

ADDOCKS TRIES TO STAVE OFF ACTION

Vest's Free Coal Resolution Goes Over.

A VERY SPICY DISCUSSION

The House Passes a Resolution Authorizing the Merchant Marine and Fisheries Committee to Investigate the Coal Situation.

(By the Associated Press.)

Washington, Jan. 12.—A lively debate was precipitated in the Senate today participated in by Messrs. Aldrich, Vest and Carmack, when the former endeavored to secure a postponement of the Vest resolution requiring the Committee on Finance to prepare and report a bill removing the duty on coal.

Mr. Vest called attention to the action of the Legislature of Rhode Island, January 8, unannouncedly voting for the removal of the duty on coal.

Mr. Vest again reverted to what he called his "unfortunate reference to Mr. Dingley" which had been so vigorously resented and sent to the desk and had read a letter from Congressman Fleming of Georgia, enclosing one from former Representative King of Utah, detailing a conversation he had with Mr. Dingley at the time the Dingley bill was under consideration in Congress in which he is said to have apprehended changes in the bill, which were necessary to obtain foreign markets for American goods and that the trend of Mr. Dingley's mind was in that direction.

Mr. Carmack, of Tennessee, charged that reciprocity has been "strangled" by protection. "It has been murdered in cold blood by protection," he said. The beneficiaries of the protected manufactures and the protected trusts, he said, have appropriated to themselves every particle of the tariff duties provided in the Dingley act.

Mr. Aldrich said the remarks of the Senator from Missouri and the Senator from Tennessee only confirmed his former statement that the resolution was for no other purpose than to discuss questions outside the coal question. The resolution went over.

Mr. Nelson continued his remarks in opposition to the Omnibus stavehold bill and had not concluded at 4 o'clock, when the Senate took up unobjectioned pension bills on the calendar, at large number of which were passed.

Proceedings in the House.

(By the Associated Press.)

Washington, D. C., Jan. 12.—The House today after adopting a resolution to authorize the Merchant Marine and Fisheries Committee to investigate the coal situation at once adjourned out of respect to the memory of the late Representative Tongue, of Oregon, who died in this city yesterday.

The committee was directed to make such investigation and report the testimony, with their conclusions thereon, as soon as possible and the committee is given power to send for persons and papers to administer oaths, etc., and incur such expenses as may be deemed necessary.

TO REMOVE DUTY ON COAL.

Congress Expected to Pass a Bill Within a Few Days.

(By the Associated Press.)

Washington, Jan. 12.—It is expected that Congress will pass a bill removing the duty of 67 cents a ton on coal imported into this country. This bill may take the form of a rebate or drawback for ninety days, and also will provide for reciprocity, admitting free of duty coal imported into this country from countries granting the same privilege to the United States.

It will be taken up in the Senate very soon, and the intention is to have it pass without much delay. A number of Republicans heretofore have been opposed to changing the duty on coal, said they would not oppose the bill provided it did not open up the whole tariff question and afford an opportunity to offer innumerable amendments.

MRS. J. A. DUNN FOUND

Cruelly and Inhumanly Treated. Sought Refuge at Arlington Hotel.

(Special to the News and Observer.) Charlotte, N. C., Jan. 10.—Mrs. J. A. Dunn, the wife of ex-Constable Dunn, of Charlotte, who mysteriously disappeared Friday, was found yesterday. She never has left Charlotte. She says she was cruelly and inhumanly treated, her home was unbearable, so she went to the Arlington Hotel, told her story to Mr. A. A. Springs, the proprietor of the Arlington. Mr. Springs told her that she might stay at the hotel as long as she wished.

Later, upon the advice of her physician, and after making her husband promise not to offer her any violence, she agreed to return home. It is a pitiful case, and one that excites the sympathy of the whole people.

WORK A SUIT OF TOBACCO

Cunning scheme of Smuggler—Police in Charge of the Finland.

(By the Associated Press.)

New York, Jan. 10.—Customs officials tonight arrested Jacob Von Sternberg charged with smuggling tobacco, and a search was made of the Red Star steamship Finland, lying in the North River. Von Sternberg, who is employed on the vessel, was found to be wrapped with tobacco, which was cleverly concealed under his clothing.

Several months ago the customs inspectors, unearched a plot to bring Sumatra tobacco from Antwerp into the United States without the payment of duty. Two seizures of considerable proportions resulted. Tonight inspectors Hooley, Angler and Nevins saw Von Sternberg leave the Finland, and noticing that he was of peculiar shape, halted and searched him. They found many thin bundles of tobacco under his clothing. The vessel was then searched, and while the officers were at work the crew of the Finland made a raid on the dynamo room for the purpose of shutting off the electric lights. The chief engineer and the customs house inspectors drew their revolvers and drove the men back. The inspectors then sought the police assistance and completed their search. They did not succeed, however, in finding any more tobacco. Six customs and police officers are now in charge of the vessel.

(By the Associated Press.)

He was a signer of the ordinance of secession, a captain of cavalry, under Hampton in the Army of Northern Virginia in the war between the States, and one of the leaders in the Constitutional Convention of 1865. As soon as white men gained control of the State he was elected a Justice of the Supreme Court and in 1879 was elected Chief Justice, which office he held at the time of his death. He was assiduous in his duties and he himself wrote ten more opinions than any other Judge who ever sat in any court in this country, not excepting Chief Justices or the Associate Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States.

Crazed by Pain, He Leaps and Dies.

(By the Associated Press.)

New York, Jan. 10.—Crazed by the pain attending his illness of typhoid fever, Thomas A. O'Donohue, treasurer of the O'Donohue Coffee Company, sprang from the window of his room on the seventh floor of the Ormond House, landing on the sidewalk. He died ten minutes later. The sick man was attended by a trained nurse, whom he had sent from the room by a ruse. The attendant reappeared just as Mr. O'Donohue was about to take the plunge, and sprang toward him, but was too late to prevent it. Mr. O'Donohue was 39 years of age and a millionaire.

IT IS A CRIME, AN INFAMY.

The Judge's Charge to the Special Grand Jury.

(By the Associated Press.)

Chicago, Jan. 10.—The prompt action of States Attorney Chas. S. Deneen upon information furnished him by the special committee appointed by the Illinois Manufacturers Association resulted in the convening today of a special grand jury to inquire into the causes for the high prices demanded for coal in Chicago.

Judge McEwen's charge was brief and confined largely to the defining of the duties of the jurors. "It is not necessary to indulge in any language," he said after reading to them the State Attorney's petition, "to impress upon you or upon any fair-minded person the crime and infamy of such a situation as is here set forth. Your duties with regard to the investigation are set forth in the oath you have taken."

The jury then retired to enter upon its investigation.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Jan. 10.—The following message was sent today to United States Senator Joseph Quarles by Mayor Rose:

"The people of our city are confronted by a coal famine and are working great hardships. We are endeavoring to arrange to purchase coal in Canada. The tax is 67 1/2 cents per ton. Is it not possible to secure the immediate passage of a resolution through Congress at least suspending the collection of the duty on hard coal, putting it on the free list. If we can get the resolution in it will work immediate benefit."

Boys thinking of going into the service can find all the information they desire in these papers. Boys between 15 and 17 years old having a desire for this life are unable to influence their parents to allow them to go on inducement by bringing them up to read these papers. The papers tell all about the training of the apprentice and there are many interesting letters from apprentices and also from the chaplain of the station.
