ICORICE TABLETS,

TOR COUGHS & COLDS. E WITH PURE SPANISH LICORICE.

LYCERINE TABLETS,

FROT SOLD BY YOUR DRUGGIST

ALLRED-MAY.

Surprise Marriage of a Prominent

Young Couple at Spring Hope,

Spring Hope, N. C., Dec. 23,-A marriage of more than local interest took place this morning at 11 o'clock, when Miss Myrtle May, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. May.

of Spring Hope, became the bride of Mr. L. H. Allred, of Selma. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. B.

the groom, assisted by the Rev. B. E.

vey, of Spring Hope.

Stanfield, pastor of the Spring Hope

Mrs. Allred is one of the most popular young women of Spring Hope.

She is the youngest daughter of Mr.

sister of Mr. A!bert R. May, president of the Farmers and Merchants Bank of this place. She is connected with the most prominent families in this part of North Carolina; a young wo-man of many charms of manner and person, bright, vivacious, accomplished, and possessing a sunny and cheerful disposition, she has made for herself a permanent place in the hearts and affections of the Spring

Hope people. She will be missed very much in the social life of the town, and also in church circles. Her friends here, and they are numbered Louisburg, and has friends through-

Mr. Allred is one of the romising has lived at many places throughout is a graduate of Trinity College, and took his had course at Wake Forest. For a number of years he was one of the foremost young teachers of North Carolina, having been in charge of the schools at Youngsville. There is no young attorney in this section of the State that has a more promising future before him. He is a young last campaign was one of the strongest Democratic speakers of his Later they will go to housekeeping.

8 8 8 Reavis-Mabry.

Greystone, N. C., Dec. 23.—A mar-has taken an inunusua! interest was celebrated at the home of the bride near here yesterday afternoon, the contracting parties being Miss Blanch

Mabry and Mr. Samuel W. Reavis.

The beautiful home had been lavishly decorated for the occasion with ferns potted plants and Christmas greens, the color scheme being red and green.

In the parior, where the ceremony was performed, an arch had been erected, from the centre of which was suspended a large bell, while numerous smaller ones hung from every part of the arch and festoons, the whole being brilliantly illuminated by many candles. Promptly at the appointed hour and at the first strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Mrs. Killiam, the two ushers, Messrs. Poindexter Floyd and Louise Reavis, entered the parlor and took their places on each side the arch. They were followed by the bride's maids, Miss Maud Edwards with Miss Josie Reavis, Miss Zelma

Mabry with Miss Iola Reavis; then came the bride leaning upon the arm of the groom, and proceeding to the improvised altar they were met by the Rev. W. J. Hackney, of Henderson

N. C., who spoke the vows which bound the two young lives together for life. The bridesmaids wore dresses of white mohair, while the bride was attired in a most becoming gown of gray satin with gloves and hat to match and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. Immediately after the bridal party left for the home of the groom, where a most elegant reception was given them.

The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Mabry, and by her many sweet graces has endeared herself to the community in which her whole life has been spent. The groom is one of Vance county's most promising young farmers and enjoys the respect and esteem of all who

Among the guests who came from distance were Mrs. J. W. Wilson and Mrs. Clifton Pucket of Richmond,

"My Dixie Girl."

art and cost the charming actress out the State

863 BROADWAY, M.Y.CITY.

(BOS POCKET THES.)
FOR RELIEF OF
SERESS A THROAT AFFECTIONS

Society Nadinola Cream Lovely Church Wedding at Washington Westerday.

SANTA CLAUS UP TO DATE-OR SANTA CLAUS'S VISIT.

Honk! honk! toot! toot! gee whiz! Santa Claus is coming, he really is; All muffled in furs from his head to Thro' fields and the air, away he goes Just look a line a mile long Of auto cars all bright and strong, And packed, too, with toys and That delight every heart such,

No time tho' in a hurry he rings The belts on the electric cars and "We are ready." and off in a flash he goes.

Just flying to the homes of the children he knows.

Such loy he brings-

Time, why he takes only a second to electric button and gong, He sends dolls and wagons and wonderful things, Thr' the doors in the stockings, then 'off" he rings-

And he springs with such wohderful swiftness along You really haven't time to see if he is wrong And if he brings to the boy a doll or a cat. Just exchange with your sister for a -ball or a bat.

And as to the Sunny South he draws near, There are wonderful airships awaiting him here. And thre' the warm air away he sails, With giory and gladness from the flag Air-ships, electrical cars and such Santa Claus is getting used to fast enough, Because in only a night with such inventions and things. He visits the whole world and great gladness brings-

Toys! bless me, sighed Santa Claus, Do you know when I could make only a hundred a year. And now with electric buttons and works just think, I can make a million in only a wink.

And when this great trip is over He calls for something electric to And then in a wink he is fast asleep,

Dreaming of next year and his won-derful fleet.

MRS. C. G. WHITING.

December 23, 1908.

THOUGHTS ON THE SEASON. what you get in return

And a man saith unto himself: "This year, by lings, I won't give anybody a darned thing"; and, to, when the last minute, cometh, he weakeneth, and hustleth on to buy, for fear he will get something for which he can't make equitable return.

Nor is it really worth while to leave s price mark on the gift. The liberal count is always allowed by the re-Set not your heart on a certain thing, for the chances are it will be a pair of suspenders that will break at an embarrassing time. You can, however, burn the box they came in.

Give greeting to those whom you may meet. It costs nothing, and may inspire them to buy.

Do not forget that it is the chi'dren's day, and in this connection it may be a relief to recall that there will be none of them at the club.

Of the making of Christmas presents there is no end; and even then it is a cinch that on the next day you will discover you have forgotten some-—Misses Mabel Holland and Patsy Edwards, of Louisburg, spent yester-day in the city. —Miss Pessie Sauls, of Oxford, was in the city yesterday.

—Miss Jeanette Watson, of Oyster Point, Va., is the guest of Miss Margaret Faucette, on West Hargett

-Miss Gertrude Powell, of Oxford was in the city yesterday while on her way to Smithfield.

—Judge and Mrs. W. A. Hoke left yesterday for Charleston, S. C., where they will be the guests of Bishop Guerry.

-Mrs. Ernest Broughton has gone to Clayton to spend the holidays with Misses Sadie Jeffreys, Julia Par rott and Elizabeth Joyner, of Oxford. were in the city yesterday.

-Miss Ruby Terry, of Garner, spent yesterday in the city.

—Mrs. A. L. Fleming, of Wendell, spent yesterday in Raleigh.

—Miss Mary Cole has returned to the city from Recky Mount.

—Miss Lillie Jones, of Louisburg, spent yesterday in the city. -Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Smith, of Wil low Sprnigs, were in the city yester-day while on their way to Richmond. -Miss Roberta Dickens left yesterday for Portsmouth.

-Miss Mary C. Alford and her little niece, Miss Annie Louise Alford, of Kenly, are visiting Mr. L. F. -Misses Agnes and Annie Wills, of the State Normal School, were in the city yesterday. —Senator and Mrs. J. L. Barham, of Goldsbore, were in the city yes-terday while on their way to New-

-Miss May Jones, of Louisburg, was in the city yesterday. -Miss Clara Gibson, of Rocky Mount, who has been attending school in Oxford, passed through the city yesterday on her way home.

-- Miss Lillié Beale, of Franklinton spent yesterday in the city.

—Mrs. Adolph Murray, of Tarboro, was in the city yesterday.

—Mrs. C. Of, S. rickland, of Youngs-ville, who has been visiting Mrs. G.

Fill the Stockings nard, of Apex, and to Mr. Walter Cook, of Apex, and Miss Lizzie Withers, of Walthall.

of the little Folks with Xmas. "Goodles" from our store. Best Nuts. Apples and other good things of the season. Give us your orders now.

D. T. JOHNSON & SON

MARY THE ROME POLES RAPPY - ST-CARRYING HOME & BOX OF CANBY-ROYSTER'S

er creams fall. Fifty cents and one tellar at all high-class drug stores Sold in Raleigh by King-Crowell rug Co., Hicks Drug Co., and others."

Strickland, returned home yester-—Mrs. W. H. McCullen, of Clayton, spent yesterday in the city.
—Miss Annie Pearce, of Stanhope, was in the city yesterday. -Misses Louis Brewer and Katharine Staples left yesterday for Pal-myra to attend a house party to be given by Miss Sallie Baker. -Miss Virginia Kivett, of Buie's Creek, spent yesterday in Raleigh.
—Miss Gean Withers, of Lillington, was in the city yesterday. -Miss Miriam Boyd, of Wilson, spent yesterday in Raleigh. -Miss Frances Winston, of Wilson, was in the city yesterday.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. Sherwood church, and Miss Alekina Hardy, left yesterday for Jackson. -Miss Alma Davis, of Apex, is visiting Miss Mamie Thomas.

-Miss Myrtle Leslie, of Vass, spent yesterday in the city.

--Miss Laura Norman has gone to Spring Hope to spend the holidays with her aunt, Mrs. S. B. Dew.

--Mr. H. B. Chamblee is spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wmi Chamblee, near Wakefield.

--Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Turner, of Philadelphia, are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. V. E. Turner.

--Mrs. J. F. Jordan is spending Christmas with her sister, Mrs. J. Hugh Parham, of Kinston. yesterday in the city.

Hugh Parham, of Kinston. -Mrs. S. W. Thompson, of Falls, spent yesterday in the city.

—Miss Bertha Nichols, of Roxboro, was in Raleigh yesterday.

—Misses Ruby Mitchell, Annie and Lila Coltrane, of Franklinton, spent yesterday in Raleigh. -Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Stubbins, of Durham, were in the city yesterday.

—Miss Vermeille Lyde, of Rockingham, was in the city yesterday, returning home from Oxford.

—Prof. and Mrs. J. T. Yeargin left resterday for South Boston. Va., where they will spend the holidays.

-Miss Blanche Creswell, of Charlotte, was in Raleigh yesterday. -Miss Mary Dowell, of Carthage, teacher in charge of Wilder Grove school, returned home yesterday to spend the helidays. -Miss Alice Harris, of Wake Forest, spent yesterday in the city.

—Miss Hattie Carlton left yesterday for Rutherfordton.

—Miss Clyde Harris, of Farmville, spent yesterday in Raleigh.

—Miss Lizzie Stevenson left yesterday for Maxton to visit Miss Glennie McGreger.

—Mr. and Mrs. Roy D. Riggan left resterday for Manson to spend the -Miss G. C. Cronkite, of the Bap-tist University faculty, left yesterday for Forsyth, Ga.

Miss Wills Weathers left yesterfor a visit to Moncure.

—Mrs. Alma Dorsett and Mrs. L. Yarborough left yesterday for Sanford to visit their sister, Mrs. James Henry Margaret Rogers, of the intord Seminary is spending the holi-lays with her mother, Mrs. Wiley

—Miss Alice C. Ferrell, of Timmonsyfile, S. C. is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. B. Edwards, Jr.

—Miss Mary Lee Lyles, of Hillsbore, was in the city yesterday.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Whitley, of Goldsbore, spent yesterday in the city.

—Mrs. N. M. Anderson left yester. —Mrs. N. M. Anderson left yester-ny for Savanah, Ga. -Miss Lile Wills, of the faculty of the Blind Institution, has gone to

-Miss Estelle Debnam, of Eagle Rock spent yesterday in the city. -Miss Ellsabeth McMaster, of Franklin, Va., is the guest of Miss Young at the Baptist University. —Mrs. S. W. Marshall, of Louisburg, came to Raleigh yesterday to visit her son, Mr. W. F. Marshall, at 108 East North street. Mrs. Marshall is in her 76th/year; this is her first visit to Raleigh in twenty-five years and the first Christmas she has ever spent away from the old home.

CHRISTMAS GERMAN

Wadesboro Society Has a Happy Annual Celebration.

Wadesboro, N. C., Dec. 23.—The Wadesboro German Club gave its Christmas german in the armory evening. Many new and intricate fig-Break L. Dunlan with Miss Lila Little. Levin's orchestra furnished music for the dancers.

Among those present were: Mr. Frank Dunlap with Miss Lila Little, of Cherlotte; Mr. Isaac London, of Pittsboro, with Miss Lacy, of Charlottesville, Va.; Bennett Leak with Miss Connie Moss; Fred Parsons with Miss May McCorkle, of Salisbury; Mr. ind Mrs. Geo. M. Stanback; Wortham Wyatt with Miss Fannie Little, of Charlotte; R. E. Little, Jr., with Miss Lilly Bernhardt, of Salisbury; Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Marshall; W. O. Bennett with Miss Elsie Bennett; W. C. Hardison with Miss Berta Moss; L. C. Parker with Miss Eleanor Murr; Lenox McLendon with Miss Clinard, of Char-lotte; Frank Fetzer with Miss Allie Mae Burns; Osbore B. Hardison with Shepperd Leak; Mr. and Mrs. Houston; Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Mc-Lendon; Pembroke Wyatt with Miss Kate Leak; James A. Leak, Jr., with Miss Niary Clifford Bennett. Stags: T. J. Fetzer, Jr., of Gastonia; Dr. P. W. Covington, of Baltimore, Sebor S. Lockhart, Henry Browder. Chaperones: Mr. ard Mrs. W. L. Marshall and Mrs. John D. Leak.

MARRIAGES IN WAKE

Licenses Issued to Six Couples Yes

Marriage licenses were yesterday ssued to the following couples: Mr A. J. Brown and Miss Lois Winston, of Raleigh; Mr. C. B. Young and Miss Tabitra Dupree, of Willow Springs; Mr. W. J. Mitchell and Miss Lillie Gray, of Apex; Mr. Leander Landrum and Miss Mamie Wolfe, of Raleigh; Mr. H. G. Howell and Miss Nola May Entertainment at Raeford.

Raeford, N. C., Dec. 23.—Monday evening a delightful play was given in the schood auditorium by several members of the faculty and a number of the students. The title was "A Country Minister." Every character was perfectly represented and the costumes excellent. The leading characters were Misses Annie Barnes, Susie Dixon, Alice Johnson, Messra Z. N. Poliock, Bonnie Blue, Lawrence Poole, Star McMillan, Lacy Clark.

Wakelon Box Party. The Woman's Betterment Association of the Wakelon High School will give a box party and serve refreshments at 7:30 p. m., December 23, in Academy Hall: Those whe attend may feel sure that they are both giving and receiving pleasure and profit.

HACKNEY-HASSELL.

Washington, N. C., Dec. 23 .- St Peter's Episcopal church was the scene this afternoon of one of the most beautiful and impressive wedding ceremonies ever witnessed in that sacred edifice, when Miss Eva Asman Hassell, became the bride of Mr. George Hackney, Jr., of this city. The entire church was artistically decorated in a color scheme of green and white, which was successfully carried out by means of holly, bamboo, southern smilax, ferns, palms, and other potted plants and Christmas greens, lighted, by numerous waxen tapers shedding their softest rays rays over the whole and making a beautiful and pleasant effect. Musi-cal selections were rendered by Miss Lillian Bonner on the organ, assisted by Mr. R. A. G. Barnes, violinist, and Miss Mildred Roney, of Wilson, soloist.

Just before the entrance of the bridal party Miss Roney delightfully sang "Oh Promise Me." promptly at the apopinted time, Miss Bonner struck the first notes of Lohengrin's wedding march, and the bridal party entered the church in the following order:

First came the ushers, Messrs, F. H. Rollins, C. L. Carrow, Leslie Barnes and W. H. Hackney, who passed down the alsle and assumed their places at the foot of the chancel; then Miss Mary Clyde Hassell, maid of honor, and sister of the bride, entered alone, handsomely attired in a directoire gown of white lingerle over taffeta, with white satin hat and carrying a shower bonquet of bride's roses. Immediately following her were Miss Hattle Jones, first bridesmaid, with Mr. John Gorham. Miss Jones wore white French batiste, trimmed in baby Irish lace with white satin hat, and carried a bouquet of white carnations and maiden hair ferns, groom entered with his best man, Mr. Thomas Hackney, Jr., and awaited the brideat the foot of the chancel..

The bride entered leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. W. C. Hassell, who gave her away. She was handsomely attired in a directoire gown of white Paille Francois' silk, hand embroidered and trimmed in real lace and pearls. Her bridal veil of white tulle was held in place with orange blossoms, formerly worn by her mother and she carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Mr. Hackney joined her at the foot of the chancel, and together they passed up the steps into the chancel and stood before the altar, where Rev. Nathaniel Harding, rector of the church, pronounced the ceremony making them man and wife. During the ceremony the soft strain of Schubert's serenade were wafted through only by the number of her acquaint-the church. Immediately after the ances, will rejoice that she will move bert's serenade were wafted through ceremony and to the tune of Mendels- only to adjoining county, entertainsohn's wedding march and the merry ing the hope that she will often visit peal of wedding bells the bridal party here, where she has spent a happy for a bridgi tour to New York, amid showers of rice and the hest wishes of a large number of friends assembled to see them off.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. W.

Washington's most attractive young

Hassell, of this city, and one of women. The groom is the local nanager of the Washington Buggy Company, a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hackney, of Wilson, and a rising young business man of this city. The out of town guests at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Hassell, of Columbia, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. George Hackney, Messis. Thomas, James and Willis Hackney, of Wilson; Miss Bess Hackney and Miss Leslie Barnes and John Gorham, also of Wilson; Mr. and Mrs. George R. Morgan, Mrs. R. T. Stevens and Miss Ella stevens, Mildred Roney and Ximona Roberts, of Wilson; Misses Helen Forbes, Janie Bryan; Messrs. Walter Wilson and Edward Fergerson of Greenville; Miss Annie Nizelle, of Williamston, and Miss Pattie Odom and Isabelle Parker, of Pinetown. The bride and groom were the recipients of many handsome and costly presents attesting the high esteem in which they are held by their many Taylor-Sutton.

Rocky Mount, N. C., Dec. 23 .- One of the prettiest home weddings of the present Yule Tide season was solemnzed at an early hour yesterday morning at the home of the bride at the corner of Arlington and Battle streets, when Miss Louise Sutton became the bride of Mr. C. S. Taylor. The marriage rites were performed in the presence of a small number of invited riends. The words that made them nan and wife were spoken by Dr. I M. Mercer, of the First Baptist church Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left by the morning train for a several weeks' honeymoon o be spent in the Northern cities. The bride is a popular young woman of this city and has a large circle of friends here. The groom is a valued employee of the Atlantic Coast Line shops at South Rocky Mount, and is highly esteemed by a number of friends and acquaintances in this city.

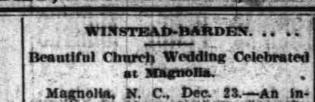

Kindergarten Christmas Tree. Miss Louise T. Busbee, teacher of St. Mary's Kindergarten, gave the children under her charge a most enloyable Christmas tree entertainment on Monday afternoon. A number of friends and patrons of the Kindergarten lent their presence and with the children enjoyed a delightfully pleasant occasion.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrnp.
Has been used for over SIXTY-FIVE YEARS by MILLIONS OF MOTHERS for their CHILDREN WHILE TEETHING with PERFECT SUCCESS. IT SOOTHES the CHILD, SOFTENS the GUMS, ALLAYS all PAIN; CURES WIND COLIC, and he the hest remedy for DIARRHOGA. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Guaranteed under the Food and Drug Act of June 30, 1906, Serial number 1008. An OLD AND WELL, TRIED REMEDY.

SCHLOSS THEATRE CIRCUIT

FRIDAY, CHRISTMAS, DEC. 25. Special Matinee at 3:00 P. M. Engagement The Dainty Singing Soutrette

Magnolia, N. C., Dec. 23.—An interesting marriage ceremony was cele-brated at the Baptist church in Mag-nolia last evening at eight o'clock, when Mr. Samuel Garland Winstead, of Koxboro, wedded Miss Katharine Cooper Barden. The bride wore a handsome dark blue traveling suit, and carried a bouquet of bridal roses.

On entrance of the bridal party
Miss Fannie Gray Farrior played Lohengrin's wedding march, and rendered Mendelsonn's as a recessional.
During the ceremony Miss Hettle Farrior softly played "Traumeri."

The bride entered upon the arm of her brother, Mr. J. T. Barden, and was met at the altar by the groom. accompanied by Mr. W. H. Winstead, of Goldsboro. Before the entrance of the bridal party Miss Fannie Gray Farrior gave a vocal solo, acompanied by Miss Hettie Farrior on the violin. The altar was banked with smilax, potted plants and evergreens.
Miss Lanie Barden, sister of the bride, dressed in white organdie and carrying a bouquet of white carnations was maid of honor, while Messrs. Perry Heath, of Magnolia, and W. E. C. Allred, pastor of the Methodist church at Warrenton, and father of Hines, of Warsaw, acted as ushers.

The beautiful ring ceremony was given by Rev. J. H. Booth, paster of Methodist church. The wedding march was played by Miss Carrie Leigh Spi-Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Winstead left for Roxboro, their future home, where a re The bride was becomingly gowned ception will be tendered them by the in a going away dress of brown with parents of the groom. The bride is one of Duplin's most charming and hat and gloves to match. Fewer pret tier brides have been seen in Spring attractive women. Gifted with rare Hope. The wedding was a quiet home one, and only the immediate intellect. She was educated at the Normal College, having graduated family and a few invited friends were with honors. present. No annoucement of the

Mr. Winstead is a young lawye possessed of unusual ability and is usfly esteemed by all for his integrity and high moral character. He is nappy event had been made, and it happy event had been made, and it came as a surprise to many of the friends of the young people. The purpose was to keep the news a profound secret, but in some way the fact that there would be a wedding in town became known, and a large crowd gathered at the depot with old a graduate of Trinity, holding two degrees from that institution. A RUNAWAY MARRIAGE.

shoes and rice to see the happy cou-ple off on their wedding trip, which will include stops at Washington, New York, and other Northern cities. Young Woman on Supposed Trip to Tarboro Met Her Lover in Rocky Rocky Mount, N. C., Dec. 23 That ove laughs at locksmiths was again clearly proven on Sunday, and two young people are happily married and at home at the residence of the groom's father near this city, while the parents of the bride are at their T. C. May, Spring Hope's oldest and most prominent business men, and a the parents of the bride are at their home in Nashville, and they learned Monday that the two young lovers had outwitted them. The fates in the case are these: Miss Bessie Burymand, of Nashville, had secured the consent of her parents to spend the Christmas holidays with friends in Tarboro, and left home Sunday afternoon with Tar boro as her supposed destination. How ever, such was not the case, and the young woman was met at the station in Nashville by Mr. B. B. Lewis, of this city, the young man that her par-ents had objected to her marrying. The license had been secured by a friend and immediately upon their arrival in this city, at four o'clock, the childhood, budding into beautiful womanhood. She attended college at the home of Dr. L. M. Mercer and mer of friends that had been let into the secret, the young people were happily married. Monday, the parents of the young woman were informed that their daughter was not with friends in Tarboro, as they had supposed, but was happily married to the young man to whom they had observed by the young man to whom they had observed by the young man to whom they had observed by the young man to whom they had observed by the young man to whom they had observed by the young man to whom they had observed by the young man to whom they had observed by the young man to whom they had observed by the young man to whom they had observed by the young man to whom they had observed by the young man to whom they had observed by the young man to whom they had observed by the young man to whom they had observed by the Biue Sock.

"Oh. the usual thing. What have young they had be not young they had be not young they had observed by the young they had observed by the young they had be not young young lawyers of Johnston county, making his home at Selma. He is a son of the Rev. B. C. Altred, pastor of the Methodist church of Warren-ton, He is a hative of Charlotte, but being a Methodist minister's son, he

The bride is a daughter of Mr. G. C. Burymand, and is a popular young woman of Nashville, where she has a host of friends and relatives. The groom is one of the city's promising young business men, and is a son of Mr. Redden Lewis, whose home is about three miles from this city, in man of strong mental parts, affable and agreeable in his mannenrs, and Young Lady Wed. makes friends with all those whom he comes in contact. He is a young orator of no mean ability, and in the Charlotte, N. C., Dec. 22.-A marriage of the State-wide interest wa that of Miss Annie Bryant and Dr. W. M. Robey, at the home of the bride father, Mr. Henry Bryant, in Providence, Saturday at noon. The cere-mony was performed by Rev. H. M After the return fro mthe bridal trip, the young people will board with Mrs. N. E. Edgerton, at Selma, Parker, pastor of Providence Presby terian church. The home was beau-tifully decorated for the occasion. There were no attendants, the bride entering on the arm of her father. She wore a lovely tallor-made going away suit of olive green of imported French cloth, with hat to match.

Nash pounty. ROBEY-BRYANT. Pronunent Dentist and Popular

Immediately after the ceremony delightful renast was served and Dr. and Mrs. Robey left for Charlotte, where they took the train for New After a two weeks' stay in the North they will return to Charlotte where they will make their future home. Miss Bryan is a handsome brunette, one of Mecklenburg's most accomplished and talented young ladies, widely known and deservedly popular with a large circle of friends. She is from one of the county's most preminet families; the only daughter of Mr. Henry Bryant and sister of Mr. V. S. Bryant of Durham. Dr Robey is one of the 'State's most prominent dentists, who is rising rapidly to the front ranks of his profes-

Among those who attended weding were Dr. J. B. Matheson. Mr. J. B. Spence, Miss Mary Miller and Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Bryant, from Charlotte; Mr. and Mrs. V. S. Bryant, Durham; Mr. and Mrs. H. E. C. Bryant, Washington, D. C.; Mr. P. A. Bry ant, Statesville; Mr. H. P. Bryant Gastonia; Mr. Kinstrey and Miss Mildred | Kinstrey, Cheraw, S. C.: Miss Margaret Claywell, Morganton; Miss Mamie Roberson, Siler City.

A Brilliant Reception.

Willow Springs, N. C., Dec. 23 .- The newly completed home of Mr. and Mrs. Orus Blalock was a scene of one of the most beautifully appointed and elaborate social functions ever given at Willow Springs, when Mrs. Blalock formerly Miss Ruby Jackson, of Tampa, Florida, was at home honor of Miss Lizzie Taylor, of Ral-

The beautiful home was attractively decorated with evergreens and potted plants. Mrs. Snow Blalock, Mrs. Frank King and Miss Beartice Adams charmingly received the guests at the door and ushered them into the west parlor, where many interesting games Va. Mr. and Mrs. John Buchan and were played, which created much of tea."

Miss Maud Edwards of Henderson, merriment. Then going into the "Oh. dining room, which was artistically who seemed quite affected, "is that decorated, were served hot checolate, cake and refreshments.

The gowns worn by Dixie in the successful comedy drama "My Dixie Girl" are marvels of the dressmaker's Those present were Mr. Furman Dowd with Miss Saltie Ogburn; Mr. Engagement
The Dainty Singing Sourcette

Lillian Maynard

In the Laughing Comedy Drama Success

"My Dixie Girl"

A Play of the Rentucky Hills, full of fun, frolic, wit, humor, clever dialogue and a few Specialties.

SEATS ON SALE.

PRICES: Matinee, Adults 50 cents, Children 25 cents; Night, 75, 50, 25c.

Girl are marvels of the dressmaker's art and cost the charming actress considerable time, worry and money before they were brought to the persecutive that this charming lady demanded of the maker. The lady members of the audience are particularly fascinated by the one worn in the second act and many the the exclamations of admiration when Dixie makes her entrance. Theseene n which it is worn represents the old colonial home just as the guests are leaving after Dixie's birthday party, which shows it off to the best possible Edvantage.

"My Dixie Girl" are marvels of the dressmaker's art and cost the charming actress considerable time, worry and money before they were brought to the persection that this charming lady demanded of the maker. The lady members of the section with Miss Noine Blalock; Mr. Hubert Jones with Miss Sexton with Miss Noine Return the section when Dixie makes her entrance. Theseene n which it is worn represents the old colonial home just as the guests are leaving after Dixie's birthday party, which shows it off to the best possible Edvantage.

"My Dixie Girl" are marvels of the charming actress considerable time, worry and money before they were brought to the persection that this charming lady demanded of the maker. The lady members of the persect of the section with Miss Noine Blalock; Mr. Hubert Jones with Miss Sexton with Miss Noine Sexton with Miss Noine Hallock; Mr. Hubert Jones with Miss Annie Charles with Miss Noine Sexton with Miss Noine Return the marker of the persect Mr. Norman Blalock; Mr. Hubert Jones with Miss Noine Mit Miss Noine Charlie Adams with Miss Dora Bla-

() (a) Ma

GROWS HAIR and we can PROVE IT!

Beautiful Hair at Small Cost Halk troubles, like many other discuses, have been wrongly diagnosed and altogether misunderstood. The hair itself is not the thing to be treated, for the reason that it is simply a product of the scalp and wholly dependent apon its action. The scalp is the very soil is which the hair is projuced, nurtured and grown, and it alone should eccive the attention if results are to be expected it would do no earthly good to treat the slem of a plant with a view of making it grow and become note beautiful—the soil in which the plant grows nust be attended to. Therefore, the scalp in which he is grows must receive the attention if you are expect it to grow and become more beautiful.

Loss of hair is caused by the scalp drying up.

Loss of hair is enused by the scalp drying up, it losing its supply of moisture or nutriment; when baidness occurs the scalp has simply lost all its nourishment, leaving nothing for the hair to feed upon (a plant or even a tree would die under similar conditions.)

conditions.)

The natural thing to do in either ease, is to feed and replenish the soil or scalp as the case may be, and your crop will grow and multiply as nature intended it should.

Knowlton's Danderine has a most wonderful effect upon the hair glands and tissues of the scalp. It is the only remedy for the hair ever discovered that is similar to the natural hair foods or liquids of the scalp.

It penetrates the pores quickly and the hair soon shows the effects of its wonderfully exhibitating and life-producing qualities.

One 25-cent hottle is enough to convince you did its great worth as a hair growing and hair beautifying remedy—try it and see for yourself.

NOW at all dronaists in three sizes. 25e, 50c and $1.00 per bettle.

FREE To show how quickly finderine acts, we will send a large sample free by return mail to anyone who sends this free coupon to the RHOWLTON DANGERHE CO., CHICAGO, ILL., with their name and address send loc is nilver or stamps to pay postage.

A FAMILY

"It's almost time: they'll soon be here," cried the Brown Stocking, dancing up and down excitedly. "I am sure I hope so," growled the Blue Sock; "I feel folly uncomfort-able, stuffed like this,"

"I don't feel very fit either," said hard is hurting my heel. It must be "What have you for the girl?" asked the Blue Sock.

up inside of me to stock a small de-partment stere. Why don't the girls label the things? The Man never knows what they are. About all I ever hear him say as he pulls them out is. 'Now I wonder what this is?'
or 'What on earth does she expect me to do with these?' What have you

They all turned to an elderly Gray Stocking. "The same old thing," She snappe I am holding some black silk mufflers, and caps and handkerchiefs. and piled around me, as you see, are gray and lavender shawls and more mufflers and about every refigious book on the market, all bound in black cloth. I just hate to give these things to the old lady; I know how disappointed she will be. Its the disappointed she will be. Its the same thing every Christmas. They give her everything sensible and comfortable and—ugly; never anything that is pretty to look at, or that will amuse or cheer her up; just a lot of shawls to remind her how her poor old bones ache, and a lot of good books to keep her from forgetting she'll have to die soon."

The other three looked at her wonderingly.

"Why, what would she like to have? These things seem very appropriate

"Perhaps they are appropriate, but she doesn't like them all the same. I heard a very sad story from a White Cotton Stocking I met in the laundry week. She belongs to a very old woman who lives all by herself in a desolate little room in a blg tenement house, and last Christmas low's Mother, and then turn the low's Mother, and then turn the money she had in making presents for buy the turkeys and things for the some of the children in the house, and them the White Cotton Stocking said it was quite pitiful to see the old fingers tremulously tying up the clumsy little parcels of red mittens and comforters and crochetted dolls. Then Christmas morning came and no one had remembered her. She sat at her window and every time the postmas came. down the street, she leaned out eagerly to see if he were going to stop, and when he did she would sit and listen and watch, hoping it might be something for her; but nothing ever came. And the White Cotton Stocking, who was watching her from a half open bureau drawer, said that when some belated Christmas giver with her arms piled with fascinating little packages gay with holly and red ribbons, would go by, that it made her heart ache to see how hungrily the old eyes watched her, hoping it might be somebody for her, but it never was. When later some of the people in the tenement house came in to show her their presents, and she had nothing to show except a plate of red candies she had bought for any children who might come in.
And the White Cotton Stocking said that as each gift was shown her, the old head held itself higher and the thin little shoulders straightened as she said she 'Sposed her box would come later; the mails was that heavy now, that sometimes folks didn't get their boxes until days after Christmas.' Then when they had all gone, she sat down alone to her Christmas dinner of a baked potato and a cup all the poor old thing had? Potato and a cup of tea!"

"Yes, She had spent what little "Yes, She had spent what little money she might have used on herself for the children. Well the White Cotton Stocking said that as the poor old woman sat there alone on Christmas day eating her baken potato and drinking her cup of tea, and no doubt thinking of other Christmas dinners when she sat at the head of a long table filled with good things and surrounded by happy faces, that every little while the brave old mouth trembled and painful tears, rolled down the withered old cheeks, and you know, my friends," and the Gray you know, my friends," and the Gray Stockin's tone was very solemn, "the tears of the old are very bitter. Loneour interests and pleasures, even when shielded by the tenderest care, think of their heart-aches when they are left entirely alone with only their memories."

me, why is it we forget our old people as we do at this time of thought and love for every one else. We make them warm perhaps, and we feed them, but no one ever thinks of making them happy. Not of course our ewn, but those lonely old people who haven't any one to brighten their lives. No one, not even a child, is so sensitive to a slight, nor so easily hurt at being forgotten as are the old, and none are so easerly grateful for any little kindness shown them. Yet Christmas after Christmas, while a city full of children are made happy, our old sit alone and forgotten, in desolate little rooms, bare of so much as a sprig of holly to brighten their old hearts." "This is too bad," cried the Bi Sock energetically. "Something mi be done about it. I'll speak to t be done about it. I'll speak to the boys at the club about this. They are a lot of jolly good fellows and I know they will be interested. Every one has had a mother, you know, and a man wouldn't like to think of his mother, or any other fellow's mother, sitting alone on Christmas ing a cup of tea without even a box ing a cup of tea without even a box of candy to make her happy."

"It is indeed very sad," said the Black Silk Stocking. "I'll speak to the girls about it at once, and I tell you what would be perfectly lovely to de. You get the men at the club to make up a list of all the poor old people they can, and out up some boxes with cards on them, say, for instance. Christmas for the other Felsen buy the turkeys and things for their Christmas dinners and send them lit-tle presents besides, led with helly and red ribbons and with little personal notes."

"Oh, that is very simple. Have each man at the club have his pastor make out a list for him." And the Black Silk Stocking concealed a malicious

BARBARA BLAIR. One of the riskiest things about proposing to a girl is how she will proba-

Cleanses, preserves and beautifies the teeth, and Purifies the breath A superior dentifrice for people of refinement Established in 1866 by 1 9. Lyon, D.D.S.

OPEN AT NIGHT

Por children of every age. China and Nickel Ware Gifts suitable for the older ones.

D. RIGGAN COMPANY

TOYS