Preparations for a great rising are proceeding quite

Four hundred officers in the Bulgarian army are asking for a prolonged leave, which will not be refused, in order to assist the rising in Macedonia. It is reiterated that seven bands, aggregating 6,000 men already have been formed. The three largest bands are led by Colonels Yankoff, Sarafoff and Zontoheff respectively. The bands will spread through out Macedonia under daring leaders and it is calculated that they will soon be re inforced a hundred fold.

The unusually mild weather now prevailing in the Balkans is held to favor an early outbreak, the only difficulty being the lack of funds, which it is intended to overcome by the forcible levy of a patriotic tax on Macedonians. It is further asserted that if Bulgaria is unsuccessful she is assured of Russian sup-

His back was literally full of holes and the evidence a the coroner's inquest today shows that while for a trifling cause, a young negro named Thomas was beating him in the face, Thomas' brother was stabbing him in the back. Carthy and Brumm. Saving of $5,000.

(By the Associated Press.)

Philadelphia, Feb. 9.-Argument for and against the demands of the union anthracite mine works, which will continue before the Coal Strike Commission for the next six days was begun today when the miners, through Daniel J. Mc-Carthy, of Hazelton, made the opening argument. Mr. McCarthy was followed by former Congressman Brum, of Minersville, who made a long argument and Henry Demarest Lloyd, of Chicago, who enfined his efforts to the question of ecognition of the unions and yearly trade greements.

The operators will begin their argument tomorrow, continuing three days and closing with George F. Baer, president of the Reading Company. Clarence S. Darrow, of Chicago, the principal counsel for the miners, will take up all of Friday and Saturday until adjournment in summing up the case and in answering President Baer. President Mitchell, of the Miners' Union, is expected here during the week. Whether he will address the commission depends upon developments. Among those in the court room was President George F. Baer, of the Reading Company. With the exception of the to render any considerable surplus in the opening day in Washington last October is his only visit to the commission's hearings so far. As soon as the hearing opened Mr. McCarthy began his argument. He made a strong plea for a wages, saying the occupation was a hazardous one, requiring the expenditure of a great deal of energy. He closed with a glowing eulogy of John Mitchell.

The subjects of the weighing of coul, condition of the union, and the status of non-union men were all exhaustively handled by Mr. McCarthy.

Mr. McCarthy spoke for three hours. He was followed by Henry Demarest Lloyd, of Chicago. Mr. Lloyd made an elaborate argument for the trade between employer and employes, citing the conditions prevailing in the bitumnious field, where a new scale of wages had just been agreed upon.

Continuing, Mr. Lloyd said: "There has been no mine strike of any importance since these relations of negotiations and arbitration were established, where the arrangement prevailed but there have been very serious strikes elsewhere.

"The trade agreement need not and does not interfere with the employment of non-union men. The mine workers of America have never gone on a strike against the employment of non union men. The easiest objection of all to meet is that a monopoly of labor would be created by recognizing the union. There can be no monopoly if non union men as well as union men are allowed to work side by side. Your award, by fixing the terms of employment, will remove the special cause of anger and enmity. During Mr. Lloyd's argument, Chairman Gray interrupted him with this question: "What have you to say regarding the non union men who prefer to continue at work through the strike, in the exercise of the right that they suppose they have, those who are not strike breakers and do not loaf between times "Of course, in doing that," Mr. Lloyd replied, "They are strictly within their the Matin at Caracas says that Guatire | legal rights, but to me they seem to was captured by the government troops violate a moral duty of the highest sanctity, which is that a man must do what he can to help along a necessary struggle for the elevation of his own "Are such men protected by the

I should class this man precisely with the loyalists in the Amercan revolution. I characterize the strike as an industrial war, as an in-

In reply the chairman said: "In our theory there is only one warmaking power and that is the great union report on the State printing for the past represented by the government of society; and they tolerate no wars-strictly warsinside of their influence or sphere. Mr. Lloyd: "There would be no neessity even for the pictoral use of the vord war if society would only organize this sphere of conflict so that proper methods of settlement could be reached. The world in which strikes occur which are called wars, is a world which society at large has so far refused to organize except in the case of New Zealand. I apprehend that one of the greatest results to be hoped for from this commission is that you will push forward one step further the evolution of the development of ome organic authority in that conflict." Mr. Lloyd was followed by former Conressman Charles M. Brumm, who occupied the time up to the adjournment. His argument was principally in support of the demand for the 'recognition many of his remarks at Mr. Baer, who when Mr. Brumm in an oratorical flight enth hour that he had ever said twentycountry and receive full effect, Mr. Baer umped up and exclaimed:
