

THE WEATHER TODAY

Maximum temperature, 70; minimum, 54; total precipitation for 24 hours ending 8 p. m., 0 inches.

WEATHER YESTERDAY

Washington, D. C., Sept. 16.—North Carolina, fair Thursday and Friday; light to fresh north winds.

VOLUME LXXXVI, NO. 101

RALEIGH, N. C., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 1908

PRICE 5 CENTS

The News and Observer

AN EVENTFUL DAY IN THE EMPIRE STATE Thousands Join in Ovation to Democracy's Leader and Hear Him on "Taft and His Scars"

CHALLENGER FOR GOVERNOR

The Present Lieutenant Governor of New York is Nominated as Head of the State Ticket by the Democratic Convention—All Except One Candidate Nominated by Acclamation—Platform Arraigns the Administration of Governor Hughes and Pledges Earnest Support to the National Ticket and Platform—Judge Alton B. Parker, Permanent Chairman, Makes An Address, Powerfully Arraigning the Republican Party as the Mother of Trusts.—Parker and Bryan Stand Side by Side.

(By the Associated Press.) Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 16.—A speech by William J. Bryan, Democratic candidate for President, in this city on Mr. Taft and his scars, and two overflow talks, formed the climax of an eventful day in the present campaign. Arriving here shortly after 6 o'clock, and met by thousands of persons, Democratic leader and orator, he addressed an ovation. Along with him from Syracuse came the new Democratic nominee for Governor of New York, Lewis Stuyvesant Chester.

Among those at the scene to meet him was National chairman, Mack William J. Conners, chairman of the Democratic State Committee; Charles F. Murphy, the Tammany chieftain, and Daniel J. Conlon. On Mr. Bryan's arrival the party was taken in an automobile to the Genesee Valley Country Club for dinner.

The principal speech tonight was in Convention Hall, where the Democratic State convention finished its labors today and which was packed to the doors tonight with several thousands on the outside, unable to gain admittance. Mr. Bryan was accorded a great demonstration by his audience, among whom were the Democratic leaders of the State and most of the delegates to the convention.

Mr. Bryan said in part: "Mr. Taft confesses that his arguments are not convincing when he attempts to introduce sugar and flour to threaten the public with dire disaster if he is not elected. A threat is always an admission that argument and persuasion are powerless to be effective. Measured by this test, Mr. Taft has already abandoned hope of convincing the public of the righteousness of his position. "On the labor question he declares that our demands for a trial by jury in cases of indirect contempt is the most insidious attack upon the judicial system in the history of the country. According to Mr. Taft, it would very much impair the administration of justice. He seems to forget that the very reform which we demand is likely to create in the United States Senate twelve years ago, and that it was supported by such Republicans as Senator Sherman of Ohio; Senator Allison of Iowa; Senator Hoar of New Hampshire; Senator Brewster of Connecticut; Senator Morrill of Vermont; and Senator Knute Nelson of Minnesota. It is not attacking the courts to remove abuses that have grown up under existing laws and procedure. The criminal judge does not feel that his dignity is assailed when the accused is given a trial by jury; the common law judge does not feel that it is a reflection on him for a jury to sit to decide upon a trial by jury; why should it seem such an unlawful thing for a jury trial to be granted in a case of indirect contempt?"

"The Democratic party is the defender of the judiciary, and the best way to defend it is to remove abuses which are likely to create in the minds of those who feel that justice done them."

Taft on Bank Deposit Guarantee. "In discussing the guaranty of bank deposits, Mr. Taft has said that a tendency to substitute glory for soundness for reason and argument. He says: 'If the proposals were adopted exactly as the Democratic platform suggests, it would bring the whole banking system of the country down in ruin.' "There are fifteen million depositors in the United States, and they are equally assured that the banking system can only be safe when the depositors are insured—that to secure the depositors would make banking insecure. This logic may satisfy the big financiers from whom he has drawn his arguments, but it will not satisfy the millions whose deposits make banking profitable. His theory is that a guaranty fund would invite carelessness but he overlooks the fact that mutual responsibility on the part of the bank would compel a stricter supervision and a better regulation. The banking fraternity ought to resent the reflection which he casts upon individual bankers when he assumes that there would be enough dishonest bankers to ruin the honest ones. I should not be so ready in slandering the bankers of the country, and I warn Mr. Taft that the refusal of the banks to trust each other is apt to lessen the confidence the depositors have in the banks."

"Mr. Taft argues that it would be impossible to devise a successful guaranty system. He quotes Mr. Knox, former comptroller of the currency, as an authority against the guaranty plan, and yet Mr. Knox declares that the same plan once tried unsuccessfully in New York was introduced into Vermont with better safeguards and that the law not only proved satisfactory in its operation, but raised the standard of banking throughout the State."

The Plan Tried in Oklahoma. "In Oklahoma the plan has been put into operation, and the result is the best regulation of banks that any State has yet attempted. "It is hardly necessary to notice the argument upon Mr. Taft's laps most stress, namely that speculators would take advantage of the system. Speculators have taken advantage of the present system. The Federal government requires security when it deposits in national banks; he counts that the State, the county and city demand security when they deposit in banks; he knows that the fraternal order demand security, and he is beginning to ask why he alone is left unprotected in case a bank fails, and the question will be asked with more and more emphasis until (Continued on Page Four.)

HELP TO SOLVE THE PUZZLE

Six Important Witnesses Unearthed for Rustin Murder Mystery

County Attorney English Says Their Testimony Will Materially Help to a Solution of the Puzzle—The Revolver Has Not Yet Been Found.

(By the Associated Press.) Omaha, Neb., Sept. 16.—County Attorney English, who, with the aid of the police department, is investigating the mystery of the death of Dr. Frederick T. Rustin, reports that he has unearthed six important witnesses whose testimony has not yet become public. He says their testimony will materially help in the solution of the puzzle.

The mystery of the alleged disappearance of Dr. Rustin's hat and the fact of his being found hanging in the hallway of his home was explained to the county attorney by a neighbor woman, who says she picked up the hat on the morning of the tragedy and hung it where found. The search for the revolver which has been killed, is being prosecuted with the utmost care. So far as known no trace of the weapon has been found.

An attorney employed by certain interests connected with the Rustin case, says he has evidence to be disclosed later, tending to show that Dr. Rustin belonged to a suicide club, the members of which, the attorney argues, had met in the resorts where Dr. Rustin first encountered Mrs. Abbie Rice, who revealed in her testimony at the coroner's inquest, the story of the death pact into which she and the doctor had entered. J. H. McIntosh, agency attorney for the New York Life Insurance Company, of New York, a brother-in-law of Dr. Rustin, who was in Europe when the tragedy occurred, has returned to this country in response to a telegram and will come to Omaha to assume general direction for the family of the procedure to obtain the insurance the doctor left, which is said to have amounted to $75,000. One company has already announced its readiness to turn over $22,500, the full amount he carried.

DIFFERENCES SETTLED. Automobile Club of America and the American Automobile Association to Pull Together.

(By the Associated Press.) New York, Sept. 16.—The differences between the Automobile Club of America and the American Automobile Association, the two foremost automobilizing organizations in America, have been settled, and the two bodies will co-operate in working for the success of both the Vanderbilt cup race and the grand prize races announced by the Automobile Club of America to be held at Savannah, Ga. This announcement was made tonight by authorized representatives of the two organizations, following a series of conferences held to consider the disputes which had arisen between them over the rules for the Vanderbilt cup race and the control of motor racing. The committees representing the two bodies finally reached a conclusion, which has been satisfied by the board of governors of the Automobile Club of America, and by the executive committee of the American Automobile Association. The understanding arrived at dispels the controversy and establishes friendly relations.

KITCHIN IN THE LAND OF THE SKY Unanswerable Arraignment of Republicans HEARD AT HENDERSONVILLE

The Pure Gospel of Democracy is Preached With Power by Hon. B. F. Aycock and the Next Governor, to a Large and Enthusiastic Audience in Henderson's Capital—Mr. Kitchin Says He is Finding Every Encouragement.

(Special to News and Observer.) Hendersonville, N. C., Sept. 16.—Hon. W. W. Kitchin, Democratic nominee for governor, and Senator B. F. Aycock, nominee for Corporation Commissioner, addressed the people of Henderson county today at its court house, and in two fine speeches, most ably discussed the state and national issues of the present campaign. The court house was full of people, of course. The day was fine, clear, cool and inspiring and to the inspiring music of the Hendersonville band, the people poured into the big building until it was jammed full. It was this tribute to these gentlemen, more especially to Mr. Kitchin, and must have convinced him that in truth as he said in his speech, he is the nominee of the people East and West. Mr. Kitchin was greeted with a storm of cheers when he faced the great audience. He was frequently interrupted by applause and held the absolute attention of every one to the end of his speech. He said he was finding every encouragement in his campaign, which as a patriotic citizen he had a right to expect from the patriotic citizens of this State.

Mr. Kitchin's Address. Mr. Kitchin said in part: "Before we purified the Republican party by eliminating the nigger element, we had a nigger party. Brown's Summit to hear Tom Settle and me in a joint debate. Afterwards, some one asked an old dabbler who had listened attentively to the speeches, who had the best of the argument, he replied, 'Kitchin, surely did clean up Mr. Settle, but with a wide grin, which showed every gleaming ivory in his head, but, with a mazy, chile, he done had the best of it.' "So it is with the Democratic party. It certainly has the best side of the argument, and to you Republicans present I want to say you shall know the truth and it shall make you free. The average Republican is ashamed of what his party has done in this State, and not one of them goes before and promises to give them the same administration that they have in the past when they say, 'Would you put niggers on your school board again? Would you have nigger magistrates or nigger constables? The Republicans are ashamed of the present administration, and they would beat the devil around the bush by means of Republican registers and in this way would let the niggers vote.' "The Republicans believe, the speaker said, in principle, which is absolutely wrong and for this reason they cannot conduct the people's business honestly. The people in the Republican party do not control their own party. For instance, they say they would beat the devil around the bush by means of Republican registers and in this way would let the niggers vote."

"The Republicans believe, the speaker said, in principle, which is absolutely wrong and for this reason they cannot conduct the people's business honestly. The people in the Republican party do not control their own party. For instance, they say they would beat the devil around the bush by means of Republican registers and in this way would let the niggers vote."

"The Republicans believe, the speaker said, in principle, which is absolutely wrong and for this reason they cannot conduct the people's business honestly. The people in the Republican party do not control their own party. For instance, they say they would beat the devil around the bush by means of Republican registers and in this way would let the niggers vote."

"The Republicans believe, the speaker said, in principle, which is absolutely wrong and for this reason they cannot conduct the people's business honestly. The people in the Republican party do not control their own party. For instance, they say they would beat the devil around the bush by means of Republican registers and in this way would let the niggers vote."

"The Republicans believe, the speaker said, in principle, which is absolutely wrong and for this reason they cannot conduct the people's business honestly. The people in the Republican party do not control their own party. For instance, they say they would beat the devil around the bush by means of Republican registers and in this way would let the niggers vote."

COMPARISON OF RADICAL MISRULE AND REVOLUTION Gov. Glenn on Aycock and Russell Regimes A TELLING ADDRESS

At the Capital of Old Lincoln the State's Chief Executive Makes a Powerful Speech to an Attentive and Appreciative Audience, Showing Up Radical Misrule in Its True Light—The Tariff Discussed.

(Special to News and Observer.) Lincoln, N. C., Sept. 16.—Governor R. B. Glenn delivered a splendid campaign speech in the court house here today to a large and enthusiastic crowd. A number of ladies graced the occasion and several prominent Republican leaders of the county heard the Governor with seeming interest. After an able discussion of national issues, in which the speaker scored the Republicans on the tariff issue, he turned to the State issues and made a telling comparison of Republican rule under Governor Russell and Democratic rule under Governor Aycock and the present administration. A large number of farmers came in to greet the Governor. Although it is a very busy time with them just now, everybody present was very much impressed with the speech and considerable enthusiasm was aroused among the Democrats. The Governor told several jokes which illustrated all his points and elicited much applause and laughter. He made a number of homey illustrations of the action of the present high Republican tariff, which seemed to appeal strongly to the farmers present. While the Democrats of Lincoln county have not really waked up for the county campaign as yet, being busy getting in their crops, Governor Glenn's speech will do much to stir the ball rolling and a good Democratic majority can be counted on from old Lincoln in November. The Governor left on the afternoon train for Monroe, where he will speak tomorrow.

WILBUR WRIGHT MAKES FLIGHTS IN FRANCE, ECLIPSING ALL EUROPEAN RECORDS FOR SUSTAINED AEROPLANE FLIGHT—IN THE AIR OVER 29 MINUTES.

(By the Associated Press.) Le Mans, Sept. 16.—On the field of Avours this morning, Wilbur Wright, the aeroplaneist, of Dayton, Ohio, eclipsed all European records for sustained aeroplane flight. He remained in the air for 29 minutes and 13 seconds. This gives the Wright brothers the records for both hemispheres. Mr. Wright circled over the field at an average height of forty-five feet. He turned and twisted in every direction and his complete mastery of the aeroplane aroused great enthusiasm among the spectators. It is estimated that he covered twenty-six miles. M. Bollee, president of the Aero Club of the Sarthe, was the official timer. Upon alighting, Mr. Wright said he could have remained in the air longer had not the gasoline become exhausted. Mr. Wright has notified the Aero Club that he will compete on Friday for the club's prize of $1,000 for the longest flight over an enclosed ground. He will compete at the same time also for the Michelin $4,000 cup for the greatest distance covered by an aeroplane in 1908.

BIG MEETING PLANNED Primitive Baptist Association to Meet at Rocky Mount.

(Special to News and Observer.) Rocky Mount, N. C., Sept. 16.—One of the largest Primitive Baptist meetings that have been held in this section in several years, is being planned to be held in this city beginning October 4th. Kankerbe Primitive Baptist Association will meet with the Primitive Baptist church here for a three days' session. There will be delegations from over forty-five churches who are members of the association, and five thousand persons are expected to be present. Professor Pennington Speaks. (Special to News and Observer.) Kinston, N. C., Sept. 16.—Last night at the opening of Christian Industrial College, Professor Pennington was the main speaker. His power as an orator and word-painter was vivid in his famous lecture "Immortality, or the Star of Bethlehem." At the conclusion of the discourse every person in the audience rose with one accord at the climax of his eloquence.

CHILD GROUND TO PIECES Little Son of J. D. McRainey, of Parkton, Killed in His Father's Cotton Gin

(Special to News and Observer.) Fayetteville, N. C., Sept. 16.—Near Parkton yesterday, Luther McRainey, the five-year-old son of Mr. J. D. McRainey, a prominent farmer, was killed by falling into his father's cotton gin. The little boy, who had been playing in the gin house, was ground to pieces by the machinery. It usually is the man who cannot find God in nature who tries to tell us all about the nature of God.

GOVERNOR GLENN IN GASTON Makes Powerful Speech for Democracy at Dallas.

(Special to News and Observer.) Dallas, N. C., Sept. 16.—Governor R. B. Glenn spoke to a packed court room here yesterday. The Governor was at his best and mingled successfully human interest and sound Democratic doctrine. The speech was logical and fairly unreserved by everyone present. The two presidential candidates were discussed. Bryan was shown to be the superior to Taft, as a man and from a political standpoint. Taft was shown to be entangled with the trust and predatory wealth. Bryan was shown to be far from such influence and the representative of the American people and their interests of all legitimate classes of the common people. Taft the representative of the corporation and trust. The Governor then went into the discussion of the national platform and discussed the tariff, trust and other issues. He then came to State issues and compared the two gubernatorial candidates, Kitchin, the nominee of the people, and standing Governor Aycock, representing the corporations and trusts. He discussed the tariff of Cox to Washington, when he testified against the tariff and against the interest of the people of the State. The Democratic and Republican State platform was analyzed much to the favor of the Democratic position. The addition of the national platform to the administration of Aycock and himself, showing the efficiency of Democratic rule and the inefficiency of Republican mis-rule.

SALE OF MILLS CONFIRMED. Judge Long Renders Decision in Case of Eugenia and Clark Mills at Jonesboro—Jonesboro Sash and Blind Factory Starts Up Again.

(Special to News and Observer.) Jonesboro, N. C., Sept. 16.—Judge Long confirmed the sale of the Eugenia and Clark Mills, Co., of this place yesterday. The case was heard before him last week in Rockingham, Richmond county, and his decision was reserved until this week. It is likely these mills will begin operating soon, which means much to the merchants of this place. The mills went into the hands of a receiver about the middle of March and were held at public auction the fourth of August. The Jonesboro Sash and Blind Factory, which has been shut down for the past sixty or ninety days and in the hands of a receiver, has started its wheels rolling again. This is one of the best factories in the State and is not only doing work for this immediate section, but is sending its material all over the North and South.

HIGH CROWD CAPTIVATED. Hot. Walter Murphy Delivers a Strong Address at Morehead City.

(Special to News and Observer.) Morehead City, N. C., Sept. 15.—Hot. Walter Murphy addressed one of the largest gatherings ever assembled in Morehead City tonight. The city hall was crowded and the large crowd was captivated by the splendid argument he made. The effect of this speech will do untold good in this county. Statesville Graded Schools Open. Statesville, N. C., Sept. 16.—The Statesville graded schools, Prof. D. Matt Thompson, superintendent, opened yesterday and a swarm of children were present for the opening. While the enrollment was not completed more than 500 were in attendance today and yesterday. The

GOVERNOR AYCOCK STRIKES A DEATH BLOW TO NORTH CAROLINA REPUBLICANISM THIS SMITHFIELD SPEECH

Lays Bare the Hypocrisy of the Republicans of North Carolina in a Masterly Appeal to the Voters of Johnston County—Exposes the Republican Platform to Ridicule—"The People Do Not Change Their Politics Without Reason"—Nothing in the History of the State During the Past Four Years That Either Demands or Justifies a Change Toward the Republicans—The People Are Not Looking For Another Republican Period of Bad Government to Be Followed by Another Revolution, Covering Over the Misdeeds of Republican Misrule With the Blood of Ignorant Followers—Reasons Why the Democratic Majority of 50,000 Will Be Increased—The Importance of Being a Democrat Emphasized.

Smithfield, N. C., Sept. 16.—Democracy was triumphant in Johnston county today, and her matchless advocate, ex-Governor Charles B. Aycock, was heard by two thousand men from every section of the county, referring to the shameful platform, contrasting it with the trust-flavored declarations of the National Republicans. Several distinguished lawyers from other cities who heard Governor Aycock declared his speech to be not only the utterance of a statesman, but one of the finest masterpieces of North Carolina political oratory. Two years ago disaffection in Johnston county, caused by local troubles, reached its high water-mark. Since that time the Democrats have been regaining their former strength gradually, and it is believed that Governor Aycock's speech today has hastened the restoration complete. There is perhaps no county in the State that has been so deeply insulted by Federal agents as Johnston, and the people of the county long ago ceased to look for anything save treachery and betrayal among the Republicans. Governor Aycock in his speech spoke of the Republican spy system in this county, referring to the shameful rest of decent men, of Federal agents being sent into the county to lure men into traps, catching fifteen or twenty at one time, and forcing them to pay in one way or another $3,200. He spoke of one man having been arrested "for that new-fangled disease, Judge Purnell invented. Nobody knows what it is, but I believe, in my opinion, and I believe it is called penance." Hon. Edward W. Fox, Congressman from this district, stated that the Democratic majority would not be less than 50,000. Hon. Clarence Richardson, the county chairman, said that he believed the Democratic majority would be at least 1,000, and probably more. The Democrats have nominated a very able and popular ticket, while the ticket of the Republicans in this county is acknowledged even by many Republicans to be hopelessly weak. The county is rapidly regaining its former glory, and a remarkably clever and capable aggregation of musicians who have been organized only three weeks. They added greatly to the inspiration of the magnificent audience that greeted Governor Aycock. As Governor Aycock entered the court-house the Selma band struck up the inspiring air of "Dixie," and amid the cheering of two thousand voices, the speaker stepped to the platform. It was remarked that in 1898, when Johnston was the banner Democratic county, Governor Aycock spoke here and a band of musicians was furnished by the county chairman, and from today forth one of the most earnest campaigns ever seen in Johnston county will be waged. Early this morning the crowds began to fill the town, and soon reached the number of usual court visitors here. Governor Aycock spoke in the court-house, beginning after one o'clock. Hon. Clarence Richardson, Selma band, a remarkably clever and capable aggregation of musicians who have been organized only three weeks. They added greatly to the inspiration of the magnificent audience that greeted Governor Aycock. As Governor Aycock entered the court-house the Selma band struck up the inspiring air of "Dixie," and amid the cheering of two thousand voices, the speaker stepped to the platform. It was remarked that in 1898, when Johnston was the banner Democratic county, Governor Aycock spoke here and a band of musicians was furnished by the county chairman, and from today forth one of the most earnest campaigns ever seen in Johnston county will be waged. Early this morning the crowds began to fill the town, and soon reached the number of usual court visitors here. Governor Aycock spoke in the court-house, beginning after one o'clock. Hon. Clarence Richardson, Selma band, a remarkably clever and capable aggregation of musicians who have been organized only three weeks. They added greatly to the inspiration of the magnificent audience that greeted Governor Aycock. As Governor Aycock entered the court-house the Selma band struck up the inspiring air of "Dixie," and amid the cheering of two thousand voices, the speaker stepped to the platform. It was remarked that in 1898, when Johnston was the banner Democratic county, Governor Aycock spoke here and a band of musicians was furnished by the county chairman, and from today forth one of the most earnest campaigns ever seen in Johnston county will be waged. Early this morning the crowds began to fill the town, and soon reached the number of usual court visitors here. Governor Aycock spoke in the court-house, beginning after one o'clock. Hon. Clarence Richardson, Selma band, a remarkably clever and capable aggregation of musicians who have been organized only three weeks. They added greatly to the inspiration of the magnificent audience that greeted Governor Aycock. As Governor Aycock entered the court-house the Selma band struck up the inspiring air of "Dixie," and amid the cheering of two thousand voices, the speaker stepped to the platform. It was remarked that in 1898, when Johnston was the banner Democratic county, Governor Aycock spoke here and a band of musicians was furnished by the county chairman, and from today forth one of the most earnest campaigns ever seen in Johnston county will be waged. Early this morning the crowds began to fill the town, and soon reached the number of usual court visitors here. Governor Aycock spoke in the court-house, beginning after one o'clock. Hon. Clarence Richardson, Selma band, a remarkably clever and capable aggregation of musicians who have been organized only three weeks. They added greatly to the inspiration of the magnificent audience that greeted Governor Aycock. As Governor Aycock entered the court-house the Selma band struck up the inspiring air of "Dixie," and amid the cheering of two thousand voices, the speaker stepped to the platform. It was remarked that in 1898, when Johnston was the banner Democratic county, Governor Aycock spoke here and a band of musicians was furnished by the county chairman, and from today forth one of the most earnest campaigns ever seen in Johnston county will be waged. Early this morning the crowds began to fill the town, and soon reached the number of usual court visitors here. Governor Aycock spoke in the court-house, beginning after one o'clock. Hon. Clarence Richardson, Selma band, a remarkably clever and capable aggregation of musicians who have been organized only three weeks. They added greatly to the inspiration of the magnificent audience that greeted Governor Aycock. As Governor Aycock entered the court-house the Selma band struck up the inspiring air of "Dixie," and amid the cheering of two thousand voices, the speaker stepped to the platform. It was remarked that in 1898, when Johnston was the banner Democratic county, Governor Aycock spoke here and a band of musicians was furnished by the county chairman, and from today forth one of the most earnest campaigns ever seen in Johnston county will be waged. Early this morning the crowds began to fill the town, and soon reached the number of usual court visitors here. Governor Aycock spoke in the court-house, beginning after one o'clock. Hon. Clarence Richardson, Selma band, a remarkably clever and capable aggregation of musicians who have been organized only three weeks. They added greatly to the inspiration of the magnificent audience that greeted Governor Aycock. As Governor Aycock entered the court-house the Selma band struck up the inspiring air of "Dixie," and amid the cheering of two thousand voices, the speaker stepped to the platform. It was remarked that in 1898, when Johnston was the banner Democratic county, Governor Aycock spoke here and a band of musicians was furnished by the county chairman, and from today forth one of the most earnest campaigns ever seen in Johnston county will be waged. Early this morning the crowds began to fill the town, and soon reached the number of usual court visitors here. Governor Aycock spoke in the court-house, beginning after one o'clock. Hon. Clarence Richardson, Selma band, a remarkably clever and capable aggregation of musicians who have been organized only three weeks. They added greatly to the inspiration of the magnificent audience that greeted Governor Aycock. As Governor Aycock entered the court-house the Selma band struck up the inspiring air of "Dixie," and amid the cheering of two thousand voices, the speaker stepped to the platform. It was remarked that in 1898, when Johnston was the banner Democratic county, Governor Aycock spoke here and a band of musicians was furnished by the county chairman, and from today forth one of the most earnest campaigns ever seen in Johnston county will be waged. Early this morning the crowds began to fill the town, and soon reached the number of usual court visitors here. Governor Aycock spoke in the court-house, beginning after one o'clock. Hon. Clarence Richardson, Selma band, a remarkably clever and capable aggregation of musicians who have been organized only three weeks. They added greatly to the inspiration of the magnificent audience that greeted Governor Aycock. As Governor Aycock entered the court-house the Selma band struck up the inspiring air of "Dixie," and amid the cheering of two thousand voices, the speaker stepped to the platform. It was remarked that in 1898, when Johnston was the banner Democratic county, Governor Aycock spoke here and a band of musicians was furnished by the county chairman, and from today forth one of the most earnest campaigns ever seen in Johnston county will be waged. Early this morning the crowds began to fill the town, and soon reached the number of usual court visitors here. Governor Aycock spoke in the court-house, beginning after one o'clock. Hon. Clarence Richardson, Selma band, a remarkably clever and capable aggregation of musicians who have been organized only three weeks. They added greatly to the inspiration of the magnificent audience that greeted Governor Aycock. As Governor Aycock entered the court-house the Selma band struck up the inspiring air of "Dixie," and amid the cheering of two thousand voices, the speaker stepped to the platform. It was remarked that in 1898, when Johnston was the banner Democratic county, Governor Aycock spoke here and a band of musicians was furnished by the county chairman, and from today forth one of the most earnest campaigns ever seen in Johnston county will be waged. Early this morning the crowds began to fill the town, and soon reached the number of usual court visitors here. Governor Aycock spoke in the court-house, beginning after one o'clock. Hon. Clarence Richardson, Selma band, a remarkably clever and capable aggregation of musicians who have been organized only three weeks. They added greatly to the inspiration of the magnificent audience that greeted Governor Aycock. As Governor Aycock entered the court-house the Selma band struck up the inspiring air of "Dixie," and amid the cheering of two thousand voices, the speaker stepped to the platform. It was remarked that in 1898, when Johnston was the banner Democratic county, Governor Aycock spoke here and a band of musicians was furnished by the county chairman, and from today forth one of the most earnest campaigns ever seen in Johnston county will be waged. Early this morning the crowds began to fill the town, and soon reached the number of usual court visitors here. Governor Aycock spoke in the court-house, beginning after one o'clock. Hon. Clarence Richardson, Selma band, a remarkably clever and capable aggregation of musicians who have been organized only three weeks. They added greatly to the inspiration of the magnificent audience that greeted Governor Aycock. As Governor Aycock entered the court-house the Selma band struck up the inspiring air of "Dixie," and amid the cheering of two thousand voices, the speaker stepped to the platform. It was remarked that in 1898, when Johnston was the banner Democratic county, Governor Aycock spoke here and a band of musicians was furnished by the county chairman, and from today forth one of the most earnest campaigns ever seen in Johnston county will be waged. Early this morning the crowds began to fill the town, and soon reached the number of usual court visitors here. Governor Aycock spoke in the court-house, beginning after one o'clock. Hon. Clarence Richardson, Selma band, a remarkably clever and capable aggregation of musicians who have been organized only three weeks. They added greatly to the inspiration of the magnificent audience that greeted Governor Aycock. As Governor Aycock entered the court-house the Selma band struck up the inspiring air of "Dixie," and amid the cheering of two thousand voices, the speaker stepped to the platform. It was remarked that in 1898, when Johnston was the banner Democratic county, Governor Aycock spoke here and a band of musicians was furnished by the county chairman, and from today forth one of the most earnest campaigns ever seen in Johnston county will be waged. Early this morning the crowds began to fill the town, and soon reached the number of usual court visitors here. Governor Aycock spoke in the court-house, beginning after one o'clock. Hon. Clarence Richardson, Selma band, a remarkably clever and capable aggregation of musicians who have been organized only three weeks. They added greatly to the inspiration of the magnificent audience that greeted Governor Aycock. As Governor Aycock entered the court-house the Selma band struck up the inspiring air of "Dixie," and amid the cheering of two thousand voices, the speaker stepped to the platform. It was remarked that in 1898, when Johnston was the banner Democratic county, Governor Aycock spoke here and a band of musicians was furnished by the county chairman, and from today forth one of the most earnest campaigns ever seen in Johnston county will be waged. Early this morning the crowds began to fill the town, and soon reached the number of usual court visitors here. Governor Aycock spoke in the court-house, beginning after one o'clock. Hon. Clarence Richardson, Selma band, a remarkably clever and capable aggregation of musicians who have been organized only three weeks. They added greatly to the inspiration of the magnificent audience that greeted Governor Aycock. As Governor Aycock entered the court-house the Selma band struck up the inspiring air of "Dixie," and amid the cheering of two thousand voices, the speaker stepped to the platform. It was remarked that in 1898, when Johnston was the banner Democratic county, Governor Aycock spoke here and a band of musicians was furnished by the county chairman, and from today forth one of the most earnest campaigns ever seen in Johnston county will be waged. Early this morning the crowds began to fill the town, and soon reached the number of usual court visitors here. Governor Aycock spoke in the court-house, beginning after one o'clock. Hon. Clarence Richardson, Selma band, a remarkably clever and capable aggregation of musicians who have been organized only three weeks. They added greatly to the inspiration of the magnificent audience that greeted Governor Aycock. As Governor Aycock entered the court-house the Selma band struck up the inspiring air of "Dixie," and amid the cheering of two thousand voices, the speaker stepped to the platform. It was remarked that in 1898, when Johnston was the banner Democratic county, Governor Aycock spoke here and a band of musicians was furnished by the county chairman, and from today forth one of the most earnest campaigns ever seen in Johnston county will be waged. Early this morning the crowds began to fill the town, and soon reached the number of usual court visitors here. Governor Aycock spoke in the court-house, beginning after one o'clock. Hon. Clarence Richardson, Selma band, a remarkably clever and capable aggregation of musicians who have been organized only three weeks. They added greatly to the inspiration of the magnificent audience that greeted Governor Aycock. As Governor Aycock entered the court-house the Selma band struck up the inspiring air of "Dixie," and amid the cheering of two thousand voices, the speaker stepped to the platform. It was remarked that in 1898, when Johnston was the banner Democratic county, Governor Aycock spoke here and a band of musicians was furnished by the county chairman, and from today forth one of the most earnest campaigns ever seen in Johnston county will be waged. Early this morning the crowds began to fill the town, and soon reached the number of usual court visitors here. Governor Aycock spoke in the court-house, beginning after one o'clock. Hon. Clarence Richardson, Selma band, a remarkably clever and capable aggregation of musicians who have been organized only three weeks. They added greatly to the inspiration of the magnificent audience that greeted Governor Aycock. As Governor Aycock entered the court-house the Selma band struck up the inspiring air of "Dixie," and amid the cheering of two thousand voices, the speaker stepped to the platform. It was remarked that in 1898, when Johnston was the banner Democratic county, Governor Aycock spoke here and a band of musicians was furnished by the county chairman, and from today forth one of the most earnest campaigns ever seen in Johnston county will be waged. Early this morning the crowds began to fill the town, and soon reached the number of usual court visitors here. Governor Aycock spoke in the court-house, beginning after one o'clock. Hon. Clarence Richardson, Selma band, a remarkably clever and capable aggregation of musicians who have been organized only three weeks. They added greatly to the inspiration of the magnificent audience that greeted Governor Aycock. As Governor Aycock entered the court-house the Selma band struck up the inspiring air of "Dixie," and amid the cheering of two thousand voices, the speaker stepped to the platform. It was remarked that in 1898, when Johnston was the banner Democratic county, Governor Aycock spoke here and a band of musicians was furnished by the county chairman, and from today forth one of the most earnest campaigns ever seen in Johnston county will be waged. Early this morning the crowds began to fill the town, and soon reached the number of usual court visitors here. Governor Aycock spoke in the court-house, beginning after one o'clock. Hon. Clarence Richardson, Selma band, a remarkably clever and capable aggregation of musicians who have been organized only three weeks. They added greatly to the inspiration of the magnificent audience that greeted Governor Aycock. As Governor Aycock entered the court-house the Selma band struck up the inspiring air of "Dixie," and amid the cheering of two thousand voices, the speaker stepped to the platform. It was remarked that in 1898, when Johnston was the banner Democratic county, Governor Aycock spoke here and a band of musicians was furnished by the county chairman, and from today forth one of the most earnest campaigns ever seen in Johnston county will be waged. Early this morning the crowds began to fill the town, and soon reached the number of usual court visitors here. Governor Aycock spoke in the court-house, beginning after one o'clock. Hon. Clarence Richardson, Selma band, a remarkably clever and capable aggregation of musicians who have been organized only three weeks. They added greatly to the inspiration of the magnificent audience that greeted Governor Aycock. As Governor Aycock entered the court-house the Selma band struck up the inspiring air of "Dixie," and amid the cheering of two thousand voices, the speaker stepped to the platform. It was remarked that in 1898, when Johnston was the banner Democratic county, Governor Aycock spoke here and a band of musicians was furnished by the county chairman, and from today forth one of the most earnest campaigns ever seen in Johnston county will be waged. Early this morning the crowds began to fill the town, and soon reached the number of usual court visitors here. Governor Aycock spoke in the court-house, beginning after one o'clock. Hon. Clarence Richardson, Selma band, a remarkably clever and capable aggregation of musicians who have been organized only three weeks. They added greatly to the inspiration of the magnificent audience that greeted Governor Aycock. As Governor Aycock entered the court-house the Selma band struck up the inspiring air of "Dixie," and amid the cheering of two thousand voices, the speaker stepped to the platform. It was remarked that in 1898, when Johnston was the banner Democratic county, Governor Aycock spoke here and a band of musicians was furnished by the county chairman, and from today forth one of the most earnest campaigns ever seen in Johnston county will be waged. Early this morning the crowds began to fill the town, and soon reached the number of usual court visitors here. Governor Aycock spoke in the court-house, beginning after one o'clock. Hon. Clarence Richardson, Selma band, a remarkably clever and capable aggregation of musicians who have been organized only three weeks. They added greatly to the inspiration of the magnificent audience that greeted Governor Aycock. As Governor Aycock entered the court-house the Selma band struck up the inspiring air of "Dixie," and amid the cheering of two thousand voices, the speaker stepped to the platform. It was remarked that in 1898, when Johnston was the banner Democratic county, Governor Aycock spoke here and a band of musicians was furnished by the county chairman, and from today forth one of the most earnest campaigns ever seen in Johnston county will be waged. Early this morning the crowds began to fill the town, and soon reached the number of usual court visitors here. Governor Aycock spoke in the court-house, beginning after one o'clock. Hon. Clarence Richardson, Selma band, a remarkably clever and capable aggregation of musicians who have been organized only three weeks. They added greatly to the inspiration of the magnificent audience that greeted Governor Aycock. As Governor Aycock entered the court-house the Selma band struck up the inspiring air of "Dixie," and amid the cheering of two thousand voices, the speaker stepped to the platform. It was remarked that in 1898, when Johnston was the banner Democratic county, Governor Aycock spoke here and a band of musicians was furnished by the county chairman, and from today forth one of the most earnest campaigns ever seen in Johnston county will be waged. Early this morning the crowds began to fill the town, and soon reached the number of usual court visitors here. Governor Aycock spoke in the court-house, beginning after one o'clock. Hon. Clarence Richardson, Selma band, a remarkably clever and capable aggregation of musicians who have been organized only three weeks. They added greatly to the inspiration of the magnificent audience that greeted Governor Aycock. As Governor Aycock entered the court-house the Selma band struck up the inspiring air of "Dixie," and amid the cheering of two thousand voices, the speaker stepped to the platform. It was remarked that in 1898, when Johnston was the banner Democratic county, Governor Aycock spoke here and a band of musicians was furnished by the county chairman, and from today forth one of the most earnest campaigns ever seen in Johnston county will be waged. Early this morning the crowds began to fill the town, and soon reached the number of usual court visitors here. Governor Aycock spoke in the court-house, beginning after one o'clock. Hon. Clarence Richardson, Selma band, a remarkably clever and capable aggregation of musicians who have been organized only three weeks. They added greatly to the inspiration of the magnificent audience that greeted Governor Aycock. As Governor Aycock entered the court-house the Selma band struck up the inspiring air of "Dixie," and amid the cheering of two thousand voices, the speaker stepped to the platform. It was remarked that in 1898, when Johnston was the banner Democratic county, Governor Aycock spoke here and a band of musicians was furnished by the county chairman, and from today forth one of the most earnest campaigns ever seen in Johnston county will be waged. Early this morning the crowds began to fill the town, and soon reached the number of usual court visitors here. Governor Aycock spoke in the court-house, beginning after one o'clock. Hon. Clarence Richardson, Selma band, a remarkably clever and capable aggregation of musicians who have been organized only three weeks. They added greatly to the inspiration of the magnificent audience that greeted Governor Aycock. As Governor Aycock entered the court-house the Selma band struck up the inspiring air of "Dixie," and amid the cheering of two thousand voices, the speaker stepped to the platform. It was remarked that in 1898, when Johnston was the banner Democratic county, Governor Aycock spoke here and a band of musicians was furnished by the county chairman, and from today forth one of the most earnest campaigns ever seen in Johnston county will be waged. Early this morning the crowds began to fill the town, and soon reached the number of usual court visitors here. Governor Aycock spoke in the court-house, beginning after one o'clock. Hon. Clarence Richardson, Selma band, a remarkably clever and capable aggregation of musicians who have been organized only three weeks. They added greatly to the inspiration of the magnificent audience that greeted Governor Aycock. As Governor Aycock entered the court-house the Selma band struck up the inspiring air of "Dixie," and amid the cheering of two thousand voices, the speaker stepped to the platform. It was remarked that in 1898, when Johnston was the banner Democratic county, Governor Aycock spoke here and a band of musicians was furnished by the county chairman, and from today forth one of the most earnest campaigns ever seen in Johnston county will be waged. Early this morning the crowds began to fill the town, and soon reached the number of usual court visitors here. Governor Aycock spoke in the court-house, beginning after one o'clock. Hon. Clarence Richardson, Selma band, a remarkably clever and capable aggregation of musicians who have been organized only three weeks. They added greatly to the inspiration of the magnificent audience that greeted Governor Aycock. As Governor Aycock entered the court-house the Selma band struck up the inspiring air of "Dixie," and amid the cheering of two thousand voices, the speaker stepped to the platform. It was remarked that in 1898, when Johnston was the banner Democratic county, Governor Aycock spoke here and a band of musicians was furnished by the county chairman, and from today forth one of the most earnest campaigns ever seen in Johnston county will be waged. Early this morning the crowds began to fill the town, and soon reached the number of usual court visitors here. Governor Aycock spoke in the court-house, beginning after one o'clock. Hon. Clarence Richardson, Selma band, a remarkably clever and capable aggregation of musicians who have been organized only three weeks. They added greatly to the inspiration of the magnificent audience that greeted Governor Aycock. As Governor Aycock entered the court-house the Selma band struck up the inspiring air of "Dixie," and amid the cheering of two thousand voices, the speaker stepped to the platform. It was remarked that in 1898, when Johnston was the banner Democratic county, Governor Aycock spoke here and a band of musicians was furnished by the county chairman, and from today forth one of the most earnest campaigns ever seen in Johnston county will be waged. Early this morning the crowds began to fill the town, and soon reached the number of usual court visitors here. Governor Aycock spoke in the court-house, beginning after one o'clock. Hon. Clarence Richardson, Selma band, a remarkably clever and capable aggregation of musicians who have been organized only three weeks. They added greatly to the inspiration of the magnificent audience that greeted Governor Aycock. As Governor Aycock entered the court-house the Selma band struck up the inspiring air of "Dixie," and amid the cheering of two thousand voices, the speaker stepped to the platform. It was remarked that in 1898, when Johnston was the banner Democratic county, Governor Aycock spoke here and a band of musicians was furnished by the county chairman, and from today forth one of the most earnest campaigns ever seen in Johnston county will be waged. Early this morning the crowds began to fill the town, and soon reached the number of usual court visitors here. Governor Aycock spoke in the court-house, beginning after one o'clock. Hon. Clarence Richardson, Selma band, a remarkably clever and capable aggregation of musicians who have been organized only three weeks. They added greatly to the inspiration of the magnificent audience that greeted Governor Aycock. As Governor Aycock entered the court-house the Selma band struck up the inspiring air of "Dixie," and amid the cheering of two thousand voices, the speaker stepped to the platform. It was remarked that in 1898, when Johnston was the banner Democratic county, Governor Aycock spoke here and a band of musicians was furnished by the county chairman, and from today forth one of the most earnest campaigns ever seen in Johnston county will be waged. Early this morning the crowds began to fill the town, and soon reached the number of usual court visitors here. Governor