McAlister Wilkesbarre, Pa. They were arrested by Mr. I. W. Rogers, detective of the W. C. Boren Seaboard Air Line, Thursday night in a box car that came in from Richmond. They were before Justice of the Peace C. A. Separk yesterday morning on a charge of beating their way on the train. They claim that they were trying to make their way to Columbia, S. C. Justice Separk remanded them to jail and took the case under advisement. They have no money and are quite young and the attenfion of the Associated Charities has been called to the case with the hope that some plan may be fallen upon to check the boys in their way of error and have them return to their homes. rather than to send them to the county roads. What disposition will be made of the case is yet unknown. Ericson says his father and mother are in "the poor house."
