After Recovery.

When we are over forty And settled down in life And have a bunch of children And eke a charming wife, We look with some impatience Down from the heights above On immature flirtations And young and callow love.

It seems so very silly
To one grown old and wise To single out a maiden
And rave about her eyes.
To say she is perfection In form and face and style And be in raptures ecstasie If she will only smile.

From an impartial distance, Say, maybe, up a tree,
One looks just like another As far as we can see.
And if the blond is chilly Why should the young man fret?
Why can't he say, "Good riddance" And switch to a brunette?

It seems so very easy To settle it offhand
When past the age of romance
And in the judges' stand, But wait until this codger
The second time is hit,
And then his step is gaited
The case will hardly fit.

MOVING PICTURE SHOW.

Gem Theatre Will Put On Illustrated Songs Next Week.

Excellent as it is the Gem Theatre, where each day and night are shown the beautiful moving pictures, is to have an improved program.
Mr. W. N. Foster of the Gem Theatre Company is here from Fayetteville to arrange for this, and he says that beginning with next week illustrated songs will also be put on, the singing to be by the well known and popular tenor singer Dave Russell.
He says that special attention will be shown ladies and children attending, and that seats on the lower floor will be reserved for nurses with children, so that they can look after them. He promises the public the best of moving pictures each day and night, and those will prove so delightful that big crowds should attend.

GREAT CONSOLIDATION.

Stars From Northern and Southern Companies to Give Farewell Performance of Clansman.

An all-star production of "The Clansman" is the attractive offering at the Academy in the near future.
During the three seasons of the Klunk play many actors have been tried in the various parts. Those who have done stellar work have been selected for the present tour, the Northern and Southern companies being consolidated. The names of Frank Lin Ritchie, James J. Ryan, M. J. Jordan, Barry Maxwell, Bruce Richardson, son, Eugene Hayden, Maude Durand, Violet Mesereau—to recount only a few—suggest a cast of surpassing excellence. They will be seen in a production which has been especially built for the large stages of New York and Chicago theatres.

"My Friend From India."

Hamlet, N. C., Feb. 20.—The most enjoyable and best presented play ever presented here was that of "My Friend From India," which was presented at the graded school hall Tuesday night by local talent, assisted by the Third Regiment Band Orchestra, of Raleigh. There was not a dull moment from the time the band struck the first note till the curtain went down on the last act. No one would have thought that he was looking upon an amateur company if they had not have known it. Every one did his part to perfection.

Magazine Club yesterday afternoon.
The meeting was an interesting one and a most enjoyable affair.

Leap Year Dance.

Mount Airy, N. C., Feb. 20.—Last week the young ladies of the "Round Dozen Book Club" gave a most delightful Leap Year Dance at the Commercial Club in which about sixty people participated.

The ball room and parlors of the Commercial Club were beautifully decorated with hearts of various sizes and growing plants. At the appointed time the young ladies called for the gentlemen in carriages, and on their arrival at the club, the dainty heart-shaped dance programmes were filled out by the ladies.

The German was led by Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Galloway, and during an intermission, an elegant salad course was served. The minutes flitted by with unflagging pleasure, and it was, without a doubt, one of the most enjoyable dances of the season.

Martin-Williams.

Hamlet, N. C., Feb. 20.—Last night at 8:30 o'clock at the residence of Mayor and Mrs. J. A. Williams, their niece, Miss Sallie Ashford, was married to Mr. C. A. Martin, Rev. A. M.
Hurlison, pastor of the Baptist church, speaking the words that made them husband and wife. Miss Ashford is a charming young woman, who came to Hamlet about a year ago from Polkton, and has made many friends by her queenly ways. Mr. Martin is a popular engineer of the Seaboard, who was raised in Raleigh. The couple left here tonight on No. 42, for Columbia, S. C., Wavercross, Ga., and Jacksonville, Fla., on their bridal trip, which will cover a fortnight. Upon their return they will live at Mrs. J.
W. Pegrim's.

Gilkey-Stamey.

High Point, N. C., Feb. 20.—A very pretty wedding occurred last evening at the home of the bride at 114 Steele street, when Miss Maude Stevenson Stamey became the wife of Mr. Adam Logan Gilkey, of Marlon, N. C. The ceremony was performed by the Rev.

Mr. Thompson, of Washington street M. E. church, in the presence of the immediate members of the bride's family and a few invited-neighbor guests. The parlor in which the ceremony was performed was decorated in ferns, evergreens and hot house plants. The bride and groom entered unattended and stood amongst an alveo of flowers as the wedding ceremony was being read. Their ride was a Champaign Messaline silk gown with handsome picture hat and gloves to match and carried carnations. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. H. F. Stamey and the late Rev.
P. F. Stamey, who for seventeen years was a member of the Western North Carolina Conference, and is well and favorably known here and elsewhere. The groom is a young business man of Marlon, and holds a responsible position in his home town.
Mr. and Mrs. Gilkey left on the morning train for a brief trip South and will return to Marlon by the first of the month. The young couple received quite a good many presents from their friends.

A Valentine Dance.

Elm City, N. C., Feb. 20.—On last Friday evening the young men of the town gave a Valentine dance in Langley's Hall. The hall was beautifully decorated in red and white and from the center of the ceiling hung several large red and white hearts. Each person was given a red heart for a souvenir. This was one of the most beautiful dances ever seen here. Several figures were indulged in during the evening. It was well led by Mr.
Charles R. Barnes with Miss Elizabeth Crisp. Music was furnished by the Italian band.

Those participated were: Miss Maggie Winstead with Mr. Paul Whitehead, of Enfield; Miss Blanche ville; Miss Annie Crisp with Mr. W.

DURHAM SOCIAL EVENTS.

Bellamy-Tatum Wedding—Perry-Edwards Nuptials—The Dramatic Club.

Durham, N. C., Feb. 20.—At the home of Mr. F. C. Geer, who lives in the northern part of the city, marriage vows were said this evening at 8:30 o'clock that made Mr. R. L.
Bellamy and Miss Clara Tatum husband and wife. Rev. C. J. Thompson, pastor of the First Baptist church, was the officiating minister. There were no attendants. Quite a number of intimate friends and relatives gathered to witness the marriage and speak congratulations. Mr. Bellamy has made Durham his home for some two years, coming here from Staunton, Virginia, to take the management of the F. M. Kirby store, holding that position at this time. The bride is the daughter of the late J. A.
Tatum and a niece of Mr. F. C.
Geer, one of Durham's oldest and highly honored citizens. She was educated at the Salem Academy and a young woman of many accomplishments. They will make their home in this city.

ADMISSION 15 AND 25 CENTS.

Perry-Edwards.
Last evening at 8:30 o'clock Mr.
Robert Fulton Perry and Miss Grace Lois Edwards were united in marriage, this being at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. C. J. Thompson, of the First Baptist church, officiated. Mr. George O. Fowler, of Greensboro, was best man and Miss Mabel Wilkerson, this city, maid of honor. These were the only attendants. Numerous friends and acquaintances filled the home to witness the marriage.

The Dramatic Club.
The dramatic club of the city high school, it is now expected, will soon present the "Merchant of Venice" in Greensboro. The date will probably be February 23. This club recently delighted a very large audience here with this play and the success was such that finally it was decided to present it in Greensboro. The play is excellently rendered for amateurs.

THE DAUGHTERS OF THE CONFEDERACY.

They Meet, Elect Officers and Transact Other Important Business.

Wilson N. C., Feb. 20.—Yesterday afternoon from four to six o'clock the ladies composing the patriotic society, "The Daughters of the Confederacy," were royally entertained by Mrs. U. H. Cozart at her home on Nash street.

The prime object of the meeting was the transaction of business pertaining to the chapter—the election of officers for the ensuing year and the securing of an orator for Memorial Day.

WYNNE-WINSTEAD.

A Beautiful Home Wedding at Wilson.

Wilson N. C., Feb. 20.—Last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Winstead, a wedding most beautiful in all its appointments was consummated, when Mr. E. L. Wynne, of Philadelphia, led to Yfemen's altar the pretty and stylish Miss Viola Winstead.

The bride was handsomely gowned in white silk and carried a bouquet of carnations. The bridesmaids, Misses Bessie and Ethel, sisters of the bride, were charmingly attired in white.

Miss Addie Rowland presided at the piano and charmingly rendered Lohengrin's wedding march.

Mr. Thurston Wynne, of Williamston, acted as best man.

The happy couple left this afternoon for Williamston. They will return Sunday, and on Monday leave for Philadelphia, their future home.
"My Friend From India" at Sanford.
Sanford, N. C., Feb. 20.—"My Friend From India" was presented in the Sanford Opera House last night by the Hamlet Dramatic Club, and notwithstanding the bad weather they were greeted by a good house, and the play was good throughout, and was enjoyed as much as any play that has visited our town this season. All parties played well their parts, and it is hoped that this company will come this way again. They have the Third Regiment Band orchestra with them and they furnished superb music. After the play a reception was given in the Armory Building, quite a large crowd participating, and a good crowd came up from Hamlet on the night train to attend the dance and returned with the company to Hamlet on the early morning train.

Ice Cream Party to Choir.

Rocky Mount, N. C., Feb. 20.—A lovely ice cream party was given to the members of the choir of the Church, of the Good Shepherd Friday night, February 14th, at the residence of Judge Battle. Members present were:
Mrs. Judge Battle, Mrs. W. L. Thorp, Mrs. Lizzie O'hella, Misses Maud and Harriet Phillips, Miss Katie Battle, Miss Annie Baker, Rev. E. B. Owens, S. Jenkins, John W. Phillip, E. F.
Arrington, Willie Gupton, Geo. W.
Phillips, M. Milgram, William Will-ford, Mrs. Judge Battle and her lady assistants served the elegant cream and cake in her beautiful dining parlor; also serving coffee, wafers, etc. After all had enjoyed the nice things to eat, they were then treated to some delightful music by Mrs.

Judge Battle and others. Unanimous thanks were voted to Mrs. Judge Battle for the admirable manner in which she entertained, and also to Messrs.
Milgram and Phillips, who were instrumental in getting up the party.

MAN ABOUT TOWN.

Mr. Graham Haywood was seen largely on Fayetteville street yesterday carrying a package under his arm, which he exhibited to many friends. A curious reporter approached him and desired to know the contents of the package. "Who are you for for Congressman from this district?" asked Mr. Haywood, the newspaper man replying that he was for Pou, Russ and Carlyle. "I've got the picture of the dark horse here," said Mr. Haywood, exhibiting at the same time a handsome photograph of himself. The writer was overcome with emotion.

"Who is it says prohibition will not prohibit?" asked Mr. L. W. Smith, a well known citizen of Raleigh who is now employed as proof-reader on the Atlanta Georgian. "If you doubt that it will prohibit, come to Atlanta and you'll not say that again. Why the law is so well carried out there that a man with a red nose is afraid to go up street for fear he will be arrested."

There was found on the streets yesterday the report of the Secretary of the "S. T. B. Association, variously known as the "Strange Tale Brigade," "Some Tough Beats," etc. The motto of the club is "We never refuse when it's on you." The members of this society may be well known by their observance of this motto. The officers are: J. F. Hatch, president; S. O.
Tates, vice-president; and J. S. Mc-Donald, secretary-treasurer.

Speaking of our city schools, and the great improvement in the attendance record, the following incident occurred in Superintendent Harper's office this week. The Superintendent asked a colored patron of the schools how many children he had in the schools.

"Four, Sir."
"How many times do they get tardy in a month?"
"Lord, Boss, I never kept dat stuff in my house even when de dispensary was here, and you know dey kaint git none now!"
