WHEN HARVEST COMES.

When the toil of summer's over, then the harvest will be sweet, The music of the fiddle to the fiddler's patting feet;

Love will be at the gate there, where the lights an' shadows meet, Kissin' of his sweetheart in the twilight!

2200,000.00 The roads will then be frosty where we drive the teams to town, The boys'll then be shakin of the juicy apples down,

An' Love'll find the sweetest girls an be swinging them around An' kissin' of his sweetheart in the _ twilight. An' then we'll hang the mistletoe, by happy lovers blest, fed wart a-thrillin's like a bird-song in the breast, An' Love'll go the rounds then-kiss the one he loves the best-He'll be kissin' of his sweetheart in Five Sisters Grouped Together a Pittsboro-Attending House Party of Mrs. J. J. Jackson.

Pittsboro, N. C., Aug. 7 .- An unusual occurrence, and perhaps one never before duplicated, was the grouping together of five sisters whose ages aggregate over 375 years, on the streets of Pittsboro this evening, Mrs. J. J. Jackson, Mrs. Roxana McNeill. Mrs. Addie Bagwell, Mrs. Corrinna Jackson, and Mrs. Elvira Moffitt, daughters of the late Governor Worth. composed the party. This was the first time in years that the reunion has taken place. A photographer from Raieigh came up to Pittsboro to photograph the group. Three of the sisters married brothers, Miss Lucy Worth having married Mr. J. J. Jackson; Miss Elvira Worth married Samuel S. Jackson, and Mrs. Corrinna Roberts' second marriage was to Mr. H. . Jackson. The sisters compose a delightful house party at the home of Gorham. Mrs. J. J. Jackson.

Tanglewood House Party.

Farmville, N. C., August 7 .- Mrs. week giving a most delightful house party at their hospitable country residence, seven miles west of Smithfield. The fortunate members are Miss Ma-bel Tomlinson, Mrs. D. F. Harrison, Va.; Misses Kittle Baucom, Lucy Poole and Mildred Young, of Clayton; Inez Wynne, of Raleigh; Lilla Mann, of Whitakers; Miss McLauchlin, of Reaford, and Mr. Joseph Atkinson, of Enfield.

All who have ever visited Tangle wood knows what it means to be a guest there where all friends are welcome and everybody enjoys themselves.

Tuesday evening the hostess gave an ice cream supper, at which sixty young people from Clayton, Smithfield and the adjoining country gathered. Several good musicians were present, and while some enjoyed talking on the large porches and hall, others preferred the excellent vocal and instrumental music rendered by different ones in the parlor.

At eleven o'clock all were invited to a dining room most artistically decorated with grapes and ferns, where delicious creams and cakes were served. The crowd reluctantly scattered about twelve-thirty to gather again later in the week, for this was only a beginning of a series of entertainments to be given in honor of the guests. Friday they meet at the famous picnic grounds around Moore's Bridge. Between parties, hay-rides, etc., Mr.

William Tomlinson, son of the hostess, leads them on most delightful strolls and fishing excursions. Social Event at Henderson.

Henderson, N. C., Aug. 7 .- Miss Julia Rowland gave an elegant reception last night in honor of her guests, Misses Harby, Corbitt, Ormond, Wooten and Hunter. The handsome home was artistically decorated for the occasion with palms, ferns and rare flowers. Miss Olive Harris and Mr. Frank Robards greeted the guests on the front porch as they arrived. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Rowland, Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Rowland and Mrs. W.

B. Daughtry received in the front They were then presented to the young ladies and gentlemen receiving in the parlor, Miss Julia Rowland and Mr. Schroeder, Miss Jennie Ormond latest electrical attachments. To Marry a Georgian.

Statesville, N. C., Aug. 7 .- One of Statesville's daughters is to become the bride of a young Georgian in the near future. Mr. and Mrs. Sol. Simon have issued cards announcing the engagement of their daughter, Miss Miriam H. Simon, to Mr. Jake Schrameck, of Augusta, Ga. Cards were mailed to out-of-town people only. Miss Simon is popular with a large circle of friends who will be much interested in the announcement of her engagement. Mr. Schrameck has visited in Statesville and is known by a number of Statesville people.

A Surprise Marriage.

Salisbury, N. C., August 7.—Mr. George A. Kluttz and Miss Luia Sloop, two of Rowan county's best known young people, surprised their many friends by driving to the home of the bride's pastor, Rev. R. R. Sowers, near Salisbury, wheee the young couple were married yesterday afternoon. Only a few relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Sloop, among Rowan's most successful farmers, and the groom is likewise well connected and equally popular.

Miss Leta Lassiter Entertains. Archer, N. C., Aug. 7 .- On Wednesday evening Miss Leta Lassiter, the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Lassiter, charmingly enin honor of her guest, Miss Maggie Pool, of Raleigh, N. C. The features of the evening was a duet by Misses Pool and Lassiter. Mr. R. H. Lassiter and his violin added much pleasure to the evening.

At 10 o'clock the guests were invited out on the lawn where delicious refreshments were served. Cook-Gardner
