INDEX TO ADVERTISEMENTS. Phillips & Penny, Baker's Choice Flour. The J. D. Riggan Co., 25 Per Cent Discount.

IN AND ABOUT THE CITY.

Fair weather and a little colder than yesterday is the outlook for Raleigh today.

All the banks in the city will be closed tomorrow, as it is a legal holiday, Washington's birthday.

Work was begun again yesterday in macadamizing South Salisbury street between Cabarrus and Davie.

One colored couple obtained marriage license here yesterday. Willis Parlin, of McQuillers, and Roberta Baker, of Raleigh.

The police court has had an easy time this week. There were no cases for trial yesterday, and the only two this week were two drunks on Monday.

Governor Glenn left yesterday morning for Lynchburg, Va., where he delivered an address before the Y. M. C. A. of that city last night. He will return to Raleigh tonight.

Chairman Franklin McNeill of the Corporation Commission, has returned from Wilkesboro, where he examined into the alleged inequality of property valuations.

Major Hiram L. Grant has returned from Greensboro, where he was said to have been interested in promoting the Cannon boom. No pun was intended in speaking of booming Cannon.

Rev. J. T. Edmondson left yesterday for Mintz in Sampson county, where he is to hold a revival meeting. His daughter, Miss Kathleen, will join him there in the work.

Between three and four o'clock yesterday morning there was quite a fall of snow in Raleigh. Mr. J. N. McRary, the keeper of the market, says it came down vigorously, but the temperature was such early yesterday that it soon disappeared.

Mr. H. H. Dalton, who has resigned his position as auditor with the Raleigh Electric Company to go to New York with the Electric Bond and Share Company, left yesterday. The entire office force of the Raleigh Electric Company escorted him to the depot so as to show the esteem in which he is held.

Seaboard trains Nos. 99 and 81 passed through Raleigh five hours late yesterday morning, being delayed by the accident between Petersburg and Richmond, in which a stalled freight train broke in two and half of it crashed into the passenger train engine. Other Seaboard trains were also delayed.

Passengers boarding street railway cars on the double tracks should be careful to use the right hand side of the track in the direction the car is going, otherwise they are in danger of being run down by another car, and at the same time will not have to cross behind the car they wish to take as the gates are closed on the left side.
