TWO HANGED ON SAME GALLOWS

Hodges and Jones Pay Penalty of Crime.

NERVY TO THE LAST

White Man Dies for Murder of His Wife—Negro for Burglary With Intent to Commit a More Heinous Crime—Both Blame Whiskey.

(Special to News and Observer.)

Durham, N. C., Feb. 8.—John H. Hodges, the wife murderer, and Freeman Jones, colored, convicted of burglary in the first degree, paid the penalty of their crimes this morning by hanging. It was the first execution in the history of the county and there was naturally a great deal of interest shown. It was on every lip—the fact that two human beings were killed for crime—but outside of that there was nothing of an unusual nature. Both died with a bravery that may be the proper word—that was surprising. Both necks were broken in the drop and the two men died without a struggle.

One was hanged at a time. First Hodges walked to the gallows with a steady step and the same nerve of iron that has been shown since the night of the fearful tragedy in February of last year. He was as cool as a man could possibly be under any circumstances. After his execution the body was removed from the gallows and then came Freeman Jones, the negro. He, too, was steady. But it was not a steady kind of nerve that was shown by Hodges. He was "toned" up for the end and did not seem to realize that he was dying. He placed all the blame for his crimes on whiskey and gave warning to those who were present. This negro further and made a full confession of the crime with which he was charged. He had made this confession to the coroner and before going on the scaffold and said then that he would have but little to say on the gallows. But he was asked questions and in that manner he told again the story of the crime. There was no doubt about the crime of Hodges. In fact he said some time ago that he was the man who had fired that fatal shot which was fired that he would be hanged, and that in hanging he did not get anything but what was just and right.

Immediately after the work was done the bodies of the two men were taken from the gallows and then, after a wait of something like three-quarters of an hour, Jones' remains will be taken to the country, seven miles southeast of the

TINY SCRAPPERS ON VERGE OF WAR

Mexico Plays Cop to Near Neighbors.

TIP FROM WASHINGTON

Honduras and Nicaragua Making Faces at Each Other—Costa Rica, Salvador and Guatemala Requested to Keep the Peace.

(By the Associated Press.)

Mexico City, Feb. 8.—The State Department today made public the following note: "President Diaz, acting on the direct suggestion of President Roosevelt, has sent a note to the governments of Costa Rica, Salvador and Guatemala, asking them to use every effort to prevent an armed clash between Nicaragua and Honduras, with the intimation that past treaties must be lived up to and that their dispute must be referred to an arbitration board."

WAR VESSELS ORDERED TO THE SCENE.

Washington, Feb. 8.—Carrying out the wishes of the State Department that a couple of American naval vessels be kept in Central American waters, the Navy Department has dispatched the gunboat Marietta from Guantanamo to Greytown, on the Gulf coast of Nicaragua, in addition to the cruiser Chicago, which has been sent down the west coast to Acapulco, Honduras, so that within a day or two there will be an American warship on each side of the scene of the trouble. The Yorktown, now at Mare Island, is not to go to Central America. It is stated that the purpose of sending these ships to Central America is similar to that which inspired the order to the Marblehead last year, namely, to have a ship on the coast of the American ministers if they should find it necessary to travel up and down the coast in these countries where communication by regular channels is so limited. Also, they will of course, protect any American property that may be endangered, if disorders break out.

CONSUL ALGER REGARDS WAR AS CERTAIN.

Consul William F. Alger, at Tegucigalpa, Honduras, communicated yesterday with the American Minister Combes, that the opinion at Tegucigalpa was that war between Honduras and Nicaragua was almost inevitable. The officials here, however, do not believe that the combine efforts of Mexico and America will, without offending the pride of the Central American republics, result in convincing them that their differences can be settled without recourse to arms.

WITHOUT ADMITTING THE ACCURACY OF THE STATEMENT FROM THE CITY OF WASHINGTON THAT AT THE INSTANCE OF THE WASHINGTON GOVERNMENT, THE MEXICAN DIPLOMATIC REPRESENTATIVES IN CENTRAL AMERICA HAVE BEEN INSTRUCTED TO BEAR UPON THE GOVERNMENTS TO WHICH THEY WERE ACCREDITED TO PREVENT HOSTILITIES, IT WAS SAID AT THE STATE DEPARTMENT TODAY THAT CORRESPONDENCE HAD BEEN EXCHANGED BETWEEN THE DEPARTMENT AND THE MEXICAN GOVERNMENT REGARDING ITSELF AS BOUND UNDER THE TREATY OF SAN JOSE AND THE MARBLEHEAD PACT TO OFFER GOOD OFFICES TO PREVENT WARFARE BETWEEN THE CENTRAL AMERICAN REPUBLICS, AND AS THE REPUBLIC OF MEXICO IS UNDER SIMILAR OBLIGATIONS. THE TWO ARE TRYING TO ARRANGE A PROGRAM, WHEREBY MEXICO WILL REPRESENT THE WISHES OF THE UNITED STATES AS WELL AS HER OWN PEOPLE IN THE CASE.

HELP FOR HOLTON.

Assistant Attorney General to Appear in Cotton Mill Cases.

(Special to News and Observer.)

Winston-Salem, N. C., Feb. 8.—The Department of Justice at Washington is manifesting such interest in the Charlotte Cotton Mill case to be tried by the Federal court at Greensboro, that Mr. Alfred W. Cooley, Assistant Attorney General, will appear with District Attorney A. E. Holton in the prosecution. The hearing was set for next week, but at the request of counsel for the defendants Judge Boyd has continued the cases until February 26th. There are four men under indictment for violation of immigration laws. Thomas M. Costello, of Philadelphia, agent who went to England and induced a large number of women to come to Charlotte and accept employment in cotton mills owned by Edward A. Smith, E. C. Dwell and Summer Sargent, all natives of Northern States. It is understood that if the defendants are convicted the penalty, or fines imposed, will aggregate something like $70,000.

DEATHS IN ASHEVILLE.

Charles S. Schmidt, of Boston, and Marion Acee, a Resident.

(Special to News and Observer.)

Asheville, N. C., Feb. 8.—Charles S. Schmidt, age 33, is dead here at the residence of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Schmidt, 17 Parola street. The remains will be taken to Chicago tomorrow for interment. Mr. Schmidt was a member of the Publishing firm of C. C. Birchard & Co., of Boston. He was also the champion amateur billiard player of New England and the Chicago Athletic Club. A brother is State Senator in the Illinois Legislature. The death of Marion Acee occurred at 9 o'clock this morning at No.

106 ASHLAND AVENUE.

Mr. Acee had been for a long while in poor health, but his serious illness dated only from yesterday morning. From that he grew rapidly worse and it was soon apparent that the end was near. Mr. Acee was a brother of A. E. Acee, formerly chief clerk to the superintendent of the Asheville Division of the Southern Railway, and also of J. M. Acee, the present chief clerk.

ANSONVILLE MAN DROWNED.

Albert F. Mills Lost His Life in Crossing a Swollen Creek.

(Special to News and Observer.)

Ansonville, N. C., Feb. 8.—Albert F. Mills, of Ansonville township, was drowned in a creek at what is known as the Rhody Ford yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The body has not been found yet. About one hundred men have been engaged in dragging for the body since the occurrence. While driving down a very steep hill just before reaching the stream it is thought he lost control of his horse and the animal rushed into the stream and died. Mr. Mills was a resident of the town of Ansonville. There was a bridge just above the ford, but the horse, being frightened, took to the stream instead of the bridge.

MR. MILLS, WHO WAS ABOUT 38 YEARS OLD, LEAVES A WIFE AND ONE CHILD, AND LEAVING HIS MOTHER, HE WAS A CANDIDATE IN THE LAST PRIMARY AGAINST MR. J. O. A. CRAIG FOR TREASURER OF ANSON COUNTY.

PROTESTS AGAINST DEFAMATION OF THE DEAD AND CHARACTERIZES THE TESTIMONY OF THAW'S WIFE AS TITILLATING.

New York, Feb. 8.—Evelyn Nesbit Thaw again today was the central figure at her husband's trial. She was still on the stand—her direct examination unfinished—when the usual week-end adjournment until Monday was taken. Picking up the threads of her life story where she had dropped them the evening before the girl wife of the defendant always, she declared, she told her story just as she had related it to Harry Thaw from time to time—brought the narrative down to her wedding in Pittsburgh, on April 1, 1905, and their return to New York following a honeymoon trip in the West. She declared she had heard White call her in the street once after this and that on another occasion when she passed him in a cab she noticed his cab turn around and follow her in the direction of a doctor's office, where she was going to have her throat treated. Mrs. Thaw had taken up the story at the time of her return from Europe in October, 1903, following her refusal of Thaw's offer of marriage on the grounds which she related on yesterday. On Monday she may be called upon to finish the relation of the events which, it is claimed by the defense, brought on the explosive incident in the divorce trial. The defendant and caused the killing of Stanford White.
