Molly, the matron at the depot was all smiles yesterday morning. St. Valentine's day had brought her around another birthday and Molly stood with a pleasant countenance under the burden of twenty-two summers. It was not her birthday that alone made her pleasant, but she was remembered by many ladies whom she so politely assists in different ways around the depot.

Mayor Powell received a letter yesterday from a coal firm in Virginia, enquiring what the license in this city was on labor agents, saying they wanted to send a man here to secure a lot of hands to work in the coal fields of Virginia. Mr. Powell says he does not think we have need of such an agent here, but there are several persons whose familiar name is often seen on the police docket that he thinks would be a good idea to get them a job out of town.

The Savinns of a few cents on a bottle of Vanilla Extract will not atone for the annoyance of having dessert that is "just a little off" in flavor. Always buy Burnett's.

THE ESQUIMO

The Esquimo eats blubber. The lumbermen eat pork. These people are constantly exposed to cold and physical strain. Experience has taught them that fatty foods give warmth and nourishment. For those who have cold and thin bodies, or are threatened with consumption or any wasting disease, there is no fat in so digestible and palatable a form as Scott's Emulsion. Physicians prescribe it.

We'll send you a little try, if you like. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl Street, New York.
