Responding, Senator Tillman de-clared that Judge Parker was not objectionable to him, but he could not tell now how he would vote, because conditions might change in a night. Governor Heyward, Mayor Rhett and Chairman Jones and the fourteen district delegates declared that as at present advised they favored Judge Parker. Ex-Governor John C. Sheppard is among the district delegates.

The platform commends the administration of Governor Heyward and the course in Congress of the United States Senators from this State, and condemns the President for the appointment of Dr. William D. Crum as the collector of the port of Charleston. On national issues it declares for such a tariff as will compel the manufac-turer to sell as cheaply at home as abroad and demands economy in public affairs. There is no reference to the platform of 1896 and 1900 and one to the financial question.

CURED BY CUTICURA

Which Acted Like a Charm After Doctors and Hospitals Failed.

Here is another of those remarkable cures of torturing, disfiguring skin humors daily made by Cuticura Resolvent, assisted by Cuticura Ointment and Soap, after physicians, hospitals and all else had failed.

"I feel it my duty to try to help those suffering from skin diseases. My case was a very bad one, covering all of one side of my face and had reached my eye. I had two or three doctors prescribe without any relief. They said my disease was Epithelioma. I was then advised to go to one of our hospitals, which I did, taking their treatment for some time. I had given up all hope when my husband asked me to try the Cuticura Remedies. My face being in such a very bad state, I used the Cuticura Soap with luke-warm water and a small silk sponge and then applied the Cuticura Ointment. I took one teaspoonful of the Resolvent rour times a day. They acted like a charm, and in one week's time my face was cured entirely and has remained so. I certainly can recommend the Cuticura Remedies as infallible."

MRS. A. G. SMITH, 2400 Catharine St., Philadelphia. Feb. 9, 1903. The purity and sweetness, the power to afford immediate relief, the certainty of speedy and permanent cure, the absolute safety and great economy have made Cuticura Remedies the standard skin cures, blood purifiers and humor remedies of the world.
