

PEOPLE'S RIGHTS VERSUS SOUTH R. R. GREED

Durham Will Send Large Delegation for Fuller Bill.

WILL BE HEARD AT 3 P. M.

The Durham People are United and Determined in Their Purpose to Secure a Decent Union Passenger Depot.

This afternoon at three o'clock, in the rooms of the Corporation Commission, the bill of Representative Fuller, of Durham, to give the Corporation Commission authority to secure the erection of a union depot at towns where there are two or three railroads, will come up for final disposition before the Committee on Railroads and Railroad Commission.

On last Friday a delegation from Durham, composed of Messrs. W. A. Guthrie, V. S. Bryant, J. C. Biggs, H. A. Foushee, W. A. Slater, J. D. Pridgen, W. T. Carrington and Albert Kramer appeared before the committee in behalf of the bill. Mr. Henry W. Miller, of the Southern Railway, appeared against it in an argument, and Mr. F. H. Busbee, attorney of the Southern, who opposed the bill, made no argument. Nobody opposes the bill except the Southern Railway which wishes to punish Durham because it will not give the Southern a monopoly at Durham.

Speaking of the importance of this matter, Judge R. W. Winston, president of the Durham Chamber of Commerce, is quoted by the Durham Morning Herald as saying: "I expect that court will adjourn on Thursday next so as to give the bar an opportunity to attend this meeting in Raleigh. Durham as never more in earnest in her life. The union depot is just in front of us. All we need to do is to make our wishes known and to speak out in loud tone. There are a dozen towns in North Carolina in the same fix with Durham as to depot matters. We do not believe that the Southern railway will or can longer resist our just demands; but if we make no effort the opportunity is lost."

"Later on, when the Fuller bill comes before the Senate committee all the stores in Durham will be asked to close," said Judge Winston, "and the whole town will constitute itself a committee of the whole to exercise the fundamental right of petitioning our peers for a redress of grievances."

The Durham press is unanimous in favor of the bill. The Durham Sun has written several strong and vigorous editorials in favor of it. In Saturday's paper it said: "In speaking of our union depot the Raleigh News and Observer says: 'The cause of Durham is the cause of all.' Then you spoke a proverb. It is the cause of all who come and go from this city."

"Our friends over the State can rest assured that if there is any way to prevent the Southern patching up its shack of a depot it will be done. It has reached that point where neither side misses an opportunity of getting in a lick."

"We do not blame the Southern Railroad from fighting back. It makes it more interesting."

"The Southern has perhaps forgotten the years and years when it did not even have so much as a platform or shed for the accommodation of its passengers at this town."

"We may not get what we want but the Southern will have to do this town good and hard before we cry quits."

"We still contend that the ownership of Peabody street has nothing to do with it. If this belongs to the Southern the courts will give it to her."

BABY BURNED TO DEATH

Robert E. Lee Memorial Services Held in New Bern.

(Special to News and Observer.) New Bern, N. C., Jan. 19.—Robert E. Lee memorial services were celebrated this afternoon, at the Graded school building under the auspices of the Daughters of the Confederacy. The Veterans of the Confederacy met at the corner of South Front and Middle streets under the command of Capt. K. R. Jones, and marched to Memorial hall, where they joined the children of the Confederacy to participate in the following exercises:

First, prayer by Rev. R. F. Bumpas; reading selection of the life of General Robert E. Lee, Mrs. O. H. Guion; song, "Tenting Tonight," poem, "Sword," Robert E. Lee, Mrs. J. T. Hollister; benediction, Rev. Mr. Bumpas. The services were attended by a concourse of people.

This afternoon an alarm of fire was sounded from box 52, in the extreme end of the city, the fire department responded promptly and the flames were subdued by gallant work of the noble firemen. Upon a report that a child was in the house, several firemen made their way through the flames to rescue the child, which they did, but too late to save its life. The child was one year old, the son of Hattie Harvey, and was burned to a crisp. A coroner's jury was summoned and found from the evidence that it was accidental burning. The six-year-old child and the one year old child were the only occupants of the house. The six-year-old child struck a match on the wall setting fire to the paper, which caused the catastrophe.

A SMOOTH SWINDLER ABROAD.

This Fellow Works a Mail Box Racket on Unsuspecting Housekeepers.

(Special to News and Observer.)

Greensboro, N. C., Jan. 19.—It developed here today that an uncommonly slick swindler operated in the Western part of town Saturday. He visited private houses and represented to the lady of the house that the postoffice department required each house served by carrier to provide a mail receiving box. He paid each house two visits, one in the morning and one in the afternoon. At the morning visit he left circulars purporting to give sections from the Postal Laws and Regulations requiring the mail boxes to be put up. On the second trip he presented a receipt for payment of five years' rental and took in exchange fifty cents from those persons who permitted themselves to be swindled.

One lady, shrewder than the rest, caught on to his racket and phoned for a policeman. But when the policeman arrived the mail box agent had decamped. He had inquired the distance to Salisbury, and it is thought possible that he went there. The name at the foot of the receipt, which he gives, is W. B. Hackett, president. The supposed concern of which Hackett is the supposed president, is given as the United States Standard Letter Box and Supply Company, headquarters at Boston. The agent is described as being young, stout, light complexion, and well dressed in a light suit of clothes.

REV HENRY WINGATE DEAD

Former Rector of Grace Episcopal Church, Plymouth.

(Special to the News and Observer.)

Plymouth, N. C., Jan. 19.—Rev. Henry Wingate, formerly rector of Grace Episcopal church here, passed peacefully away at his home in this town yesterday morning just as the bells were tolling for the morning service.

Mr. Wingate had been suffering for about two years with that dread disease, consumption, and last summer he went to Greensboro for treatment under a specialist there, but gradually growing weaker and realizing that he could not live long he expressed a wish to be brought home to die.

He was brought here from Greensboro last Sunday. The remains were carried to Grace church yesterday afternoon, the vestry acting as pall-bearers. The interment was at 3 o'clock this afternoon in the church yard, the funeral service being conducted by Rev. Nathaniel Harding, of Washington, assisted by Rev. N. C. Hughes, of Chesapeake.

FOR THE LONDON BILL.

An Enthusiastic Union Meeting of Several Churches at Goldsboro.

To the Editor: Last night at St. Paul's Methodist church, an enthusiastic union meeting of several churches was held in the interest of the London Bill, and almost the entire audience expressed endorsement of the bill.

I have been at several points in Wayne county, and found a gratifyingly strong sentiment in its favor, and feel safe in saying that the majority of the best people of the county, in fact a majority of all the people, desire its passage. F. D. SWINDELL, President Wayne County Anti-Saloon League, Goldsboro, N. C., Jan. 19, 1903.

Burglary at Cary.

While the occupants of Mr. Vance Johnson's house were attending the exercises being held there, a burglar entered the house, and forced open a trunk, and secured nothing of value, as he was interrupted and scared off before he had time to secure anything. The miscreant was tracked by a bloodhound for awhile, but finally the dog lost the trail.

The Seaboard Air Line Railway will sell round trip tickets to Raleigh from all points in North Carolina at rates based on tariff No. 2, which is about 11-3 fare for the round trip, tickets to be sold Jan. 25th to 22nd inclusive, with final limit Jan. 24th, 1903.

Indigestion Causes Catarrh of the Stomach.

For many years it has been supposed that Catarrh of the Stomach caused indigestion and dyspepsia, but the truth is exactly the opposite. Indigestion causes catarrh. Repeated attacks of indigestion inflame the mucous membranes lining the stomach and cause the nerves of the stomach, thus causing the glands to secrete mucus instead of the juices of natural digestion. This is called Catarrh of the Stomach.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

relieves all inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the stomach, protects the nerves, and cures bad breath, sour risings, a sense of fullness after eating, indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles.

CAR LOADS OF COAL SEIZED.

A Mob of 200 Men, Women, Boys and Girls Depart Loaded.

(By the Associated Press.)

Toledo, Ohio, Jan. 17.—A mob, including over 200 men, women, boys and girls today seized five carloads of soft coal, which had just arrived in the Wheeling and Lake Erie Railroad yards, consigned to the National Malleable Casting Company and local oil men. There was no attempt to stop the wholesale theft, neither the police nor the officials of the railway or castings company taking a hand in the affair. The fuel was carried off in wagons, sleighs, soap boxes, buckets and baskets and nothing but the slack was left in any car.

The Campbell Investigation

(By the Associated Press.)

Richmond, Va., Jan. 17.—The most sensational feature of the Campbell investigation today was a line of questions designed by the prosecution to discover if there was anything improper in the appointment of Judge Wood to preside at the trial of Judge Campbell. It was attempted to show that the latter had agreed to support Judge Wood for the Circuit bench, a short while before the trial began. Judge Wood denied that that was the case, saying he had sought the support of Judge Campbell, but had received no definite answer. He protested that no feeling of gratitude influenced him one jot in his attitude at the trial in Anaherst.

On other points, such as the jury, the order in court and so on, Judge Wood was examined most minutely. This afternoon the inquiry was adjourned until Thursday next, when the prosecution is expected to introduce a number of witnesses in addition to those who have already testified.
