

OVERMAN AND POU
They Deliver Speeches
Whose Potent Effects
Will be Seen Today.

(Special to News and Observer.)
Albemarle, N. C., Nov. 7.—The great Democratic rally here to-day had been advertised in every section of the county and at eight o'clock the people began coming in from every nook and corner of Stanley county and by half-past ten o'clock the streets were lined with people some being from Anson, Montgomery, Rowan and Cabarrus counties. The procession was formed near the depot headed by Forest Hill cornet band and followed by a nice float of the Windemere knitting mill then came Senator Overman and Governor James H. POU.

fund, it is well known, was approximately $10,000.00. Accepting these figures as correct, therefore, the Republican chairman has had only about $5,000,000 at his disposal.
The Chain Complete.
"The chain is complete—the trust contributions not denied by either the candidate or the chairman, unequivocally admitted and gratefully accepted as stated by the former secretary of war. "Five million dollars is the sum. More could have been had if needed, but under the present chairman's more careful direction that was deemed sufficient. But why did the trusts contribute to the Republican canvass? "They were asked," says the outspoken former secretary.

"Did they think they were buying a presidency?
"Or were they content with the assurance from the Republican candidate of a secure deal?" In either case, upon their testimony, the Republican candidate stands to-day before his fellow countrymen as one willing and eager to accept for himself a presidency that can be purchased for the great sum of $5,000,000.
"Can $5,000,000 of trust money buy a presidency? Can this sum, great as it is, contribute in the hope of favor to a necessary means for the gratification of personal ambition suffice to thwart the will of the American people?"
Cheering Intelligence.
"We cannot, will not, and do not believe it. Moreover, we have the cheering intelligence to convey to all Democratic, independent and patriotic citizens that the most recent and thorough canvasses of the doubtful States are absolutely convincing that Judge Parker will be elected.
"Fully appreciating the fact that within 48 hours the actual result will be known and keenly sensible of the responsibility that rests upon our positive belief that the Democratic candidates will receive at least 270 votes in the electoral college.
"We appeal to all patriotic citizens to participate in the triumph of an unpurchasable people."

dent that their organization in Ohio will secure unusual results, even exceeding "all the years," while the Democrats have no such organization as their opponents they say that there has been during the past two weeks a "whipping" of the Democrats that justifies their anticipation of a landslide that might make the State close and enable the Democrats to gain three or four Ohio congressmen. They say that the vote has not been out as fully for years as they expect it to be tomorrow.

The cry from a hundred throats, Hon. T. B. Bailey then rose and made a speech, declaring that all the Democrats had to do to win tomorrow was to work, which seemed to renew the determination of the Democrats to leave nothing undone to land the county in the Democratic column on tomorrow. There seems good prospects at this writing for electing part, if not the entire Democratic ticket. The Democrats are greatly enthused.

SPEECH OF HON. F. A. DANIELS.
A Thrilling, Convincing, Vote-Winning Talk to the People.

(Special to News and Observer.)
Goldboro, N. C., Nov. 7.—The county candidates for the Democratic ticket held forth in this city tonight before a large and enthusiastic crowd of country and city voters, and as each candidate announced himself he was given cordial hearing and every assurance of a rousing vote in tomorrow's election. The speech of the occasion was the thrilling, convincing, vote-winning, heart to heart talk of Hon. F. A. Daniels, whom the people trust implicitly and always listen to with gladness and confidence. His speech this afternoon, clear, bold, masterful, was the slogan of the campaign, and the speaker's election will prove the truth of his assertion, that Wayne county is going not only to elect her entire Democratic ticket but give the National ticket an increased majority. Wayne county is safely Democratic, every candidate will undoubtedly be elected by substantial majorities.

Partin, Perrin Partin, D. R. Fish, W. E. Reeves, J. W. Stephenson and the claim of the counter petitioners being that the road was entirely unnecessary to the convenience of the public. Consideration of the matter was postponed until the next meeting of the board.

The matter of the running of the extension of the road from Jos. Adams' to Willow Springs was referred to Mrs. Mary Utley's connecting with the Gregory road, was referred to W. G. Allen, the road having already been laid out.

has yet been found for cod liver oil. There are so-called extracts, wines and cordials of cod liver oil that are said to contain the active principles but not the oil itself. This is absurd on its face. You might as well extract the active principles of wheat and make bread with them. The best form of cod liver oil, that can be digested and assimilated most easily, is Scott's Emulsion.

New York, Nov. 7.—The Republican National committee to-day gave out for publication a formal and final statement. It is addressed to "Democratic and Independent voters" and reads as follows:
"This committee has conducted a national canvass in a manner, it believes, befitting the dignity and integrity of the American people. It has advanced no imprudent claims respecting results, and has not accepted for use in the campaign a single dollar from the tariff-bred trusts, whose exactions have so greatly increased the cost of every necessary of life, and which are now contributing from their gains great sums of money to perpetuate Republican rule."
"The Democratic candidate, if elected, will be absolutely free from obligation, direct or implied, to any person or group of persons other than the whole people who shall have trusted to him the maintenance of the welfare of the republic."
"This committee asks for itself only so much credit as such conduct of a canvass may merit, but it has no desire to be congratulated upon the fact that out of discordance of weakness has been wrought the union of strength."
"The difficulties attendant upon this achievement are well understood. At every turn, by every conceivable method, in every doubtful district of every doubtful State, the efforts which we maintain to have been at least patriotic and know to have been creditable to both the candidate and this committee, have been met by an avalanche of money."
No Longer Suspicion.
"The source of supply of this great Republican campaign fund is no longer a matter of suspicion. The Republican candidate declared, with great vehemence that he had promised nothing more than that he may be pleased to consider a square deal in return for campaign contributions. The Republican chairman, he vigorously asserted, had assured him more than once that there had been no necessity for making direct pledges—that it had been found possible to obtain all the money needed up to date, at any rate, without doing so."
"Neither he nor his chairman denied that contributions had been accepted from the trusts, for the simple reason that the fact was undeniable and each knew that it was susceptible of overwhelming proof. The payments were 'voluntary,' not forced; such, and such alone, was the burden of denials which were virtual admissions."
"The only question remaining was how much had been considered necessary. Fortunately even this information was forthcoming. Simultaneously with the preparation of the most extraordinary temperamental document, indicative of the keenest desperation which has ever emanated from the White House, the candidate's most intimate and trusted adviser, the former secretary of war, just returned from Washington was uttering another and more detailed 'defense' of his chief in this city. The mere fact of contribution he held to be inoffensive. His chief pride was in the great work accomplished for so small an expenditure. 'The fact is,' he proudly declared, 'that it is the smallest fund we have had for 12 years—about the half the Republican fund when McKinley was elected in 1896.' That

"I AM GOING NOW"
The Date is Set For November Ten.

The Fact That Everybody Who Returns is Delighted and That Every Comfort is Promised Fixes Decision.

The man who had been talking it over stopped for a moment and then he said:
"I have made up my mind. I am going now, for I recognize that you offer the best route, the best railroad accommodations, the best rate and the best attention that has been offered."
He was talking to Mr. Charles H. Gattis, the traveling passenger agent of the Seaboard Air Line, about the personally conducted trip to St. Louis to the great World's Fair, which leaves North Carolina on Thursday of this week, and on which there will go a most delightful party, who propose to spend some time at St. Louis in this greatest of the Fair months.

The personally conducted party projected has proven a success, and many sections of the North Carolina ladies and gentlemen are going. Many in the party will be from Raleigh, while from nearly every nearby town delegations will go. The passengers are to be given every attention, and in addition to Mr. Gattis the comfort of the party will be looked after by Mr. Edward E. Britton. Arrangements have been made for a number of chaperones who will take charge of any young ladies unattended.

The trip from North Carolina to St. Louis will be made without change of cars. It starts from the State on November tenth, next Thursday and the party will reach St. Louis on the morning of the twelfth of November. At that place all arrangements have been made for board and lodging, every little detail being looked after and provided for.
The last of these popular personally conducted parties, it goes over a most beautiful and historic section of the Union, and the whole trip will be a delight, as will be the stay in a low one and none should miss this last opportunity to visit the great Exposition and see the progress, the inventions and the fairs of the world. Mr. Gattis at once, write or wire to him, or see the nearest Seaboard Air Line agent and have him arrange for the trip. It is the last and greatest of the trips from North Carolina to St. Louis and the party that is going will be a splendid representative one from the State. Remember that the start is made next Thursday, the tenth of November.

MRS. JULIA BUFFALO DEAD.
Funeral Will be Held This Afternoon at First Baptist Church.

At Rex Hospital, at 4:30 o'clock yesterday morning, Mrs. Julia Hicks Buffalo, daughter of Col. W. J. Hicks, died in the 37th year of her age, after a long illness of several weeks. The funeral services will be held from the First Baptist church, at 2 o'clock this afternoon, Rev. Dr. Tyree, officiating.

The following gentlemen will act as pall-bearers: Messrs. Jno. D. Briggs, Robt. Simms, T. A. Partin, A. H. Moonenham, N. B. Broughton, S. Allen, Col. Jno. Nickerson and J. H. The interment will be at the Oakwood cemetery.

Mrs. Buffalo was well known in Raleigh and many friends will learn with sorrow of her death. Her illness was not expected to terminate seriously. She is survived by her little daughter, her father and mother, one sister, Miss Bertha Hicks, of Oxford, and three brothers.

For a number of years past she has been managing editor of the Orphan's Friend and Masonic Journal at Oxford, N. C. She was loved and highly esteemed by the fraternity throughout North Carolina.

Railway Officials Here.

Raleigh had two prominent railroad officials here yesterday and two private cars were in the Union depot till in the afternoon.
The visitors were General Manager J. M. Barr, of the Seaboard Air Line, and General Manager N. D. Morris, of the Norfolk and Western Railway. Mr. Barr was en route to Portsmouth, while Mr. Morris was on his way to Roanoke.

In reference to the "Shoo Fly" train from Raleigh to Raleigh, Mr. Barr says that the matter is being given a careful consideration, and that he wished to assure those interested that the Seaboard Railway was endeavoring to serve their patrons in every way possible.

WAKE IS ALL RIGHT
A Big Democratic Majority Will be the Result on Tuesday.

The campaign in Wake county is over, except for speaks at Caraleigh Mills and Pilot Mills on Monday night by prominent speakers and the county candidates.
The result is not in doubt: only the size of the majority is to be considered. The Democratic ticket, county, State and National, will sweep the county.

The majority is expected to pass beyond the 3,000 mark and it is known that the people have not been led astray by the Republicans and Populists posing as a "Citizens' movement."
That movement is nothing more nor less than a Radical trick. It is fathered and fostered by Radicals. Its nominees have been named by no convention. It is a Hinkey Dink affair in every sense and is entitled to no serious consideration except to defeat it by an overwhelming majority.

Just one word as to this majority. The Democratic ticket will be elected, but it is important that every Democrat vote, if for nothing else than for simply the position Wake county Democracy should take in the State convention. The greater the majority the larger its influence there and the vote on Tuesday should make Wake the banner county.

Let every Democrat who is registered vote, and let him remember that the polls open at 6:28 a. m., sunrise, and close at 4:58 p. m., sunset.

A Promising Young Actor.

The play is the thing, is an old adage, hence theatre goers are always interested in this subject.
"There is a play advertised to appear soon in Raleigh," said J. H. Davis, the press representative of the Forepaugh and Sells Bros. shows "which ought to attract a very large audience. I refer to John Griffith the eminent 'youth' tragedian in Shakespeare's 'Macbeth.'"
"Mr. Griffith is an actor of great ability, and his rendition of this trying role is unsurpassed."
"I saw the production recently, and must candidly admit it was a veritable revelation to me. I never saw a handsomer stage picture. Semantically, and artistically, there is nothing finer upon the American stage."
