer and a politician and more or less a replication of Senator Simmons, with the single exception of General Carr.

Why not take a business man this time? The representatives of the people cannot with impunity ignore his claims. He has not sulked in his tent on account of his defeat at a time when his candidacy was inopportune, because it was no reflection upon his party standing or popular strength. Although his friends feel that the party would have been doubly benefited had he ever asked of it, he has questioned the right of no candidate to appear against him. On the contrary, he is the friend of every man who stands opposed to him. If no one of the other candidates finds that his legitimate strength is sufficient to secure his nomination and that a compromise candidate must be agreed upon, why not take General Carr?

His selection will mean general satisfaction and not heart burnings, party unification and not disruption. It will mean recognition and requital for his splendid generosity to his party. It will mean that the Democratic party is ruled by a majority as well as by a machine. But if he wantonly repudiated and humiliated this time then 50,000 Democrats, who in 1901, resisted an enormous pressure and supported General Carr in the most adverse, disadvantageous and unequal contest in which a man was ever involved, will ask the reason why.

C. A. MATTHEWS, Charlotte, N. C., Jan. 7.

Hand was Bidly Cut.

(Special to News and Observer.)

Hamlet, N. C., Jan. 7.—Mathew Johnson, colored, an employe of the Hamlet Lumber Company, got his hand badly cut by a hand-saw this afternoon. While operating the machine he accidentally touched the saw with his hand. His little finger was entirely severed.

CAUTION.

This is not a gentle word—but when you think how liable you are not to purchase for the only remedy universally known and a remedy that has had the largest sale of any medicine in the world since 1868 for the cure and treatment of Consumption and Throat and Lung troubles without losing its great popularity all these years, you will be thankful we called your attention to Boschee's German Syrup. There are so many ordinary cough remedies made by druggists and others that are cheap and good for light colds, perhaps, but for severe Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup—and especially Consumption, where there is difficult expectoration and coughing during the nights and mornings, there is nothing like German Syrup. Sold by all druggists in the civilized world.

STATE NEWS.

The Presbyterians will shortly begin the erection of a new church at Troy upon a lot given by Mr. J. C. Bruton, a liberal Methodist of that town.

A bold robbery was committed in the very heart of the city last night. Some thief or thieves entered the store of the Rowan Hardware Company, gaining entrance through a rear window.—Salsbury Sun.

A private letter received here from Washington says that Senator Pritchard is considerably improved in condition, but that it cannot be stated when he will be able to leave his room. Very few know, but it is said on excellent authority to be a fact, that a week ago yesterday Senator Pritchard's condition after the operation was so serious that he was hardly expected to live.—Asheville Citizen.

News of the death of Mr. H. Cedum Parks at Asheville Sunday night, of smallpox, was received in Statesville yesterday and came as a shock to his friends and relatives here. Mr. Parks was the only living son of Capt. J. M. Parks, of Statesville, and was about 25 years old. He had held positions with the railroad since he was a very young man and for the past seven or eight years was an engineer between Asheville and Columbia.—Statesville Landmark.

To Investigate Rockingham Oil

(Special to News and Observer.)

Reidsville, N. C., Jan. 7.—Mr. H. E. Vaudervert, of Jameville, has written to Postmaster Wray here and asked him to skim the top from a vessel of water from the supposed oil regions in this county and mail it to him in a vial. He says he will examine it and if there is a sign of oil he will come and investigate the matter. Mr. Vaudervert claims that he has had years of experience in prospecting for oil and could easily tell if there is oil in this county after examining sample of water or looking over the ground. Mr. Wray will send a sample to him, and it is hoped the investigation will prove to be profitable.

SLOW-HEALING SORES

Slow healing sores are unsightly, painful and dangerous. They are a constant care and source of anxiety and worry. Chronic, slow healing sores are frequently the after effects of some long debilitating sickness that leaves the constitution weakened and the blood in a polluted, run down condition, when a scratch, cut, simple boil or bruise, becomes a fearful looking ulcer that grows and spreads, eating deeper and deeper into the flesh in spite of everything that can be done to check its progress. Old people whose blood is below the standard and the circulation sluggish, are often tormented with face sores, and indolent, sickly looking ulcers upon the limbs that give them hardly a moment's rest from pain and worry.

Ordinary sores: Purify the Blood are liable to become chronic He! U! Sore, when the blood is too weak to throw off the germs and poisons, and no amount of external treatment will heal them, but they continue to grow worse and worse, and many times terminate in that most horrible of all human maladies, Cancer.

S. S. S. cures slow healing sores by purifying and invigorating the germladen, vitiated blood and purging the system of all corrupt matter, thus striking at the real cause and removing every hindrance to a rapid cure, and this is the only possible way to reach these deeply rooted, dangerous places. S. S. S. strengthens and tones up the circulation, and supplies rich, nutritious blood for the rebuilding of the constitution and healing the sore, when you get rid of the old plague spot for all time.

If you have a slow healing, stubborn sore, write us about it, and our Physicians will advise you without charge.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that application will be made to the next General Assembly for the passage of an act granting a charter to the Raleigh, Wilson and Eastern Railroad Company.

R. A. NUNN, This 18th day of December, 1902.

There's nothing so bad for a cough as coughing! There's nothing so good for a cough as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral! A cough means a great deal to a young person, when there is a family history of weak lungs, with perhaps a case of consumption itself. Coughs weaken the tissues, congest the membranes, and prevent healing. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral controls the congestion and inflammation, and the cough disappears. Your doctor will explain, for we give all doctors the formula.
