(By the Associated Press.) NEW YORK, JAN. 28.-(WEDNES-DAY.)-AT 1:40 THIS MORNING IT IS KNOWN THAT THERE ARE TWEN-TY-FOUR DEAD IN THE RAILROAD WRECK AT GRACELAND, N. J. SIX-TEEN CHARRED BODIES HAVE NOW BEEN TAKEN OUT. EIGHT DEAD WERE EITHER RECOVERED BEFORE THE FIRE OR DIED AFTER BEING TAKEN OUT OF THE WRECK.

New York, Jan. 27 .- One of the most appalling railroad wrecks that has occurred in the vicinity of New York for many years, the estimated loss of life ranging from twelve to thirty persons, took place tonight at Graceland, on the Central Railway, near Westfield, when the Royal Blue Line express ploughed at top speed into the rear of a local

Immediately after the crash, three shattered cars of the local train took fire, rendering impossible the rescue of many of the wounded, who were pinned fast in the wreck. Many bodies are believed to have been consumed.

Shortly after receiving orders the train had to stop for a hot box which delayed it so that when she got under way again she was due at Dunellen. She had just started and was moving slowly when the Royal Blue, travelling apparently at full speed, which at that the original packing decision of the Supoint usually approximated sixty-five The heavy engine of the Royal Blue tore jurisdiction of such States. hours. Passengers on the flyer say the engineer applied the brakes hard a minute or so before the wreck. The train ahead had sent a flagman back, but it seems that he was recalled when the train got under way, and although he left torredoes, the Royal Blue did not heed them or else was going too fast to stop in the short distance remaining. The man who went back to flag the train had just swung into the rear end of his train and is among the dead. The engine and the three worst wrecked cars were piled into an awful heap, containing at least one hundred dead and injured. From the mass came fearful cries for aid. A minute later the wreck caught fire from the firebox of the locomotive. The screams of the injured in the heaps were intensified as they found themselves hemmed in by the flames. The passengers in the two forward cars of the first train and all the men from the express and every one in the neighborhood started work at once to get out the injured before the flames could reach them. At a time while toiling in the wreckage the flames reached the rescuers and their clothing took fire, but perior court, for assault with deadly they worked on, though in constant danger of being killed themselves. Some of the injured were burned to death in sight of the men who were working with desperation to save them, but the flames soon gained complete mastery of the

The parlor cars of the Royal Blue line train were converted into temporary hospitals. The dead as they were taken out were laid in a row alongside the track until means could be found to convey them to Plainfield.

The firemen after a time stopped the flames. Then the wreckage was attacked again and the work of recovering the bodies was begun. Out of the first car eight bodies were taken. The sight, while the wreck was burning, was horrifying. Men could be seen in the wreckage pinned fast amid the timbers of the cars and struggling to be free, while the flames roared around them. The rescuers were helpless to aid them as they already had been driven from the wreck by the flames. One of those who tried to take out man pinned in found that he was held seeing it would be useless to do anything else, is said to have finally severed the man's leg and then carried him to one of the parlor cars. Both rescued and rescuer were badly burned.

When the engine ploughed into the rear car it partly split the car open and at the same time lifted it up and on to itself. This car was the first to take fire, and most of those in it are dead. Some of them are believed to be beneath the overturned engine.

Those in the car ahead, which was lifted over the rear car, suffered the most. For some time before the flames reached them the car below and behind them, they were enveloped in smoke and steam, and it was here that the worst sights were witnessed.

One passenger only was severely hurt on the Royal Blue. He was walking in the aisle of one of the cars when the crash came, and the impact hurled him up into the air and sidewise across the heads of several persons in chairs, and then through a window. His hands was cut and bruised. He said he was a son of John Wanamaker, of Philadelphia. He did good work later on after his hands had been bandaged.

THE STATEHOOD BILL

Quay Struggles for the Measure. Fails to Hold a Quorum-

(By the Associated Press.) Washington, Jan 27.-Senator Quay made an effort today to hold the Senate in continuous session to consider the Statehood bill, but failed to hold a quorum and was compelled on that account to allow the Senate to adjourn at 6:20 p. m. He secured another ballot, however, to test the sentiment of the Senate, the vote standing 17 to 29 in his favor. The day was spent in consideration of the Statehood bill with the exception of an hour devoted to a speech by Mr. Scott, of West Virginia, on the Pension Laws. The feature of the Statehood bill under especial consideration today was the Arizona refunding proposition. It was charged that the territory has sought to repudiate the bonds held by Hon. Bird S.Coler, late Democratic candidate for Governor of New York. Mr. Foraker exand body crushed; Mary Ryan, injured plained that the bonds were originally ispreme Court.

nature. They look like ordinary sores and are usually treated as such, some simple salve, wash or powder being used in the hope of drying them up and stopping the discharge but while the place may temporarily scab over, it again inflames and festers, becoming as bad or worse than ever. After awhile the deadly poison begins to eat into the surrounding flesh and the sore spreads with frightful rapidity. Then the sharp shooting pains, which distinguish the cancerous from the common ulcer, are felt, and the unfortunate patient is brought face to face with the most dreaded of all maladies, a cancerous ulcer.

Whenever an ulcer of any kind is slow in healing it should be closely watched, particularly if there is an inherited predisposition to cancer. Often times a malignant, stubborn ulcer starts from a boil, wart, mole, bruise, blister or pimple, for when the blood is tainted and the germs and seeds of cancer are implanted in the system, you cannot tell when nor where the deadly poison is going to break out S. S. S. cures these cancerous ulcers and chronic sores, by driving out of the system all the morbid and unhealthy matter that keeps the ulcer irritated and discharging.
It purifies and strengthens the blood, enabling it to throw off the germs and poisons, thus checking the further for-cells, and when all impurities have been removed from the blood and system the ulcer heals naturally and permanently. All ulcers, even the smallest, should be looked upon with suspicion and treated promptly before they become cancerous. S. S. ### HULOGY OF MCKINLEY.

President Roosevelt Speaks at a Barquet Given in Canton.

(By the Associated Press.) Canton, Ohio, Jan. 27.-President Roosevelt tonight participated in a notable tribute to the memory of the late President McKinley. He was the principal orator at a banquet given under the auspices of the Canton Republican League in commemoration of the birthday of McKinley. Surrounded by friends. neighbors and business and political asociates of the dead President, he pronounced a brilliant and eloquent eulogy upon the life and works of McKinley. A culogy by many regarded as the most beautiful and heartfelt tribute ever paid to the memory of the distinguished dead. The banquet was held in the Grand Opera House, the seats being removed Judge Graham opposing it, said it from the pit and the house entirely refloored for the occasion. The interior of the building was decorated with flowers and flags, the floral decorations being particularly elaborate. Among the 457 guests assembled about the boards were some of the most distinguished men in the civil, public and political life of the country. At the speaker's table besides President Roosevelt were seated Judge William R. Day, who acted as toastmaster; Secretary Root, Secretary Cortelyou, General Young, General Leonard Wood, General Luke E. Wright, vice governor of the Philippines; Surgeon General Rixey and many others.

Judge Day, as toastmaster, introduced President Roosevelt in a brief address. As the President rose to speak, the audience rose and cheered him enthusias tically. When he addressed the toastmaster as "Mr. Justice Day" his audiors shook the building with applause. In the course of his speech President Roosevelt said:

"It was given to President McKinley to take the foremost place in our politiis wise both for his family and cal life at a time when our country was brought face to face with problems more momentous than any whose solution we have ever attempted, save only in the Revolution and in the Civil War; and it was under his leadership that the nation colved these mighty problems aright. Therefore he shall stand in the eyes of history not merely as the first man of his generation, but as among the greatest figures, in our national life, coming second only to the men of the two great crises in which the Union was founded and preserved.'

In thanking President Roosevelt for his speech, Judge Day said that by it a classic has been added to the literature of eulogy." Secretary of War Eli Root responded to the toast "The Army."

North Carolina the First. Cancerous A CONFERENCE WITH The Vote for United States Se BOWEN.

He Holds His First Meeting With the Powers' Representatives.

(By the Associated Press.) Washington, D. C., Jan. 27 .- By appointment the first joint conference of the Venezuelan negotiations occurred this afternoon at Minister Bowen's apartments, the ranking diplomat. Signor Mayor Des Planches, the Italian Ambassador, making the representations in French to Mr. Bowen. The question under discussion was a matter of the merest detail, the envoys wishing to know whether the monthly payments to the allies should be in proportion to the amount of the claims, or whether Great Britain, Germany and Italy would receive the same amounts each month until the indemnity was paid. Mr. Bowen stated he was quite willing to leave this to the powers themselves to settle and that any arrangement they might make would be satisfactory to Venezuela.

Another detail which has not yet been leared up involves the question of preferential treatment of the allied powers as against the other powers, France, Denmark, Holland, Norway and Sweden, Belgium, Spain and the United States in the payment of the indemnity. Mr. Bowen contends that this question did not form a part of the allies' condition precedent to the raising of the blockade. His answer was cabled to the Foreign Offices at London, Berlin and Rome tonight and it is hoped that favorable answers will be received tomorrow. There s reason to believe that Great Britain, Germany and Italy will yield to this last objection and sign the protocol for the raising of the blockade.

It developed today that Great Britain through her ambassador here, and by means of cable exchanges between London and Berlin is working hard to clear up the details of Mr. Bowen's terms to ions of the bill. He said it would be but the entire satisfaction of Germany. When litle trouble for a person desiring it, to the details of the diplomatic exchanges regarding the Venezuelan dispute are published it will be found that Sir Michael Herbert in the interest of peace the people of Vance desired this bill, he and a satisfactory settlement went to the extent of using his personal influence to secure the acceptance of Minister Bowen's proposition.

We will send you FOUR FULL QUART BOTTLES of HAYNER'S SEVEN-YEAR-OLD RYE for $3.20, and we will pay the express charges. Try it and if you don't find it all right and as good as you ever used or can buy from anybody else at any price, send it back at our expense, and your $3.20 will be returned to you by next mail. Just think that offer over. How could it be fairer? If you are not perfectly satisfied, you are not out a cent. Better let us send you a trial order. If you don't want four quarts yourself, get a friend to join you. We ship in a plain sealed case, no marks to show what's inside.

Orders for Ariz., Cal., Col., Idaho, Mont., Nev., N. Mex., Ore., Utan. Wash. or Wyo. must be on the basis of 4 Quarts for $4.00 by Express Frepaid or 20 Quarts for $16.00 by Freight Prepaid. Write our nearest office and do it NOW.
