and something was said about the advertising campaign of Gowan's Pneumonia Cure. Eight of the women said they were using the preparation, and the ninth woman said she certainly would buy a bottle right away. They all agreed that it was the best household remedy they ever saw and the eighth woman insisted that they would not be without it.

The praise is universal. Those who know nothing of the virtues of the remedy may doubt-but where once used it is always used, and our best and most effective advertisements are those who voluntarily tell their friends about the cure. If you are in doubt, try a bottle, and if you are disappointed, the druggist will cheerfully refund your money. This puts & up to you.

CROP PANS OUT WELL.

Appeared to Be Ruined By Hail, But Is Worth 25 Cents a Pound,

Durham. N. C., Oct. 9 .- Mr. A. P. Daniels, of Hurde's Mill, Person county, sold tobacco on this market yesterday. He had with him some very fine weed, and he said that he expected to average for his entire crop about 30 cents. He was offered 25 cents for his crop at home

Mr. Daniels was one of those farmers who was caught by the fearful hall storm. He said that the morning after the hail when he went out to look at his crop it made him sick at heart. It seems, however, that the plants took a new growth and by proper topping and training the tobacco was made as good, and Mr. Daniels thinks it was actually improved. At least he has been offered $25 per hundred pounds and take his crop.
