AH, THAT PLANK

No Loop Hole Left as to Injunctions

Bryan is Assured of the Votes of Number of Prohibitionists Who Will Support Him in Preference to Their Own Candidate-The Nebraskan Relieved of What Threatened to Be An Awkward Situation.

(By the Associated Press.) Fairview, Lincoln, Neb., July 20 .-Influential eastern Democrats have told William J. Bryan that, in their opinion, the anti-injunction plank of the platform adopted at Denver was hardly worth the paper it was written on, the reason alleged by them being that the David B. Hill bill, passed by the Senate, which is specifically indersed by the Democratic plank, simply carried out the common law provision, granting a jury trial in con-tempt cases "in the jurisdiction of the presiding judge."

The plank was drafted on the astrial by jury mandatory at the request of the defendant.

Mr. Bryan spent several anxious hours after he received this informaground, the allegation that he and the majority of the committee of Resolutions had been tricked caused him to worry, and he admitted that he would have an inquiry set on foot. The Associated Press correspondent this afternoon relieved this suspense by submitting to him advices from Washington, showing that the Hill bill as finally adopted by the United States Senate in 1896 provided for summary punishment by the court in direct contempt cases, but made mandatory for the court to grant trial by jury in all cases where such contempt was committed outside of the jurisdiction of the court and where such a jury trial was demanded by

This was the Allen amendment, bryan remembered it, and it cleared up what threatened to become an awkward situation for the Democratic candidate for the Presidency.

The part that the prohibition question will play in the campaign was talked over by Mr. Bryan and Wiley B. Phillips, editor of the California Voice, of Los Angeles, who is returning from Columbus, Ohio, where he was a delegate to the National -rohibition convention.

"We agreed," said Mr. Phillips. "not to discuss for publication what was said at the conference." Mr. Phillips, however, volunteered the statement that a number or prohibitionists would vote for Mr. Bryan as against their own candidates. He thought the prohibition movement would affect the vote in the close States, and was unwilling to concede to Taft many of these votes. The appeal of Mr. Bryan to the farmers of the country for campaign contributions is bearing fruit. Today a number of responses were received, the sums enclosed varying in amount. Two retired farmers of Omaha, one aged 82 and the other 79 years, preferred to deliver their contributions in person. They hobbled up the pathway to Fairview and each placed in the hands of Mr. Bryan a An appeal by Mr. Bryan to the

As long as a few 1908. men furnish the money to finance a campaign the men will exert an undue influence upon the government.
"It seems that we have reached the end of corporate contributions, and this is a step in advance, but the individuals who control these favorseeking corporations may still dominate politics by furnishing the sinews of war. The Democratic party has struck a blow at this sys-tem by limiting contributions to $10,-000 and providing for publicity before election. The Republican party has so far refused to join with us on this proposition, but public sentiment may yet compel it to do so. I have no Rockingham, N. BALL MEN FIGHT.

Manager Win Clark Put in Hospital by Knife in the Hands of Outfielder Bender-Both of Columbia Team.

Charleston, S. C., July 20 .- Manager Win Clark, of the Columbia team in the South Atlantic League, is in a hospital here suffering with several knife wounds inflicted by Outfielder J. C. Bender, of the same team, a brother of the famous pitcher of the Philadelphia American League team. The assault took place on the steamer Iroquois yesterday five hours out from Jacksonville. Bender had been drinking and Clark remonstrated with him. Bender took hold of Clark and a fight ensued, Bender using his knife, and Clark his fists. When the two were separated it was found that Clark had several wounds. Bender was placed in irons.

Officers and Men Enjoy Sports and Operative Performances

In Excursion to Pearl Rarbor, Where Admiral Sperry Inspects the Site of the New Naval Station-Steam Pipe On the Keursage Bursts And Scalds Several Men.

(By the Associated Press.) Honolulu, July 20 .- Boat races, bascet ball and other sports today, and tonight a gala performance of the old omic opera "The Mascot", arranged by the society women of Honolulu, Palace were the chief features in the day's entertainments of the officers and men of the Atlantic fleet. There was also an excursion to Pearl Harbor, where only Rear Admiral Sperry and staff went to inspect the site of the new naval station for the islands. The battleship Missouri, of the third diiana and Ohio coaled at Lahaina, arrived today, thus completing the list of sixteen ships of the fleet.

The bursting of a seven-inch steam pipe on the Kearsage late Saturday became generally known this morning, but it proved not to be as serious as first reported. Five men were scalded, water-tender; Frank Watson, a second class fireman, and Pompum, a coalpasser, were severely burned. None of these is seriously injured and all will be about in a few days. The bursted pipe was connected with the forward starboard boiler and burst directly beneath a ventilator. This allowed the steam to escape. Repairs are now being made and the accident will not interfere with the Kearsage sailing with the fleet on Wednesday for Australia.

The police do not think that the murderer will be captured near the scene of the crime. They say that any one who could display such cold blooded cunning as was shown in the murder plot, would plan to get safely away before the crime was discov ered.

It would have been easy for the murder to get to Patterson or Newark by trolley car and from either of these places he could get a train for the West or South.

A brother of "Gus" Eberhardt was found at Woodside today and he had furnished the police with an excellent photo of the missing man. And Takes Occasion to Make a Speech Assists in the Dedication of a Court House at Germantown, Va., and Delivers an Address on the Adminis tration of Justico.

(By the Associated Press.) Hot Springs, Va., July 20 .- Judge William H. Taft today assisted in the ppening of court and in the dedication of a court house at Germantown, Va., five miles from Hot Springs. The subject of his speech was the administration of justice by the courts. He was greeted by a large assemblage of sojourners at neighboring resorts and country folk, many of whom traveled far to see and hear him. He was given a cordial welcome. The strength of the judiciary, he declared, was based on the fact that it rested upon. the principle that the people share in the responsibility for the work of the courts in the form of duty on juries and in other capacities.

He justified proper criticism of the courts by the people because by such criticism "those who administer justice shall feel that they are under the critical eye of men and women entitled to have justice of the people administered without fear or favor." He could not come into the atmosphere of the court, he said, without a feeling of deep regret that he had ever left the bench. He concluded his remarks by congratulating Bath county upon the fact that in it two great political parties are nearly equally divided, which, he said, was a guarantee against evils in the administration of the government. Judge Taft was frequently interrupted by applause. Mrs. Taft accompanied her husband to the court house, which was reached after a driver over a splendid road. Judge Taft was presented to the assemblage by J. A. Rivercombe, a member of the board of supervisors of the county. In presenting him, Mr. Rivercombe spoke of his wide and varied experience in public life, and in concluding, said: "I take pleasure in introducing to you the next President of the United States." "I don't like to introduce a joint discussion just at this time," said Mr. Taft in opening his remarks, "and I (Continued on Page Six.)

(Special to News and Observer.) Asheville, N. C., July 20 .- The case of Rev. William G. Whitaker, charged by the government with a fraudulent ise of the United States mails, is now n the hands of the jury. The charge of Judge Newman to the jury was concluded at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon and at a late hour tonight the ury had not reached a verdict. There is much interest and speculation over the outcome, while it is said that bets have been laid for and against acquittal. The features of the trial tolay were the arguments by Thomas Settle for the defense and District Attorney Holton for the prosecution. The court room was crowded with spectaors during both the morning and afternoon sessions, and at the close of the trial Whitaker appeared nervous, ill at ease and worn out. It is be-lieved by many that the case will result in a mistrial.

The First National Bank of Asheville cases will be called tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock when there wil be argument on the motion to quash the bills of indictment found at Greensboro eleven years ago against Preese, Penland and Dickerson, the three indicted bank officials.
