

WOMEN ABOUT TOWN

Stories of Washington Life.

WASHINGTON HERALD.

It seemed that his new house was...

It seemed he'd gone to hear an el-

It seemed that stocks had gone the

So many lovely things like these,

I have to thank an anonymous cor-

"I like a really nutritious break-

I have no doubt that it's the love-

Elizabeth Banks, the author of "Ex-

Out in the edge of Georgetown lives

"You haven't seen our baby yet,

Margery sighed.

"Oh, yes," she said, with an air of

And thereupon he told me a story

a team of horses, meaning to leave a

"Where's the boss?" he asked.

"Down at the barn," was the condi-

"I'll take the gray."

The wise man began to unhitch.

"Wait a bit," said the lord and mas-

"I guess I'll take the bay," he said.

The wise man refastened the buckle

Speaking of chickens, I never hear

"She stole her nest," stole it, mind

There's a baby in the family of the

Out in the edge of Georgetown lives

"You haven't seen our baby yet,

Margery sighed.

"Oh, yes," she said, with an air of

And thereupon he told me a story

WOMEN IN PROVERBS.

Uncomplimentary Things Said of Her

The treatment that womankind receives

Among the Spanish maxims one of the Man is to women as fire, and the

The tears of women are worth much,

The fox is cunning; but the woman

The proverb of the Arabs place a

The object or purpose of prohibition

Since the people govern themselves

The harder it is to get liquor the

You interfere with the individual's man, give him a handsome wife,

The Hindoos are not much more re-

The coquette is like your shadow;

Do you want to test the fitness of

Next comes the cynical Chinaman

The tongue of a woman is a dagger,

When you go to war, say a prayer;

To a question: "What is a woman?"

The gallant French are among the

The man who beats his wife is like

Man has two good days in his

He who believes his wife deceives

Good women are all in the church-

The compiler was unable to find any

STATE PROHIBITION.

As Viewed by Rev. S. F. Conrad, of

To the Editor: Of all the evils of Modern times the liquor traffic is

It is estimated that a billion and a

and that one hundred thousand per-

Some Reasons Why the Liquor Traffic

Should be Made a State Issue.

1. Because the operations of the

2. Another reason why the traffic

3. Then again the State apart from

4. Then again the right of a sov-

5. The object or purpose of prohibi-

6. Since the people govern themselves

7. The harder it is to get liquor the

8. You interfere with the individual's

CARROLINA ROLLER MILLS COMPANY. PEERLESS PATENT DURHAM, N. C. PEERLESS PATENT

A Prophet is Not Without Honor, etc., or a Scrap of Local History Baked into a Biscuit

OFFICE OF CARROLINA ROLLER MILLS DURHAM, N. C.

We think it was TALLEYRAND who observed, that no man is a hero to his valet, and there is a lot of truth in the observation. Just along this line, we realize that DURHAM is too close to RALEIGH, for us to do what we might, if we were farther away. It's distance that oftentimes lends value. The further we are from headquarters the more it means sometimes. Be that as it may, we are really proud that Durham has such a neighbor as RALEIGH.

We are more happy to have such an intelligent audience as the RALEIGH PUBLIC, to discourse to, upon the virtues of PEERLESS and CLIMAX FLOUR; the opportunity is so pleasing that we most cheerfully force the privilege of "cutting the ice." We might, if we lived more remote, but some things are priceless and our NEIGHBORSHIP with RALEIGH is one of our priceless assets. No, we could not get along without RALEIGH, have not done so in the past, and now that we have PEERLESS and CLIMAX FLOUR to sell, don't want even to think of it, for the future. And we do hope that the thought of our nearness, will not count against us, for while we may not be as large, maybe, as some of the big Flouring Mills-Wa-Yan-tee-yet, what we lack in magnitude and distance, we promise to make up in cleverness. In these recesses, we promise you—that no mill—North or South, East or West, shall ever put FLOUR upon the RALEIGH MARKET superior in quality or lower in price, than we offer our PEERLESS AND CLIMAX, the grades being equal.

We repeat that we have previously said—that we lack every sack of our PEERLESS and CLIMAX Brands of Flour—with the ABSOLUTE GUARANTEE, that they are as good as the BEST. WE EXCEPT NONE.

Right here pardon a scrap of history, that relates to both RALEIGH and DURHAM. Born in the city of Raleigh in 1808, was a youth, who in a little more than half a century afterwards was to slip down from his cross-legged seat (all tailors sit on their cross legs) upon his table in his Little Tailor Shop—buckle on his shoes while his goose coteled, neglected upon the hearth, to fill the Presidential chair of this, the Greatest Republic on earth. He visited our University, strange as it may sound, as President.

Stopping at Durham to find transportation over to the "HILL," and having breakfasted sumptuously at the "CARROLINA," with his distinguished party, consisting of Mr. Seward, his secretary of State, Mr. Randall, of Wisconsin, his Postmaster General, General Miles, Gen. Sickles and others, the President snatched out upon the lawn, where the curious multitude was waiting, he espied a few "wards of the nation" with books and slates. Ah! my lads, you go to school? Rolling up their eyes, showing only the whites, the COON answered, "Yes, sir, - Yes, sir, Boss," we go to school. Then spell PONY! The COON spelled PONY all right. Now spell Baker. The COON spelled Baker all right. Good! Good! said the President. Now tell me what is twice 5? Ten, replied the COON. Good! Good! Now what is 3 times 5? 15, replied the COON. Sure, and you shall have twenty-five cents." The COON waited, the President fumbled in his pockets, but failed to produce his twenty-five cents, turning to his Prime Minister, who had been an interested spectator, he said, "Seward, lend me twenty-five cents." "Why certainly," Mr. Seward fumbled and fumbled in all his pockets, but failed to find twenty-five cents, turning to Postmaster General Randall, Mr. Seward said, "Mr. Postmaster, loan the President twenty-five cents." "Why, sure," and he proceeded to fumble and fumble in all his pockets, but failed to find the twenty-five cents. Turning to Gen. Sickles, the Postmaster General said, "General, loan the President twenty-five cents." "Why yes," said Gen. Sickles and he proceeded to fumble and fumble in all his pockets, but finding nothing, Gen. Sickles turned to Gen. Miles and said, "Miles, loan the President twenty-five cents to give the coon." "Yes, certainly, why not?" and General Miles fumbled until the situation became embarrassing, when Buck Blackwell stepped up with a handful of the "coin of the realm," and remarked, "Have boys, help yourselves, I see that you are all busted."

Everybody remembers the visit of ANDY JOHNSON, the 17th President of the United States to our "PEERLESS UNIVERSITY." Returning from our "PEERLESS UNIVERSITY," the President came to Raleigh, and as a tailor he was remembered in Raleigh not as President, there was yet living at Hillsboro, North Carolina, a tailor, who had sat upon the same bench in the little little tailor shop with "ANDY," as he always love to call him. When the President came he was at the Yarrowborough House to greet him, waiting in the lobby. As the President registered and turned from the desk, there at his elbow stood his old friend and fellow workman, Levin Carrolina. The recognition was instantaneous. "Why MAC," said the President! "Why ANDY," said Carrolina. They clasped hands, threw arms around each other's necks, and wept like children.

LEST YOU FORGET WE TURN FROM PRESIDENT TO THE NEXT GREAT QUESTION—THE FEEDING OF THE FOLKS WHO MAKE PRESIDENTS. WE REPEAT IN ALL SINCERELY, THAT OUR BRANDS OF FLOUR, PEERLESS AND CLIMAX ARE AS GOOD AS THE BEST, WE EXCEPT NONE, AND WE GUARANTEE PEERLESS AND CLIMAX TO BE AS GOOD AS THE BEST, OR YOU GET YOUR MONEY BACK. THE "CARR BOYS" ARE BEHIND IT. WITH OUR GUARANTEE THAT PEERLESS AND CLIMAX FLOURS ARE AS GOOD AS THE BEST IN QUALITY, AND AS LOW IN PRICE, AND IT IS ONLY ON THIS BASIS THAT WE ASK YOUR PATRONAGE. SATISFACTION GUARANTEED OR MONEY BACK. REMEMBER IT IS PEERLESS OR CLIMAX, BOTH ARE GUARANTEED.

J. S. CARR, Jr., President. C. M. CARR, Director. W. F. CARR, Director. A. M. CARR, Director. J. S. CARR, Director.

MRS. C. R. LEE will be glad to demonstrate the merits of these brands of flour with any family in Raleigh.

Comparisons Prove Facts. A comparison of Nunnally's with other high-grade candy, will prove that their claim of superiority is not alone a claim, but an indisputable fact. Compare the fillings, as well as the coatings of each separate piece, the variety of assortment in each box, and the care with which each box is packed, and the popular verdict will be that Nunnally's Candy is the purest and best on the market. Nunnally's Atlanta. FOR SALE BY HENRY T. HICKS CO. AND TUCKER BUILDING PHARMACY.

corruption of the morals of its citizenship. There is no safe nor sane method of dealing with the liquor traffic but to restrict it to proper and legitimate uses. To grant to one police regulated town what it refuses to another is to grant rights and privileges to some which it refuses to others and necessarily sooner or later will create opposition to such a law. For a father to give privileges to one child which it withholds from another will create a rebellious attitude to the father's rule.

SALE OF LAND. By authority of an order made by W. M. Russ, clerk of the Superior court of Wake county, in the special proceeding No. 1372, entitled J. T. Broughton vs. Myra Crocker, I will offer for sale at public auction, to the highest bidder for cash at the county court house door in the city of Raleigh, on Monday, the 3rd day of June, 1907 at 12 o'clock m., two parcels of lots of land situated in the town of Garner, Wake county, N. C., adjoining the lands (formerly) of Polly Johnson & C. H. Dupree and others, bounded as follows, to wit: First Lot: Beginning at the intersection of the west line of a street along G. O. Bess, and the north-southern line of the street, running parallel with the North Carolina Railroad, 3 feet from said Barber's west line, to a stake, 43 1-2 feet from line north 26 1-2 degrees west one and one-half chains to a stake; thence south 26 1-2 degrees west 2 chains and 50 links to a stake; 43 1-2 degrees east 3 chains to a stake in said first mentioned street; thence with the same to the beginning, containing three-fourths of an acre, and being two lots which were conveyed to David W. Crocker, each being three-eighths of an acre, the one conveyed by Polly Johnson and William E. Anderson, trustee, by deed dated September 25th, 1887, the other by Polly Johnson by deed dated the first of January, 1890.

1585 chains to a stake; thence north 27 degrees east 3.25 chains to a stake in the Raleigh road; thence north 92 degrees west 1.88 chains to the beginning, containing one-half acre, and being the tract of land conveyed by J. A. Spence and C. W. Spence to Samuel Crocker and D. M. Crocker by deed dated May 7th, 1887, and registered in the office of the Register of Deeds for Wake county, N. C., in book 87, page 192. Land sold for $1000.00. This April 27, 1907. H. E. NORRIS, Commissioner.

CHANGE OF SCHEDULE. The Durham and Southern Railway will change its schedule, taking effect Sunday, May 5th. Sunday trains will be discontinued. Trains will leave Junction points as follows: No. 41 Leave Durham 4:15 p. m. No. 41 Leave Apex 5:50 p. m. No. 41 Leave Varena 5:50 p. m. No. 41 Arrive Dunn 7:00 p. m. No. 5 Leave Durham 7:30 a. m. No. 5 Leave Apex 9:15 a. m. No. 5 Arrive Varena 10:45 a. m. No. 5 Arrive Dunn 1:00 p. m. No. 28 Leave Dunn 7:00 a. m. No. 28 Leave Varena 8:05 a. m. No. 28 Leave Apex 8:35 a. m. No. 28 Arrive Durham 9:25 a. m. No. 6 Leave Dunn 8:45 a. m. No. 6 Leave Varena 9:45 a. m. No. 6 Leave Apex 11:55 a. m. No. 6 Arrive Durham 2:15 p. m.

Rheumatism Can't Stay 100-200. Having qualified as administrator of Howard C. Thomas, late of Wake county, I hereby notify all persons having claims against him to present them on or before April 25th, 1907, as this notice will be placed in lieu of their recovery. ALEX. STRONACH, Administrator.